

8/31/92

PROFESSIONAL AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE
MADISON BOARD OF EDUCATION AND THE
INTERNATIONAL UNION OF OPERATING ENGINEERS, LOCAL #547
(MADISON COOKS)

LABOR AND INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS COLLECTION
Michigan State University

Madison School District

THE MADISON SCHOOL DISTRICT, hereinafter referred to as the "Employer",

and

THE INTERNATIONAL UNION OF OPERATING ENGINEERS, LOCAL #547, 547A, 547B, AND 547C AFL-CIO, hereinafter referred to as the "Union".

ARTICLE I

PURPOSE

It is the purpose of this Agreement to promote and insure harmonious relations, cooperation, and understanding between the Employer and the employees covered hereby, to insure true collective bargaining, and to establish standards of wages, hours, working conditions, and other conditions of employment.

ARTICLE II

UNION RECOGNITION

A. The Employer hereby recognizes that the Union shall be the exclusive representative of all the public employees in such unit for the purpose of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, or other conditions of employment.

B. The term "employee" as used herein shall include all first cooks and cooks, who are employees of the employer.

ARTICLE III

AGENCY SHOP

A. All employees employed in the bargaining unit, or who become employees in the bargaining unit, who are not already members of the Union, shall within ninety (90) calendar days of the effective date of this Agreement, or within ninety (90) calendar days of their hire by the Employer, whichever is later, become members, or in the alternative, shall as a condition of employment, pay to the Union each month a service fee in an amount equal to the regular monthly Union membership dues uniformly required of employees of the Employer who are members.

B. Any employee who shall tender or authorize the deduction of membership dues or service fee uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or obtaining membership in the Union, shall be deemed to meet the conditions of this Article so long as the employee is not more than sixty (60) calendar days in arrears of payment of such dues or fees.

C. Employees who fail to comply with the conditions of this article shall be discharged by the Employer within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of written notice of such default is delivered to the Employer by the Union.

D. If any provision of this article is deemed invalid under Federal or State Law, said provision shall be modified to comply with the requirements of said Federal or State Law.

E. The Union agrees that it will make membership in the Union available to all employees covered by this Agreement on the same terms and conditions as are generally applicable to other members of the Union.

F. The Employer agrees that, upon hiring any new employees who are covered by this Agreement, the Employer shall send a letter advising the Union of the name, date of hiring and Social Security Number of the new employee.

G. In the event that the Union refuses to accept any person so hired as a member, said person may continue employment by paying the regular monthly service fee.

ARTICLE IV

CHECK-OFF

A. During the life of this Agreement and in accordance with the terms of the form of Authorization of Check-Off of Dues or Service Fee hereinafter set forth, and to the extent the laws of the State of Michigan permit, the Employer agrees to deduct initiation fees, Union Membership Dues or Service Fees from the pay of such employees for whom it has on file an "Authorization for Check-Off of Dues or Service Fees" form.

B. Deductions shall be made only in accordance with the provisions of said Authorization for Check-Off of Dues or Service Fees together with the provisions of this Agreement. The Employer shall have no responsibility for collection of any other assessments or deductions in accordance with this provision.

C. A properly executed copy of such Authorization for Check-Off of Dues or Service Fees form for each Union employee for whom membership dues are to be deducted hereunder shall be delivered to the Employer before any payroll deductions are made. Deductions shall be made thereafter only under Authorization for Check-Off of Dues or Service Fees forms which have been properly executed and are in effect. Any Authorization for Check-Off of Dues or Service Fees form which is incomplete or in error will be returned to the Local Union Financial Secretary by the Employer.

D. Check-Off deductions under all properly executed Authorization for Check-Off of Dues or Service Fees forms shall become effective at the time the application is tendered to the Employer and shall be deducted from the first(1st) pay of the month and each month thereafter.

E. The Union will provide to the Employer any additional signed Authorization for Check-Off of Dues or Service Fees forms under which Union Membership dues are to be deducted.

F. Refunds - In cases where a deduction is made that duplicates a payment that an employee has already made to the Union, or where a deduction is not in conformity with the provisions of the Union Constitution and By-Laws, refunds to the employee will be made by the Local Union.

G. Deductions for a calendar month shall be remitted to the Financial Officer of the Local Union as soon as possible after the fifteenth (15th) day of the following month. The Employer shall furnish the designated Financial Officer of the Local Union monthly with a list of those for whom the Union Local Union monthly with a list of those for whom the Union has submitted signed Authorization for Check-Off of Dues or Service Fees forms but for whom no deductions have been made.

H. Any Authorization for Check-Off deduction which has been duly executed and delivered to the Employer shall be irrevocable for the duration of this Agreement and may be revoked as of the expiration of this Agreement.

I. Any dispute between the Union and the employees which may arise as to whether or not an Employer properly executed or properly revoked an Authorization for Check-Off of Dues or Service Fees form shall be reviewed with the employee by a representative of the Employer. Until the matter is disposed of, no further deductions shall be made. The Employer assumes no liability for the authenticity, execution, or revocation of the authorization form.

J. The Union will protect and save harmless the Employer from any and all claims, demands, suits, and other forms of liability by reason of action taken or not taken by the Employer for the purpose of complying with this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

NON-DISCRIMINATION

The Employer and the Union both recognize their responsibilities under Federal, State, and local laws pertaining to fair employment practices as well as the moral principles involved in the area of Civil Rights. Accordingly, both parties reaffirm by this Agreement the commitment not to discriminate against any persons because of race, creed, color, religion, national origin, sex or age.

ARTICLE VI

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

The Employer, on its own behalf and on behalf of the electors of the School District, hereby retains and reserves unto itself, without limitation, all power, rights, authority, duties, and responsibilities conferred upon and vested in it by the laws and the Constitution of the State of Michigan, and of the United States, including, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the right:

A. To the executive management and administrative control of the school system and its properties and facilities, and the activities of its employees:

B. To hire all employees and subject to the provisions of law, to determine their qualifications and the conditions for their continued employment, or their dismissal or demotion; and to promote, and transfer all such employees.

The exercise of the foregoing powers, rights, authority, duties, and responsibilities by the Employer, the adoption of policies, rules, regulations, and practices in furtherance thereof, and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith shall be limited only by the specific and express terms of this Agreement and then only to the extent such specific and express terms hereof are in conformance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Michigan and the Constitution and laws of the United States.

ARTICLE VII

JURISDICTION

Persons not covered by the terms of this Agreement shall not perform work covered by this Agreement, except for the purposes of instructional training, experimentation or in the cases of emergency.

ARTICLE VIII

CONTRACTUAL WORK

The right of contracting or subcontracting is vested in the Employer. The right to contract or subcontract shall not be used for the purpose of undermining the Union nor to discriminate against any of its members nor shall it result in the reduction of the present work force as outlined in Schedule A nor in the event of extension of service shall it be used to avoid the performance of work covered under this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

SAFETY PRACTICES

The Employer will take reasonable measures in order to prevent and/or eliminate any hazards which the employee's may encounter at their places of work, in accordance with the provisions of the Occupational Safety and Health Act, and State and Local regulations.

ARTICLE X

SENIORITY

A. A newly hired employee shall be on a probationary status for ninety (90) calendar days taken from and including the first day of employment. If at any time prior to the completion of the ninety (90) calendar day probationary period, the employee's work performance is unsatisfactory, the employee may be dismissed during this period without appeal by the Union. Probationary employees who are absent on scheduled work days during their probationary period, or who serve their probationary period during a time of the year in which their job is not operative, shall serve additional days equal to the number of days that their job was not operative, and such employee shall not have completed their probationary period until these additional days have been worked.

B. Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period the employee's seniority date shall be retroactive to date of hire.

C. Employees shall be laid off and recalled according to their seniority in their classification. An employee on scheduled lay-off shall have the right to displace a lesser seniority employee in a lower series classification, provided, the senior employee is qualified to hold the position held by the lesser seniority employee.

D. An employee will lose his seniority for the following reasons:

1. The employee resigns.
2. The employee is discharged for cause, and such discharge is not reversed through the grievance procedure.
3. The employee is absent for one (1) consecutive working day without notifying the employer and/or without good and sufficient reason.
4. The employee falsifies his/her job application.
5. The employee retires.

E. Seniority shall continue to accumulate within the bargaining unit for an employee who transfers to a supervisory position, with that employee having the right to exercise his/her seniority and return to the bargaining unit in the event that the employee vacates his/her supervisory position.

F. An agreed to seniority list shall be made available to each employee covered by this Agreement on or about October 1st of each year. Such list shall contain each employee's name, date of hire, employee's location, and classification.

ARTICLE XI

TRANSFER AND PROMOTIONAL PROCEDURE

A. Notice of all vacancies and newly created positions covered by this Agreement shall be posted on employee bulletin boards within one (1) pay period from date of vacancy, and the employees shall be given three (3) working days time in which to make application to fill the vacancy or new positions. The senior employee making application shall be transferred to fill the vacancy or new position; provided, the employee has the necessary qualifications to perform the duties of the job involved. Newly created positions or vacancies are to be posted in the following manner: the type of work, the place of work, the starting date, the rate of pay, the hours to be worked, the classification, and the length of probation to be served.

B. Newly promoted employees shall serve a probationary period of ninety (90) calendar days at a pay rate twenty (20) cents above their previous rate, or at the pay rate of the new position, whichever is lower. The pay rate of the new job shall be granted after successfully serving ninety (90) calendar days probation. The employee may voluntarily return to his/her former position at any time during the ninety (90) calendar days probation. Prior to the end of the probation, the Employer shall determine whether to retain the employee in the new position or to return the employee to his former position. Probationary employees who are absent on scheduled work days during their probationary period, or who serve their probationary period during a time of the year in which their job is not operative, shall serve additional days equal to the number of days absent, or shall serve additional days equal to the number of days that their job was not operative, and such employee shall not have completed their probationary period until these additional days have been worked.

C. Any employee covered by this Agreement who is temporarily transferred from his/her classification to another classification covered by this Agreement, shall be paid either the rate of the position from which the employee is transferred, whichever is higher.

D. Temporary transfers shall be for a period of no longer than ninety (90) calendar days, except in the event that both parties mutually agree to extend the temporary transfer beyond the ninety (90) calendar days. In the event that it is not mutually agreeable to extend the temporary transfer beyond the ninety (90) calendar days, the position shall then be considered to be vacant, and shall then be posted for bidding from interested employees

ARTICLE XII

NEW JOBS

A. The employer shall notify the Union in writing, when new or revised job duties are required during the term of this Agreement. In the event they cannot be properly placed into an existing classification by mutual agreement between the parties, the employer shall place into effect a new classification and rate of pay for the job in question, and shall designate the classification and pay rate as such temporary job which has been placed into effect upon the institution of such job.

B. The new classification and pay rate shall be considered as temporary for a period of thirty (30) calendar days following the date of written notification to the Union. During this thirty (30) day period, but not thereafter during the life of this Agreement, the Union may request in writing the Employer to negotiate the classification and rate of pay. The negotiated rate, if higher than the temporary rate, shall be applied to the date the employee first began working in the temporary classification, except as otherwise mutually agreed. In a case where the parties are unable to agree on the classification and/or rate of pay the issue may be submitted to the grievance procedure. When a new classification has been assigned a permanent rate of pay, either as a result of the Union not requesting negotiations for the temporary classification during the specified period of time, or as a result of final negotiations, or upon resolving the matter through the grievance procedure, the new classification shall be added to and become a part of Schedule A of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIII

DISCIPLINE DISCHARGE

A. Dismissal, suspension, and/or any disciplinary action shall be only for just and stated causes with the employees having the right to defend themselves against any and all charges. Written notification of dismissal, suspension, or other disciplinary action shall be sent to the employee and the Union. When the employer feels disciplinary action is warranted, such action must be initiated within ten (10) working days of the occurrence of the condition giving rise to the action, or within ten (10) working days of the date that it is reasonable to assume that the Employer first became fully aware of the conditions giving rise to the discipline. Among the causes which shall be deemed sufficient for dismissal, suspension, and/or other disciplinary action are the following:

1. Unauthorized or excessive absence from work.
2. Commitment or conviction of any criminal act.
3. Conduct unbecoming any employee in the public service.
4. Disorderly or immoral conduct.
5. Drunkenness.
6. Dishonesty and falsification of employment application.
7. Insubordination and willful violation of employer's policies, rules, and procedures.

B. An employee may be dismissed, suspended or disciplined pending investigation, and if the dismissal, suspension or disciplinary action is found to be without justification, the employee shall be reinstated with full back pay, full seniority rights and all fringe benefits that the employee would have earned during the dismissal or suspension period. If the dismissal is sustained or the suspended employee is not reinstated through the grievance procedure, the employee shall be deemed dismissed as of the date such action was taken.

C. The Union, with specific written consent of the employee, shall have the right to review the contents of the personnel file of any employee within the bargaining unit, upon making the request to the administration of the school district. An employee, upon making request, shall have the right to review the contents of his/her own personnel file maintained by the employer. Such review of personnel files must be done in the Board of Education Offices under the supervision of a designated school employee.

ARTICLE XIV

STEWARDS

A. The employees shall be represented by a Chief Steward who shall be chosen or selected in a manner determined by the employees and the Union.

B. Arrangements may be made to allow the Chief Steward time off with pay for the purpose of investigating grievances, time to attend grievance and negotiation meetings after arrangements have been made with his or her immediate supervisor.

C. During his/her term of office the Chief Steward shall be deemed to head the seniority list for the purposes of shift preference, lay-off, and recall only; provided, he/she is qualified to do the required work. Upon termination of his/her term, he/she shall be returned to his/her regular seniority status.

D. Any newly hired employee shall be introduced to the Chief Steward before starting to work, in order that such newly hired employees may be added to the Chief Steward's record, or the Chief Steward shall be supplied the following information within the employee's first week of employment: name, date of hire, address, Social Security Number, classification, job location, and shift assignment.

ARTICLE XV

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A. An employee who because of illness or accident which is non-compensable under the Workmen's Compensation Law, is physically unable to report for work and has exhausted all means of compensation from the employer, shall be granted a leave of absence up to one (1) year, which may be extended beyond one (1) year upon mutual agreement of the parties, provided such employee promptly notifies the employer of the necessity therefore, and provided further that the employee supplies the employer with a written statement from a medical or cateopathic doctor of the necessity for such absence and for the continuation of such absence when the same is requested by the employer.

B. Leaves of Absence shall be granted up to one (1) year for physical or mental illness, or a prolonged serious illness which effects the employee, or the employee's spouse, children, grandchildren or parents.

C. Employees disabled because of pregnancy may use sick leave for the period of time of actual disability. Further, it is understood that an employee opting to take a maternity leave as hereinafter provided without pay is not eligible for sick leave payment during the period of the unpaid leave of absence.

D. Anticipated prolonged Disability - Any employee who can anticipate a prolonged disability (such as surgery, other confinement to home or hospital including maternity) shall notify his/her supervisor in writing at least thirty (30) calendar days in advance of the projected period of confinement. The notification shall contain the projected dates of confinement. It is understood that use of sick leave shall be only for the duration of the actual incapacity and the Board reserves the right of written verification and/or consultation with or from a physician.

E. Maternity Leave - A maternity leave shall be available to female employees who are pregnant upon the following conditions:

1. At least sixty (60) calendar days prior to the beginning of the leave, the employee shall apply to the Board if she wishes an unpaid leave.
2. Leaves of Absence shall be granted for a specified period of time for training related to an employee's regular duties in an approved educational institution.
3. The Board reserves the right to specify the beginning and ending date of the leave except the same shall not be in conflict with the doctor's statement of health.
4. The Board may grant up to one (1) school year of maternity leave renewable at the discretion of the Board.
5. Any maternity leave granted will be without pay, however, the employee, upon return from the leave, shall have all previous benefits of this Agreement restored to her, but shall not accumulate any benefits while on such a leave.
6. The provisions of a maternity leave shall not exempt an employee from the provisions of the lay-off procedure contained in this Agreement except the Board shall not be required to give notice of lay-off for the duration of the maternity leave.
7. If the employee does not return upon the expiration of the maternity leave, she shall conclusively be deemed to have resigned unless mutually agreed upon by the Board and the employee prior to said date.
8. Employees returning from a maternity leave shall furnish medical evidence of their ability to perform their normal work assignments.
9. Employees may make written application for extension of the maternity leave subject to the provisions of the initial request.

10. An employee may make written application to the superintendent for reinstatement prior to expiration of the leave. However, the Board of Education reserves the reasonable right to approve accelerated termination of maternity leaves on the basis of each individual case. The reasonable right of the Board of Education will be grievable.

11. An employee on maternity leave must have her current address on file in the superintendent's office.

F. Leaves of absence shall be granted for a specified period of time for training related to an employee's regular duties in an approved educational institution.

G. The reinstatement rights of any employee who enters the military service of the United States by reason of an act of law enacted by Congress of the United States, or who may voluntarily enlist during the effective period of such law shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the law granting such rights.

H. Leaves of Absence will be granted to employees who are active in the National Guard or branch of the Armed Forces Reserves for the purpose of fulfilling his/her annual field training obligations, provided such employee makes a written request for such a leave of absence immediately upon receiving his/her orders to report for such duty.

I. Any employee in the bargaining unit who is either elected or appointed to a full-time position or office in the Union whose duties require his/her absence from work, shall be granted a leave of absence for the term of such office or position.

J. All reasons for leaves of absence shall be in writing stating the reason for the request and the approximate length of the leave requested, with a copy of the request to be maintained by the employer, a copy furnished to the employee, and a copy sent to the Union.

K. An employee who meets all of the requirements as hereinbefore specified, shall be granted a leave of absence without pay except for a pregnancy disability leave which shall be with pay, and the employee shall accumulate seniority during his/her leave of absence, and the employee shall be entitled to resume his/her regular seniority status and all job and recall rights. Leaves of Absence may be granted at the discretion of the employer for reasons other than these listed above when they are deemed beneficial to the employee and the Employer.

ARTICLE XVI

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

DEFINITIONS

A. A grievance shall be defined as an alleged violation, misinterpretation, or misapplication of the express terms of this Agreement.

B. The time elements in the steps may be shortened, extended or waived upon written mutual agreement between the parties.

C. For the purpose of processing grievances, working days shall be defined as Monday through Friday, excluding all non-session school days.

D. A grievance pertaining to alleged safety hazards may be processed directly to Step Three (3) of the grievance procedure, upon the employee having orally discussed the grievance with his/her immediate supervisor.

E. Any grievance which is not appealed within the specified time limits set forth in that step level shall be considered settled on the basis of the decision rendered at the previous step level. The failure of the employer, at any step level of the grievance procedure, to communicate the decision on the grievance in writing, to the Union within the prescribed time limits set forth in that step level of the grievance procedure, shall require that the relief requested by the Union be granted.

F. Any employee or Union grievance not presented for disposition through the grievance procedure within five (5) working days of the occurrence of the conditions giving rise to the grievance, or within five (5) working days of the date it is reasonable to assume that the employee first became aware of the conditions giving rise to the grievance, unless, the circumstances made it impossible for the employee or the Union as the case may be, to know prior to that date that there were grounds for such a claim, the grievance shall not hereafter be considered a grievance under this Agreement.

STEP ONE

A. Any employee having a grievance shall discuss the grievance with his/her immediate supervisor, and then if the grievance is not settled orally, the employee may request a meeting with the Chief Steward to discuss the grievance.

B. The Chief Steward then may submit the grievance in writing to the immediate supervisor stating the remedy or correction requested, plus the facts upon which the grievance is based and the alleged contract violation. The employee and the Chief Steward shall sign the grievance.

STEP TWO

A. The Chief Steward shall meet with the immediate supervisor to discuss the grievance within five (5) working days of its written submission to the immediate supervisor.

B. The immediate supervisor shall give his decision in writing relative to the grievance within ten (10) working days of his meeting with the Chief Steward.

C. If the decision of the working supervisor is not appealed within five (5) working days, his decision shall be considered settlement of the grievance.

STEP THREE

A. Any appeal of a decision rendered by the immediate supervisor shall be presented to the Superintendent of Schools within five (5) working days and the Superintendent of Schools shall meet with a business representative of the Union at a time mutually agreeable to them. The appeal shall be in writing and state the reason, or reasons, why the decision of the immediate supervisor was not satisfactory, and the grounds for the appeal.

B. The Superintendent of Schools shall give his decision in writing relative to the grievance within five (5) working days of the meeting with the business representative of the Union.

STEP FOUR

A. Any appeal of a decision rendered by the Superintendent of Schools shall be presented to the Board of Education within five (5) working days and the Board shall meet with a business representative of the Union at a time mutually agreeable to them. The appeal shall be in writing and state the reason, or reasons, why the decision of the superintendent of schools was not satisfactory.

B. The Board of Education shall give their decision in writing relative to the grievance within ten (10) working days of the business representative's meeting with the Board of Education.

STEP FIVE

A. If the Union so requests, the Board or its representative will meet further with the Union to consider fairly and in good faith any other methods of settlement.

B. The procedure herein provided shall not prohibit the Union or the Employer from recourse to normal mediation provided by Michigan State Law.

SECTION 4 - SICK LEAVE AND FUNERAL LEAVE

- A. Each employee covered by this Agreement will be entitled to sick leave accumulated in a single sick leave bank at the rate of ten (10) days per year accumulated to thirty (30) days maximum, and days accumulated over thirty (30) will be reimbursed at the rate of nine dollars ($9.00) per day with the maximum of ten (10) days reimbursable at the end of each school year. No employee with excess of thirty (30) days will lose them except by use. It is understood that part-time employees shall be entitled to a pro-rated portion of all benefits provided under this paragraph and other paragraphs of this Agreement.
- B. After five (5) consecutive days of illness, the employee must present a doctor's written permission slip of good health to be able to return to work.

C. Sick leave shall be granted to an employee when he/she is incapacitated from the performance of his/her duties by sickness, injury or for medical, dental or optical examination or treatment. Sick leave shall also be granted when a member of the immediate family of the employee requires the care and attendance of the employee due to illness or injury.

SECTION 5 - IMMEDIATE FAMILY FUNERAL LEAVE

All employees shall be granted up to three (3) working days off with pay for a death in the employee's immediate family. The immediate family shall be construed to be one of the following: husband, wife, children, parents, brother, sister, grandparents, grandchildren, mother-in-law, or father-in-law. Additional time off for traveling shall be granted and such additional time shall be charged to sick leave.

SECTION 6 - PERSONAL BUSINESS DAYS

A. All employees covered by this Agreement shall be granted two (2) Personal Business Days per year, not deductible from the employee's allowable earned sick leave. Personal Business Days are not accumulative. Unused Personal Business Days shall be added to the sick leave bank and shall be reimbursed as agreed to in Section 4 of this article.

B. Personal Emergency and/or Business Days shall be defined as events that cannot be accomplished after the regular work day or on weekends. Also, the employee will make every effort to complete his/her personal business on his/her own time. Personal Business Days may not be taken prior to or after a school recess except in an emergency.

C. Requests for personal Business Days must be submitted to the Superintendent of Schools at least three (3) working days prior to the date requested: notification may be shortened if necessitated by an emergency. Each request for a Personal Business Day must state the exact reason for the request.

SECTION 7 - INCLEMENT WEATHER DAYS

A. If the school calendar is required to be extended or there is a modification in the school calendar because of state law, any bargaining unit member required to perform any work on a day not originally specified as a duty day in this Agreement shall do so with no additional compensation. Employees shall receive their regular pay for scheduled work days which are not held because of conditions not within the control of school authorities, such as inclement weather, fires, epidemics, mechanical failure, health conditions as defined by the city, county, or state health authorities, or other acts of God.

B. If at any time during the life of this Agreement it becomes lawful to count the days mentioned in Section 7, Paragraph A as days of pupil instruction, it is agreed that the following language will become immediately effective:

On days when the schools are closed because of inclement weather, employees shall not be required to report to work. The first five (5) inclement weather days occurring in a school year shall not be made up. The sixth inclement weather day will be made up by converting an in-service day to a day of student instruction. The seventh and eighth inclement weather days will be made up by extending the school calendar thru the two (186 and 187) succeeding days. Inclement weather days in excess of eight (8) shall not be made up.

SECTION 8 - FULL-TIME/PART-TIME EMPLOYEES

A. Full-Time Employees: A full-time employee is defined as an employee who works the established hours in the department, or averages not less than six (6) hours per day.

B. Part-Time Employees: A part-time employee is defined as one who works less than the established hours in the department on a regular daily schedule, or less than six (6) hours per day.
