We're Asking You... This Week's Question, Asked by Vivda Alkon
July 4th marks our country's 210th anniversary. How do you plan to celebrate or observe this July 4th and the Statue of Liberty dedication?

I plan to go to a progressive dinner with the card club. Joyce Jarvis
I plan to spend my time at the beach, relaxing. Rick Kula
I plan to being in the Port Austin parade, for Leisure Ministries, and celebrating my son, Jeremy's 21st birthday.
Dale Kelling
I'm planning to be at the Lamb & Fiber Affair at the Fairgrounds, Bad Axe. It's a big show, and we hope to see everyone there. Donna Wheeler

Learning about citizenship: More than 280 high school students from throughout the county participated in the 21st annual Young People's Forum. Participants came from all over the county to learn about the importance of citizenship.

Michigan Farm Bureau sponsors the event to help students prepare for their citizenship exams. The Farm Bureau's school program, which sends instructors to the schools, is designed to provide an overview of what students need to know about U.S. and world agriculture and the importance of citizenship.
