The Community Chorus will present Handel’s “Messiah” in concert this Sunday, Dec. 11 at 2:30 p.m. at the Laker Auditorium, Pigeon.

Robert Story of Linwood will return as director of the 40-voice chorus, and Pam Dubey will be the accompanist.

Soprano soloist will be Alissa Walters. Alto soloist will be Cindy Anderson, and the Tenor soloist will be Kelly Ford, and all will be accompanied by Mitzi Chaffee, all from Central Michigan University. Bass soloist will be Verne Frede of Bay City, accompanied by Bryant Brewer.

The “Messiah” is written in three parts. Part I begins with Jesus’ coming and birth and ends with a foreshadow of what is to come. Part II details Christ’s crucifixion and the famous Hallelujah Chorus celebrates the king of Christ.

Part III tells of the benefits of Christ’s sacrifice—reconciliation, redemption, and victory over death.

The chorus, shown here in practice, will present selections from each section of the “Messiah.” And scripture readings between selections will provide continuity. Admission is free, and a free will offering will be taken.

Busy Santa comes to Caseville Saturday to meet good little boys and girls!

Santa is so busy this year! And one of the many stops on his schedule will be Santa’s House in Caseville for Santa’s Gift Giveaway. Santa’s House is located in the parking lot of First of America Bank on Main Street (M-35), and he’ll be there on Saturdays, Dec. 10 and Dec. 17 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., and on Dec. 24 from 8:00 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Originated by Concerned Citizens of Caseville’s Geraldine Simmons and Rose Clic, and supported by Caseville area merchants, organizations, clubs, the Chamber of Commerce, the Giveaway will feature lots of gifts and surprises for all ages of “kids.”

The Super Drawing on Christmas Eve at 11 a.m. will feature a teen drawing and a special drawing just for the younger set.

Tickets can get their tickets from any of the Care Bears at Santa’s House, while the younger kids will get their tickets directly from Santa prior to the drawing.

There’ll be plenty of prizes at the drawings, organizers say, including bikes, Hot Wheels, scooters, and more. All ticket holders must be present to win.

MUCH HELP: Simmons is particularly pleased with the support shown by all the various clubs and merchants. “They’ve really gone all out for us this year. They deserve most of the credit for making this giveaway so nice.”

And Clic promises that the Giveaway will continue through the years. “I’ll be here next year and the year after that. I really love little children and this is a lot of fun for us.”

Thanks a Million

By Percy Ross

‘Thank you’ is the million-dollar phrase. It is theheart of genuine gratitude. It is the sincerest expression of appreciation. It is the most eloquent way of saying ‘I love you.’

When I was young, I learned that the key to happiness was gratitude. I learned that if I was grateful for what I had, I would be happy. I learned that if I was grateful for what I had, I would be happy.

Today I want to share a story about my grandmother. She was the most grateful person I have ever met. She always said, “Thank you for everything.” She always said, “Thank you for everything.”

I wish I could have been more like her. She was an inspiration to me. She taught me the value of gratitude. She taught me the value of gratitude.

Do you thank your friends and loved ones enough? Do you appreciate all that they do for you? Do you live your life with gratitude?

When you love someone, tell them. When you love someone, tell them.

Attend The Church Of Your Choice This Sunday

For some time now you have noticed the shelves of your favorite stores beginning to sparkle with the trayings of the holiday season, and by now you may be displaying them in your home. However, you must remember that it takes more than colored lights, Christmas ornaments, pine cones, mint or Charlie Brown cuteness to bring happiness there. All the lights in the world cannot brighten it as much as a friendly smile. The pine branches cannot sweeten the air the way winding a quartet would, no matter who was at fault. The candles won't cast as warm a glow as an out of kindles toward someone. Finally, the shiny ornaments and tinsel cannot begin to reflect the joy of learning the origin of your faith and in customs at your House of Worship. So adorn your home for the holidays, but take time also to learn the lessons of your faith that these decorations portray.
