PSC COMING TO THUMB
The Michigan Public Service Commission will present a Consumer Forum on Wednesday, Oct. 3 from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Huron County Courthouse’s third floor meeting room in Bad Axe.

The forum will provide Thumb area residents a chance to meet with PSC commissioners and to discuss electric, natural gas, telephone and motor carrier issues.

This is one of eight such forums planned throughout the state this fall, offering citizens a chance to see how state government works up close, and all three PSC members—William E. Long, Steven M. Fetter and Ronald E. Russell—will be on hand.

Any person having further questions may contact PSC spokesperson Mary Jo Kunkle at 334-6983.

RAFFIN PLEAS AS ACCESSORY
Sandra Karin Ruffin, 30 of Owosso, pled guilty to being an accessory to a felony after the fact, and the open charge of murder filed against her was dismissed, in the July 16 murder of Mariano Sanchez, 43 of Elkton.

Ruffin told Huron County District Judge Karl Kraus she originally lied about her involvement in the murder to protect her family and Ronald Greim, 36 of Port Austin, who is being held without bond in the Huron County Jail on an open murder charge.

Being an accessory after the fact carries a penalty of up to five years in prison and a $10,000 fine. Ruffin will be sentenced Feb. 18, after Greim’s trial is concluded. That trial is expected to start in January.

Raffin is currently serving a nine-month sentence in the Tuscola County Jail on a charge of felonious assault, stemming from another case.

GEOTHERMAL HOUSE DISPLAYED
William and Georgiana Sanford of 400 Phelps Lake Road, Mayville, will display their new geothermal heating-cooling system.

Sugar legislation in the 1990 Farm Bill tops the agenda of the Great Lakes Sugar Beet Growers Association, following the group’s annual meeting in Gaylord.

“We will continue to concentrate on maintaining the sugar provisions in the 1990 Farm Bill because they have worked well and at no cost to the American taxpayer,” said GLSBA executive vice-president Robert D. Young after the recent meeting.

According to Young, not only did the old system run with the cost to taxpayers, it actually generated income through interest on the loan program and import fees.

Great Lakes President Donald Kincaid of Caro added that he’s “cautiously optimistic” about the sugar section of the Farm Bill.

“Both the Senate and House have passed a Farm Bill, and an amendment to reduce the loan price by 2¢ a pound was soundly defeated—by almost 2-1 in the House and 24-54 in the Senate. A 2¢ decrease would have been hard on local growers, reducing their net rate by about $75 per acre in this area.

“A conference committee will now produce a compromise bill, but we feel the 2¢ reduction will not be reintroduced because it was so soundly defeated. We feel we’ve done all we can do, but we continue to monitor the legislative work very closely.”

Local farmers, as well as Michigan Sugar Company executives and factory labor leaders have visited Washington several times during the past year to voice their support for provisions that will keep American-produced sugar in good supply on US tables.

Locals enter mine program
Four Thumb swine producers have entered pigs in the Michigan Genetic Improvement Program—MIGIP—for- mally referred to as the Winter Barrow Show, according to Dr. Beth Ellen Doan, Extension livestock agent for Huron and Sanilac Counties.

The Thumb competitors include Thumb Swine Enterprises of Bay Port-Pigmen 20 pigs, Dale Christner of Pigmen 19 pigs, Smith Hog Farm of Snower 12 pigs and Roger Baumuster of Deck- ville 6 pigs.

MIGIP is a cooperative ef- fort between Cooperative Extension Service, MSU Animal Science Department, Michigan Pork Producers Association and Michigan Livestock Exchange. It has served to help Michigan pork producers evaluate their genetic and health programs.

All pigs were weighed and tagged September 5-7.
Hartman has 'model job'

Mike Hartman, 29 year-old son of the retired farming couple, Mr. and Mrs. James Hartman, is one of the area's 'regulars' at the local community center. He's helped out at the community center in various capacities, including the construction of the community center, the organizing of the community center, and the scheduling of the community center's activities.

Hartman graduated from Michigan State University in 1986 and attended college at Central Michigan University. He is a native of Michigan, and was born and raised in the area.

Kids get a kick out of soccer!

By ANY HEDDEN

It's the biggest thing to hit the Westside High School campus in years. It's called American Youth Soccer Organization, and it's so popular that 118 kids from the school and surrounding communities are signed up to play.

When soccer season started, the Regional Commissioner for the AYSO in Elkhorn kicked off the season by holding tryouts in the school's gymnasium. The tryouts were successful, and 118 kids were selected to play in the league. The kids were divided into various age groups and coached by different coaches. The coaches were volunteers from the community, and they were very enthusiastic about the new league.

The AYSO is a non-profit organization that provides youth soccer programs in the United States. It was founded in 1961 and has since grown to become one of the largest youth sports organizations in the country. The AYSO offers programs for kids of all ages and skill levels, and it's designed to be inclusive and accessible for everyone.

The AYSO season runs from September to June, and it's divided into fall and spring seasons. During the season, kids practice twice a week and play games on weekends. The coaches focus on teaching skills, teamwork, and sportsmanship, and they encourage a positive and fun environment for all players.

The AYSO is a great way for kids to stay active, make new friends, and learn valuable life skills. It's a great opportunity for parents and community members to get involved and support their kids.
