Big-plays lift Lakers to TBA title win

By RICH SWARTZENDRUBER

The Lakers lifted the three-time defending champion of the TBA to the top of the Eastern Division with the penalty of the Western Conference after defeating the Thunderbirds, 87-80, in the key game.

In the second half, the Lakers used a 14-0 run to pull away from the Thunderbirds and seal the victory. The Lakers outscored the Thunderbirds, 14-6, in the final two minutes to secure the win.

The Lakers, led by Timmy Thomas, who scored 24 points, and David Johnson, who added 22 points, took control of the game in the second half. The Thunderbirds, led by Charlie Brown, who scored 21 points, and John Smith, who added 19 points, struggled to keep up.

The Lakers will now focus on the final two games of the season against the Western Conference leaders, the Warriors and the Cavaliers. A win against either team could seal the Eastern Conference title for the Lakers.

North Branch traps Lakers in battle for league lead

By RICH SWARTZENDRUBER

The North Branch Lakers trapped the Lakers in the key game of the season, taking control of the league lead with the win.

In the second half, the Lakers used a 14-0 run to pull away from the Lakers and seal the victory. The Lakers outscored the Lakers, 14-6, in the final two minutes to secure the win.

After just taking up running two years ago, the Pigeon native has posted impressive times in both the 800 and 1600 meters. He has set his sights on the marathon, where he plans to compete in the upcoming Olympic trials.
CAROL GRAF WEARS TERRY JARRE

Carol Graf married Terry Jarre of Silverton, who was elected to represent Silverton and Oakland in the Oregon Legislature. Terry Jarre is the son of George and Emma Jarre of Silverton. The couple plan to live in Silverton and continue their careers in the local community. Carol Graf, a teacher at Silverton High School, and Terry Jarre, a lawyer, are both active in their community service. Their wedding was attended by family and friends, including the mayor of Silverton, who officiated the ceremony. The couple enjoyed a reception at a local restaurant, where they were treated to a sumptuous meal. The newlyweds left for their honeymoon in the mountains, where they plan to take in the beautiful scenery and relax.

Following the ceremony, the couple was congratulated by their friends and family. Several guests presented speeches highlighting the couple's achievements and encouraging them for the future. The evening concluded with a fireworks display in the sky, adding a touch of romance and joy to the festivities.

The newlyweds were seen leaving the venue arm-in-arm, enjoying the moment together. They are looking forward to building a life filled with love, laughter, and adventure, both personally and professionally.

The couple's love story began with a chance meeting at a social event, and it was love at first sight. Over the years, their bond grew stronger, and they decided to take the next step in their relationship by getting married. The couple's families were supportive of their union, and the wedding was a joyous occasion for all involved.

The couple's future plans include expanding their family, pursuing their careers in the community, and continuing to enjoy the beautiful natural surroundings of Silverton. They look forward to many more years of love, support, and togetherness.

The wedding was a memorable event, filled with love, joy, and celebration. The couple's happiness was infectious, and their smiles were the bright spot of the day. The wedding was a testament to their love and commitment to each other, and their story serves as an inspiration to others.

Bergman, Rhodes marry in Ohio

Bergman and Rhodes met in Ohio while attending a wedding ceremony in September, where they exchanged vows in a small, intimate setting. The couple then traveled to Detroit to celebrate their union. Rhodes's father, a prominent businessman, had arranged the wedding and had invited friends and family from all over the country.

Local newspapers covered the wedding and featured interviews with the couple. The bride, Margaret Schausnau, and the groom, David Bergman, were both well-known in the community, having attended the same high school and college. The wedding reception was held at the historic Crystal Palace Hotel in downtown Detroit, where guests enjoyed a lavish dinner and dance.

After the wedding, the newlyweds spent their honeymoon in Europe, visiting popular tourist destinations such as Paris, Rome, and Venice. They returned to Detroit to start their new life together, living in the same apartment as they had during their college years.

If you've got the CORN
We've got the CAPACITY

We can handle and dry more than 250,000 bushels of corn every day!

With our fast unloading, you get back to the fields fast, and that means money in your pockets!

And plenty of STORAGE available, too!
We'll see them coming down the street
And hear the purr of their feet,
As you whistle, "Blick, blink, Blick!"
To live up the scene;
Remembering our childhood days,
Before we've grown up in this phase
And taken up some evil ways.
That soon became extinct,
But some day we will feel the need
To learn the lessons of our creed,
And then to help our Brethren,
The Lord must intercede.
So let's resolve to do what's right,
Since evil's a great delight
For children, on this spooky night.
That's known as Halloween.
