Section 18.02 - Employees Unable to Get to Work - Employees may find times when it is impossible for them to get to work due to bad weather, even though their office is open. When their office is open, employees may be required to use Annual Leave or Personal Leave if it is not possible for them to get to work.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Section 19.0 - General Provisions Relating to Leaves of Absence - Employees retain and continue to accumulate seniority while on approved leaves of absence. Leaves of absence are without pay and benefits, unless otherwise provided in this Agreement. Leaves of absence are not to be used for the purpose of obtaining, or working at, other employment. An employee who gives a false reason for a leave of absence is subject to discipline, up to and including discharge.

Section 19.1 - Medical Leave - Medical leave may be granted upon application for an employee's disability due to illness or injury, subject to the Administrator's right to require proof. An employee may be on medical leave for a period of not more than one year, or the length of his/her seniority at the time the illness or injury began, whichever is less. The Administrator may request, as a condition of continuance of any medical leave, proof of continuing disability. In situations where an employee's physical or mental condition raises a question as to the employee's capability to perform the job, the Administrator may require a medical examination, and if appropriate, require an employee to take a medical leave of absence. Employee should notify the Administrator of any condition which may become disabling when they become aware of the condition. An employee returning to work from a medical leave of absence may be required to present a doctor's certificate that the employee is able to return and perform the required work.

Section 19.2 - Maternity Leave - An employee who becomes pregnant will be granted a medical leave of absence for the period of time she is disabled due to pregnancy and birth of a child.

Section 19.3 - Funeral Leave - Employees will be granted a leave of absence with pay for three (3) normally scheduled working days, following the date of death of a member of their immediate family. "Immediate family" is defined as current spouse, child, brother, sister, parents, parents of current spouse, grandparents or grandchildren. An additional two (2) consecutive days leave shall be granted if the member of the immediate family involved lived more than three hundred (300) miles from the employee's residence. Such additional leave shall be without pay unless the employee elects to deduct such time from his accumulated sick leave.

Section 19.4 - Jury Duty Leave - An employee who is summoned and reports for jury duty shall suffer no loss of pay for the actual time necessary to complete the jury assignment. Employees shall return to the court any jury fees, but not travel reimbursement, received for the compensated time.

In order to receive payment, an employee must give the Administrator prior notice that he/she has been summoned for jury duty and must furnish satisfactory evidence that he/she reported for jury duty on the days for which he/she claims such payment. Any employee who is summoned to jury duty and not selected on that day must promptly report to work.

Section 19.5 - Sick Days - Days will accumulate on the basis of one (1) days per month, with a maximum of twelve (12) days for the first full year of employment. Sick leave is intended to be used in the event of personal illness, injury, temporary disability, or exposure to contagious disease endangering others, or for illness in the immediate family which necessitates absence from work. As such, use of sick leave by an employee shall be explained by the employee and by such other evidence as the Administrator may require. Paid sick days may be accumulated, not to exceed ninety (90) days, and upon termination the employee will be compensated for 50% of his/her accumulated sick days. Under this provision, no accrued sick days shall be used to extend employee status.

Section 19.6 - Accrual of Benefits During Sick Leave - Employees using sick days will accrue additional paid sick days until any accrued paid sick days and annual leave benefits have been exhausted. Health and life insurance, and retirement benefits will not be affected until such time as the employee has, or could have, used up all his/her paid sick days and vacation.

Section 19.7 - Personal Leave Days - Upon reasonable notice to the Administrator, up to three (3) accrued paid sick days per year may be used as personal days. The Administrator may, in his/her discretion, grant a personal leave of absence for a good cause shown for a period not to exceed two (2) weeks. A personal leave of absence for a longer period, not to exceed six (6) months, must be approved by the Chief Judge. A personal leave of absence must be requested and approved in writing.

| 11 through 15 years | 12.5 hours, per month |
| 16 or more years | 15 hours, per month |

Vacation entitlement is determined as of the employee's anniversary date of hire. A day's vacation pay is the amount of money the employee would have earned by working his/her regular straight time hours on the date of the vacation.

Regular part-time employees are entitled to pro-rated vacation benefits.

An employee whose employment with the Judge terminates for any reason will be reimbursed for any earned but unused vacation.

Vacations may be taken any time during the year following the anniversary date, provided that proper application is made and the requested date is approved by the Administrator. No more than five (5) days earned vacation may be carried over to the following year.

In the event of conflict in the requested vacation dates among employees who requested vacation at least thirty (30) days in advance, the most senior employee will be given preference.
