Step 2. Written Procedure. If the grievance is not settled at the Verbal step, it may be appealed by reducing the grievance to writing on the appropriate grievance form and delivering the same to his Department Head or the Department Head's designee, within five (5) days after the discussion with his immediate supervisor in the verbal procedure. The Department Head or his designee shall give a written answer to the steward and grievant within five (5) days after receipt of the written grievance. Verbal discussion shall not be foreclosed at this step.

Step 3. If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled at Step 2, it may be appealed by delivery to the Employer or Employer's designee within five (5) days after receipt of the answer in Step 2, a written request for a meeting concerning the grievance. A meeting shall be held within ten (10) days thereafter. If no agreement is reached, the arbitrator shall be selected from the panel of arbitrators obtained from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. The parties shall request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to submit a list of not less than five (5) qualified arbitrators, all of whom shall be members of the National Academy of Arbitrators. The flip of a coin shall determine who begins the striking process described in the previous sentence. The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be shared equally between the Union and the Employer, but each party shall bear its own expenses including the wages of any witness called by the parties. If the steward and/or Chapter Chairperson and grievant are at the hearing and lose time from work, they shall be compensated by the party calling them to the hearing.

Either party may request a transcript of the arbitration hearing. The requesting party shall be responsible for the payment of the transcript. The arbitration shall be conducted under the rules of the American Arbitration Association.

Section 5.3. Arbitrator's Powers. The arbitrator's powers shall be limited to deciding the case at hand and the arbitrator shall not have any power to add to, subtract from or to otherwise modify any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The arbitration decision shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the employees.

Section 5.4. Time Limitations. In the event that any grievance is not processed to the next step in the Grievance Procedure within the time limits specified, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the last answer by the Employer on the grievance. In the event that any grievance is not answered by the Employer within the time limits specified, it shall be considered as granted. The time limits at any level of the Grievance Procedure may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. Neither party will unreasonably refuse to consent to an extension of the time for answering the grievance when requested by the other party.

Section 5.5 Definition of Days. Wherever the word "days" is used in this Grievance Procedure, it shall be defined as those days which are scheduled for work between Monday and Friday, both inclusive, excluding holidays recognized under this Agreement.

- b) Such meetings may be attended by two (2) members of the bargaining unit, a representative of the G.E.L.C. and designated representatives of the Employer.
- c) There must be at least one (1) calendar week's advance written notice of the desire to have such meeting, which notice must be accompanied by an agenda of the subjects the party serving such notice wishes to discuss. If both parties have subjects they wish to discuss, they shall exchange agenda at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to such meeting. Discussions at such special conferences shall be limited to the items set forth in the agenda. Employer's willingness to discuss or not discuss any item on the agenda shall not be subject to a grievance.
- d) Employees shall be paid for all time necessarily lost from their regularly scheduled work while attending such conferences.

DISCIPLINE

Section 7.0. Just Cause. The Employer will not discharge or discipline a seniority employee without just cause. If the employee is at work, prior to issuance of a formal disciplinary action, the employee will be given an opportunity to participate in a disciplinary interview. The steward will be notified of the time and the place of the interview. A copy of the disciplinary action will be given to the steward.

Section 7.1. Written Warning. Where warranted by just cause and where an oral warning has not resulted in correction or where more severe initial action is warranted, a written reprimand shall be issued to the employee, a copy to the steward and a copy placed in the employee's personnel file.

Section 7.2. Suspension. This action temporarily suspends an employee from employment without pay for a definite period of time. Where disciplinary action has not proved effective, or where the seriousness of the offense or conditions warrant, the employee may be suspended without pay by his Department Head.

Section 7.3. Discharge. This action permanently removes the employee from employment with the Employer. When other forms of disciplinary action are proved ineffective, or when the seriousness of the offense or conditions warrant, the Department Head may dismiss the employee.

Section 7.4. Immediate Termination. Although the Union and the Employer subscribe to the principle of progressive discipline, both of the parties realize that there may be some offenses which require the immediate termination of the employee for the first violation.

NO STRIKES -- NO LOCKOUTS

Section 8.0. No Strike Pledge. The Union agrees that during the life of this Agreement, neither the Union, its agents nor its members will authorize, instigate, aid or engage in a work stoppage, slowdown, strike or other concerted activity which interferes with the operation of the Employer. The Employer agrees that during the same period there will be no lockouts.

SENIORITY

Section 9.0. Seniority Definition. For the purposes of administering the seniority provisions contained in this Agreement including layoff and recall, job openings and eligibility for benefits, seniority shall be by date of hire within the bargaining unit. (The bargaining unit is described in section 1.0 of this agreement) Seniority shall be defined as the length of the employee's continued service within the bargaining unit commencing from the employee's last date of hire provided that seniority for fringe benefit purposes be based upon the last date of hire with the county. Seniority for pay purposes shall be by classification.

The parties to this Agreement have initialed a seniority roster of all bargaining unit members. It is the intention of the parties that the amount of seniority that each bargaining unit member has prior to the date of this Agreement be continued and added to for service during the life of this Agreement.

Bargaining unit employees will retain classification seniority upon transfer to a position in a new department within the same classification for purposes of overtime scheduling, vacation scheduling, and holiday scheduling. Child Care Worker I and II shall be considered the same classification for purposes of applying overtime, vacation and holiday scheduling.

Section 9.1. Probationary Period. All Child Care Workers, Recreation Coordinator and Shift Supervisors covered by this Agreement shall be considered probationary employees for a period of six (6) months, after which time their seniority shall be as of the last date of hire in the bargaining unit.

All other employees shall be considered probationary employees for a period of three (3) months after which time their seniority shall be as of their last date of hire. Until an employee has completed a probationary period, he may be laid off, terminated or disciplined at the Employer's discretion without recourse to the grievance and arbitration procedure. The Union shall represent probationary employees for the purpose of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay and wages set forth in this Agreement.

Section 9.2. Superseniority. The Chapter Chairperson and elected steward, for the purpose of layoff for lack of funds and recalls to work following such layoff only, for the term of their office, shall be considered as having more seniority than any other employee within their bargaining unit. They shall be the last to be laid off in the bargaining unit and the first to be recalled to work in the bargaining unit following such layoff providing they have then the present ability to satisfactorily perform the available work in such area without additional training.

Section 9.3. Loss of Seniority. An employee shall lose his seniority and his employment relationship with the County and shall be terminated for any of the following reasons:

- a) He quit or resigns;
- b) He is discharged for just cause;
- c) He retires or is retired;
- d) He has been on layoff status for a period of two (2) years or a period equal to his seniority, whichever is less, and has not been recalled;
- e) He fails to return to work at the specified time upon the expiration of the leave of

- absence, vacation, recall from layoff or disciplinary suspension, unless other arrangements are reasonably agreed upon by the employee and the Employer;
- f) He is absent from work for three (3) consecutive working days without notifying the Employer. It is understood that employees are expected to notify the Employer that they will be absent in accordance with the Departmental rules;
 - g) If he accepts employment elsewhere while on leave of absence; except Union employment.

Section 9.4. Seniority List. The Employer shall maintain a roster of employees, arranged according to seniority, showing name, classification and seniority date. Employees who are employed on the same date shall be placed on the seniority list in alphabetical order of surnames. An up-to-date copy of the seniority list shall be furnished to the Union every three (3) months.

Section 9.5. Eligibility for Benefits. All new employees hired after the effective date of this Agreement will begin receiving benefits on the nearest eligibility date following the completion of ninety (90) days of employment from the date of hire. Employees who work twenty (20) hours per week but less than thirty-five (35) hours per week shall be eligible to receive pro-rated paid leave time and insurance coverage, sixty (60%) percent of which shall be paid for by the Employer provided the employee elects full coverage. Employees who work twenty (20) hours per week but less than thirty-five (35) hours per week and are currently receiving full insurance coverage shall continue to receive full insurance coverage paid for by the Employer.

Section 9.6 Seniority and Benefit Accumulation. An employee shall retain and shall continue to accumulate seniority while on all approved leaves of absence unless otherwise specifically provided in one of the Leave of Absence Sections of this Agreement. Benefits such as paid leave days shall not accrue, continue or be paid during any leave of absence in excess of thirty (30) calendar days unless otherwise specifically provided for in this Agreement. There shall be no duplication or pyramiding of leave benefits or types of absences. Medical, dental and life insurance shall continue when the employee is on an approved sick leave on the following basis:

- Less than ten (10) years seniority at the time the leave of absence begins
- Ten (10) years or more seniority at the time the leave of absence begins
- Six (6) months beyond the month in which the leave of absence begins
- Nine (9) months beyond the month in which the leave of absence begins

Section 9.7. COBRA Election. Employees who are laid off or whose employment is terminated will be allowed to continue their medical/surgical insurance coverage if they are qualified under the terms of the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Act of 1985 ("COBRA").

LAYOFF AND RECALL

Section 10.0. Layoff. A layoff is a reduction in work force due to lack of funds, a decrease in work, a decrease in resident population or due to improved methodology or technology.

- a) When a layoff occurs, temporary employees and probationary employees in the relevant department shall be laid off first.
- b) When all temporary employees and probationary employees in a classification in the relevant department have been laid off, other employees in the classification in the relevant department shall be laid off in accordance with their seniority in the classification in the relevant department, with the most junior employee to be the first laid off.

- c) Any employee laid off for reasons other than population decrease (open unit or detention) may exercise his/her bumping rights as described below. Employees laid off due to population decrease (open unit or detention) may, after 30 calendar days, exercise their bumping rights as described below.

A laid off employee may use his/her bargaining unit seniority to bump an employee in another department with less bargaining unit seniority. An employee may only bump provided he/she has the prior experience and qualifications to perform all responsibilities of that position.

- d) The Employer will advise the Union of the names, classifications and seniority dates of employees to be laid off at least three (3) weeks prior to such layoff if layoff is due to lack of funds or improved methodology.
- e) If the layoff is due to a decrease in resident population or decrease in work, the Employer will advise the Union as soon as possible prior to such layoff.

Section 10.1. Recall. Employees will be recalled to work after a layoff in the reverse order in which they were laid off, so that employees with the greater seniority within the department shall be recalled ahead of more junior employees. Recall shall be by registered mail to the employee's last known address or by telephone call. Recall will be subject to the ability to perform the job available in accordance with performance levels normally recognized and required of employees normally holding that position.

Section 10.2. Qualification of Employees. All of the layoff and recall procedures in this Section are subject to the qualification that employees remaining at work or recalled to work shall have the ability to perform the available work in accordance with recognized performance levels normally required of employees holding the positions to which the employees intend to bump. It is not intended that this Section be used to improperly discriminate against any employee.

Section 10.3 Benefits During Layoff. Benefits shall not be accrued, continued or be paid during layoffs.

Employees who are laid off shall be entitled to obtain medical/surgical insurance coverage in accordance with the provisions of the COBRA legislation.

Section 10.4. Voluntary Layoff. In the event layoffs become necessary, the Employer agrees to offer the employees in the affected job classification the option of voluntary layoff. In the event that more than enough individuals opt for voluntary layoff, the choice of who shall be laid off shall be made by management of the Maurice Spear Campus. Voluntary layoff shall be for no more than thirty (30) days provided:

- 1) an employee who elects voluntary layoff shall not have the right to return to active work for thirty (30) days unless recalled, and
- 2) an employee on voluntary layoff may be recalled at any time

Employees on voluntary layoff shall not have benefits reduced except that such employees shall not accumulate paid leave days while laid off.

JOB OPENINGS

Section 11.0. Bidding. When it is necessary to fill a new job classification or a vacancy in an existing job classification, such vacancy shall be posted on the bulletin board for a period of seven (7) regularly-scheduled working days during which time employees may bid therefore by submitting a job vacancy application form. The vacancy shall be awarded to the senior employee so bidding who, appears to have the present ability and other attributes to satisfactorily perform the work required in the classification without training. In the event employees are equally qualified, as determined by management, the employee with the most seniority shall be awarded the job. Qualifications shall include verified past experience, training and work record. In the event there are no bidders for such vacancy or, if among those bidding therefore, there are none that have the above-referred-to qualifications, then the Employer shall be free to hire new, fully-qualified employees to fill such jobs. In the event the job vacancy is filled through the bidding procedure, the employee thus awarded the job shall be transferred thereto as soon as is practicable. The Employer may fill the vacancy during the posting period. No job will be posted so long as there are employees in the classification who are laid off and who are capable as above described to perform the job available.

Section 11.1. Restriction on Bidding Process.

- a) Any employee who is awarded a job under the bidding procedure shall not be awarded another job, the rate range of which is equal to or less than his present job, under the bidding procedure during the next succeeding six (6) months.
- b) Any employee who requests to be removed from a job classification for which he had bid, as above provided, shall be ineligible to bid for another job during the six (6) month period following the date of the setback. The parties may, by mutual agreement, waive this restriction in exceptional situations.
- c) In the event the job to be bid on has funding requirements, the same shall be stated on the posting and bidding shall be limited to those employees who can meet the requirements.
- d) If an employee successfully bids for a job opening, only the one next opening in the succession created by the initial opening shall be subject to the posting and bidding procedure, and the Employer shall have the right to fill all further openings.

Section 11.2. Temporary Transfers. The employers shall have the right to temporarily transfer employees irrespective of their seniority status from one job classification to another to cover for employees who are absent for the period of such absence. The Employer shall also have the right to temporarily transfer employees irrespective of their seniority status to fill jobs or temporary vacancies or take care of unusual conditions or situations or for training purposes, which may arise for a period of not to exceed sixty (60) days unless this time is mutually extended. It is understood and agreed that any employee temporarily transferred in accordance with the provisions of this Section shall not acquire any permanent title or right to the job to which he is temporarily transferred but shall retain his classification from which he was transferred. If an employee is temporarily transferred as provided in this Section to a job classification for which the rate range is lower than the rate range for his regular job classification, his hourly rate of pay shall not be reduced. If such temporary transfer is higher than the rate range for this regular job classification, he shall, after working for one (1) full working day in the job classification, receive the minimum rate of pay applicable for the job or his present rate, whichever is higher.

Section 11.3. Promotional Trial Period. An employee awarded the job through the bidding procedure shall be given a fair trial to prove his ability to perform the work required not to exceed thirty (30) working days unless extended by the Employer. When an employee fails to qualify during such period, he shall be returned to his former job and the Employer shall advise the employee, in writing, of the reasons why the employee failed to qualify. If during such trial period the employee wishes to return to his former job, he shall be permitted to do so provided he has advised the Employer, in writing, of the reasons why he does not wish to remain in the job for which he has successfully bid. The purpose of the job probationary period is to give the employee an opportunity to demonstrate that he has the ability, skills and other attributes to satisfactorily perform all aspects of the job.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Section 12.0. Extended Sick Leave. Extended sick leave without pay shall be granted, upon application from the employee, for illness or injury, subject to the Employer's right to require medical proof of disability or illness. An employee may be on sick leave for a period of up to eighteen (18) months. In the case of good cause, an additional six (6) months shall be granted (seniority allowing). Sick leave shall not exceed twenty-four (24) months or the length of employee's seniority at the time the sick leave begins, whichever is less. Seniority shall terminate and not continue beyond that time. During sick leave of absence, an employee may accrue additional seniority up to a maximum of nine (9) months of such leave of absence. The Employer may require, as a condition of continuance of any extended sick leave, proof of continuing disability or illness. In situations where the employee's physical condition reasonably raises a question as to the employee's capability to perform his job, the Employer may require a medical examination, and if cause is found, require the employee to take an extended sick leave of absence. The Employer may require, as a condition of any sick leave, regardless of duration, a medical certificate setting forth reasons for the sick leave when there is a reason to believe the health or safety of personnel may be affected or that an employee is abusing sick leave. Falsifications of the medical certificate or falsely setting forth the reasons for the absence shall constitute just cause for discipline, up to and including dismissal.

Section 12.1. Examinations. Physical and mental examinations may be required of all employees of the Employer, such examinations to be made by a physician chosen by the Employer and paid for the by Employer. Employees required to report for physical or mental examinations shall be paid for time lost from work. If a physical or mental examination performed by a medical doctor of the Employer's choice at the Employer's expense reveals such physical or mental unfitness, the Employer reserves the right to require employees to take a leave of absence without pay for those who are not physically or mentally fit to perform their duties satisfactorily. If the employee disagrees with such doctor's findings then the employee, at his own expense, may obtain a physical or mental examination from a medical doctor of his choice. Should there be a conflict in the findings of the two (2) doctors, then a third (3rd) doctor mutually satisfactorily to the Employer and the Union shall give the employee a physical or mental examination. The fee charged by the third (3rd) doctor shall be shared equally between the Employer and the Union and his finding shall be binding on the employee, Employer and the Union.

Section 12.2. Personal Leave. An employee who has completed his probationary period may be granted a leave of absence for personal reasons without pay and without loss of seniority for a period not to exceed six (6) months in any calendar year, provided he obtains advance written permission from the Employer or the Employer's designated representative and can be spared from work for that purpose. Applications for such leave must be in writing on a form provided by the Employer. Leaves of absence will not be given for the purpose of enabling any employee to work for another employer or seek employment elsewhere and any employee who obtains a leave of absence by misrepresenting the purposes therefore shall be discharged. The granting of a personal leave of absence to one person for a particular reason shall not establish any precedent for granting a similar leave of absence to any other person for the same or substantially the same reason.

Section 12.3 Funeral Leave. When death occurs in an employee's immediate family -- i.e., spouse, parent, parent of current spouse, children of current spouse, grandparents, grandchildren, child, brother or sister, the employee, upon request, will be excused for the first three (3) normally scheduled working days immediately following the date of death provided he attends the funeral.

Time off under this Section shall not operate to impair the efficient operation of the Employer.

Section 12.5. Military Leave. The reinstatement rights of any employee who enters the military service of the United States by reason of an Act or Law enacted by the Congress of the United States or who may voluntarily enlist during the effective period of such law shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the law granting such rights.

Section 12.6. National Guard Leave. Leaves of absence without pay will be granted to employees who are active in the National Guard or a branch of the Armed Forces Reserves for the purpose of fulfilling their annual field training obligation and/or when called to temporary civil disorders provided such employees make written requests for such leave of absence immediately upon receipt of their orders to report for such duty.

Section 12.7. Request for Leave. Request for leaves of absence must be made in writing to the Employer prior to the start of the anticipated leave of absence except where it is impossible to do so. During any leave of absence granted under the provisions of this Section, seniority shall accumulate for the duration of any such leave.

Section 12.8 Return from Leave. No employee may return from a leave of absence without notifying the Employers at least three (3) working days in advance of such return. No employee may return early from a leave of definite durations without permission of the Employer. This Section shall not apply in the case of employees who are using sick days but who are not on sick leave of absence.

Section 12.9. Jury Duty. An employee who loses time from his assigned schedule of work because of jury duty service to act as a witness or to testify pursuant to a subpoena shall be paid for such time lost at his regular hourly rate. Jury duty and witness fees shall be offset against such pay. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, such jury duty and witness service shall be considered time worked. The employee shall furnish the Employer a written statement from the Court showing the days of jury duty or witness service and the amount of jury duty or witness fees he was eligible to receive for each day. The employee will report for work when released from jury duty or witness service.

An employee who does not lose time from his assigned schedule of work but who nevertheless has performed jury duty service or testified pursuant to a subpoena within the eight (8) hour period immediately before or following his shift, at his request, may have an amount of time off work equal to the time he was required to spend in court during that eight (8) hour period. In such a case, he will be paid for this time off with fees offset against such pay, in the same manner as if he had lost time from work.

WAGES

Section 13.0. Wages. The job classification and rate ranges applicable thereto are set forth in Appendices "A".

Section 13.1. New Classifications. If during the life of this Agreement, a new job classification is created within the bargaining unit the Employer shall establish a job duty and the job rate range applicable thereto and shall promptly notify the chapter chairperson in writing of its decision. If the Union believes the rate range is inadequate in terms of established rate ranges for other job classifications covered by the Agreement, the Union shall have the right, within fifteen (15) calendar days after it has been so notified, to initiate negotiations with regard to the rate range assigned to the job classification. If negotiations have not been initiated during the said fifteen (15) calendar day period, the rate range so assigned shall become permanent. New classification disputes shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.

Section 13.1A. Reclassification. Whenever an employee covered by this Agreement believes that substantial changes have been made on a permanent basis in the job which that employee has been permanently assigned to, and if the employee seeks reclassification to a higher or new classification, the employee may process a claim for reclassification to the employee's department head. If the department head believes that there is merit, the department head may request a reclassification of the employee's position at a meeting of the Board of Commissioners. The Commissioner shall make a decision with regard to the reclassification request. The decision of the Commissioners shall not be binding upon the Judges. If the reclassification request is granted, either completely or in part, such decision shall not become a precedent for any other employee as a basis for a claim of reclassification. If the reclassification is denied the matter will be brought up at the next contract negotiations and will be determined by negotiations between the Employer and the Union. Reclassification requests shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.

Section 13.2. Placement on Scale. Employees promoted pursuant to this Agreement shall be paid at the starting rate of the new classification unless this would not result in a pay increase; in which case it will be placed at the next step that will result in an increase in pay. The employee will then progress on the scale based upon the anniversary date of his/her promotion.

A new employee may be hired at the start rate set forth in the current applicable wage schedule. The term "new" shall apply to all employees on probationary status. If a newly hired employee has had previous experience in the work for which he was hired, he may be paid a rate in line with his experience and in accordance with the progression rate set forth for his job classification in the current applicable wage schedule.
