VII. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

It is mutually agreed that informal resolution of grievances prior to institution of formal grievance procedures is beneficial and will always be encouraged and sought by the City and the Association. Nevertheless, to provide for prompt resolution of all differences between the parties to this agreement, the time requirements and limitations provided for herein must be followed even if informal resolution of grievances is being attempted.

- (a) It is the intent of the parties to this Agreement to prevent grievances and to settle any which may occur as fairly and promptly as practical. Therefore, it is agreed that there should be time limits between the initiation of a grievance and its occurrence, between steps of the grievance procedure and the time in which each answer must be given. Any grievance not initiated, taken to the next step or answered within these time limits will be considered settled on the basis of the last answer by Management, if the Union does not move to the next step within the time limits, or on the basis of the Union's last demand, if Management fails to give its answer within the time limits.
- (b) A grievance is any dispute, controversy or difference between (a) the parties, (b) Management and an employee or employees, or (c) between or among employees of the City of Inkster, on any issue with respect to, on account of, or concerning the meaning, interpretation or application of this Agreement or any terms or provisions thereof.

STEP 2 If the grievance is not settled in Step 1, the written grievance shall be presented to the Personnel Director by the Association within five (5) calendar days after the Fire Chief's response is given. The method of selection of arbitrators shall conform to the then current method utilized by the American Arbitration Association for selection of arbitration panels.

After such hearing, the arbitrator shall promptly render a decision which shall be binding upon both parties but the arbitrator shall have no power to render a decision which adds to, subtracts from, or modifies this agreement; the decision shall be confined to the meaning of the contract provision that gives rise to the grievance dispute. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both parties and may not be appealed.

- (b) Civil Service Commission - If the grievance is not settled in STEP 2, and the aggrieved employee wishes to by-pass arbitration, he or she may appeal the matter to the Inkster Civil Service Commission. After receipt of written notice of intent to appeal to the Civil Service Commission, a hearing before said Commission shall be held within a reasonable time and both the City and the aggrieved may present evidence, employ counsel (at their cost), and present any and all evidence insofar as practicable, within the rules of evidence. The Civil Service Commission, after said hearing, shall within a reasonable time period submit a written decision with regard to the dispute. If either the City or the Association feels aggrieved by the decision of the Inkster Civil Service Commission, said party may within thirty (30) days after said decision of the Commission, appeal the matter to the Wayne County Circuit Court. In the event that an appeal is taken to the Wayne County Circuit Court, the decision of said Court shall be final and binding, and no further appeal shall be permitted.

If the decision is submitted to an arbitrator as provided for in STEP 3(a) above, the cost of the arbitrator and the entire cost of arbitration shall be paid for by the party who loses in the arbitration award excluding attorney fees.
