Many seeking Pigeon election posts

There will be plenty of candidates from which to choose in Pigeon during the February Primary Election, based on the number of nominations petitions now being circulated. At least 16 persons are seeking the six positions on Pigeon Village Council. There are also positions to be filled on the Village Board of Commissioners, the Village Fire Department, the Village Water and sewer commission, and the Village police department. Many people are also registered to vote in the Village of Michigan and the City of Port Huron, which are consolidated with the Village of Pigeon.

Engineer not earning his $590,000

Pigeon unhappy with water tower work

The Village Council doesn't think it's getting its money's worth in service — but improving that situation has proven difficult. Council discussed growing frustration with engineering and project management work being performed on the Pigeon water system during its Monday night meeting. Besides getting the system in operation more than four months ago, Council notes the engineering firm of E. Don Williams and Associates of Harbor Beach hasn't done all it's being paid to do. Members grumbled that Williams and its representative Gary Gernhammer had been difficult to contact, haven't directed or assisted in teaching Pigeon DPW workers procedures for operating the water tower and system — and have left the village in the dark on the entire matter too much.

"If they're waiting for their money as long as we've been waiting for service, they wouldn't be operating this way," said Council member Bob Flasgau. Member Dave McDermott, "Communication has been very poor in the past six months."

$800,000 TO BE PAID: Council voted last year to hire William's firm to engineer and design the water tower and water line system, and had agreed to pay 9% for engineering design on the $800,000 construction portion of the overall program. Most members had few complaints about that portion — but other members disagreed. Cowman agreed to have the Harbor Beach firm also serve as resident inspector and project manager for the water system project. Along with Pigeon's interests professionally in construction. Each portion pays Williams another 4% of the overall price to the service. In total, the final payment to about $800,000 — 16% of the construction phases.

Little on site project management has been performed by any Williams workers, Village President Dave Gernhammer said, and asks when Pigeon DPW workers must fill in. "Anybody making that kind of money on a project like this should be finding back behind to be sure the customer is happy," Gernhammer said. Monday. "We're not happy. Not at all."

HARD TO STOP PAYMENT: Since the Huron County DPW authorized the bonds to pay for the water system, Pigeon Council has difficulty stopping payment, since William's bills submitted are okayed in Bay Area.

Council decided to contact the firm by letter, demanding answers on construction slow-downs and getting satisfaction in project management. Pigeon residents are now using water through the new tower, underground reservoirs and water lines — but last week's switchover was done by Pigeon DPW crews, without any on-site direction or observation by Williams people. A company representative will be asked to appear at the Jan. 12 Council meeting, or any special session before that date.

MORE PROBATION: Village Sgt. Janet Heckman's three-month trial period is over, and Gernhammer said, "I think she's done one heck of a job for us."

Council agreed, and raised her pay by $500 annually to $10,000.

NEW TRACTOR: Council voted to purchase a new Ford industrial tractor with bucket from Owens Equipment, Inc., for $30,000 with trade-in. A similar model truck at a cost of $31,500 would be purchased from Goodell's Implement Company. The cost of $30,000 was justified by the existence of existing village equipment, Council members said.

LOVE GIVES: Five village workers were given $300 U.S. Savings Bonds as traditional Christmas gifts, while two new workers are being given $100,000 savings bonds. In addition, all employees received a one-week paid vacation. Christmas gifts were given to Village Clerk Kenneth Schrock, Village Fire Chief John VanZandt, Village Maintenance Worker James Kohl, Mike Graf and Van Johnson. Each will each get the $800 bonds (costing $150), while the three, Gernhammer and Jeff Wichter will get the $800 variety (costing $100).

Laker money woes continue

By RICH SWARTZENDRUBER

Money matters dominated discussion at Laker School Board's regular monthly meeting Monday night.

A review of the 1986-87 financial situation of the Laker District by the Budget Committee resulted in revisions to more accurately reflect the drop in revenue following the recent unsuccessful millage election. Cuts in expenditures to balance the impact of lower tax dollars for the District were also noted.

Revenues were adjusted downward by $42,850 from the original budget which had included anticipated revenues from an additional 1/2 mill, the District hoped voters would approve.

Expenditures were decreased by $1,673. Insurance costs were $18,000 lower than anticipated, but were offset by a $30,000 increase in transportation capital outlay.

If current budget figures reflect actual income and expenses, the District will spend $80 million while taking in only $73.5 million during the school's fiscal year, the figure shows.

As a result of the "deficit" budget, the Laker fund balance would drop from $372,432 at the start of the 1986-87 year to $170,791,483 by the end of the year.

By HARRY BRENT

Laker Board member Mr. Richard Lockard noted people often ask how much sports activities cost the District. He noticed the breakdown lists 2% of the budget ($130,000) used for extracurricular activities of all kinds — including sports.

Business Manager and Athletic Director Rob Durley told the Board about $60,000 of the extracurricular budget is used for athletics. He also pointed out Driver Education is considered an extracurricular activity which costs the District about $8,000 annually.

"We spend $4,200 of that amount comes out of the Laker budget, he added. "Please turn to page 3."
Airport hearing set this Friday
The last of the long-drag- ged Council Grove Township Airport hearings will be held Friday night, according to Chief Judge Judge Richard Kendall, who said that Judge Kendall had been called by the Landowners Association to discuss the matter further.

On Sept. 2, the Board voted 4-0, with one abstention, to purchase 30-acre Airport Land Corporation property for $200,000. The purchase was approved by the Board, who also ordered that the Town Council's resolution be amended to include the new area as part of the airport.

The hearing will be held at 7 p.m. at the Town Hall, and will be open to the public.

"Drugs and driving just don’t mix..."

C on the point be made too often that the use of drugs and alcohol behind the wheel is a menace to public safety. It is a point that is made too often taken lightly by too many people. The statistics are clear and unambiguous. Those who drive while under the influence of drugs or alcohol are putting themselves and others in danger.

For persons ages 16 to 24, drunk driving represents the leading cause of death. The age group totals 20% of all drivers driving while intoxicated, and 44% of all fatal alcohol-related crashes. And drug use is even worse. Driving requires a smooth coordination of thought and motor skills, and alcohol or drugs can impair these functions. Motorists are just as likely to make a deadly mistake as the State Patrol tells us.

At some point in their lives, two out of every four Americans will be involved in a traffic accident. Between midnight and 4 a.m., about 40% of drivers killed have been intoxicated.

In 1986, 46% of all traffic fatalities in Minnesota involved the use of alcohol or drugs. That’s just the statistics. Remember, 500,000 Americans were injured nationally last year in alcohol-related accidents. We can — and must — do something about these staggering figures.

This holiday season is a time for family and friends to get together. Good times lead to others, and drinking and drug use turn up rapidly in many homes.

Only one person — you — can prevent you from being a victim of those same experiences. Everyone who drives should drive sober.

"I forgot about it," Gordon said. "I thought it was still under there."

- Planting Tips: Choose a location that receives plenty of sunlight. Avoid placing them in direct sunlight, as they prefer semi-shade.
- Watering: Water the poinsettias regularly, but do not overwater them. Keep the soil slightly moist but not soggy.
- Fertilizing: Feed the poinsettias once a month with a balanced fertilizer.
- Pest Control: Monitor for aphids and spider mites, which can be a significant problem.
- Christmas Care: Keep the temperature at 60°F to 70°F during the day and 55°F to 60°F at night. Avoid drafts and keep them away from direct sunlight.

Saginaw Bay anglers catch cash!

Two thumb areas have received recent added interest in the local fishing community.

Every story of out-of-town and recreational fishermen in the area have been filled with tales of recent catches.

A recent story about a local angler who caught a large perch in the Saginaw Bay has been circulating throughout the area.

When asked how he caught the fish, the angler simply said, "I was just fishing where the perch were biting.

The perch have been showing up in good numbers in the bay, and many anglers have been enjoying the opportunity to catch them.

With the recent increase in interest, the Saginaw Bay has become a popular destination for local anglers.

Along with the perch, the Saginaw Bay also offers opportunities to catch other species such as pike and walleye.

Anglers have been advised to practice safe fishing techniques and to respect the environment to ensure the continued health of the bay.

The Saginaw Bay Conservation Club, the local sportfish Club and several Saginaw Bay recreational fishing clubs have also taken notice of the recent increase in interest.

The Saginaw Bay Conservation Club has organized a series of tournaments and events to promote fishing in the bay.

These events have been well attended, and many anglers have participated in the competitions.

The Saginaw Bay Conservation Club is committed to the preservation of Saginaw Bay and its marine life.

These tournaments continue to draw interest, and the Saginaw Bay Conservation Club plans to continue hosting similar events in the future.
