Something to Think About

AVOID PROBLEMS WITH PRE PLANNING
Planning in advance is the key to avoiding pitfalls for determining the best way to handle a situation. It helps to anticipate problems before they arise. As a general rule, if you can plan ahead, you’ll save time and money. What is awesome about planning is that it helps you avoid stress and make the best decisions. It’s worth considering a few tips for planning:

1. Set a unique goal for the event.
2. Consider the budget and available resources.
3. Make a timeline for the event.
4. Choose a location or venue that suits the event.

Attending the Church of Your Choice This Sunday and Every Sunday

Prepare for Your Holidays With Love and Kindness

Whether your holiday will be celebrating this month is Christmas or Chanukah, there is no better way to get into the spirit of it then by putting your best foot forward; remembering also that this is an excellent time to mend any unresolved quarrels with friends or relatives. All the lights, candles or other holiday adornments mean little if your home is not also filled with love, kindness, patience and general good manners. Moreover, don’t leave home without your holiday spirit, for this will help you keep your sanity in traffic jams, crowded stores and other exasperating situations.

Despite your busy schedule, attend your House of Worship to learn how vital this loving spirit is to the holiday celebration. If you then decide to put all this into practice through the whole year, you will look better, and as will everyone around you.

Tharpe portion of a good meal, Mr. acts of kindness and love.

Boar’s Head Festival to be shown twice

Re-description of the Boar’s Head Festival, a 14th century English custom, will take place at Immanuel Lutheran Church, Selma, on Sunday, December 17, with a repeat performance on Wednesday, December 20. Both performances start at 7:30 p.m. The festival derives its name from the practice of serving a boar’s head at the end of the evening feast.

As Christianity spread through northern Europe, this custom became symbolic of Christ’s victory over evil forces of evil.

The festival has grown into a pageant which includes the traditional Christmas story and many symbolic elements of the season. A cast of 65 people will be required to perform the various roles, and a live orchestra will play accompanying music.
