BITS AND PIECES

IT WAS A QUIET THREE WEEKEND... Before the week was over, we drove to Detroit for a Sabbath of Christmas shopping, expanded our spirit, and took a flight to Chicago’s O’Hare Airport. I had a midnight train announcement, a surprise that completely threw me off balance.

Nothing happened as we went to the airport, but when we arrived, we found that our flight had been delayed. And nothing seemed to be going right. Our luggage was lost, our hotel room wasn’t ready, and we had to spend the night at the airport.

But nothing could have been worse than the weather. We had expected a snowstorm, but it was the worst we had ever seen. The snow was so heavy that it was impossible to move around. We had to stay inside for the entire weekend.

Even so, we managed to get some work done. We read, we wrote, we ate and we slept. We even had a good time watching the snowfall outside our window. In the end, it was a weekend to remember.

We're Asking You...

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION
ASKED BY BRENNY BUSHING:
"Who do you think would make a better President, George Bush or Michael Dakakes? And why?"

Dear Mrs. Rose:

I have a question that has been bothering me for some time. I have been reading about Michael Dakakes and George Bush, and I am having trouble deciding who I would prefer as a President. Could you please provide your opinion on this matter?

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Dear [Signature]:

I understand your concern about choosing between Michael Dakakes and George Bush as President. Both candidates have their strengths and weaknesses. Michael Dakakes is known for his ethical stance and commitment to the well-being of the American people. He is a strong leader who is dedicated to solving the country's problems. On the other hand, George Bush has been praised for his experience and leadership. He has a proven record of success in both his military and political careers.

Ultimately, the decision of who to support as President is a personal choice based on individual beliefs and values. It is important to consider the candidates' platforms and policies, and to make an informed decision.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF HURON COUNTY:
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT at the General Election to be held in all precincts in the County of Huron, State of Michigan, on Tuesday, November 8, 1966, the following County Proposal will be submitted:

MILLAGE PROPOSAL FOR OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE OF THE MUNICIPAL CEMETARY

The limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be assessed against all property in the County of Huron, State of Michigan, be increased, as provided by Section 4, Article IX of the Constitution of Michigan, by $1,100,000 (one million, one hundred thousand dollars) of the assessed valuation, as equalized, of all property in the County for each of the years 1966 through 1992, inclusive, (4) years, for the purpose of providing for the operation and maintenance of the Huron County Medical Care Facility.

STATEMENT OF TAXABLE AS REQUIRED BY ACT 96 OF THE PRESENT ACTS OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN.

The proposal to increase taxes to the above-mentioned amount is advisory and if approved the tax increase will be in addition to any taxes now levied or to be levied by the Huron County Medical Care Facility. All taxes levied under this proposal are subject to state-wide limitations on the taxes that may be levied and assessed. The above tax rate is equal to one mill on the state equalized value of $1,000.00 of taxable property. If the proposal is approved by the voters, the tax rate will be one mill greater than that now in effect for the same purpose.
Attend The Church Of Your Choice This Sunday

In any free society, the people elect their leaders at regular intervals. It is up to them to decide which of the two or more parties competing for their votes can best solve their problems, improve the quality of their lives and cope with world and national issues. Each candidate claims to have the answers, and engages in heated debates and speeches in an effort to convince the voters of this. We should listen to them as impartially as possible and then cast our ballots, on facts and unassailable considerations rather than on emotions or any personal prejudices. Let us attend our Church of Worship and pray for guidance, so that we will make wise choices among the candidates and trustees. Then, whenever the winners are, we should pray for God's help to them in guiding our destiny, for they will surely need it.

Why Let Lansing Appoint Our Probate Judge?

Straight Talk

From Peter B. Capling

Politics of Experience

"Capling’s opponent has never been elected to any office by the people of Huron County, rather he was appointed by Lansing to complete Judge Macal LAwton’s term."

Politics of Experience

"Capling served as Huron County’s Prosecuting Attorney for 12 years but Capling’s opponent has never been elected to any public office."

Politics of Experience

"During the appointment process, it became apparent that Capling was among the most experienced and Capling’s opponent was among the least experienced of the candidates."

Politics of Experience

"As a private attorney, Capling’s opponent handled virtually no mentally ill, child abuse, child neglect or juvenile cases, while Capling handled hundreds of such cases."

Capling’s extensive legal experience, commitment to justice and fair play, combined with knowledge and understanding of this community are what is needed to address the problems of the "Family Court.”

Capling’s professional and personal life has been a matter of public record for over 12 years with nothing hidden. "Know all the facts before you vote. Honest! Mature! Experienced!"
Something To Think About

BY JOHN A. CHAMPAIGNE - DIRECTOR

VALUING REAL ESTATE

In this era of technology and information, it seems everyone is always thinking about the value of their real estate. Whether it's for a sale, purchase, or any other purpose, the valuation of real estate is crucial. The value of a property can be influenced by various factors, including location, condition, market demand, and much more. In this article, we will explore some of the key considerations that go into valuing real estate.

The First Step: Determining the Appraisal Value

The first step in valuing real estate is to determine the appraised value. This is typically done by a professional appraiser who will conduct a thorough inspection of the property and analyze its features, including the condition of the property, the surrounding neighborhood, and the market conditions. The appraiser will also consider any recent sales of similar properties in the area to determine the comparable sales price.

The Second Step: Considering the Market Value

The second step in valuing real estate is to consider the market value. This is the price that a willing buyer would be willing to pay for the property, given the current market conditions. This value is influenced by factors such as supply and demand, interest rates, and overall economic conditions.

The Third Step: Determining the Marketability

The third step in valuing real estate is to determine the marketability. This involves assessing the likelihood that the property will be sold at the appraised or market value. Factors such as the condition of the property, the presence of any liens, and the overall market conditions can all impact the marketability of a property.

In conclusion, valuing real estate requires a thorough understanding of the factors that can influence its value. By considering the appraised value, the market value, and the marketability of a property, you can determine a realistic and accurate valuation.

We're always busy, locally-produced and very careful about the community's "concerns".
