It was hard to leave the cozy warmth of my kitchen and all the delicious smells that accompanied the preparations for our annual Thanksgiving dinner, which I had discussed for the last November. Everyone wanted to see this exciting meal. I had spent weeks preparing the menu and the table. The aroma of the food was making my mouth water. I was so excited about the day.

I had been looking forward to this day for months. The way my mom would prepare the food was always a special treat. I remember the first time I had tasted her roasted turkey. I was amazed at how tender and juicy it was. From then on, I fell in love with it.

As I walked into the kitchen, I noticed the aroma of my mom’s famous stuffing. It was a blend of herbs, spices, and bread, all cooked to perfection. I couldn’t wait to taste it.

The table was set with all the traditional dishes. The turkey was the centerpiece, surrounded by all the sides. The mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, and green beans were all placed neatly on the table. The gravy was poured over everything, making it look even more delicious.

After everyone arrived, we gathered around the table. The air was filled with the sounds of laughter and conversation. We all sat down and started eating. The food was absolutely amazing. I ate so much that I didn’t have room for dessert.

It was a wonderful day, and I can’t wait to have another one like it. I will always cherish the memories of that day.
Depth, strength a Lakers advantage

A deep bench seems to be the key to winning basketball games these days, and the best bench of the season may be on the Lakers’ roster. Coach Bill McCaffrey said,"The bench is the team. The bench is the key to winning these games. We’re not going to lose games because of our reserves. We’re going to win them because of our reserves."

minutes. However, we do not yet know if we can pass the bill, we'll have to keep working on it. We've got a lot of confi- dence that we can get the bill passed, but we need to keep working on it.
