Continuing rains slow '85 Thumb beet harvest

DOING IT IN THE MUD: Farmers harvesting sugar beets in the Thumb area have often had to use tractors to assist trucks through muddy fields after recent rainfall in the area. Picture above are the Leipprandts, located north of Pigeon, taking off several loads of beets before the rain hit last Friday.

Dick Jacobs, Agricultural Manager of Michigan Sugar Company in Sebewaing says recent rains have put beet deliveries about 1.1% days behind the usual amount harvested. He estimates 95% of the crop harvested as of Monday, compared with the usual amount of 96.26% this time of the year.

Cool temperatures have created excellent conditions for permanent storage this year, adds Jacobs.

Marie Leipprandt heads ‘new’ Historical Society

Interest in the Pigeon Historical Society and its goal of renovating the vacant railroad depot as an historical museum is growing, as shown last Thursday when 25 members and their guests met at the renovated group.

Mrs. Paul (Marie) Leipprandt was chosen as chairman, while Werner Chlubnich is vice chairman. Mrs. Reinhard Bauer is secretary and Al (Botch) Robinson, Jr., is treasurer.

Committees were appointed to review the group’s bylaws and constitution and for fund-raising. Depot remodeling plans highlighted the discussion, Mrs. Leipprandt said.

“What we need now is more assistance, especially from younger people,” she said Friday. “We welcome their ideas, help and interest.”

The Historical Society received $100 from life member Florence Schlichter, who recently passed away, and “members appreciate the great contributions Florence made to the preservation of history in our area,” Mrs. Leipprandt added.

Others who wish to contribute should contact Al Robinson, who April reed organ concert is planned at Laker High’s auditorium, to raise funds for the project, as announced in last week’s Progress-Advance.

Benefit garage sale held over

Due to fantastic response, the Bluewater Youth for Christ garage sale held over for an additional weekend, according to BYFC Director Dwight Gatcho.

Additional used items and same new articles have been added to the sale which runs Friday from 9 a.m.-6 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m.-noon. Coffee, cider and donuts will also be offered during the sale Gatcho says.

All proceeds from the sale will go to Bluewater Youth for Christ.

PEOPLE CLEANING INTEREST

It has been a bumper crop this year for the Port Austin Community Clean-up, which was held on June 10. The volunteers have been busy cleaning up the streets and alleys, as well as the parks and playgrounds. The group has set up a new program to help reduce litter. They are also planning to start a community garden in the fall. The Port Austin Community Clean-up is a great way to help keep our community clean and beautiful.

POLICE BLOTTER NEWS

If you see something, say something. If you think you might have seen something suspicious, report it to the police. They are always on the lookout for any potential threats to the community.

Work together again, Pigeon

The heartwarming — and for the community's good — to see many people begin taking the time needed to help make Pigeon and this local area a pleasant place to live. The past few weeks reveal that this activity is increasing in this area.

The Pigeon Village Council, for example, has planned several events to encourage community involvement. These include the annual Pigeon Festival, held on a Saturday in mid-August, which features a parade, fair, and live music. The festival is a great opportunity for residents to come together and celebrate their community.

Another example of community involvement is the Pigeon Community Garden, located at the corner of Main Street and West Oak Avenue. The garden is open to all residents and provides a space for individuals to grow their own vegetables and herbs.

In addition to these events, many local businesses are also encouraging community involvement. For example, the Pigeon Market, a neighborhood grocery store, has implemented a program where customers can donate food to local food banks.

Overall, the community is coming together once again, working together towards a common goal of making Pigeon a better place to live.
Co-Op flag to honor Bob Schaaf

A flag will fly over the Campus Chalet at the University of Illinois, Champaign, in honor of Bob Schaaf, a key figure in the development of Illinois State University, who passed away on Sept. 21, 1985. Following a distinguished career in academic administration, Schaaf served as the University's first chancellor from 1971 to 1979. The flag will be flown in recognition of Schaaf's contributions to higher education and in honor of his legacy.

Apples worth ‘braggin’ about’!

Many apples have been grown in the Midwest, but few can match the quality of the apples produced in the state of Illinois. The state is home to a variety of apple orchards, each with its own unique flavor and characteristic. The growers take great pride in their produce, and it's no wonder why. Illinois apples are known for their sweetness, crispness, and bright colors.

Eagles Auxiliary honors past leaders

Reverence members of the Campus Poultry Enterprise, a student organization, gathered recently at the Hotel Commodore to honor past leaders of the organization. The event included a banquet and a ceremony to honor the members of the committee who had served in previous years.

Top o’ the week

The governor signed legislation banning the use of certain pesticides in Illinois. The new law prohibits the use of pesticides that are harmful to beneficial insects, such as ladybugs and bees. The governor also signed a bill that requires farmers to obtain a permit before applying certain types of herbicides.

Weed control

A program to control weeds in Illinois is being expanded to include new areas. The program, which is funded by the state of Illinois, is designed to help farmers control weeds that are resistant to commonly used herbicides.

LIVESTOCK producers can gain an advantage by using genetically improved livestock. This means that farmers can select livestock that are more resistant to disease, have better growth rates, or produce more meat or milk. The use of genetically improved livestock can help producers increase their profits.

The state of Illinois has a strong presence in the global market, with exports of agricultural products surpassing $10 billion in 2018. This year, the state is expected to see an increase in exports, thanks to efforts to expand Illinois agriculture products into new markets. A new market development program, the Illinois International Agri-Trade Initiative, is helping to support these efforts.

Long-distance jobs 'way of life' for many

By RICH

The people who go to work in the city on time, then go home to find their families looking for them, are not unique.

They are called executives.

Still, it's a strain. There are the problems of commuting,

the worry about the weather,

the worry about whether the train or the bus will be on time.

That's why some executives are beginning to look for ways to make their lives easier.

One way is to move to the city and commute to the suburbs. Another is to move to the suburbs and commute to the city. Either way, it's a way of life that has its problems.

What would prompt a person to sacrifice hours of sleep and the other disadvantages of commuting?

The meeting will be held to discuss the federation's work during the past year.

The federation's three main goals are: to increase the number of executive women in the state; to promote women in the field; and to provide information about

executive women in

HERN COUNTY

THUMB OUTDOOR REPORT

LAST WEEK PROVED TO BE ONE OF THE BEST HUNTING WEEKS OF THE SEASON SO FAR. AS REPORTED BY THE HUNTING BULL, MORE THAN 200 HUNTERS DISAPPEARED IN THE WOODS AND FORESTS OF MUSKOGEE COUNTY, ENSURING THAT THE HUNT FIELDS AND WILDLIFE RESOURCES WERE OPEN FOR BUSINESS. PREDOMINANTLY, THE BUCKS AND DOES WERE ABLE TO SPEND QUALITY TIME IN THE WOODS, AS THE COLD WEATHER AND SNOW REDUCED THEIR MOVEMENTS TO THEIR NATURAL HABITATS.

FIRE BREAKOUTS, INCLUDING ONE IN THE NORTHERN PART OF MUSKOGEE COUNTY, CAUSED A TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF HUNTING ACTIVITY. THE FIRE, WHICH SPREADS TO THE EAST, RESULTED IN THE DESTRUCTION OF SEVERAL RESIDENTIAL AND COMMERCIAL BUILDINGS IN THE AREA. LOCAL HUMANS CONTINUED TO ASSIST IN THE EFFORTS TO CONTROL THE FIRE, AND THE SITUATION IS UNDER CONTROL AT THIS TIME.

VILLAGE OF PIGEON: Minutes of Regular Village Council Meeting

At its regular meeting on September 5, 2015, the Village Council of Pigeon, Michigan, convened to discuss various topics. Among the agenda items was the presentation of a new park project, which received mixed reviews from the council members. The Environmental Inspector, Mr. Smith, gave a detailed report on the progress of the project and highlighted the importance of maintaining a balanced ecosystem in the area.

The meeting also included a discussion on the upcoming budget for the next fiscal year. The Finance Committee presented a proposed budget that included necessary maintenance and repair costs for the village. The council members agreed to review the budget in detail before final approval.

In another segment of the meeting, the Council discussed the need for better communication with the residents regarding the ongoing projects. It was suggested that regular town hall meetings be held to address concerns and provide updates. The Council agreed to implement this suggestion to enhance transparency and engagement with the community.

The meeting concluded with a vote to approve the minutes of the previous meeting, which was unanimously passed. The Council thanked all members for their contributions and looked forward to the next council meeting.

Eagles wear down Peck, hope for share of NWC title

By RICH SWANTZENBERGER

It was a day in which the offense took over. The Eagles played a team that was coming off a loss to 5A Permian. In the NWC, that is like trying to win a race against a horse. The Eagles did it as they overpowered Peck 48-20.

In the NWC, the offense has to be in top form to win against a team like Peck. The Eagles did it, and they did it with the quick passing of quarterback John Winkler.

The Eagles started strongly, and they never looked back. The offense was led by quarterback John Winkler, who had 16 completions for 244 yards and two touchdowns. The Eagles' running back, Grainne Murphy, had 113 yards and two touchdowns. The defense was led by linebacker Kyle Kelly, who had 10 tackles.

The Eagles are now in the running for the NWC title, and they will need to continue their strong play to keep the momentum going. The Eagles have a chance to win the title, and they will need to continue their strong play to keep the momentum going. The Eagles have a chance to win the title, and they will need to continue their strong play to keep the momentum going.

Local treasurers to be honored

Village, county and state treasurers in Michigan get their day this year, as State Treasurer Roberta S. Moetel told townships and village treasurers throughout the county that the County Treasurers' Association of Michigan will honor their Day, in recognition of their contributions to their communities.

The state appreciation dinner is planned at Long's Convention Center in Traverse City on November 12 for the county and state treasurers. Information is available from Assistant State Treasurer Laura Laster, P.O. Box 11067, Lansing, MI 48909.
