Caseville Community Christmas Fund seeks gifts

If you desire to help this project bring a brighter Christmas to many persons in our community, you may contact your minister or Coordinator Janice Prill at 856-3062 for your gift of food and money, organizers say.

The organizing group has opened an account at New Century Bank and records will be kept of donations and distributions.

All checks should be made payable to "Caseville Community Christmas Fund," and organizers thank people for their excellent assistance.

Donations should be sent to the Christmas Fund care of P.O. Box 650, Caseville, MI 48405.

Seated are Pat Newbury of the church and Janice Prill, coordinator of the Christmas fund, seeking food, monetary, toy and clothes gifts to help Caseville's needy.

They love their country, but they look with jealousy across the U.S. border and see a beter nation growing rich and prosperous.

We have so much, so often and so complicantly that we fail to appreciate our good fortune.

We have so much to offer people in other lands,
places and comfort materials for silly, mean-inspired reasons. It is a heartbreak for the people hundreds of thousands of miles away to see us do so.

Yes, we should be brought out again and again, to be served and consumed — by us all.

We can’t begin to understand the Thursday moes Ethipopanesses suffered through.
Hundreds, died that day, some from lack of food or living conditions. They were not afraid to stumble themselves — and there are plenty left over for at least two more meals all around.

We only have a small number of Egypian chicks enjoying eggs, but we only have one.

We must not only eat the bread our govern-

"I'd rather keep on using my phone. It makes my life simpler."

Of course, you do get a little more GTE telephone if you prefer. But do you think they're better? In fact, they don't have to do anything. You can use your own handset, your own phone. The same low monthly rent is all yours. And you can rent as many 300 phones as you like—without buying or saving a penny in purchase. Not only that, but when you rent, you never have to worry about repairs. If your phone should ever break down, we will repair it right away, and it is free. You don't pay a penny, no charge. For repairs, we have an army of repairmen. They are very simple: GTE customers do not have to buy the telephones they are renting.

We make your life simpler.

Pigeon River hosts Gospel Echoes

By MILDRED BALLAGH

The lake was calm and serene, the sky clear and blue as the Pigeon River Gospel Echoes gathered for their weekly service. They sang in harmony, their voices blending together in a soothing melody. Suddenly, a flash of light drew their attention. It was the sun shining through the clouds, casting a warm glow over the congregation. The service ended with a moving benediction, and the attendees walked away with a sense of peace and gratitude.

Lake-Chamber holiday happenings

By Mildred Ballagh

The Lake Chamber of Commerce was abuzz with holiday happenings. The annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony was held in Chelan Harbor, with a large crowd gathered to see the tree come alive with lights. The chamber also hosted a holiday craft fair, where local artisans displayed their creations and sold them to eager customers. Children of all ages were thrilled as Santa arrived by boat, handing out gifts to the little ones. The season was filled with joy and celebration.

Pigeon news

By Dorothy Genes

The Pigeon River community was buzzing with news. The annual chili cook-off brought in a large crowd, with people cheering on their favorite recipes. The winners were crowned at a festive ceremony, and the community celebrated together. The chamber also announced the results of the annual Christmas tree festival, with the winners receiving recognition and prizes for their efforts.

Be Soft Water Wise!!

Let's work together to ensure we have enough water for everyone. We can all contribute to preserving our precious water resources by practicing water conservation.
