Good defense, strong offense leading Lakers

By TIM BLAKEY

Larry Ensminger has always been a fan of his local high school, the North Davidson Blue Devils. He joined the school's coaching staff in 1964, and he remained there until his retirement in 1988. Under his leadership, the Blue Devils won numerous titles and championships, including the 1971 state championship. Ensminger was named the National High School Coach of the Year in 1971 and was inducted into the North Carolina Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 1986. He passed away in 2014 at the age of 82.

V-ballers win Delta tourney

By TIM BLAKEY

The volleyball team of North Davidson High School was crowned the 2023 Delta Invitational Champions. The team, led by coach Tim Blakey, defeated the West Davidson Lady Wildcats in the championship match. The victory solidified their position as one of the top teams in the region. Blakey has been coaching volleyball at North Davidson for over 20 years and has led the team to numerous titles and championships.

Wrestling season ends...

By TIM BLAKEY

The wrestling season has come to an end for the North Davidson Blue Devils. The team competed in the Southern Piedmont Conference Championships, where they finished in the top five. Coach David Brackeen praised the team's hard work and dedication throughout the season.

Casvestle School

Casvestle High School is located in Casvestle, a small town in North Carolina. The school is known for its strong sports programs, particularly in basketball. The team has a long history of success, winning numerous championships and producing many college-bound athletes. Casvestle High School is also known for its strong sense of community and tradition.

Club news

The club news section provides updates on various activities and events at Casvestle High School. This week, the school celebrated its annual powder puff game, where the senior class faces off against the junior class. The game is a tradition that has been going on for over 50 years, and it's always a highlight of the school year. The school also hosts a variety of other events, such as music concerts, art shows, and athletic games.

Caseville kids know what to do when someone has drugs.

The Caseville City School’s "Just Say No" Club has been very active in the community with their anti-drug messages. The students have been educated on the dangers of drug use and the importance of staying drug-free.

The club has been part of a larger movement known as "Just Say No," which originated in the United States to educate young people about the dangers of drugs. Caseville is one of the few places in Michigan where the program has been implemented.

"Just Say No" has gained popularity in recent years due to its message of preventing drug use among children. The program is designed to help young people make healthy choices and resist peer pressure.

The "Just Say No" campaign has been successful in Caseville, and the students have been able to educate their peers about the risks of drug use. The program has been praised for its effectiveness and has inspired other communities to adopt similar initiatives.
