LAKERS STUDENT OF THE MONTH

3 LJH’ers qualify for Midwest Talent Search

They have Laker dance High quality skills for this year’s Midwest Talent Search, convened by the Center for Talent Development, Northwestern University. These students qualified for the Northwest’s program by showing a minimum of 100 hours of material on the regional or state level. These students have the opportunity of taking the октябрьский competition, at the University of Texas at Dallas, 1990. This test is normally taken by college-bound juniors and seniors, but the performance abilities demonstrated by these junior high students enable them to handle a test of this magnitude.

The purpose of this program is to identify the students and their families with more specific information regarding the abilities, talents, and interests of a "Principal". The skills required for this test are normally used by the following area schools, and will be reviewed by the candidates. We have just received word that Pigeon and Bay Port Elementary students have been accepted into the talent search program. This will allow them to begin the process of becoming eligible for high school scholarships. The Laker Student’s Club will be responsible for the implementation of the program.

We are all excited about the opportunity to share with you what the program entails. With the start of the new school year, we have scheduled a series of meetings to provide information about the process and how to become involved. These meetings will be held at the school. We implore you to attend these meetings to learn more about the program and how you can become involved.

Jr. High gets mail from Saudi Arabia

Dear Superintendent,

My wife, Yvonne Honnig, has returned to the U.S. and the children have arrived safely from Saudi Arabia with all of their personal belongings. The two girls are in high school and the boy is in 7th grade. My daughter, Melissa, is in her senior year of college. This is all very exciting for us and we are grateful for the opportunity to be with our family again.

With regards,

David Honnig

National education goals for the year 2000

This past September President Bush set national goals for education. These goals are based on research and are aimed at giving our children the best possible shot at the 21st century. Since meeting the Minnesota State Board of Education’s President’s National Goals for the State of Michigan, we will have to review these goals and work towards achieving them for our children.

GOAL #1: By the year 2000, all children in America will start school ready to learn.

OBJECTIVES: All disadvantaged and disabled children will have access to preschool programs. Every parent will be encouraged to enroll their child in a preschool program. All preschool programs will be required to meet high standards of quality.

GOAL #2: By the year 2000, high schools will be able to graduate at least 50 percent of the students they begin with.

OBJECTIVES: The dropout rate will be reduced by 50 percent. The dropout rate will be reduced to no more than 10 percent. The graduation rates will be increased. The graduation rates will be increased to at least 50 percent. The number of students in the 9th grade will be increased. The number of students in the 10th grade will be increased. The number of students in the 11th grade will be increased. The number of students in the 12th grade will be increased.

GOAL #3: By the year 2000, our students will learn to contribute their talents and skills to their communities.

OBJECTIVES: The students will learn to contribute to their communities. The students will learn to contribute to their families. The students will learn to contribute to their schools. The students will learn to contribute to their schools. The students will learn to contribute to their schools.

GOAL #4: By the year 2000, students will love and value reading.

Raven Green of Mr. and Mrs. Green’s of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, was on Saturday. The program was to introduce a new series featuring the life of John Green of Eau Claire, Wisconsin.

Mr. Green was born on October 12, 1900, and passed away on January 14, 1990. He was a successful businessman who made a fortune in the lumber industry.

Mr. Green was married to Jane Green, who passed away in 1992. They had five children, four sons and one daughter. The children were: John, David, Tom, Mary, and Susan.

Mr. Green was a member of the Elks Lodge and was an active member of the Lake County Bar Association.

Mr. Green was a devout Catholic and was a member of the St. Mary’s Church in Lake City.

Mr. Green was a philanthropist and donated many gifts to the Lake County Library and the Lake City School District.

Mr. Green was a respected member of the Lake County community and was known for his generosity and kindness.

Mr. Green’s life will be celebrated with a ceremony on Sunday, October 13, 2000, at the Lake City Church. The ceremony will begin at 2:00 p.m. and will last until 4:00 p.m.

The ceremony will include a eulogy by John Green, Jr., and a speech by Mr. Green’s daughter, Susan Green.

The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the Lake City Community Center, where light refreshments will be served.

All members of the Lake County community are invited to attend the ceremony and reception.

P.S. Call Mr. Green at 1-800-478-4777 for more information.

BOY, WHAT A WEEK!! First Farmer Bob rushed to get sugar beets harvested, and now he’s deep into the cornfield, trucking and handling the grain, including the harvest. Moisture in the corn has been running a bit higher than Farmer Bob would like. Most corn delivered has been checked at 25 percent moisture, which is going to eat Farmer Bob some money for drying costs. But yields seem to be up, so he’s hoping to come out ahead.

Here’s a Cooperative Elevator takes a sample of just-harvested corn to check the moisture.

New Pigeon uniforms

Pigeon Village Marshal Vern Johnson shows off the Pigeon Police Department’s new uniforms, now being used. The dark blue light-blue outfit includes all weather-coats with zip-up shoulders, and are similar in color to those worn by State Police. The uniforms replace the village’s former brown shirts, Johnson says.

Good truck luck!

Dennis and Gaye Mills of Pigeon can “keep on truckin’” for the second time this year. They visited the weatherly-russell funeral home in November. They had visited the funeral home in June. Their truck was new and it was working great. They went on to say that it was great to be able to visit the funeral home.

Temple organ is featured

Pigeon has a wonderful organ in the Church of the Cross. The organ is very old and has been used for many years. It is located in the church and is a beautiful example of the art of organ building.

Kate Pickering

Kate Pickering was visiting the funeral home. She was a very kind and gentle lady. She died on November 30th. She was 93 years old.
