Seaford pilot ejects safely

By MARY DRIER

A crash investigation team from Seaford Air National Guard Base is working through the rubble of an F-16A Air National Guard Falcon fighter jet to find answers why it crashed near Seaba-wa in 3:15 p.m. Saturday.

The jet crashed in an over-covered fields owned by

Kendall Stock of Bay Port,

about four miles north of Seaba-

wa on Half Road In Paif Haven Township.

The jet was piloted by Brig.

Gen. Ercel Gordon Stump,

48, of Lansing, who was named Commander of the Michigan Air National Guard

by Gov. John Engler last Tuesday.

The jet piloted by Stump,

a Vietnamese veteran who flew over 200 combat missions, was flying in tandem with another jet at the time of the collision.

Stump was the only person in the jet. He parachuted to safety and walked to a nearby house. He was taken to

Schoen Hospital in Seaba-wa with minor injuries, but was later transported to Wurt-

smith Air Force Base,

Oscoda.

Eyewitnesses said the second jet circled the area for several minutes after the accident.

John Parker, 34, of Fair-grove and David New, 24, of Unionville were working in a nearby field and saw the crash.

COMPLIANCE

The Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants encourages individuals who have retirement accounts to review their retirement accounts and make changes to their retirement accounts to ensure that they are on track to meet their retirement goals.

HANDLING LUMP SUM DISTRIBUTIONS

What if your lump sum distribution is on the way? What if you receive a lump sum distribution from your IRA or 401K? What if you have more than one account? What if you have to pay taxes on the distribution? What if you don’t have enough money? What if you do? What if you take the distribution early? What if you don’t? What if you take the distribution late? What if you don’t? What if you take the distribution before you turn 59½? What if you don’t? What if you take the distribution before you turn 70½? What if you don’t?

The only exceptions are when you are age 59½ or over, or if you are withdrawing the funds from your IRA for educational purposes.

WHY WAIT FOR YOUR FEDERAL INCOME TAX REFUND?

In order to receive the full benefit of your federal income tax refund, you must file your tax return on time and make all required tax payments on time. You should also be aware of the IRS’s “excess distributions” rules.

Many Happy Returns with a high yield tax deferred I.R.A.

In spite of tax reform, an I.R.A. is still one of the best ways to follow a safe and secure retirement. Here’s why:
- Most people still qualify for a tax deduction.
- An I.R.A. still gives you the benefit of tax-deferred expenses.
- Unlike many pension plans, an I.R.A. allows you to control your own investments.
- An I.R.A. helps promote regular savings.

See us today and we’ll talk about why more than an I.R.A. with us is still one of the easiest - simplest - retirement routines around.
