Caseville names top students at Saturday's commencement

Rebecca Dube, from Viaduct Avenue, and Charles Morden, El Salisbury Avenue, were recognized at the 1988 Caseville High School graduation ceremony. The students were the top two students in the Caseville High School graduating class. They were honored at the Caseville High School commencement ceremony, which was held at the school on Saturday, June 9.

Rebecca Dube, Viaduct Avenue, graduated from Caseville High School. She plans to attend Oakland University next fall. She will major in mathematics and minor in computer science. Morden, of El Salisbury Avenue, plans to attend Allen College this fall to study engineering.

The 1988 Caseville High School commencement ceremony was held on Saturday, June 9, at 8 p.m. at the school. The ceremony began with the national anthem, followed by the invocation, given by Charles Morden, a member of the class of 1988. The keynote address was given by Dr. R. Harold Smith, president of Caseville Junior College. The school choir sang several selections, and the closing prayer was given by Reverend Dr. W. S. Jones, pastor of the Caseville Christian Church.

The ceremony concluded with the presentation of diplomas and awards to the members of the class of 1988. The valedictorian was Rebecca Dube, and the salutatorian was Charles Morden. Both students received scholarships and other recognition for their academic achievements.

The Caseville High School class of 1988 included 32 students. The school has a current enrollment of 125 students.

Caseville honors spring sports athletes

Caseville High School honored its spring sports athletes at the school's annual Spring Sports Banquet on Thursday, May 25. The banquet is held each year to recognize the athletes who have participated in the school's spring sports programs.

The banquet was attended by the athletes, their parents, and school officials. The athletes were presented with awards for their achievements during the spring season. The awards were presented by the school principal, the athletic director, and the coaches of the various sports teams.

The banquet concluded with a reception and a meal for the athletes and their families. The athletes were presented with certificates and gifts for their hard work and dedication to the school's sports programs.

The Caseville High School athletes who were honored include: track and field, tennis, volleyball, basketball, and softball. The school has a current enrollment of 125 students.

What's happening in Elkin, Pigeon and Bay Port Communities

By ED HUTCHESON

The recent interest in a cattle, dumper June is in great need of grass seedlings, pollen, and other materials that enhance the growth of the surrounding areas. Since the area is under the watchful eye of a major corporation, it is important to maintain the natural beauty of the land.

Jennie Foster of Eugene is a recipient of The Elkin Bay Post Board of Education Scholarship. She was presented with the scholarship at the 1989-90 Board of Education meeting. The scholarship provides tuition and fees for a student who demonstrates academic excellence. Jennie Foster is a senior at Elkton High School and plans to attend college in the fall. She received $1,500 towards her college expenses. The scholarship is renewable for up to four years and is open to high school seniors who are residents of Elkin, Pigeon or Bay Port.
'New beginnings' for 100 Laker graduates

BY AMY HEIDEN
Hundreds of family members, relatives, friends and classmates of the graduating class of 1956 were on hand Sunday at 108 members of the Class of 1960 received their diplomas and were officially recognized as graduates of St. Mary's High School in Pine River.

Post, St. Mary's Church in Pine River, held a special Mass to celebrate the occasion. Father John C. Noonan, pastor of the church, celebrated the Mass.

SALUTATORY: Darren Janis, salutatorian, was first to introduce the high school graduates. The members of the Class of 1960, are grateful to our faculty and staff and family members who have helped prepare them for life after school.

MEMBERS OF THE LAKER CLASS OF 1960: Eileen Anderson,60, and Valedictorian John Leipprandt and keynote speaker Cathy Kreweske Reimer, were among the members of the Class of 1960. Reimer, who is a nurse at St. Mary's Hospital in Pine River, said, "I have learned many valuable lessons from my years at St. Mary's. These lessons will help me in my future endeavors." Leipprandt, who is a musician, said, "I have had the opportunity to meet many wonderful people during my time at St. Mary's. These people have helped me grow as a person." Kreweske Reimer, who is a teacher, said, "I have had the opportunity to work with some great teachers at St. Mary's. These teachers have helped me become the person I am today."

Achievements

Julie Leipprandt received a $5,000 scholarship to study at the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities. Leipprandt, who plans to major in biology, said, "I am very grateful for this scholarship. I will use it to help pay for my education."

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE CASEVILLE VILLAGE COUNCIL

MAY 30, 1989 7:30 P.M.

Meeting called to order by President Pen-Ten Forrest

His Honor Mayor Pen-Ten Forrest, as called to order, presented to the village a number of new members of the village Board of Trustees.

Arbita Kraft, Frank Malaby

Meeting called to discuss a new report. For E.P.A. grant guidelines, approval was given to the residents of the village to be appointed by the village Board of Trustees.

Michael Power and Walter Gros agreed to bring back information on grant approval. After all approvals are done, meeting will be set up with property owners and approval agreed upon. An approval fee of $80 per approval and $20 per approval review was submitted by both S. Bay Shore Realty, Walter Gros and Real Estate One, Michael Power.

Resubmission 45-10 to an approval agreement with the Board of Trustees and Real Estate One is to proceed with the review process.

Discussion on how to notify property owners for signed agreements need to be looked at further.

Motion by Merideth, seconded by Christie to adjourn at 7:17 p.m.

Respectfully Subscribed,

Village Clerk

PUBLIC HEARING

MAY 30, 1989

RE: PROPOSED TAX

Meeting called to order by President Malaby at 7:00 p.m.

Public: Debra Hartman, George Merideth, Janice Prill, Michael Power, Meeting turned over to Pam Stahl, Treasurer. The highest mileage we could impose without a public hearing would be 12,401.

The village is proposing to impose a mileage of 12.7218, the same as last year. George Merideth questioned why Maco Thermal Inc. was given a tax abatement, but didn't live up to what they expected to do in business to increase jobs.

Motion by Goslee, second by McCormick to adjourn at 7:15 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Janice Prill

NAME THAT FARM TO WIN A PRIZE...

Tell us whose farm this is, and if you’re the first to notify us, we’ll send you a year’s subscription to the Progress-Advance, and if you are the first of your choice, or your person, of your choice. And just to make the contest a little more competitive—be advised that this shows the farm AS IT WAS around the Middle 1950’s! So, you can name the owner of that period, or today, or even if you just locate the farm... it will count toward your prize.

Local seniors busily meet to end May

CASCVILLE RETIREMENT CLUB

The Cascville Retirement Club’s final meeting of May will be on Tuesday, May 23, at 7 p.m. at the Cascville Fire Hall.

President Margaret Wilkens will distribute the May newsletter which contains many interesting, short stories featuring their neighbors before retiring. A special program is planned for evening, with Fern Dantley, Nettie Billings, Carol Schmutz, Vi Woodside, and Marilyn Long who will share with us their experiences in this month’s newsletter. There will be a potluck dinner, and the meeting will be open to the public.

ELKTON SENIOR CITIZENS

The Elkton Senior Citizen’s annual Garden sale, scheduled for May 30, is getting ready for fall. The Garden sale is open to the public, and all are welcome.

YOUR HOUSE OF WORSHIP CAN LEAD YOU OUT OF TEMPTATION

You are basically a good person, being a so-called "normal" human being, you have fallen into the trap of temptation somewhere along the way. Perhaps you are a worried but confirmed smoker, or the pressures of your job have caused you to drink too much or become involved with drugs. By now you may be addicted to the extent that it will take more than power to overcome your habit, but don't give up. Try one of those treatment centers if you like, but also adopt a positive attitude. Think not how much fun your habit is, but instead, how nice it would be to have to depend on it. For some help, talk to the clergyman at your House of Worship. He will understand and not criticize or condone. He knows you are sincere about it, or you wouldn't be there; and he can help you if you will let him.

Local athletes take their talents abroad

Kendall Wertz and Connie Schill will represent the U.S. in Europe this summer. Wertz will be in France for the World University Games, and Schill will be in England for the World Student Games. Both athletes have high school basketball backgrounds and are attending college next year.

Schill, a senior at Illinois State University and member of the U.S. national team, will be joining another American basketball star, Chris Grant, on the Olympic training camp in Japan. Grant is a junior at Temple University and a member of the U.S. national team.

Wertz, a senior at Michigan State University and member of the U.S. national team, will be joining another American basketball star, Tom Gugliotta, on the Olympic training camp in Japan. Gugliotta is a junior at Temple University and a member of the U.S. national team.

This summer, Schill and Wertz will be representing the U.S. at the World University Games and the World Student Games, respectively. Both athletes have been selected to play on the American basketball national teams.

The American Basketball Association (ABA) has announced its plans for the upcoming season. The ABA will feature 16 teams, including the New York Nets, the Boston Celtics, and the Los Angeles Lakers. The season is scheduled to begin in September and culminate in the ABA Championship in January.
