AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, executed this _____ day of _____, 1997, by and between THE EIGHTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT COURT (hereinafter referred to as the "Employer") and the UNITED STEELWORKERS OF AMERICA (hereinafter referred to as the "Union").

RECOGNITION

Section 1.0. Collective Bargaining Unit. The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive representative for the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, and other conditions of employment for all employees employed by the Employer included in the following bargaining unit:

All full time Receptionist-Clerks, Friend of the Court Investigators, Support Investigators, Computer Operators, Court Administrative Aides, Typist Clerk II, Secretary, Circuit Court Clerks, Support Enforcement Coordinators, Senior Administrative Aide, Stenographers, the Accounts & Computer Operations Coordinator employed by the Eighteenth Judicial Circuit Court, BUT EXCLUDING Circuit Court Judges, Friend of the Court, Court Administrator, and all other supervisors, including the Attorney-Assistant Friend of the Court and Assistant Friend of the Court-Office Manager; all professional employees, including Family Counselors and Law Clerk/Bailiffs; all Judicial Secretary/Court Recorders, the Coordinator of the Office of Assigned Counsel, confidential, temporary, and seasonal employees, and all other employees.

REPRESENTATION

Section 2.0. Collective Bargaining Committee. The Employer agrees to recognize not more than two (2) nonprobationary employees, including the Unit Chairperson, covered by this Agreement to act as a Collective Bargaining Committee. No more than one (1) member of the Collective Bargaining Committee shall be from the Friend of the Court's Office, unless there are no additional employees outside the Friend of the Court Office who wish to serve. Members of the Collective Bargaining Committee shall act in a representative capacity for the purpose of collective bargaining negotiations with the Employer and shall also function as the Union's employee representatives at Step 4 of the Grievance Procedure. The Union shall, in advance, furnish the Employer in writing with the names of its Collective Bargaining Committee members. Employee members of the Collective Bargaining Committee shall be compensated at their straight time rate of pay for all time actually lost from work during collective bargaining negotiations with the Employer and for time actually lost from work during meetings with the Employer at Step 4 of the Grievance Procedure.

Section 2.1. Unit Chairperson.

(a) The Employer hereby agrees to recognize the Unit Chairperson, who shall be a member of the Collective Bargaining Committee, and one (1) alternate for the Unit Chairperson, each of whom shall have one (1) year's seniority, to act as grievance representatives under this Agreement. The Unit Chairperson's alternate may exercise the functions of the Unit Chairperson under this Agreement only if the Unit Chairperson is absent. It shall be the function of such individuals to act in a representative capacity for the purpose of processing and investigating grievances for employees covered by this Agreement.

(b) The Union agrees that the Unit Chairperson and his alternate will continue to perform their regularly assigned duties and that their responsibilities as Union representatives will not be used to avoid those duties. They shall act in a manner which will not disrupt nor interfere with the normal functions of the Employer. If it is necessary for the Unit Chairperson or his alternate to temporarily leave his assignment to process a grievance, he shall first request permission of his immediate supervisor. In the event it is necessary for the Unit Chairperson to remain on his job after a request to handle a grievance is made, he shall be relieved to perform his representative duties as quickly thereafter as possible; both parties to this Agreement recognize a rule of reason must apply in this regard.

(c) All members of the Collective Bargaining Committee and the alternate for the Unit Chairperson shall be expected to record all time spent performing their functions under this Agreement on a form designated by the Employer and shall report to their immediate supervisor upon return to their regularly assigned duties.

(d) The Employer agrees to compensate the Unit Chairperson and his alternate at their straight time regular rate of pay for all reasonable time lost from their regularly scheduled working hours while processing a grievance in accordance with the Grievance Procedure. If the Unit Chairperson or his alternate abuses the privileges extended herein, and, if the abuse is not corrected, the privilege may be revoked by the Employer.

Section 2.2. Identification of Union Representatives. The Union will furnish the Employer in writing with the names of all officials of the Union responsible for administering this Agreement and whatever changes may occur from time to time in such personnel so that the Employer may at all times be advised as to the authority of individual representatives of the Union with whom it may be dealing. This identification shall be made in advance of the Employer's recognition of the authority of such individuals to act under this Agreement.

UNION SECURITY

Section 3.0. Agency Shop. As a condition of continued employment, all employees included in the collective bargaining unit set forth in Section 1.0 shall, thirty (30) days after the execution of this Agreement or thirty (30) days following the beginning of their employment, whichever is later, either become members of the Union and pay to the Union the periodic monthly dues and initiation fees uniformly required of all Union members or, in the alternative, pay to the Union a service fee equal to their fair share of the costs of initiation fees uniformly required of all Union members or, in the alternative, pay to the Union a service fee equal to their fair share of the costs of negotiating and administering this Agreement but which shall not exceed the Union's periodic monthly dues. For purposes of this Section, service fees shall not include initiation fees or special assessments of any kind.

Section 3.1. Union Membership. Membership in the Union is not compulsory and is a matter separate, distinct, and apart from an employee's obligation to share equally in the costs of administering and negotiating this Agreement. All employees have the right to join, not join, maintain, or drop their membership in the Union as they see fit. The Union recognizes, however, that it is required under this Agreement to represent all employees included within the collective bargaining unit set forth in the Agreement without regard to whether or not the employee is a member of the Union.

Section 3.2. Payroll Deduction for Union Dues or Service Fees.

(a) During the life of this Agreement, the Employer agrees to deduct or cause to be deducted periodic monthly Union membership dues and initiation fees uniformly levied in accordance with the Constitution and the By-Laws of the Union or the service fee equivalent to the periodic monthly dues uniformly required of all Union members from each employee covered by this Agreement who executes and files with the Employer a proper checkoff authorization form.

(b) Individual authorization forms shall be furnished or approved by the Union and, when executed, filed by it with the Employer.

(c) Deductions shall be made only in accordance with the provisions of the written authorization form, together with the provisions of this Section.

(d) A properly executed copy of the written authorization form for each employee for whom Union periodic membership dues and initiation fees or the service fee equivalent to the periodic monthly dues uniformly required of all Union members are to be deducted hereunder shall be delivered to the Employer before any payroll deductions are made. Deductions shall be made thereafter only under the written authorization forms which have been properly executed and are in effect. Any authorization form which lacks the employee's signature will be returned to the Union by the Employer.

(e) All authorizations filed with the Employer on or before the first (1st) day of the month shall become effective the second (2nd) pay period of that month, provided the employee has sufficient net earnings to cover the Union dues or service fees, whichever is applicable. An authorization filed thereafter shall become effective with the second (2nd) pay period of the following month. Deductions for any calendar month shall be remitted to the designated financial officer of the Union not later than five (5) days following the second (2nd) pay period.

(f) In cases in which a deduction is made which duplicates a payment already made to the Union or where a deduction is not in conformity with the Union's Constitution and By-Laws, refunds to the employee will be made by the Union.

(g) The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the proper amount of Union membership dues and initiation fees or the service fee equivalent to the periodic monthly dues uniformly required of all Union members and any subsequent changes in such amounts. The Employer agrees to furnish the Union a monthly record of those employees for whom deductions have been made, together with the amount deducted for each employee.

(h) If a dispute arises as to whether or not an employee has properly executed or properly revoked a written checkoff authorization form, no further deductions will be made until the matter is resolved.

(i) The Employer shall not be responsible for dues, initiation fees, or payment of the service fee equivalent to the periodic monthly dues required of all Union members after an employee's employment relationship has been terminated or while an employee is on leave of absence or layoff status.

(j) The Employer shall not be liable to the Union or its members for any membership dues, initiation fees, or the service fee equivalent to the periodic monthly dues once such sums have been remitted to the Union and, further, shall not be liable if such sums are lost when remitted by United States mail.

Section 3.3. Hold Harmless. The Union shall indemnify, defend, and save the Employer and Bay County's public officials and officers harmless against any and all claims, suits, or other forms of liability arising out of the deduction of initiation fees, Union membership dues, or service fees pursuant to Section 3.2 or by reason of action taken by the Employer pursuant to Section 3.0.

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Section 4.0. Rights. It is understood and hereby agreed that the Employer reserves and retains, solely and exclusively, all inherent and customary rights, powers, functions, and authority of management to manage the judicial operations of the Court and its judgment in these respects shall not be subject to challenge. These rights vested in the Employer include, but are not limited to, those provided by statute or law, along with right to determine all matters pertaining to the services to be furnished and the methods, procedures, means, employees or otherwise, equipment, and machines required to provide such services; to determine the nature and number of facilities and departments to be operated and their locations; to establish classifications of work; to hire and reduce or increase the size of the work force; to adopt, modify, or amend its budget or any appropriation; to direct and control operations; to discontinue, combine, or reorganize any part or all of its operations; to maintain order and efficiency; to study and use improved methods and equipment and outside assistance either in or out of the Employer's facilities, and in all respects to carry out the ordinary and customary functions of management. The Employer shall also have the right to promote, demote, assign, transfer, suspend, discipline, discharge, layoff, and recall personnel; to establish reasonable work rules and to fix and determine penalties for violation of such rules; to make judgments as to ability and skill; to establish and change work schedules; to provide and assign relief personnel and to continue and maintain its operations as in the past. The exercise of the foregoing powers, rights, authority, duties, and responsibilities by the Employer, the adoption of policies, rules, regulations, and practices in furtherance thereof, and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith shall not be subject to review by means of arbitration or any judicial proceeding and this Agreement shall always be construed in conformance with the Constitution, the laws of the State of Michigan, the rules and orders of the Supreme Court of the State of Michigan, and the Constitution and the laws of the United States. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, the Employer hereby reserves and retains all of its inherent and lawful rights, responsibilities, and authority under applicable Michigan laws and the rules and orders of the Michigan Supreme Court or any other supervising or superior Court, or any other national, state, county, district, or local law or regulation as they pertain to the Court.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 5.0. Definition of Grievance. For purposes of this Agreement, "grievance" means any dispute regarding the meaning, interpretation, or alleged violation of the terms and provisions of this Agreement as written. Employees or the Union shall have the right to file grievances under the procedures established herein. Grievances involving more than one (1) employee which allege a violation of the same provision or provisions of this Agreement and which seek the same remedy may be filed by the Union. All such grievances shall be designated as a "group grievance." The Union shall identify in writing, no later than Step 2 of this Procedure, the names of all individuals affected by a "group grievance" and consideration of the "group grievance" shall, thereafter, be limited to the individuals so named.

Section 5.1. Grievance Procedure. The exclusive method for resolving all grievances arising under this Agreement shall be as follows:

(a) Step 1. An employee with a grievance shall, within five (5) calendar days of the occurrence which gave rise to the grievance or within five (5) calendar days of the date the employee first reasonably should have known of the events which gave rise to the grievance, discuss it with his immediate supervisor with the object of resolving the matter informally. If requested, the Unit Chairperson may be present. For purposes of this Step, the term "immediate supervisor" shall mean those individuals holding the positions listed below:

Court Administrator's Office: Court Administrator

Friend of the Court's Office: Office Manager for the Friend of the Court's Office

Court Clerks:

Circuit Court Judge to whom the Court Clerk is assigned by the Employer

(b) Step 2. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 1, it shall be reduced to writing, setting forth the facts and specific provisions of this Agreement alleged to have been violated, signed by the aggrieved employee, and, within three (3) calendar days following the verbal discussion in Step 1, presented to the Chief Judge; if the grievance involves the Friend of the Court's Office, it shall be presented to the Friend of the Court within three (3) calendar days following the verbal discussion in Step 1. The Chief Judge or the Friend of the Court, or their respective designees, whichever is appropriate, shall meet with the Unit Chairperson at a mutually agreeable date and time to discuss the grievance. If mutually agreeable, either party may have non-employee representatives present if desired. The Employer shall place its written disposition upon the grievance and return it to the Unit Chairperson or the employee involved within three (3) calendar days following the meeting with the Employer's representative at this Step.

(c) Step 3. This Step shall apply only to appeals from the Friend of the Court's answer in Step 2. Otherwise, this Step shall be bypassed and, if a grievance remains unresolved by the foregoing procedures, then the provisions of Step 4 shall be followed. If a grievance involving the Friend of the Court's Office is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 2, it may be appealed to this Step by submitting the grievance to the Chief Judge within five (5) calendar days following receipt by the Unit Chairperson or the employee involved of the Employer's written answer in Step 2. The Chief Judge, or his designee, shall meet with the Unit Chairperson at a mutually agreeable date and time to discuss the grievance. The Employer shall place its written disposition upon the grievance and return it to the Unit Chairperson or the employee involved within five (5) calendar days following the meeting with the Employer's representative at this Step.

(d) Step 4. If a grievance has not been resolved by the foregoing procedures, it may be appealed to this Step by delivering to the Chief Judge a written request for a meeting concerning the grievance within five (5) calendar days following receipt by the Unit Chairperson or the employee involved of the Employer's written answer in Step 2 or Step 3, whichever Step was appropriate for the grievance under consideration. Within ten (10) calendar days after the grievance has been appealed to this Step, a meeting shall be held between representatives of the Employer and Union. The Employer's representative shall be the Chief Judge. The Union's representatives shall be the Bargaining Committee. Either party may have nonemployee representatives present if desired. If the meeting cannot be held within the ten (10) calendar day period, it shall be scheduled for a date mutually convenient to the parties. At the conclusion of the conference, the Chief Judge shall signify in writing the Employer's final response to the grievance. The Chief Judge's answer shall be final and binding upon all parties concerned and there shall be no further appeal, in any forum, by the Union or employees involved.

Section 5.2. Expedited Disciplinary Grievances.

(a) Should an employee who has been given a disciplinary suspension or who has been discharged consider such discipline to be improper, a written grievance may, within three (3)

calendar days following the date such discipline is imposed, be filed at Step 4 of the Grievance Procedure. The parties shall meet at the earliest possible date which is mutually convenient in an attempt to resolve the matter. The Employer's representative shall be the Chief Judge. The Union's representatives shall be the Bargaining Committee. Either party may have nonemployee representatives present, if desired. The discharged or suspended individual may also be present if either party so desires. As soon as possible following the meeting, the Employer shall signify in writing, signed by three (3) Judges, its final response to the grievance.

(b) All grievances relating to the disciplinary suspension or discharge of an employee must be presented within the time limits contained in this Section. Any grievance which is not presented within these time limits shall be considered abandoned. All other disciplinary grievances shall follow the normal Grievance Procedure.

Section 5.3. Time Limitations. The time limits established in the Grievance Procedure shall be followed by the parties. If the Union fails to present a grievance in time or fails to advance it to the next Step in a timely manner, it shall be considered resolved on the basis of the Employer's last disposition. If the time procedure is not followed by the Employer, the grievance shall automatically advance to the next Step. The time limits established in the Grievance Procedure may be extended by mutual agreement, provided the extension request is reduced to writing and the period of the extension is specified.

Section 5.4. Time Computation. Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays recognized under this Agreement shall not be counted under the time procedures established in the Grievance Procedure.

Section 5.5. Grievance Settlements. With respect to the processing, disposition, or settlement of any grievance initiated under this Agreement, and with respect to any court action claiming or alleging a violation of this Agreement, the Union shall be the sole and exclusive representative of the employee or employees covered by this Agreement. The disposition or settlement, by and between the Employer and the Union, of any grievance or other matter shall constitute a full and complete settlement thereof and shall be final and binding upon the Union and its members, the employee or employees involved, and the Employer. The satisfactory settlement of all grievances shall be reduced to writing and shall be written on or attached to each copy of the written grievance and signed by the representatives involved. Unless otherwise expressly stated, all such settlements shall be without precedence for any future grievance.

Section 5.6. Grievance Form. The grievance form has been mutually agreed upon by the Employer and the Union.

Section 5.7. Lost Time. The Employer agrees to pay for all reasonable time lost by an employee during his regularly scheduled working hours while presenting a grievance pursuant to the Grievance Procedure, provided, however, the Employer reserves the right to revoke this benefit if the privilege is being abused. Lost time shall be compensated at the employee's straight time regular rate of pay.

DISCIPLINE

Section 6.0. Discipline. The Union acknowledges that under the Constitutions of the United States and the State of Michigan, the laws of the State of Michigan, and the Judicial rules and orders of the Michigan Supreme Court, the Eighteenth Judicial Circuit Court is responsible for the fair, impartial, and swift administration of the system of justice for all cases coming within its jurisdiction. Therefore, the Union acknowledges that the Employer has reserved the unqualified and unlimited right to discharge, suspend, and discipline employees for any reason whatsoever and the exclusive remedy for any such action shall be the Grievance Procedure.

NO STRIKE - NO LOCKOUT

Section 7.0. No Strike Pledge. The parties to this Agreement mutually recognize that the services performed by the employees covered by this Agreement are essential to the public health, safety, and welfare. Therefore, the Union agrees that during the term of this Agreement neither it nor its officers, representatives, members, or employees it represents shall, for any reason whatsoever, directly or indirectly, call, sanction, counsel, encourage, or engage in any strike, walk-out, sympathy strike, picketing of the Employer's buildings, offices, or premises, slowdown, sit-in, or stay-away; nor shall there be any concerted failure by them to report for duty; nor shall they absent themselves from work, abstain, in whole or in part, from the full, faithful, and proper performance of their duties, or any acts that interfere in any manner or to any degree with the services of the Employer. No employee covered by this Agreement shall refuse to cross any picket line, whether established at the Employer's building or premises or at any other location where employees covered by this Agreement are expected to work.

Section 7.1. Penalty. Any employee who violates the provisions of Section 7.0 shall be subject to discipline by the Employer, up to and including discharge.

Section 7.2. No Lockout. During the life of this Agreement, the Employer, in consideration for the promise on behalf of the Union and the employees it represents to refrain from the conduct prohibited by Section 7.0, agrees not to lock out any employees covered by this Agreement.

SENIORITY

Section 8.0. Definition of Seniority. Seniority shall be defined as the length of an employee's continuous service with the Eighteenth Judicial Circuit Court since the employee's last date of hire. An employee's "last date of hire" shall be the most recent date upon which he first commenced work. Employees who commence work on the same date shall be placed on the seniority list in alphabetical order of surnames. The application of seniority shall be limited to the preferences and benefits specifically recited in this Agreement.

Section 8.1. Probationary Period. All employees shall be considered probationary employees until the employee has completed six (6) months of work. During the probationary period, the employee may be terminated without recourse to or without regard to this Agreement, and for no reason or any reason, and shall not be entitled to the benefits of the grievance procedure as it relates to discipline and/or discharge. Upon completion of such probationary period, the employee's name shall be placed on the seniority list as of his/her last date of hire; provided, however, that if an employee is absent from work in excess of ten (10) working days, his/her probationary period shall be extended by a period equal to the duration of such absence. The Union may represent probationary employees for matters other than discipline or discharge.

Section 8.2. Seniority and Benefit Accumulation. All nonprobationary employees covered by this Agreement shall continue to accumulate seniority for all purposes, including benefits, while on leaves of absence or layoffs of sixty (60) calendar days or less. Unless otherwise specifically stated to the contrary in another Section of this Agreement, employees shall not continue to accumulate seniority for any purpose, including benefits, on any leave of absence or layoff lasting in excess of sixty (60) calendar days. Upon return from a leave of absence or layoff lasting longer than sixty (60) calendar days, an employee's seniority date and eligibility dates for all benefits will be adjusted forward to take into account the length of the employee's absence, provided, however, the employee shall be given credit on his seniority and benefit eligibility dates for the first (1st) sixty (60) days of his absence.

Section 8.3. Loss of Seniority. An employee's seniority and employment relationship with the Employer shall automatically terminate for any of the following reasons:

- (a) If he quits or retires;
- (b) If he is terminated or discharged;
- (c) If he is absent from work for three (3) consecutive working days, unless an acceptable excuse is presented;
- (d) If he fails for three (3) consecutive working days to notify the Employer that he will not be reporting for work, unless an acceptable excuse is presented;
- (e) If he fails to return on the required date following an approved leave of absence, vacation, or disciplinary layoff, unless an acceptable excuse is presented;
- (f) If he fails to report for work within ten (10) working days following notification of recall by certified mail, return receipt requested, sent to his last known address;
- (g) If he fails to inform the Employer within seven (7) working days following receipt of notification of recall that he intends to return to work for the Employer;

(h) If he makes an intentionally false and material statement on his employment application or on an application for leave of absence;

(i) If he has less than five (5) years' seniority at the time of layoff and has been on layoff status for a period of one (1) year;

(j) If he has five (5) or more years' seniority at the time of layoff and has been on layoff status for a period of two (2) years;

(k) If he has been on a leave of absence, including a sick or worker's compensation leave, for a period of six (6) months, provided, however, an employee who has five (5) or more years seniority at the time a sick leave commenced shall not lose his seniority until he has been on such a leave for a period of one (1) year and an employee who has five (5) or more years seniority at the time a worker's compensation leave commenced shall not lost his seniority until he has been on such a leave for a period of two (2) years; and

(l) If he/she is convicted or pleads guilty or no contest to a felony, or to a non-traffic misdemeanor which misdemeanor results in jail time.

Section 8.4. Transfer to Nonbargaining Unit Position. If an employee covered by this Agreement is or was in the past permanently transferred or promoted to a nonbargaining unit position with the Employer, he shall retain his seniority as of the date of the transfer or promotion and he shall, for a period of six (6) months, continue to accumulate additional seniority within the bargaining unit set forth in this Agreement while he is in the nonbargaining unit position. During the first (1st) six (6) months immediately following an employee's transfer or promotion to a nonbargaining unit position, the Employer may demote the employee to his former classification or the employee may request in writing to be relieved of his new position and he shall then be returned to his former classification. The Employer reserves the right to determine all conditions of employment for nonbargaining unit employees, including the right to determine whether or not an employee returns to the bargaining unit. Should an employee be returned to the bargaining unit, his seniority shall be reinstated upon the date of his return and he shall thereafter begin to accumulate additional seniority again. After an employee has been outside the bargaining unit in excess of two (2) years, his bargaining unit seniority shall be canceled and he shall no longer be permitted to return to the bargaining unit with seniority.

Section 8.5. Seniority List. The Employer agrees to post a current seniority list every six (6) months and to furnish a copy to the Union. The seniority list shall be deemed to be correct for all purposes under this Agreement unless a protest has been filed within ten (10) days following the date the seniority list was furnished to the Union.

Section 8.6. Super-Seniority. Notwithstanding his position on the seniority list, the Unit Chairperson recognized under this Agreement shall, during the period he holds office, be the last bargaining unit employee to be laid off and the first bargaining unit employee to be recalled, provided he possesses the necessary skill and ability to perform the remaining required work. It is expressly understood that the Employer is not obligated to make work for the Unit Chairperson.

Section 8.7. Promotional Advancements. Whenever a vacancy occurs in a bargaining unit classification covered by this Agreement or the Employer creates a new bargaining unit classification, the following system shall be followed. Except as otherwise provided in this Section, the purpose of this procedure is to allow full-time non-probationary employees to advance from a given classification to a higher paid classification. Vacancies occasioned by leaves of absence, vacations, or disciplinary layoffs shall not be subject to this Procedure. The Employer shall, in its sole discretion, determine whether a vacancy subject to this Procedure does or does not exist.

(a) Notices of vacancies occurring in the bargaining unit will be posted on the Union bulletin board for a period of three (3) working days. The posting shall, at a minimum, indicate the applicable pay rate or rates and a summary of the requirements for qualification. Interested nonprobationary employees may make application for the vacancy by submitting written notice indicating their intent to the immediate supervisor of the vacant position no later than the end of the posting period.

(b) Vacancies filled by bargaining unit members will be awarded or denied no later than twenty-one (21) working days following completion of the posting period. Awards of a posted vacancy shall be made on the basis of training, qualifications, skill and ability, test results if applicable, and the individual's documented work record. If these factors are substantially equal among two (2) or more applicants, preference shall be given to the most senior qualified bargaining unit employee to apply for the vacancy. For information purposes, the Employer shall furnish the Unit Chairperson with a list of employees who applied for the vacancy involved and notify him as to who was awarded the position.

(c) A non-probationary employee currently in the bargaining unit who is selected to fill a vacancy will be given up to a ninety (90) calendar day trial period to demonstrate his or her ability to satisfactorily perform the work required, as determined by the Employer. During the ninety (90) day trial period, an employee may, on his or her own volition, request in writing to be relieved of his/her new classification and be returned to his/her former classification. If the Employer agrees to allow an employee to return to his/her former classification, pursuant to that employee's request, he/she shall not be eligible to apply for any other vacant positions for a period of twelve (12) months. Employees may also be disqualified by the Employer during the trial period and made to return to their former classification and the decision of the Employer shall be final and binding on the parties.

(d) No employee will be permitted to seek another position through this procedure if he is currently in a ninety (90) day demonstration period as a result of an earlier award under this procedure.

(e) Downward movement by an employee to a lower-rated classification may be allowed within the sole discretion of the Employer which decision shall not be grievable. An employee may be permitted to make a lateral move within the sole discretion of the Employer which decision shall not be grievable.

(f) The parties acknowledge that this Section has application only to the initial vacant classification and to the first (1st) vacant classification resulting from application of this Section.

(g) The Employer may assign an employee to fill the vacancy until the vacant position is awarded. The Employer may fill a vacancy subject to this Procedure from outside the bargaining unit within ninety (90) work days whenever there are no bargaining unit employees who have submitted application for the position involved who are qualified for the vacancy, and also in those circumstances when this Section, by its own terms, has no application.

LAYOFF AND RECALL

Section 9.0. Layoff Procedure. The Employer may layoff employees whenever it deems such action to be necessary. Whenever a reduction in the work force occurs, the following procedure shall be utilized:

(a) Layoffs shall take place on a classification basis. The first employees to be laid off within the bargaining unit classifications shall be probationary employees. Thereafter, the first employees to be laid off in the affected classifications shall be those employees with the least amount of seniority, provided, however, the senior employees retained presently have the necessary training, experience, qualifications, and skill and ability to perform efficiently the remaining required work.

(b) A nonprobationary employee laid off from his classification shall be assigned by the Employer to an equal- or lower-rated classification for which the employee presently has the necessary training, experience, qualifications, skill, and ability to perform the work required, provided the employee reassigned has greater seniority than the employee who will be displaced. A senior employee afforded this displacement right will be paid the salary rate for the equal- or lower-rated classification at the same progression Step he currently holds. Any employee who is eligible to exercise the displacement rights provided for in this subsection and who refuses to accept the reduction to an equal- or lower-rated position shall be considered to have resigned from employment. There shall be no bumping between employees or classifications other than the procedure set forth in this subsection.

Section 9.1. Notification of Layoff. Whenever possible, the Employer agrees to give ten (10) calendar days' advance notification of layoff by personal contact, telephone call, or written communication, any of which shall be confirmed in writing by certified mail to the employee's last known address. A copy of such notification shall be issued to the Unit Chairperson or his alternate. Whenever possible, the notification shall state the anticipated duration of the layoff.

Section 9.2. Recall. In the event the work force is increased, recall to work shall be in reverse order of layoff from the classifications affected by the recall, provided, however, the employee returned to work must be able to perform the required work and must not have lost his recall rights pursuant to Section 8.3.

Section 9.3. Notification of Recall. Notification of recall shall be by personal contact, telephone call, or written communication, any of which shall be confirmed in writing by certified mail to the employee's last known address. A copy of such notification shall be issued to the Unit Chairperson or his alternate. The notice shall set forth the date the recalled employee is expected to return to work.

HOURS OF WORK

Section 10.0. Normal Workweek and Workday. The normal workweek for all full time employees shall consist of forty (40) hours of work performed in the period from Monday through Friday. The normal workday for full time employees shall consist of eight (8) hours of work, exclusive of an unpaid lunch period.

Section 10.1. Workweek and Workday Definitions. Any definition of an employee's normal workweek and workday stated in this Agreement shall not constitute a guarantee by the Employer of any number of hours per workday or per workweek. The Employer specifically reserves the right to reduce the number of hours per workday or per workweek if operating or economic conditions warrant.

Section 10.2. Scheduling. The Employer shall have the right to determine, establish, and modify scheduling and manpower requirements to meet its needs and the public it serves, including staggering starting and quitting times. It is expressly understood that work schedules may be changed whenever operating conditions or economic conditions warrant such change.

Section 10.3. Overtime. All employees shall be expected to work reasonable amounts of overtime upon request. Overtime must be authorized by the employee's immediate supervisor.

Section 10.4. Premium Pay.

(a) Employees covered by this Agreement will be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1-1/2) their straight time regular rate of pay for all hours actually worked in excess of forty (40) in any one (1) workweek.

(b) Time and one-half (1-1/2) an employee's straight time regular rate of pay shall be paid for all hours actually worked in excess of eight (8) hours in any one (1) workday. A workday shall be defined as a twenty-four (24) hour period commencing from the start of an employee's regularly scheduled shift. This definition of a workday shall not apply for purposes of computing entitlement to premium pay where:

(1) An employee's regular shift is changed at his request;

(2) The employee's regular shift has variable starting times or is scheduled on a rotation basis, provided, however, at least eight (8) hours of off-duty time is scheduled between the end of one shift and the start of another.

(c) Time and one-half (1-1/2) an employee's straight time regular rate of pay shall be paid for all hours actually worked on a holiday recognized under this Agreement, plus holiday pay if an employee is otherwise eligible.

(d) Time and one-half (1-1/2) an employee's straight time regular rate of pay shall be paid for all hours actually worked on Saturdays.

(e) All paid but not worked time will not count as "hours actually worked" for purposes of determining an employee's eligibility for premium pay under this Agreement.

Section 10.5. No Duplication or Pyramiding of Premium Rates. There shall be no duplication or pyramiding of the premium rates set forth in any Section of this Agreement with any other Section of this Agreement.

Section 10.6. Lunch Period. All employees shall receive a nonpaid one (1) hour lunch period. Lunch periods may be staggered to accommodate efficient operation.

Section 10.7. Rest Periods. Employees are allowed two (2) fifteen (15) minute rest periods per workday to be taken at the place(s) designated by the Employer during the times scheduled by the Employer to permit continuous and efficient operation.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Section 11.0. Procedure for Requesting Leaves. Employees shall be eligible to apply for leaves of absence after one (1) year of employment with the Employer. Requests for a leave of absence must be submitted in writing by the employee to his immediate supervisor at least ten (10) days in advance of the date the leave is to commence, except in emergency situations. The request for the leave of absence shall state the reason for the leave and the exact dates on which the leave is to begin and end. Authorization or denial of a leave of absence or any extension request shall be furnished to the employee in writing by the Chief Judge or his designee. Any request for an extension of a leave of absence must be submitted in writing to the Employer at least ten (10) days in advance of the expiration date of the original leave, stating the reasons for the extension request and the exact revised date the employee is expected to return to work.

Section 11.1. Purpose of Leaves. It is understood by the parties that leaves of absence are to be used for the purpose intended, and employees shall make their intent known when applying for such leaves. There shall be no duplication or pyramiding of leave benefits or types of absence.

Employees shall not accept employment while on leaves of absence unless agreed to by the Employer. Acceptance of employment or working for another employer without prior approval while on leave of absence shall result in immediate termination of employment with the Employer. All leaves of absence shall be without pay and benefits unless specifically provided to the contrary by the provisions of the Leave Section involved.

Section 11.2. Early Returns from Leave. There shall be no obligation on the part of the Employer to provide work prior to the expiration of any leave of absence granted under this Agreement.

Section 11.3. Active Military Leave. Any full time and nonprobationary employee who enters active service of the Armed Forces of the United States shall receive a military leave without pay as required by law.

Section 11.4. Bereavement Leave of Absence.

(a) Upon request, a nonprobationary employee will be granted a leave of absence, with pay, for up to three (3) days when he would have otherwise been scheduled to work to attend to matters involving a death in the employee's immediate family, provided the employee attends the funeral. For purposes of this subsection, the term "immediate family" is defined as including the employee's:

- Current spouse
- Parents (natural, including the current spouse of an employee's natural parents)
- Children (natural)
- Brother (including half-brother)
- Sister (including half-sister)
- Natural children of the employee's current spouse living with the employee
- Grandparents (natural)
- Grandchildren (natural)
- Current spouse of employee's natural children
- Natural parents of employee's current spouse

(b) A nonprobationary employee will be granted a leave of absence, with pay, for one (1) day when he would otherwise have been scheduled to work to attend the funeral of the following individuals:

- Spouse of the employee's natural brother or sister
- Natural brother or sister of the employee's current spouse
- Natural grandparents of the employee's current spouse
- Natural children of employee's current spouse not living with the employee
- Natural brother or sister of an employee's natural parents

(c) In the Chief Judge's sole discretion, a nonprobationary employee may be granted up to an additional two (2) days paid leave of absence, for a total of five (5) days, to attend to matters involving the death of the employee's current spouse or natural children, provided the employee attends the funeral.

(d) Leaves granted under this Section shall commence on the date of death. An employee excused from work under this Section shall, after making written application, be paid the amount of wages he would have earned by working his straight time hours on such scheduled days of work for which he is excused. Payment shall be made at the employee's current rate of pay, not including premiums.

Section 11.5. Jury Duty. Any nonprobationary employee included within the bargaining unit shall be granted a leave of absence with pay for a maximum of thirty (30) workdays in any one (1) calendar year when he is required to report for jury duty. In order to receive jury duty pay, an employee must: (1) give the Chief Judge and his immediate supervisor advance notice of the time he is to report for jury duty; (2) give satisfactory evidence that he served as a juror at the summons of the Court on the day he claims such pay; and (3) return to work for the remainder of the workday if such service is completed prior to the end of his workday. For each day that an employee serves as a juror when he otherwise would have worked, he shall be paid the difference between any jury duty compensation he receives and his straight time regular wages for time necessarily spent in jury service on the next regularly scheduled pay day after endorsing the jury duty check to the Employer, with the exception of those funds allocated for mileage. Probationary employees shall have their probationary periods extended by the length of time they are on jury duty leave.

Section 11.6. Maternity Leave. Leave of absence for disability due to pregnancy shall be treated the same as any other sick leave.

Section 11.7. Medical Certificates and Examinations.

(a) Employees requesting a leave for sickness or injury or a continuation of sick leave may be required to present proof of illness from a qualified medical practitioner showing the nature of such sickness or injury and the anticipated time off the job. In situations where an employee's physical or mental condition reasonably raises a question as to the employee's capabilities to perform his job, the Employer may require a medical examination, at its expense, and, if cause is found, require the employee to take or remain on sick leave of absence. The Employer may require as a condition of any sick leave, regardless of duration, proof of illness from a qualified medical practitioner setting forth the reasons for the sick leave when there is reason to believe the health or safety of personnel may be affected or that the employee is abusing sick leave. Whenever an employee does not report to work and uses sick leave, the Employer reserves the right to have a supervisor or other representative call at the employee's home to verify the case and make a complete report. Falsification of the proof of illness from a qualified medical practitioner or falsely reporting or setting forth the reasons for the absence shall constitute cause for discipline, up to and including discharge.

(b) An employee returning from a leave of absence of any kind may be required to furnish a physician's statement as to the employee's physical condition and the physician's opinion as to the employee's ability to carry on his duties in a normal fashion. If the employee's condition would interfere with the performance of his duties or might result in injury while working or might result in aggravating the condition, the Employer may refuse reemployment or may place reasonable conditions on reemployment. The Employer may require employees returning from any leave to see a physician designated by the Chief Judge.

Section 11.8. Personal Days.

(a) All full time employees covered by this Agreement shall be permitted five (5) personal days with pay each calendar year once they have completed one (1) year's service. Effective as soon as can be administratively arranged following execution of this Agreement, all full time employees who have completed ten (10) years of service will be granted one (1) additional paid personal day for calendar year 1988. Commencing with calendar year 1989, all full time employees who have completed at least ten (10) years of service shall be permitted six (6) paid personal days each calendar year and all full time employees who have completed fifteen (15) or more years of service shall be permitted seven (7) paid personal days each calendar year.

Effective upon the execution of this agreement in 1997, all full time employees who have completed five (5) years of service will be granted four (4) hours of additional paid personal time per year.

(b) Personal days shall be credited to full time employees on January 1st of each year; the number of such days shall be prorated for employees hired after January 1 on the basis of the time remaining in the calendar year. Employees who use personal days in advance of their anniversary date of hire shall be required to repay the Employer for those days upon termination.

(c) All requests for a personal day must be made to the employee's immediate supervisor twenty-three (23) hours in advance of the date requested unless an emergency exists which prevents the employee from giving the required advance notification. A request for a personal day may be denied if the absence of the employee would unreasonably interfere with the services required to be performed by the Employer.

(d) The use of personal time shall be in no less than one-half (1/2) hour increments.

(e) Personal days do not accumulate from year to year. Further, unused personal days have no monetary value upon separation from employment for any reason.

(f) Nothing in this Section shall be construed to absolve an employee of his responsibility to comply with the required procedures concerning prior notification of absence from work.

Section 11.9. Personal Leave. Full time employees may be granted, in the discretion of the Chief Judge or his designated representative, an unpaid personal leave of absence for good cause shown in writing, for other than Family and Medical Leave Act purposes.

Section 11.10. Unpaid Leave. There shall not be any unpaid time off allowed until an employee has used all of his/her earned vacation and personal time. After the exhaustion of all of the earned vacation and personal time, it shall be with the Employer's discretion whether or not to allow an employee to take unpaid time off except as required under the Family and Medical Leave Act.

Section 11.11. Reserve Training Leave. A full time nonprobationary employee with reserve status in the Armed Forces of the United States or membership in the Michigan National Guard who is called to participate in training sessions shall be permitted leave for this purpose. He shall furnish to the Employer, in writing, a statement of the total amount of Government compensation received for this service during this period. If such Government compensation does not equal the employee's straight time earnings, exclusive of all premiums, which the employee would have otherwise earned by working on the scheduled days of work for which he was excused, he shall be paid the difference by the Employer for a period not to exceed ten (10) working days in any one (1) calendar year. Any additional time which an employee may be required to serve or attend military meetings shall not be compensated by the Employer. Reserve training leave shall be in addition to any vacation time to which the employee may be entitled, but vacation leave may not be scheduled consecutively with reserve training leave unless the Employer gives prior approval. An employee must submit to his immediate supervisor and the Chief Judge a copy of his order to report for reserve training prior to such leave being granted.

Section 11.12. Union Business Leave.

(a) An unpaid leave of absence will be granted to not more than one (1) full time employee with at least one (1) year's seniority who is elected or appointed to a full time position with the Union. The duration of such leave shall not exceed six (6) months unless a renewal of the leave is granted by the Chief Judge.

(b) The Employer also agrees to grant a maximum total of fifteen (15) unpaid leave days of absence each year to be used by the Bargaining Committee to attend Union conventions, training seminars, and business meetings. Requests for such leave must be given to the Chief Judge, in writing, at least seven (7) days in advance of the period requested. Such time off must not unreasonably interfere with the services required to be performed by the Employer.

(a) The employee must otherwise have been scheduled to work on such day if it had not been observed as a holiday;

(c) An employee who agrees to work on a holiday but fails to report for work shall not be entitled to holiday pay and shall be subject to other disciplinary action;

However, if the holiday falls on a Saturday and if Friday is also a recognized holiday, then the recognized holiday shall be the preceding Thursday and Friday. If the holiday falls on a Sunday and if Monday is also a holiday, then the recognized holidays shall be the following Monday and Tuesday.

Section 13.0. Vacation Benefit. All full time employees covered by this Agreement who have the required seniority as of January 1 of each year and have worked for the Employer as set forth below in this Agreement shall be granted a vacation with pay in accordance with the following schedule, provided they have worked the requisite and qualifying number of hours as set forth below in this Agreement:

In order to be eligible for full vacation benefits, an employee must have actually worked for the Employer during the immediate year preceding the January 1 determination date a total of at least 1,440 straight time hours. Should any employee fail to qualify for a vacation in accordance with the foregoing plan solely because of the requirement as to hours, he shall receive a percentage of his vacation pay on the basis that the relationship his straight time hours actually worked bears to 1,440, provided he works a minimum of 288 hours.

Section 13.2. New Hires. Full time employees who fail to qualify for a vacation in accordance with the foregoing plan because they have not completed one (1) year of employment on the January 1 determination date shall receive a vacation with either full or partial vacation pay benefits following completion of their first (1st) year of employment. To be eligible for vacation pay benefits in such circumstances, an employee must have actually worked at least 288 straight time hours the calendar year immediately preceding the January 1 determination date which falls within his first (1st) year of employment. An employee eligible for vacation pay benefits under this Section shall receive a pro rata or full vacation benefit based upon the ratio which the number of straight time hours he actually worked between his most recent date of hire and the January 1 determination date falling within his first (1st) year of employment bears to 1,440. Section 13.3. Vacation Scheduling. Eligible employees may schedule time off for their vacation during the twelve (12) months following the January 1st vacation determination date each year upon proper notice as determined by the Employer's rules, provided that, in the opinion of the Employer, such time off does not unreasonably interfere with efficient operation and the Employer's obligations to the public generally. Requests for vacations shall be made to the employee's immediate supervisor at least thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the requested vacation period whenever five (5) or more working days are sought. The Employer may, in its sole discretion, waive the thirty (30) days notification in appropriate circumstances. In all other instances, an employee must give a minimum of three (3) working days' advance notice and secure the approval of his immediate supervisor before actually using vacation time. If an employee does not submit a vacation request, the Employer may assign a vacation time for the employee. In case of conflict between employees who have properly submitted their applications for vacation leave, the employee with the greatest seniority shall be given preference, provided, however, in all circumstances, requests for vacation time off in a "block" of five (5) consecutive working days shall take precedent over vacation requests for a shorter period. Vacation leave shall be considered mandatory, except in unusual circumstances. In the proper circumstances, an employee may be permitted to work during his vacation if permission is granted by the Employer. A maximum of five (5) days' vacation time may be carried over into the next calendar year, but such carryover time may not be added or accumulated from year to year. Section 16.4. Advancement Within Pay Grades.

(a) Each new employee covered by this Agreement shall initially be paid at the "Start" rate for the pay grade applicable to his classification. Upon completion of nine (9) months' employment, he shall automatically advance to "Step 1" of his pay grade. Further advancements within the employee's pay grade are based upon merit and are not automatic. All recommendations by supervisory personnel of wage adjustments for employees under their supervision shall be reduced to writing and submitted to the Chief Judge who must approve all such recommendations.

(b) Approved recommendations for advancement to "Step 2" shall occur upon completion of twenty-four (24) months of employment. All subsequent Steps shall be placed into effect after completion of one (1) year of full time equivalent service, at each Step, calculated in accordance with Section 8.2.

(c) Employees who are awarded a position pursuant to Section 8.7 with a higher-rated maximum pay rate than their current classification shall initially be placed at the earliest Step in the new pay grade which will result in an increase in pay. Any future advancements within the employee's wage band will be governed by the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of this Section, provided further, however, their "anniversary date of hire" shall be the date of their initial entry into the new classification unless adjusted in accordance with Section 8.2.

Section 16.5. Temporary Assignments. Employees who are temporarily assigned to a higher-rated classification for a period in excess of forty-five (45) consecutive calendar days shall, thereafter, be paid at the earliest Step in the higher-rated classification which will result in an increase in pay.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 17.0. Address Changes. An employee shall notify the Employer in writing of any change in name, address, and telephone number promptly and, in any event, within five (5) days after such change has been made. The Employer shall be entitled to rely upon an employee's last name, address, and telephone number as shown on his employment record for all purposes involving his employment under this Agreement.

Section 17.1. Amendment of Agreement. Upon mutual agreement, the Employer and the Union may amend, supplement, rescind, or otherwise alter this Agreement during its term. Any such change, however, shall not be effective unless it is reduced to writing and signed by duly authorized representatives of both the Employer and the Union.

Section 17.2. Captions. The captions used in each Section of this Agreement are for identification purposes only and are not a substantive part of the Agreement.

Section 17.3. Gender. The masculine pronoun wherever used in this Agreement shall include the feminine pronoun and the singular pronoun, the plural, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Section 17.4. Mileage. During the term of this Agreement, whenever an employee is required by the Employer to use his/her personal vehicle on Employer business, he/she shall be paid at the present published IRS rate. The employee shall provide any written documentation required by the Employer to verify mileage usage.

Section 17.5. New Classifications. Whenever the Employer establishes a new classification within the collective bargaining unit, the Union shall be notified of the rate of pay assigned to the classification. The Union shall have fifteen (15) calendar days from receipt of such notification to object to the assigned rate. If no objection is filed with the Employer within this period of time, the rate shall be deemed to be permanent. Should the Union timely object to the rate of pay assigned to a new classification, representatives of the Employer and the Union shall meet within thirty (30) calendar days to negotiate any changes which might be required.

Section 17.6. Outside Employment. No employee shall work at outside employment which will create a conflict of interest or in any way interfere with the effective discharge of the duties required to satisfactorily function in the position held with the Employer. Prior application in writing must be made to the Employer before any employee may engage in outside employment.

Section 17.7. Record-Keeping. Employees covered by this Agreement may periodically be required to record their time or other pertinent employment data and to submit such records to the Employer. The Employer reserves the right to require employees to use mechanical means, such as time clocks, for such record-keeping purposes.

Section 17.8. Separability. If any Section of this Agreement should be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or to conflict with applicable Federal or State law, the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby. The parties shall meet upon request to negotiate a mutually satisfactory replacement for the Section declared to be invalid.

Section 17.9. Tuition Reimbursement. Upon approval of the Chief Judge, the Employer will reimburse fifty percent (50%) of the tuition expenses for employees with at least one (1) year of continuous service with the Employer for taking courses related to their employment, provided such courses are not otherwise funded by a Federal or State grant or program. All courses must be approved in writing by the Chief Judge as pertinent to and related to the employee's work. Reimbursement will be made upon proof of expenditures and certification that the course has been successfully completed. Approval of a particular course or the taking of a course by an employee shall not be automatic and such approval is a matter reserved solely to the discretion of the Chief Judge.

If tuition costs are reimbursed by the Employer, seventy-five percent (75%) of the amounts paid by the Employer shall be repaid by the employee if he leaves the employ of the Employer in twelve (12) months or less following completion of the course involved. The Employer shall be authorized to deduct such sums from any outstanding wages due to the employee involved.

Section 17.10. Union Bulletin Board. One (1) bulletin board will be installed by the Employer for the use of the Union at a location selected by the Employer.

The Union acknowledges its responsibility for the condition and appearance of the Union bulletin board. Notices to be posted on such bulletin board shall be restricted to notices of Union meetings, notices of elections, and notices of recreational and social affairs. Notices pertaining to matters not provided for above may be posted only after they have been approved by the Chief Judge. All notices posted on the Union bulletin board shall be signed by an authorized representative of the Union.

Section 17.11. Witness Appearance. Any employee covered by this Agreement who is required by subpoena to appear and testify on the Employer's behalf before a court of record or an administrative agency or in an identical proceeding which does not involve either the employee or the Employer as a party or as a member of a class, either directly or indirectly, will be excused for the necessary required time, provided the employee's appearance is the direct result of the performance of his duties for the Employer. Employees called as a witness in such proceedings shall be paid the difference, if any, between any witness fee compensation, excluding mileage, and their straight time regular rate of pay, exclusive of all premiums, for time lost from work. No payment for mileage or other expenses shall be required from the Employer. In order to receive witness appearance pay, an employee must: (1) Give the Employer advance notice of the time, date, and place he is required to report as a witness; (2) give satisfactory evidence that his appearance was required pursuant to a subpoena on the day he claims such pay; and (3) return to work promptly following being excused from giving testimony.

FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE

Section 18.0. The parties agree that each has the right to exercise its rights under the Family and Medical Leave Act and that any contrary provision contained in this contract is superseded by the Family and Medical Leave Act.

SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

Section 19.0. Waiver. It is the intent of the parties hereto that the provisions of this Agreement shall supersede all prior agreements or understandings, oral or written, express or implied, between such parties and will henceforward govern their entire relationship and constitute the sole source of any and all rights or claims which may be asserted hereunder, or otherwise.

It is the intent of the parties that this Agreement contain all economic and noneconomic terms and conditions of employment applicable to employees covered by this Agreement. Both parties accordingly acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. Therefore, the Employer and the Union, for the life of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered by this Agreement, even though such subject or matter may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both of the parties at the time that they negotiated or signed this Agreement.

DURATION

This Agreement shall become effective as of January 1, 1997, unless otherwise provided, and shall remain in force until 11:59 p.m., December 31, 1999, and thereafter, for successive periods of one (1) year unless either party shall, on or before the sixtieth (60th) day prior to expiration, serve written notice on the other party of a desire to terminate, modify, alter, negotiate, change, or amend this Agreement. A notice of desire to modify, alter, amend, negotiate, or change, or any combination thereof, shall have the effect of terminating the entire Agreement on the expiration date in the same manner as a notice of desire to terminate, unless before that date all subjects of amendment proposed by either party have been disposed of by agreement or by withdrawal by the party proposing amendment, modification, alteration, negotiation, change, or any combination thereof.

The written notice referred to in this Section shall be considered properly served by the Union if it is sent by certified mail to the Chief Judge of the Eighteenth Judicial Circuit Court at the Bay County Building, Bay City, Michigan. The written notice referred to in this Section shall be considered properly served by the Employer if it is sent by certified mail to the Union's address at 503 N.
