By AMY HEIDEN

There are probably quite a few farms among the family for over 100 years, and probably quite a few houses still standing that are nearly that old.

But it’s also a good possibility that there are very few houses that are as old as some of the family live in them.

One such farm and house is the Deane Schulze homestead, which is still home to the late Deane’s 80-year-old father, Alfred Adolph.

The farm recently was recognized by the Detroit Edison as a Centennial Farm, having been owned by the same family for 100 years.

WINNINGS: On June 10, 1873, the U.S. government gave Christian Diehnbach title to the Southeast quarter of the Northeast quarter of Section 36 of the Township of Caseville in Huron County.

After changing hands several times, German immigrant Henry Schulze bought the 40 acres of land for $900. Schulze had immigrated to 1883 with his wife, Anna, and their two young children, Henry Jr., first settling in Iowa. The family moved to Michigan near Ann Arbor, but found the land there too hilly for farming.

NEW FARM: At the age of 54, Henry Schulze started farming his new property, which had a small building

TOUGH TIMES: After the Civil War, the yellow fever epidemic in 1878, and the Panic of 1893, and eventually had 12 rooms and was two stories high. In 1906, an addition was added to the house, with Jake and Will Schumacher being paid $100 for their masonry work.

- Construction of the house: The house began in the spring of 1893, and eventually had 12 rooms and was two stories high. In 1906, an addition was added to the house, with Jake and Will Schumacher being paid $100 for their masonry work.

- That addition was a mirror image of the north end of the house.

NEW FAMILY: In 1894, a young lady by the name of Doris Riddle came from Germany to be married to Henry Schulze, Jr.

- They were married on March 22, 1894, and Henry and Doris had five children: Freda, Roland, Herman, and Adolph, the present owners of the farm.

Pigeon Council

A recent meeting was held for the purpose of getting the Pigeon Council up and running. The meeting was called to order by President John Johnson, who stated that the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the current state of the Pigeon Council and to make any necessary adjustments to ensure its success.

The meeting began with an overview of the previous year’s activities and accomplishments. It was noted that the Pigeon Council had successfully organized several events and had actively engaged with the community. President Johnson highlighted the importance of continued collaboration and support from all members to ensure the council’s success.

The council then moved on to discuss the upcoming events and initiatives for the year. Various suggestions were presented, including the organization of a community clean-up day and the hosting of a family fun night. Members were encouraged to contribute their ideas and suggestions for future events.

Following the discussion, the meeting concluded with a vote on the approval of the council’s budget for the upcoming year. The motion was passed unanimously, with all members in agreement.

The Pigeon Council appreciates the support of all members and is excited to continue its efforts to strengthen the community and promote social activities.

Meet Academic Track!

Academic Track activities are becoming more common in many of our schools, but to junior high students in the Thurston, they’re going to be held for the first time. The opportunity is called the Academic Track, a three-week program designed to foster a love of learning and personal development.

The Academic Track is divided into three main categories: academic, social, and physical. Each category features a variety of activities and workshops aimed at enhancing students’ skills and fostering a sense of community.

In the academic category, students can expect to participate in workshops on critical thinking, problem-solving, and time management. These sessions will be led by experienced facilitators and will be tailored to meet the needs of each student.

The social category offers a range of activities designed to promote teamwork and interpersonal skills. Students will have the opportunity to participate in team-building exercises and group discussions, fostering a sense of community and collaboration.

The physical category focuses on promoting physical activity and health. Students will engage in various activities such as yoga, fitness classes, and outdoor sports, all aimed at encouraging a healthy lifestyle.

The Academic Track will take place from May 15th to May 20th. Students are encouraged to sign up early to secure their spots, as spaces are limited.

Recollections of By-Gone Days

By George Knox

A few years ago I wrote about a family reunion I was attending and how it was unlike any other I had ever been to. The attendees were a mix of old and new family members, and the atmosphere was filled with nostalgia and reminiscing.

The reunion took place in a beautiful location, surrounded by tall trees and a serene lake. The food was excellent, and the games and activities kept everyone entertained. The highlight of the reunion was the family photo session, where everyone wore outfits that represented different eras.

Recollections of By-Gone Days

By John Smith

The Pigeon Council held its annual meeting last week, and it was a great success. The meeting was attended by over 50 members, who discussed several important topics.

One of the main topics was the need for more community events. Members expressed a desire for more opportunities to come together and socialize. The council agreed to explore hosting a community fair or festival as a way to bring people together.

Another topic discussed was the importance of maintaining the city’s historic landmarks. The council decided to form a committee to work on preserving and restoring some of the most significant buildings in the city.

The meeting concluded with a vote on the approval of the council’s budget for the upcoming year. The motion was passed unanimously, with all members in agreement.

The Pigeon Council looks forward to continuing its work in the community and thanks all members for their dedication and support.

Bowling

Pine Grove native Rob Miller, son of Dr. and Mrs. O. Miller of Dauphin, was named Coach at Spring Arbor College, an independent four-year, co-educational liberal arts college in Michigan.

"It was a great opportunity," Rob Miller said. "I have been coaching for seven years at the high school level. I think it was a great opportunity for me to take it to the next level."

Bowl of the week

The Through Area Bowlers' Association holds its annual Bowler of the Week Awards at the Sheraton Inn in March. The event features a buffet dinner and an awards ceremony recognizing the best bowlers in the area.

Ten bowlers are eligible for the Bowler of the Week Award, which is presented to the top female bowler in the area.

"I love bowling," Rob Miller said. "I think it's a great way to get involved in the community."

When disaster strikes, Chuck Faupel follows!

By AMY MELEN
On a certain December evening last year, thousands of Dollars were lost in a small town.

"It was the night of the flood," says Chuck Faupel, owner of Dollar Bank in the small town of Pigeon, Michigan. "The town was hit with a devastating flood that caused millions of dollars of damage. But what made it even worse was that the bank had a lot of uninsured customers who lost everything.

"I was on the front lines helping customers, and even though I was exhausted, I knew I had to do something," Faupel says. "I decided to start a disaster relief fund to help those affected by the flood."

FAUPEL'S MISSION
Faupel's mission is to help those affected by disasters. He believes that banks should be a resource for their communities, not just a place to keep money.

"Banks are often seen as places where people put their money away, but they can also be places where people come together to help each other," Faupel says.

"I want to create a culture where banks are seen as places where people can come together to help those in need."

Faupel's efforts have not gone unnoticed. He has been recognized by many organizations for his work and has even been invited to speak at conferences on disaster relief.

"I'm honored to be able to help others," Faupel says. "It's important to remember that banks are not just places to keep money, but also places where people come together to help each other.

TORNADO

Most tornadoes occur in the months of April, May, June and July in the late afternoon and evening hours, usually between 3 and 7 p.m.

WHEN A TORNADO THREATENS

- Stay away from windows, doors, and outside walls. Protect your head.
- In homes and small buildings, go to the basement or to an interior part on the lowest level. Get under something sturdy.
- In schools, hospitals, and public places, move to pre-designated shelter areas. Interior hallways on lowest floors are best.
- In mobile homes or vehicles, leave them and go to an interior shelter.
- If outdoors, with no shelter available, lie flat in nearby ditch, and shield head with arms.

YOU HAVE NO SECONDS TO SPARE — YOU MUST BE PREPARED!

Knowing the difference between a Tornado (Weather conditions are favorable for a tornado or severe storm.)
and Tornado (A tornado has been detected either by radar or visible sighting and one should prepare to take cover.)
