ARTICLE 2

PURPOSE AND INTENT

- A. The general purpose of this Agreement is to set forth terms and conditions of employment, and to promote orderly and peaceful labor relations for the mutual interest of the Employer, all the employees of local 989, and the Union.
- B. The parties recognize that the interest of the community and the job security of the employees depend upon the Employer's and employees' success in establishing a proper service to the community.
- C. To these ends, the Employer and the Union encourage, to the fullest degree, friendly and cooperative relations between the respective representatives at all levels and among all employees.
- D. Employees of Local 989 have the responsibility of maintaining good cleaning practices, reporting in writing suspected hazards to their supervisor (who shall be responsible for further investigation), to share with management the responsibility for overall neatness and cleanliness of the district's physical surroundings.

RECOGNITION

The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent, as defined in Section II, Article 336, Public Acts, 1947, as amended, for the purpose of establishing salaries, wages, hours, and other conditions of employment for all of its non-certified employees in the Van Dyke School District, excluding noon-aides, secretarial and supervisory employees.

ARTICLE 4

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- A. The Board, on behalf of the electors of the district, hereby retains and reserves unto itself, without limitation, all powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities conferred upon and vested in it by the laws and the Constitution of the State of Michigan, and of the United States, including, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the right:
- (1) To the executive management and administrative control of the school system, its properties, facilities, and employees during working hours.
 - (2) To hire all employees and subject to the provisions of law, to determine their qualifications.
 - (3) To decide upon the means and methods of maintenance, the selection of materials, equipment, supplies, and the use thereof.
- B. The exercise of the foregoing powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities by the Board, the adoption of policies, rules, regulations and practices in furtherance thereof, and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith, shall be limited primarily by the specific and express terms of this agreement and then only to the extent such specific and express terms thereof are in conformance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Michigan, and the Constitution and laws of the United States.

ARTICLE 5

UNION SECURITY

- A. Within thirty (30) calendar days following the completion of the probationary period, bargaining unit employees shall pay either membership dues or a representation service fee in an amount established by the Union. The deduction of dues and representation service fees shall be considered as required under the terms and conditions of this agreement. The Employer shall accordingly deduct dues and representation service fees pursuant to the authority set forth in M.C.L.A. 408.477.
- B. The amounts to be deducted shall be certified to the employer by the treasurer of the Union, and the aggregate deductions of all employees shall be remitted, together with an itemized statement, to the treasurer by the 10th of the (current/succeeding) month, after such deductions are made.
- C. The Employer will provide notice to the Union Financial Secretary of any changes in pay rates. In September each year, the Employer will provide a list of names and work times of employees working twenty (20) hours or less per week. Notice will be provided at other times when the hours of such employees change.
- D. Two (2) weeks notice shall be given to the payroll department as to dues or service fee deductions. Deductions shall be made once each month.
- E. The Union agrees to reimburse the Employer for the amount of money deducted by the district and paid to the union, which deduction is determined to be illegal or is in excess of a proper deduction.
- F. The Union further agrees to hold harmless the district, employees, and members of the Van Dyke Board of Education from any and all liabilities, losses, claims, damages, or expenses arising out of the dues or service fee deduction by the Employer pursuant to this Article.

ARTICLE 6

DISCHARGE AND SUSPENSION

- A. The Employer shall not discharge any employee without just cause. If, in any case, the Employer feels that there is just cause for discharge, the employee involved will be suspended up to a maximum of two (2) days without pay. The employee and his steward will be notified, in writing, that the employee has been suspended and is subject to discharge.
- B. The union shall have the right to take up the suspension and/or discharge as a grievance at the third step of the grievance procedure, and the matter shall be handled in accordance with this procedure through the arbitration step if deemed necessary by the union.
- C. Any employee found to be unjustly suspended or discharged shall be reinstated with full compensation for all lost time and with full restoration of all other rights and conditions of employment. - E. The Union recognizes that the management duty of the Employer for the selection and direction of the work force includes the right to hire, suspend, or discharge for just cause.
- F. If the Employer or the union reasonably believes the action taken to be unwarranted, an appeal may be made through the grievance procedure.
- G. If an immediate supervisor believes that an employee should be given a warning that will lead to disciplinary action, he/she shall call a conference for that purpose. The employee shall have the right to union representation at the conference. If any employee is warned or suspended, in writing, he/she shall acknowledge by signing the letter of reprimand--union official also signs. Signing of this letter does not acknowledge agreement with disciplinary action. The union president shall receive a copy of such written warning.
- H. It is understood that matters of discipline, discharge, and warning are rights of the Employer and shall be meted out in accordance with the seriousness of the alleged offense at the time. A time limitation of three (3) years shall be the maximum period for which past disciplinary action shall be used in later cases involving further discipline. However, any action taken by the Employer will be for just cause and such action shall be subject to the grievance procedure.
- I. Article 6 shall not apply to probationary employees.

ARTICLE 7

GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

- A. Any grievance or dispute which may arise between the parties, including the application, meaning, or interpretation of this agreement shall be presented to the Employer within five (5) working days of the date of the grievance or the employee's or union's knowledge of its occurrence and shall be settled in the following manner.
- B. The time limits specified hereinafter for movement of grievances through the process shall be strictly adhered to and may be relaxed or extended only by mutual consent of the parties, in writing. In the event that the union fails to appeal a grievance or grievance answer within the particular time limit, the involved grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned and settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. In the event that the Employer shall fail to supply the union with its answer to the particular step within the specified time limits, the grievance shall be deemed automatically awarded to the employee.

All specified time limits herein shall consist only of workdays.

- C. (Step I)

Upon the completion of the discussion, if the problem is not resolved to the satisfaction of the employee, the employee shall have the right to call his Steward if one is assigned to the building or otherwise, he will call the Chief Steward or Alternate Chief Steward. The two will be allowed to converse and if a grievance exists, the employee and steward or chief steward or alternate, will meet with the immediate supervisor (shift Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds, Director of Food Services, or designated representative) to try and reach a solution to the problem. The supervisor will make every attempt to settle the matter. If the problem is not settled to the satisfaction of the grievant and the Union, the grievance shall be submitted to the supervisor, in writing, within five (5) working days from the date of the meeting. The supervisor shall respond to the steward, in writing, within five (5) working days.

The Superintendent will meet with the Vice-President, Chief Steward, or Alternate, and President within five (5) working days. ARTICLE 7 (continued)

(Step IV)

A meeting on the grievance will then take place at the next regular meeting of the Board, or special meeting of the Board for which proper notification can be given. The Board will render a written decision on the dispute to the Union within five (5) days after the occurrence of said meeting.

(Step V)

If the dispute still remains unresolved after completion of the foregoing procedure and on the basis of the Board's answer, the Union shall be permitted to submit the grievance, within thirty (30) days, to final and binding arbitration. The arbitrator shall be selected through the American Arbitration Association. Expenses for the arbitrator's services and the proceedings shall be borne equally by the employer and the union. However, each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing they pay for the record and make copies available, without charge, to the arbitrator and to the other party.

Failure by the grieving party to take any step under the grievance procedure, within the time prescribed, shall be deemed to constitute a withdrawal of the grievance. Final and binding arbitration applies only to grievances which are alleged to be violations of a specific article and section of this agreement. The arbitrator shall have no power to alter, modify, add to, or subtract from the provisions of this agreement.

- D. The Chief Steward, or Alternate, may investigate and process grievances during working hours without loss of pay. The chief steward, or alternate, or those involved in processing grievances shall notify their immediate supervisor (Principal, Supervisor of Plant Operations, or Food Service Director) when leaving their normal work station. If, in the judgment of management, time lost due to the processing of grievances is being abused; this matter will be subject to renegotiation.

ARTICLE 8

However, when management and the union agree that an extended time is beneficial to all parties, an extension will be agreed upon. Seniority shall prevail when the employee has the ability and the qualifications necessary to perform the job.

B. Seniority shall be applied on a district-wide basis within each occupational group. The occupational groups shall be:

1. Custodial/Maintenance; Bus Drivers
2. Cafeteria
3. Bus Drivers (10 month)

(Although parking lot attendants are not members of the bargaining unit, ten-month bus drivers will be given the opportunity to apply for any parking lot attendant vacancies, at substitute wages, prior to hiring outside applicants. The ten-month bus driver may revert back upon a three-day notice.)

When an employee moves from one occupational group to another occupational group, the employee's seniority for transfers and promotions shall begin with the first day worked in the new occupational group. The employee's seniority in the former occupational group shall be frozen. If an employee moves back to his/her original occupational group, he/she shall assume the seniority he/she had before moving to the new occupational group. For computation of all fringe benefits, the employee's seniority shall be from the last date of hire with the District regardless of the occupational group the employee is in.

C. All employees will be eligible to bid on all new jobs and vacancies at any time as long as the position is in a higher paying classification. An employee will be eligible to bid on new jobs and vacancies in the same classification or lower paying classification every six (6) months. Should an employee withdraw his/her bid at the time the bids are open, or thereafter, the employee will be prohibited from bidding on new jobs or vacancies for a period of six (6) months. An external applicant will not be hired over an otherwise qualified internal applicant hired prior to March 1, 1996, from another occupational group who has the ability to do the work unless:

1. The external applicant has more than twenty-four (24) months of successful job related experience; and

2. The internal applicant has not accumulated at least ninety (90) work days of experience within the position being sought as a substitute under Article 14, section F within the preceding three (3) years.

- D. The employee who will fill the new job or vacancy shall be notified, in writing, of his/her transfer or promotion. The union president will be sent a copy.
- E. The successful bidder on a job shall be given a trial period of up to forty-five (45) working days, excluding June, July and August, with the exception of skilled trades, in which to demonstrate his/her ability to satisfactorily meet standards and to perform the duties of the job. If management reverts the employee, he/she shall have the right to implement the grievance procedure. The senior employee in the vacated building shall assume the higher position, if he/she so desires, until the position is filled.

Voluntary transfers, after the three (3) posting, shall be granted with the approval of the Assistant Superintendent of Business Affairs or his designated representative. Employees requesting such transfers shall not have the right to revert to their former position as described in paragraph "D" above. All bids on jobs shall be in writing. Any employee withdrawing a bid shall do so in writing. Management agrees to provide a written notice of the next vacancy after three (3) posting. Employees desiring a transfer after three (3) posting must request such transfer, in writing, within two (2) working days after the notice is posted.
- G. The Special Education Custodian is a ten (10) month employee.
- H. Employees directed by the Supervisor of Plant Operations to work out of their normal classification in a higher classification, shall receive the higher pay for that period (if no helper rate is listed, the employee shall receive the skilled rate). It is agreed that this provision applies only to the work normally performed by the employees in the higher classification and does not include minor carpentry, painting, electrical, and grounds work that is normally performed by building custodians or bus driver/maintenance personnel. It is further agreed that the higher rate of pay will only apply when the employee is performing a function that involves a specific skill required in the higher classification. The higher rate of pay for ground's work shall apply only when the employee operates mechanical ground's equipment, excluding hand operated power lawnmowers. If an employee is assigned on a temporary day-to-day basis in a lower classification, he/she shall receive his/her normal rate of pay. This provision does not apply to a reduction in the work force.

Preference shall be given to dependents of members of the bargaining unit. Employees whose work assignment is less than twelve (12) months shall receive the same rate of pay as their ten (10) month job, but will not be eligible for benefits not otherwise authorized.

EXHIBIT A

PRORATED VACATION PAY

Example: If an employee is eligible for ten (10) vacation days per year (10/12 months = 8.33 days) and worked two (2) hours per day for 183 days, the following is the computation for prorated vacation pay:

Days worked: 183 x 2 hours per day = 366 hours worked per year divided by the maximum hours a cafeteria employee could work.

$$\frac{366 \text{ hours worked}}{1,464 \text{ maximum hours}} = 25\%$$

$$8.333 \times 25\% = 2.083 \text{ days earned}$$

$$\begin{aligned} &\text{days earned (2.083)} \times 8 \text{ hours} \\ &\times \text{hourly rate of pay} = $ \underline{\hspace{2cm}} \end{aligned}$$
