

Pigeon chosen for national rural development

By SALLY RUMMEL

What do Ellenwood, KS, Cheney, KS, Hartley, Tex and Pigeon, MI have in common?

All four communities have been selected by Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc. as "winning communities" in Pioneer's rural development program entitled "Search for Solutions."

Pigeon will be host to a team of rural development specialists from Pioneer Hi-Bred International's "Rural Initiative" next Thursday and Friday, Sept. 26 and 27.

The team will spend two days in Pigeon, interviewing business and community leaders, media representatives, educators and others and will create an audio-visual profile of Pigeon that will be used in future "Search for Solutions" conferences.

Pigeon's selection as a "winning community" will involve a year-long effort by a 12-member team from Pigeon who will spend three five-day weeks in intensive rural development programs.

During these "Search for Solutions" meetings, the first of which will be held in Chicago in March, 1992, the team will learn a six-step strategic planning process.

"We want rural communities to become self-sufficient," says Trudy Mott, Rural Initiative Program Manager for Pioneer.

"We want to help rural leaders learn the skills necessary to solve their own problems."

"This is a real 'shot in the arm' for Pigeon," says Pigeon Chamber of Commerce President Rhonda Buehler, who has attended two "Search for Solutions" seminars in the past two years.

"The resources being offered to us as a 'winning community' are limitless. We'll have all the national leaders in rural development issues at our disposal at the next three meetings, and are only a phone call away from the experts for the next year."

Jeff Leipprandt, also a member of the original team from Pigeon who has attended "Search for Solutions," is a sales representative for Pioneer Hi-Bred and is very proud to see this kind of commitment to rural America by Pioneer.

The "Search for Solutions" program is part of Pioneer's community relations program, which sets aside up to four percent of its pre-tax earnings for community investment. The program was conceived in the early 1980s when rural America was caught up in the throes of the worst economic recession in 50 years.

It began in November, 1985 with a national conference on rural health care then grew to its present standing as a single conference for Pioneer employees and local leaders in rural communities.

The six-member Pigeon team which visited Denver, Colo. consisted of Rhonda Buehler, Jeff Leipprandt, Dwight Gascho, Janet Heckman, Rob Steele and Scott Meyersieck.

The team is presently selecting an additional six to make up the 12-member team which will work very closely together in the next year to strengthen Pigeon as a rural community.

AIR BASE PROPERTY PRICE: $454,000

You could own one of Huron County's best chunks of real estate, if you've got a half-million dollars jingling around in your pocket.

The appraised value established for the closed Air Force Radar Installation at Port Austin has been set at $454,000, which clears the way for final reuse implementation for the site in the near future.

The figure was released by the General Services Administration, Chicago, through Carl Osentoski, reuse planning coordinator for the property.

Through improvements in radar technology, the Radar Station was closed in 1988. The 52-acre site, located at the Tip of Michigan's Thumb, has been the subject of increasing interest and speculation lately, with plans for a resort, prison or conference center among possibilities.

The base has two lighted tennis courts, an outdoor swimming pool, basketball gym with racquetball court and a two-lane bowling alley. Plus, there are nearly a dozen houses plus barracks. At its most active stage, the facility housed about 300 Air Force personnel.

"The site is unique because of its small size and large number of buildings," Osentoski says. Along with all the recreational facilities, the base has four dormitories, restaurant, bar and office space.

COUNTY BITES DOG OWNERS

Huron County Commissioners approved measurers to put the bite on dog owners to register their animals.

The board agreed to hire a part-time employee to update the county's dog census files.

Currently, there are about 1,400 dogs registered in the county and officials expect there are many more dogs that are not licensed.

Approval also was given to increase licensing fees. Effective December 1, fees for neutered dogs will rise to $5 and all un-neutered dogs regardless of sex will cost $7. Previously, the fees were $5 for a female dog and $3 for a male or a neutered animal.

Commissioners expect the increase in fees and the crackdown on unlicensed dogs will more than pay the cost of hiring the part-time employee.

Commissioners also approved a "more humane way" of destroying impounded dogs by injecting them with pentobarbital sodium administered by a veterinarian.

Currently, impounded dogs are taken to a site and shot, but a new state statute requires that animals be destroyed in a humane manner.

NOV. 26 - DEC. 1 FOR BACH FESTIVAL

The Village Bach Festival will return to Cass City and Carleton Place for its 13th season between Tuesday, Nov. 26 and Sunday Dec. 1, organizers say. Members of the orchestra and soloists gather annually for the Thanksgiving holiday to rehearse and perform J.S. Bach's chamber music and chamber work of other baroque as well as modern composers.

'Bearied Treasures' opens in Pigeon

By AMY HEIDEN

Collecting teddy bears is a hobby for Peggy Edler, and her mother Margaret Edler likes them, too.

So when they decided to open their new gift shop, they hit upon the name "Bearied Treasures."

And those teddy bears will be clearly in evidence in the shop, located on Pigeon's Main Street, in the former Kent McKenzie Jewelry building.

The front window features part of Peggy's collection of bears, and many items in the store feature the cuddly creatures.

A giant brown bear in the corner of the store will be decorated according to the season, Peggy Pedler said.

Bearied Treasures will also carry a complete line of Hallmark cards, plus many kinds of crafts and costume jewelry.

Margaret has plenty of experience in retailing, having worked in various local jewelry stores for the past 30 years.

She worked at Layher's Jewelers in Pigeon for many years, then for Kent McKenzie Jewelers at the same location.

The two are planning their Open House for later this fall, but they're inviting everyone to visit their new store and see their selection of cards and gifts.

"Bearied Treasures" is open

Monday through Thursday 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Friday 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Saturday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Kreh named to M-46 Horseshoe Hall of Fame

That's certainly a far cry from the type of horseshoes Kreh throws now, the type of play that has earned him a spot in the M-46 Horseshoe Association Hall of Fame.

Kreh was inducted into the Hall of Fame last week at a banquet in Beaverton, following the state championships. And what a surprise it was, he said.

"I didn't think a guy like me would get the honor of being elected to something like this," Kreh said.

Kreh's only been pitching shoes competitively since 1973, and he credits his friend Vern Beachy for getting him on the courts.

"He heard about me pitching shoes in my backyard, and he asked me to be on a league," Kreh said. "I went over and I've been happy ever since."

Then, Pigeon's courts weren't the modern ones they are now, but Kreh was the main spark behind their construction.

In 1978, he approached the village council about the project and was told a spot for the courts had been picked out, but that the money for construction wasn't available. Eventually, the Pigeon Rotary Club sponsored the construction, Kreh said, with the Pigeon DPW doing the work.

Kreh's skill in pitching shoes has brought him plenty of honors over the year, such as being able to compete in the M-46 finals every year since 1977.

He also won the M-46 Mid-Season championship in 1980, placed 3rd in the season finals in 1979, 9th in 1985, and 5th in 1988. He's a four-time winner of the Farmers' Festival tournaments, winning in 1978, 1979, 1984, and 1985.

But Kreh says his biggest thrill was the third place finish in 1979.

"I beat the best player in Michigan that year. He had the lowest handicap, and he had to spot me 30 pins," Kreh said.

HORSESHOER MILT KREH Has racked up a lot of awards in the almost 20 years he has been enjoying the sport.

"But I beat the guy by 10 actual pins and that made me feel great."

Kreh says he's proud of the fact that he's still pitching horseshoes from a 40-ft. distance, even though at age 77, he's allowed to pitch from 30 ft.

He's celebrating another birthday before next season starts, and he plans to compete for at least another year.

Competing takes a lot of practice and good strong legs and sharp eyesight, he said, and he's not ready to put away the shoes.

Elkton looks at recycling options

By AMY HEIDEN

Recycling may be in the future for Elkton village residents, as the Village Council continues to study the matter.

At last week's meeting, the council discussed various types of recycling, and is continuing to gather information on different programs, according to Village Clerk Janet Santos.

More information will be presented at next month's meeting, she said.

In other business at the short meeting:

- Council also accepted the resignation of ambulance coordinator John Champagne, and appointed Floyd Thompson, Jr., as the new coordinator.

- Repealed an ordinance establishing the Parks and Recreation Authority. The authority was created to oversee plans for expansion of Ackerman Park, but has been inactive for several months.

- Bought two new tires for a loader-tractor from Cooperative Elevator, Elkton, for $650.

- Bought a new canvas for the village's GMC truck for $850.

- Purchased a new ambulance service pager for $500 from Anderson Radio.

Win an $8000 car or truck, with ONE ticket!

Do you enjoy the fireworks, the Grand Parade and Christmas promotions, all special events that take place throughout the year in Pigeon?

If so, the Pigeon Chamber of Commerce invites residents to show their support of Festival events and the upcoming Christmas promotion by helping support the Auto Raffle, now being promoted by the Chamber.

The branchchild of Chamber member Dave Anderson of State Farm Insurance, the Auto Raffle is being promoted as a fund-raiser that offers tangible prizes to raffle winners.

First prize will be an $8,000 payments towards an auto or pick-up from Pigeon Motor Sales or McCormick Motors.

Second prize is a $1,500 camcorder from Diener's Home of Fine Furnishings;

Third prize is a $500 diamond pendant from McKenzie Jewelers;

Fourth prize is a GE 111-channel VHS VCR from Kretzschmer Hardware;

Fifth prize is a 12-Gauge Mossberger Deer Slayer from Elftman's Hardware and Sixth prize is a 26" 10-Speed Mountain Bike from Village Variety.

"Ticket-holders have an almost one 60 chance of taking home a prize," adds Anderson. "That beats the chances most ticket buyers have when entering a raffle."

Anderson also explains an added benefit to Pigeon Chamber of Commerce member businesses.

For the last several years, Chamber members have been assessed $100 to help fund the Christmas promotion. This year, a Chamber member can buy two tickets for that $100 and get something for their money, rather than just paying an assessment.

Anderson is encouraging each Chamber member to sell four raffle tickets. If all the tickets sell, the Chamber will have revenue to fund the 1991 Christmas promotion. One thing is for sure, and that is that the Chamber Board will not be assessing Chamber members this year to fund the Yule event.

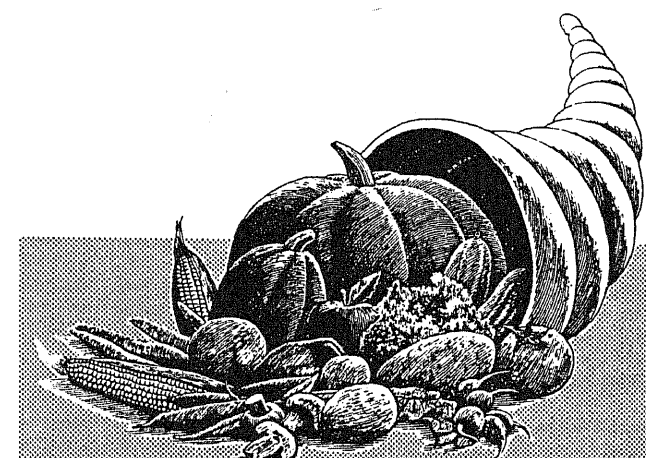

"A Chamber member has come up with an excellent way to raise funds and I want the whole Chamber as a body, plus community residents to stand behind the project so that we can fund all the projects we do in Pigeon without overtaxing the business community," says Buehler.

Serving on the Auto Raffle committee with Anderson are Carole Henry, Clark Elftman, Bill Weitzel and Bill Esch.

The drawing will take place during halftime of the Laker Homecoming Game on Friday, Oct. 4.

Tickets are available from any Pigeon Chamber of Commerce member and Chamber members are eligible to win this raffle.

'Autumn Bounty' comes to Farmers' Market on Oct. 3 in Pigeon

The Pigeon Farmers' Market will be brimming with "Autumn's Bounty" on Thursday, Oct. 3 beginning at 8 a.m., as part of Pigeon's popular Earlybird Sale, sponsored by the Pigeon Chamber of Commerce.

Local groups and individuals will be selling mums, fall baked goods, pumpkins, popcorn, corn stalks and other fall produce, according to Peggy Hartman, who is coordinating Farmers' Market events this year.

"People who are shopping early in Pigeon from 6 to 9 a.m. are invited to stop at the Farmers' Market after their shopping is done to pick up some of 'Autumn's Bounty,' from local residents and fund-raising groups," says Hartman.

Lakers ends year in good fiscal shape

By AMY HEIDEN

The Laker School District's annual audit is finished, and the district is in good financial shape.

That's the word from John Walsh, CPA, the district's auditor, who presented his findings to the board of education last week.

The district wound up the fiscal year with a fund balance of $163,942, Walsh said, with a total fund balance of over $950,000. Last year the district had revenues of almost $5.3 million, while expenditures totaled over $5.1 million.

Walsh said that a school district should have a healthy fund balance to get through the summer months when no tax revenues come in to district coffers.

"The ultimate goal with a fund balance is not to have to borrow money before tax collections arrive in the winter, but that's beyond our reach," Walsh said.

And because the district -- as do many others in Michigan -- needs to borrow money to get through the first half of the year, the board approved the seeking of bids to borrow $1.75 million in tax anti-ciation notes. Bids will be opened at 3 p.m. Sept. 23 in the board room.

he board also okayed a proposal to join a consortium of six other Thumb schools to work towards improving the school's curriculum.

Mary Ellen Bluem, the Huron Intermediate School District's director of education, presented the proposal, and detailed the plans for improving school curriculum. Public Act 25 requires school districts to have a core curriculum by June 30, 1992.

"We can't afford not to examine and re-examine our courses to see if they meet the needs of the students," Bluem said.

In other business, the Laker School Board of Education:

- Approved delaying school for two hours on Oct. 23, Feb. 4, Mar. 12, and May 13, to allow the staff to work on school improvement plans.

- Learned that enrollment in the district is down 15 students from last year, according to preliminary figures. Complete figures will be available after the fourth Friday count, on Sept. 27.

All events take place in First Presbyterian Churches of Cass City and Caro.

The Village Bach Festival faces new challenges in 1991, as do most arts organizations, because the Michigan Council for the Arts is unable to provide funding as in the past 12 years, organizers say. Two fund-raising events are being planned -- a Sunday, Oct. 13 concert by Violinist William Preucil in Cass City and a Tuesday, Nov. 26 concert of Bach's organ works by U of M Organ Department Chairman Marilyn Mason, in Caro.

SEX CHARGE TRIAL POSTPONED

The trial of two Elkton residents accused of sexually assaulted two Tuscola County teenage girls has again been postponed.

Franklin Edward Apley, 45, and Patricia Lee Bland, 45, of 5180 Stein Road, Elkton, are both charged with first-degree criminal sexual conduct.

Apley and Bland are accused of contacting, teenage girls offering bogus baby-sitting jobs as a pretext to get them to their home where they would sexually assault the girls, said Huron County Prosecutor Leslie A. Hagen.

According to Hagen, the couple worked together in luring their victims to their home in incidents that happened in December of 1990 and in January of 1991.

If found guilty on the first-degree criminal sexual conduct charge, the maximum sentence is life in prison.

The trial was to have begun Sept. 10, but has been rescheduled to Oct. 16. This is the second time the trial has been postponed.

ANNABELLE'S OPENS IN SEBEWAING

The New Annabelle's Restaurant is opening in Sebewaing Wednesday (today), with new owners, new ideas, new menu and a new concept for operations.

Richard "Rick" Hearn, a 24-year veteran of restaurant experience, is the owner-chef. He's been with PX Bar-B-Que in Flint, a 500-seat restaurant in business for 32 years. His family includes wife Vickie, 15-year-old daughter Becky and 13-year-old daughter Jennifer.

Annabelle's will open at 11 a.m. and run to 10 p.m. in the first week. Starting Monday, Sept. 23, they'll open at 6 a.m. and operate until 10 p.m., Monday through Saturday. Sunday hours will be 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.

The new Annabelle's will emphasize ribs, chicken, fish and steak, and plans Friday night fish fries -- "the kind that made Sebewaing restaurants famous in years gone by," Hearn says. Two home-made soups will be offered daily, deli sandwiches will be served at noon and take-outs will be available all hours.

PLEADS GUILTY IN SEX TRIAL

Jesus D. Vasquez, 37, of Sebewaing entered a guilty plea to second-degree criminal sexual conduct in connection with an incident involving a 13-year-old child at a house in Sebewaing Township last spring.

As part of a plea agreement, Vasquez pled to the lesser charge. He had originally been charged with first-degree criminal sexual conduct.

Sentencing on the second-degree charge is October 21 at 1:30 p.m. and dismissal of the first-degree charge will come at that time.

COURT PROCEEDINGS

In 73rd District Court (Huron County), Judge Karl Kraus last week heard the pleas of/or passed judgment on:

- James J. Sytk, 22 of Dearborn, pled guilty to no operator's license in possession, following a recent incident investigated by Port Austin Police; $80 fines and costs;

- Darren J. Bushey, 30 of Bad Axe, pled guilty to malicious destruction of property, $100 or less, following a July 9 incident involving a truck on Drettman Drive, investigated by Elkton Police; ordered to serve three days in Huron County Jail, pay $250 fines and costs, ordered to make restitution and ordered to perform 10 hours' community service;

- Rusty C. Woodward, 23 of Bad Axe, pled no contest to disorderly person, following a Sept. 7 incident and no contest to a trespassing charge following a Sept. 9 incident, on Whalen Street, investigated by Elkton Police; 10 days in jail and $120 fines and costs in all;

- James M. Randall, 21 of Bay Port, pled guilty to non-sufficient fund check, over $50 but less than $200, following a March 24 incident at a Sebewaing grocery store investigated by Sebewaing Police; $175 fines and costs and ordered to make restitution, to be determined;

- Diane M. Johnston, 27 of Port Austin, guilty of impaired driving; 10 days in jail, $500 fines and costs, ordered to attend outpatient counseling and loses license for six months;

- Loren L. Isbill, 29 of Sebewaing, guilty of violation of license restriction; seven days in jail and $100 fines and costs, and

- Clyde W. Haire, 37 of Sebewaing, guilty of disorderly person; $75 fines and costs.

FROM UNDER THE WILLOW

By WANDA EICHLER

ECONOMIC REGIONALIZATION - BANE OR BLESSING??

The economy of the Thumb is undergoing more upheaval as the continued one-on-one challenge of the Bad Axe WalMart store threatens regionalization of localized economies. A drive through downtown Bad Axe with the still closed and for sale five-and-ten store on the main corner and the now closing Polewach department store ought to convince the doubter that WalMart's effects are indeed being felt.

Even towns other than the county seat are feeling some of the impact. On the west side of the county, one of Pigeon's Main Street businesses, Kent McKenzie Jewelers, closed its Pigeon store and opened at the WalMart plaza location overnight last week.

Big Wheel, the upscale discount marketer, pulled up stakes and left the county when WalMart showed up, and K-Mart, in a clever survival move, is enlarging all its Michigan properties as the giant WalMart comes head on head with the more traditional Michigan based K-Mart retailing.

All across rural America local economies are shrinking as regional economies are growing. Areas hard hit by the farm crisis and the continuing urbanization of rural life are especially vulnerable to the new regionalization of commerce. WalMart, a company that at its present growth rate will be larger than General Motors by the year 2000, is figuring heavily into regionalized economic trends.

The story isn't new. When the railroads came to town or when the interstates bypassed rural towns, there was a similar story. In the past, sometimes whole towns moved.

Many of Pigeon's earliest buildings stood originally one mile north in Berne. But when a second railroad line intersected the existing line one mile south, buildings were rolled south along with the business that the railroad junction brought. But these were by and large locally owned businesses that started then.

So the new consumer temptation, a drive from all over Huron County into the Bad Axe retailing center, isn't really a new temptation. People have been leaving hometown economies to shop elsewhere for a long time.

What is new is the impact of a giant corporation like WalMart upon the landscape of rural America. It is one thing to shop regionally in a county seat town at a locally based (or even state based) retailer. It is another thing to put local dollars into the profit structure of businesses and consistently take corporate profit out of the community.

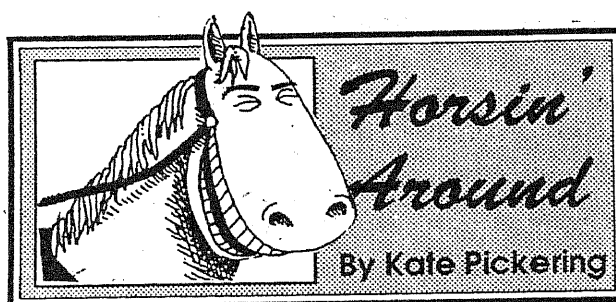

Sure, rural people stop to buy gas in the city from time to time. Yes, we drive to county seat towns for certain services that we can only obtain there.

But rural people who expect the local, hometown economies to serve them when the snow flies and roads get bad think twice and longer before getting totally used to shopping at businesses that place a county's small town businesses into a survival mode.

Local businesses feed us when we can't drive elsewhere for food. They sell us gas, clothes, flowers, farm equipment, furniture, appliances and lots else, often at a lower price and with service after the sale. When our kids go asking for donations for school projects or when churches need help or when it's time for the annual fund drive for this or that, local businesses chip in, often giving to a community request every week.

They give out of their profits, not their leftovers; they give out of a sense of pride in ownership and knowing that they have a stake in that small town.

Companies that represent huge fortunes (WalMart's Walton family now represents the second richest fortune in the world, $21 billion) have big interests. In contrast, rural small towns and rural people value a life that is centered in local self determination and ownership. A regionalized economy of the one that Huron County is presently courting deserves close and careful examination if we are to be a county that is in control of its future ten and twenty years from now.

QUOTABLES

Most of us keep in our hearts (or on our refrigerators) little sayings or quotes that are dear to us and full of meaning, or that help us deal with daily set-backs. They provide inspiration, or gentle reminding. Some were first spoken by great philosophers, and some are little gems that come from the most unlikely of sources.

I have a little-bitty book simply entitled "Horses" which features reproductions of great works of horse art as well as little snippets of quotable horse philosophy from everyone from Socrates to Rudyard Kipling. Whenever I meet with equine "misfortune," I crack open my little book and look inside for some sort of comfort or inspiration. Last week I suffered a rather painful set-back with my sister's horse, and I have since worn "little book" to a frazzle. Before it becomes frayed and unreadable I would like to share some of my favorite quotes...

"The wise horse cares not how fast a man may run."
Armenian Proverb

"Is my team ploughing that I was used to drive, and hear the harness jingle when I was a man alive?"
Aye - the horses trample, the harness jingles now; no change tho you lie under the land you used to plough...
A.E. Housman - A Shropshire Lad

"The best thing for the inside of a man is the outside of a horse."
Lord Palmerston

"I will not change my horse with any that treads but on four pasterns. He bounds from the earth! When I bestride him, I soar - I am a hawk; he trots the air; the earth sings when he touches it. The basest horn of his hoof is more musical than the pipe of Hermes!"
William Shakespeare - Henry V

"There is no secret so close as that between a rider and his horse..."
Robert Smith Surtees

"Riding is all that is worth living for. All time is lost what is not spent in riding. It's like the air we breathe - if we have it not - we die. It is the sport of kings, the image of war without its guilt, and only twenty-five percent of its danger."
Robert Smith Surtees

"Hast thou given the horse strength? Hast thou clothed his neck in thunder? The glory of his nostrils is terrible. He paweth in the valley and rejoiceth in his strength. He goes on to meet the armed men. He mocks at fear and is not affrighted, neither turneth he back from the sword. The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield. He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage."
The Book Of Job

"And Allah created of the handful of wind a horse of chestnut color, like gold, and said to the horse: Behold - I have created thee and made thee Arabian, and thou shalt have station and power above all things of the beasts that are subject to man. I have bound all fortune and treasure to thy loins, and on thy back a rich spoil, and to thy forelock a fair issue. And Allah set loose the swift runner and he went on his way neighing..."
Bedouin Legend

Council received good news at this month's meeting from Sixth District Representative Martha Thuemmel. Mrs. Thuemmel read a letter from the prosecutor's office stating, effective immediately, the County Road Commission cannot charge a fee for use of the County Park located in Caseville.

The letter also stated the County Board of Commissioners are the only ones who can, by resolution, put a charge on usage of the parks. I am not going to blame anyone in particular for letting a serious mistake like this happen. Caseville merchants have been complaining all summer how business has been down.

We don't need something like this to happen, as Caseville needs the tourist trade. The summers go by fast and the winters are somewhat quiet.

A salute to Jim Quinn and his group who diligently fought the park fees. I guess it proves you can fight city hall and win. Congratulations, Jim. Now it is up to the county board to make a decision on how to fund the county parks. The following took place at the recent council meeting: A public hearing was held at 6:45 p.m. for public input on the proposed changes in the sewer use, wastewater collection and treatment system. The changes adopted after the hearing were a charge of $49.80 for debt retirement and 56 cents per 1,000 gallons of water used will be charged for sewer usage, for operation, maintenance and repair. For example, if you do not use any water in a quarter period, your sewer charge

RECOLLECTIONS Of By-Gone Days
By GEORGE KEIM

GEORGE KEIM enjoys the company of Gerrie Gleysteen and Erika, his recent visitors.

DEAR FRIENDS OF GRANDPA KEIM:

My sister and I had the privilege of staying with Grandpa Keim for two days while we are traveling for our first time to Michigan.

My name is Gerrie Gleysteen. I come from Holland and have known Mary Maarsden-Keim for almost 25 years. My sister is Erika. She lives in France, in the Elsass, for over 25 years. We're both born and raised in Amsterdam.

Being from a big city, I've been wondering what it would be like to live out in the country with so much space. I was thinking you would maybe be very lonesome. But I learned you have a nice community life and share each other's joys and sorrows. Maybe you're closer to each other than many folks in the city, not even knowing their neighbors.

Grandpa Keim took us around in the car and told us about the houses we passed. He pointed out places where houses or farms used to be and about the people he had known or does know. We learned he knows many people and going places we saw many people that knew and liked him just the same.

Holland is only a small country, 200 miles long and 150 miles wide. We have about 15 million inhabitants. So our space is limited and you can hardly go anywhere where houses aren't built.

I live near the dunes and close to the North Sea. The dunes are our natural protection against the sea. Not everywhere we have dunes, so we built dikes to hold the water.

Because we reclaimed land from the lakes, they are also surrounded by dikes, not to let the water come in but to keep the water out. Electric pumping stations are constantly working, pumping the water up past the dike in a canal around the polder, the reclaimed land.

I don't think too much about it as I bike happily from one place to another. As the country is small and the land is flat (like yours), we do a lot of biking. Young and old, mothers with children, an old lady taking her dog, we all consider the bike a convenient means of transportation. Especially now when we should be more concerned about pollution.

They put great emphasis on making special bike roads all over the land, even through a city like Amsterdam. My siste and I have been several times in the U.S.A., but never in Michigan. We have many good friends over here and consider this our "friendship tour." We like to come over. Hope you will have the possibility sometime to come to Holland and we hope you will be treated as royally as you have treated us. Come and see us!

A FOUR-DAY WEEKEND

By MAVIS PECHETTE

DAY 1: It was a gorgeous day for a drive to northern Michigan. A lot of other drivers must have thought so, too, as the traffic was moderately heavy. Don't you wonder "compared to what?" when you hear a term like that? Noticing license plates was a diversion from the monotony of expressway travel. Michigan and Ohio plates were most numerous, with several also from Ontario and Indiana. My list also included Wisconsin, Manitoba and Nova Scotia. I was headed to Boyne Highlands for the American Cancer Society Golf Tournament. My room confirmation slip indicated that two other committee members and I were to share a single room in a building away from the main lodge. Concern that three of us would not fit in a single room and that we would be a distance from the registration area where we would be working was on my mind as I tried to check in. No need for worry, though. A roommate had been there ahead of me and had taken care of making a switch. We were now registered in a suite in the main lodge, close to our work assignment.

DAY 2: Registration Day for the event. This may be the most hectic day of the tournament. Tables have to be set up, signs posted and packets arranged. People start arriving before 11 a.m., even though instructions clearly indicate that registration begins at 12 noon. By 9 p.m., all but one of the 138 team packets have been claimed and 548 decks of cards have been passed out as favors. People who will be markers for the teams are checked in and hundreds of raffle tickets have been sold.

DAY 3: First golfers are off at 7:30 a.m. Breakfast and newspaper time along with TV tennis fill the morning. Then it's out to the scoreboard area to collect cards as the first round is completed. When the afternoon contingent is off, there's time for lunch and a chance to sit a spell and watch some golf. It was just happenstance that our local team came to the green where I was watching, so I did get to see the gals play one hole, saving par with a pretty putt.

Then it was off to help decorate the banquet hall. I'm not very artistic, but I can help hang crepe paper streamers of school colors in keeping with the Homecoming theme. Later the last of 6,000 raffle tickets was sold. A last minute rush was chaotic. Folks wanted to buy and we were sold out. Some people were writing names on tickets and making sales of blank ones they were still holding. Wonder if those were among the lucky ones?

The banquet is amazing! About 600 people are served in an hour. Plates of prime rib cuts are traded around the table so he who wants well-done doesn't have to eat rare. Waiters pour decaf or regular coffee on request but tea drinkers are out of luck.

DAY 4: The golfers begin again at 7:30 p.m. and then I'm on the road headed south. The first wonder is a flock of wild turkeys. That sight is so startling — what ARE those big birds anyhow? When the second flock of the morning appears along the expressway, it isn't quite such a shock and I can more appreciate the beauty. And speaking of beauty — the wooded hillsides are beginning their annual display of color and the whole scene is breathtaking.

The cause for the early departure from the tournament site is a couple of birthday parties. One is a dinner to celebrate a 90th. The birthday lady is one whose daughter and I have been friends forever. My marriage resulted in getting this lady for an aunt, so not only is she a friend, but family, too! The party honored but, but also included her sister, who turned 96 on the same day. Their 85 year old baby sister was also in attendance.

At the party someone remarked that the celebrant looked like a 60 year old and another person added, "And she thinks like a 50 year old." Perhaps that's her secret for staying young.

Face our taxation problems

DEAR EDITOR: One year ago during the dedication services of the Caseville Village sewer project, there was mention of a new motel coming in. We're still waiting. In the meantime, another well-established business closed its doors for good (the Caseville Fruit Market after 40 years).

have gone up for sale in the last two months. This is progress? If it keeps up, the Village of Caseville will be just another Michigan ghost town. People are realizing you can get well-built homes, low taxes ($600 per year on a $130,000 home in Ky.; $200 per year in Tenn. on an $80,000 house).

Until local and state officials come to grips with our taxation problems, the last person leaving Michigan need not turn out the lights. Consumers Power and Detroit Edison atomic power plants will keep Michigan lit.

In the last year, several "well-established" businesses have also closed. Several others are moving out and yet others are up for sale. The sewer project was heralded as the beginning of progress in Caseville and Caseville Township, yet 65 more homes and cottages

He's baaaack! Fisher spurs Laker win

By AMY HEIDEN
Two weeks ago, Scott Fisher was injured in the Lakers' contest against Millington. But now he's back, and in his first game since his injury, Fisher made a mockery of the Cass City defense in the Lakers' 48-12 win over the Red Hawks Friday. He ran for four touchdowns, picking up 185 yards in 11 carries. Not bad for coming back after a two-week layoff. Fisher wasn't the only star of the show though. Three other Lakers contributed to the scoring, two of them from the defensive squad. Fisher led off the TD parade in the first quarter with a 10-yd. run into the end zone, after a relentless Laker drive down the field receiving the opening kickoff. The PAT attempt on a pass from Reggie Ignash to Jamie Learman failed, and the Lakers were on their way. The first Red Hawk threat came after a Laker fumble just before the first quarter ended. The Hawks recovered and moved the ball down to their 7-yd. line before the Laker defense stopped them. Late in the second period, the Lakers took over and began another relentless drive down the field. Fisher picked up three first downs and Ignash two before Fisher ran for the score. Ignash carried the ball into the end zone for the PAT, making the score 14-0.

The Hawks' first score came as time was running out in the second quarter, when 190 lb. defensive end Jed Hubbard pulled down a Laker pass at midfield and lumbered 55 yards for the score. The PAT attempt failed, and the halftime score was 14-6. The Hawks threatened again in the third, driving to the Lakers' 6-yd. line. But All-State tackle Mike Keefer nipped the threat in the bud with an interception, and a 98-yd. run for the touchdown.

Once again, the PAT attempt failed, and the Lakers had an insurmountable 20-6 lead. Just minutes later, Fisher rambled for 35 yards and his third touchdown. Cass City took over and could only move the ball to the Lakers' 22-yd. line. On the Hawks' fourth-and-long punt, Laker defensive specialist Bob Blome got up in time to block the kick, and junior John Klosowki picked up the ball and scooted into the end zone. Then Aaron Dubs took the pass from Ignash for the 2-pt. conversion, and the score was 34-6. Reserve quarterback Jason Krohn took over from Ignash in the fourth quarter, completing two of his three passes for 70 yards, and that switch gave Ignash the chance to scamper 65 yards for the Lakers' seventh touchdown.

The PAT attempt failed, but at 40-6, it made little difference. Less than four minutes later, Fisher took the handoff from Krohn and made his biggest run of the night, a 90-yd. race to the end zone. Josh Santos' PAT run gave the Lakers their final points and the Lakers had a 48-6 lead.

Cass City would score once more late in the fourth on a 16-yd. run by Brandon Toner, little more than an exercise in futility. Laker Coach Bill McLellan was understandably glad to see Fisher back in uniform, as well as Kendall Truemmer, playing for the first time after a knee injury last spring. "Having him back is having one more player we can go to for the score," McLellan said.

The Lakers host the Marlette Red Raiders this Friday.

Laker golfers win

The Marlette golf team traveled to Scenic Golf & Country Club to meet the Lakers, but they went home with a loss as the Lakers won the match 1 1/2 pts. to Marlette's 1/2 pt. The two teams tied in stroke play with 184 each, but the Lakers prevailed in match play 14-10.

Jason Sturm was the medalist for the Lakers with a 44. Dave Geiger finished with a 46, Brett Lenda 46, and Chad Gascho 48.

In a pre-conference tournament at Verona Hills on Monday, the Lakers finished fifth out of seven teams with a combined score of 198.

The low golfers were Jeff Talaski with a 47 and Jason Sturm with a 48. The team earned 3 pts. toward league play in the combined Blue Bay/Thumb C Golf League.

On Thursday, the team lost to the Bay City All Saints team at Scenic, 184-190. Medalists for the match were Jason Sturm with a 44, Chad Gascho with a 47, and Louis Guerrero with a 49.

The junior varsity team tied in their match, 115-115.

Eagles lose to C-PS

THE CASEVILLE GIRLS' TEAM lost to Carsonville-Port Sanilac last week, 63-35. Celeste Leach was the scoring leader for the Eagles with 11 points, while Mandi Fritz and Jill Miller each scored 7 points.

OUCH!!! Lady Lakers get stung twice

By AMY HEIDEN

When they're hot, they're red hot, and when they're not...well, they're ice cold.

And that's the way—hot and cold—the Laker varsity team played Tuesday against the Lady Chargers of Valley Lutheran High, losing what eventually turned out to be an exciting game, 54-46.

The buckets just wouldn't fall in the first half, and the team found themselves outplayed, outrebounded, and outrun.

But a different, hotter team came back from the halftime break, and came to within four points of the Chargers from a 10-point deficit in the fourth period. Their chance to get within two came and went when a breakaway layup off a steal fell short of the basket.

"We could have won the game, but we just couldn't get those key shots," said Laker coach Paul Beachy.

The shots that really played havoc with the Lakers, though, were the free throws that Valley Lutheran made, he said. The Chargers connected on 26 of their 34 foul shots.

"Actually we made more field goals than they did, but their free throws helped them win the game," Beachy said.

Holly Esch led the Lakers with 15 points, while Connie Sherwood scored 8 and Kelly McLellan had six, including a three-pointer in the third quarter.

SURPRISE: No one expected the Cass City Red Hawks to be a pushover, but no one expected them to post a 4-0 record thus far this season. And one of those victories came at the expense of the Lakers Thursday night, as the Hawks cruised to a 64-49 win.

Once again, the Lady Lakers got off to a slow start in the first quarter, as the Red Hawks took a 17-8 lead by the end of the period.

The Lakers outscored the Hawks by two in the second, but that wasn't enough to overcome the deficit and the quarter ended with the Hawks ahead 30-23.

The Hawks were the team with the red-hot shooting and they kept it up throughout the second half of the game. They shot a phenomenal 54 percent from the field, while the Lakers connected on 40 percent of their shots.

Part of the problem, Beachy said, was that the Laker defense simply couldn't stop the Hawks. "We couldn't stop them down low, close to the hoop, and when you can't stop them there, you're in trouble," he said.

Beachy expects some adjustments to the team's defense to produce better results. "We've got some new players in key positions, and I knew all along it would take some time for the team to jell," he said.

"This is just one game. We've got to play them three more times."

The Lakers meet Harbor Beach and Marlette this week.

JUNIOR VARSITY: The JV team beat the Cass City team 43-34 Thursday night, with Amy Milin scoring 12 points, and Darlene Jaworski scoring 11 points, and Carolyn Bollenbacher had 7 assists.

Then on Thursday, the team defeated Valley Lutheran 58-36.

Trisha Rosenthal led her team with 10 points, while Jaworski and Jenny Smith each scored 9, and Theresa Kranz and Kari Gardy each had 8 points.

FRESHMEN: The freshman team defeated Valley Lutheran 45-36, to up their season record to 3-0.

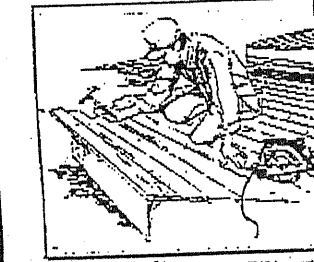

Michelle Bolda and Jenny Murdoch each scored 12 points, while Nicole Kolar scored 8 and Jodi Bruce had six points.

On Thursday, the freshman team defeated North Branch 63-26. Bolda led the scoring with 15 points, Kolar scored 13, and Hayley Herford had eight points.

Laker x-country team improves

The Laker cross country team may not be in the top finishers at their meets—yet—but they've been improving, and most members of the team set personal best times at the USA Invitational meet last week.

Instead of a team meet, though, the tourney divided the runners by class. Two runners wound up with medals in the meet. Jeremy Meyerstick took a 12th place in the junior class division, with a 5K time of 18:09. Shawn Diebel finished 14th in the freshman division, running in a time of 19:41.

Personal best times were set by Russell Truemmer, Tim Young, Norm Christner, John Buchkowsky, Steve Jaworski, Jason Armbruster, Heath Stahl, Brandon Wissner,

Brian Eden, Tory Geilhart, and Ben Sturm.

In the girls' division, Melanie Smith finished just one place out of the medals, with an 11th place in the freshman and sophomore division. Her time was 24:57. Personal best times were set by Wendy Russell, Shannon Marion, and Dawn Lorkowski.

United in Marriage

Wissner - Beal
Tracinda Shay Beal of Nixa, MO. became the bride of

Kevin William Wissner of Owendale in a wedding ceremony conducted at Mentor Baptist Church, Rogersville, MO. on Saturday, August 24. Rev. Hubert Swearingin officiated at the double-ring ceremony, which united the children of Clarence Beal of Springfield, MO., Ken and Sharon Hayes of Nixa, and

Ms. Judy Wissner of Owendale and Ronald Wissner of Bad Axe.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin, featuring a high neckline of beads and pearls. The fitted bodice was accented with embroidered lace, sequins and pearls. The Victorian sleeves featured shirring at the shoulders and net cut-outs, trimmed with embroidered lace, sequins and pearls to the wrists.

The softly gathered skirt was enhanced with an embroidered lace bow at the back waist and tiers of ruffles and tucks fell to a semi-cathedral length train.

A floral headpiece with trailing seed pearls secured her finger-tip veil. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white carnations tipped in teal, white daisies and baby's breath.

The bride asked Rebecca Hamilton of Ozark, MO. to be her matron of honor, assisted by bridesmaid Shawna Beal and junior bridesmaid, Stephanie Beal, both of Nixa and sisters of the bride.

The bridal attendants wore tea length dresses of teal satin with 3/4 length Victorian sleeves shirred at the shoulder. The gathered skirts featured a bow at the waist in back.

Standing up for the groom as best man was Eric Wissner of Owendale, brother of the groom. Groomsman was Dave Siemen of Harbor Beach and junior groomsman was Nathan Wissner of Owendale, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a street length two piece dress of white linen. The groom's mother wore a lavender two piece dress of chiffon. Both mothers wore corsages of teal tinted white carnations.

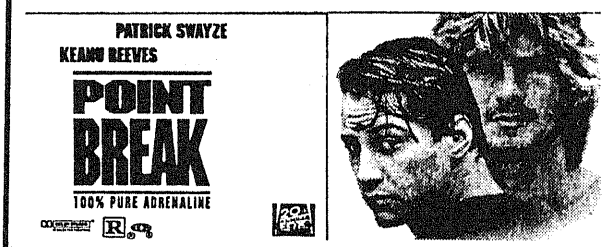

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall for family and friends.

After a honeymoon in Branson, MO. the couple returned to serve with the United States Army. Traci is serving at Ft. Leonardwood, MO. Kevin has returned to Korea.

Achievements

Frank Kluger, an agent for Farm Bureau Insurance in Elkton, has been granted the LUTC Fellow professional designation.

Since the introduction of the LUTC designation in 1984, more than 30,000 U.S. agents have qualified. Kluger is a member of the Life Underwriters Association and has been active in the profession for four years. The Life Underwriter Training Council is an independent, nonprofit educational and training organization offering courses in Personal Insurance, Business Insurance, Disability Income, Advanced Sales, Fundamentals of Financial Services, Multiline Skills and Professional Growth each year from October to May.

The designation marks an agent's long-term commitment to professionalism on behalf of clients, establishes the agent's competence and business expertise, marks a commitment to NALU's code of ethics, and frequently leads to additional professional development.

Kluger will be designated an LUTC at a national conference held Sept. 25 in Nashville, Tenn., during the 1991 annual convention of NALU. A local recognition event will also be conducted in Bad Axe where he will be presented with the official diploma.

Since the introduction of the LUTC designation in 1984, more than 30,000 U.S. agents have qualified.

Laker Athletic Boosters plan Sullivan fundraiser

The Laker Athletic Booster Club will raffle two tickets to the MSU vs U of M football game this Friday, Sept. 20 at the Laker vs Marlette game, with all proceeds going to the John Sullivan family of Marlette.

In 1986, John Sullivan was seriously injured during a thunderstorm while playing golf in the Lansing area. After his hospitalization, his family has been caring for him at home. Their expenses have been overwhelming.

Laker teacher and coach Gordie Murphy donated the tickets to be raffled, according to the Booster Club.

Anniversary United in Marriage

Mr. & Mrs. Andrew Szidik

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Szidik of Owendale celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

The couple were married Aug. 30, 1941 in St. Agatha's Catholic Church, Gageton by Father McCullough.

The couple were honored with a dinner at the Franklin Inn, Bad Axe, hosted by their children for family members and old friends.

The Szidiks have three children: Edward (Cheree) Szidik of Caro, Janet (Bruce) Baxter of Clarkston and James (Judith) Szidik of Troy; nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The couple have lived on a farm near Owendale all their married life.

Heck - Koch

Karen L. Koch and Ricky J. Heck of Elkton, united their lives in marriage on July 13 at 4 p.m. at the Owendale Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Elder Ervin Haley officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Franklin and Betty Koch of Gageton and the son of Harold and Eldina Heck of Elkton.

The bride, escorted down the aisle by her father, wore a tea length gown with a draped back of ivory satin and chantilly lace. The gown featured a sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves with a dior bow and satin panel at the back, falling to the hemline.

Her short illusion veil was held by a silk flower headband. She carried a single ivory rose accented with baby's breath and ribbon.

Special wedding music included "The Wedding Song," "Don't Know Much" and "The Lord's Prayer" performed by soloists Becky Haag and Kevin Kuhl, accompanied by organist Diane Kuhl.

Deborah Quick of Gageton was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a tea length gown of pink taffeta with a matching chantilly lace bodice and short puffed sleeves. She carried a single pink rose accented with baby's breath and ribbon.

Junior bridesmaids were Miranda and Melissa Heck, of Pennsylvania, daughters of the groom. They both wore pink dresses with a tiered skirt featuring ruffles of lace trimmed with ribbon and a taffeta bodice accented with a lace collar. They carried pink sweetheart roses accented with baby's breath and ribbon.

Best man was Ronald Terwilliger of Pigeon. Helping to seat the wedding guests were ushers Jeffrey Garrick of Elkton, nephew of the groom and Larry Quick of Gageton, brother-in-law of the bride.

A reception was held at Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Heck's

Dr. Walby returns to dental clinic

Pigeon and Sebawaing Family Dental Centers have announced the return of Dr. Jeff Walby to their staffs.

Dr. Walby formerly served Pigeon Area patients from 1984 to 1986.

Recently he served the Sebawaing Area for two years while Dr. Dalton Coe was absent on sabbatical leave.

Dr. Walby is joining Dr. Tom Hazelton in the Pigeon practice, offering an additional day to Dr. Hazelton's current schedule.

In Sebawaing, Dr. Walby will offer an additional day to Dr. Coe's schedule.

Both Dr. Hazelton and Dr. Coe have expressed gratitude to patients of both dental practices for the privilege of serving their dental needs.

They anticipate that the addition of hours to both practices will provide improved ability to treat dental emergencies as well as provide a wider range of treatment hours for area dental patients.

Caseville School plans 30-year All-Class Reunion with Homecoming

Caseville Public School is planning a 30-year All Class Reunion along with its 1991 Homecoming plans, according to Principal George Bednerek.

The theme for this year's Homecoming/Reunion Weekend will be "Oldies But Goodies." Activities will include school decorating, daily spirit activities and on Friday, Oct. 4, a Spirit Parade and Bonfire.

The Homecoming Parade will march through town on Saturday, Oct. 5 at 10:30 a.m. At 1 p.m., the Caseville Eagle Soccer Team will play Flint Valley Christian Academy.

The Homecoming Banquet and 30-year All-Class Reunion will begin at 6:30 p.m. and will be followed by the annual Homecoming Dance.

Alumni can contact Principal Bednerek at 856-2311. Dinner reservations must be paid for by this Friday, Sept. 20 because of limited seating. Tickets for the banquet may be purchased in the school's main office by Friday.

Anniversary

Mr. & Mrs. Ralph Limberger

Ralph and Donna Limberger of Pigeon celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on Sunday, Sept. 14. A family dinner was hosted by their daughter and son-in-law JoAnn and John Schaefer and grandson, Matthew.

Ralph Limberger and Donna Richmond were united in marriage at Salem United Methodist Church, Pigeon, on Sept. 17, 1951. Rev. Lester Rueggsegger officiated and attendants were Barbara Richmond and Gerald Elenbaum.

Mr. and Mrs. Elenbaum and family also hosted a supper get-together at their Sand Point cottage for the couple.

Thanks for reading The Progress-Advance.

Learn about Finnish Lions!

HERE IS SOME INFORMATION PROVIDED BY RIITA LOUSTRINEN about Finland's Lions Club.

The first Lions Club was founded in Helsinki in August, 1950. Today the Mul-

60 Seconds LIVE THE GOOD LIFE

LET YOUR MANNER OF LIFE BE WORTHY OF THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST. Phil. 1:27.

In today's society of "accumulating things", the "good life" becomes a bigger and more important goal. What is the "good life"? Is it wealth? Or things? Or comfort? Or security? In Paul's letter to the Philippians, he concludes that to him the "good life" is living "worthy of the Gospel of Christ". To him, through faith in Christ all become partners in the Gospel.

Paul also sees the Christian as becoming a citizen of a new state. Such citizenship demands new obligations, new goals, new mode of living.

Through trying our life to Christ, we accept Him as Savior and He declares us worthy to stand—free and saved—before our heavenly Father. That requires us to fulfill God's commands in our earthly life, to follow Christ's examples as far as possible and to live the "good life" as He would have us live.

In that way we live our life "worthy of the Gospel".

DON'T SHORT-CHANGE HEIRS

Don't let your heirs get survivors' interests are short-changed through jeopardized if circumstances change. Also ask your agent if you can insert language into the policy that will permit the beneficiary to take out a limited loan against the principal (presuming the money is not drawn out in one lump sum) in case of a temporary need for a large sum of money.

in other Scandinavian countries. No meetings are held during the summer months of June, July and August.

The meeting place is often a restaurant, where the members take dinner together. Some clubs have their own premises for such meetings. The meetings are on evenings between Monday and Friday.

The meetings are conducted in the manner normal for such meetings. Most meetings also bring a lecture on current professional or local topics.

Sometimes, instead of a lecture, visits to some production plant or other place of general interest are arranged.

Family reunion

DIEBEL FAMILY
The 37th annual Frank J. Diebel family reunion was held Sunday, Sept. 1 at the Pigeon Recreation Park. Fifty-three members and their guests enjoyed a potluck meal, followed by a brief business meeting.

The marriage of Mike and Wendy Diebel was noted. Four babies were born: Miranda Pearl to Tom and Becca Diebel; Jared Michael to David and Lisa Diebel; Arianna Denise to Mike and Wendy Diebel and Keith Edward to Carl and Lynda Dast. It was sadly noted that Bill and Lola Diebel was absent due to her recent illness. Beth and Dan Walz were elected to be next year's officers and hosts.

After the meeting, conversations resumed and a "friendly" game of horseshoes took place. Bob and Mary Dast narrowly defeated Ken Moore and Jerry Decker to take this year's Golden Horseshoe Award.

ELKTON WOMAN'S CIVIC CLUB

Honoring the Elkton Woman's Civic Club for its 55 years as an organization, the program committee entertained members at a 10 a.m. brunch on Saturday at Phyllis Snider's cottage. The program committee consists of Bette Southworth, Betty Elssessor, Theatta Picklo and Margaret Taylor. Roll call response was "My Favorite Fish Story."

President Snider presided. Yearly treasurer's report was given by Rosa Mae Krohn. Projects for the coming year were discussed.

Program Chairman Bette Southworth presented the program books. The theme for the year is "Cruise 55." Phyllis Snider, in keeping with the evening's theme "An Adventure in Fishing" introduced Tyler Williams, a sophomore at Caseville High School. The son of Forrest Williams of the Bay Port Fish Company, Tyler gave an informative talk of the fishing industry in Bay Port.

TIP OF THUMB VFW AUX. #2236

The regular meeting of the Tip of the Thumb Auxiliary #2236 VFW was called to order on Tuesday, Sept. 10 by President Phyllis Vollmer with 14 members present. Chaplain Eleanor Trost read the opening prayer, followed by the Pledge to the Flag. Minutes of the previous meeting and the treasurer's report were read. Bills were presented.

National General Orders No. 1 were read. A notice that inspection will be Oct. 8 at 7:30 p.m. A school of instruction will be held at VFW Post #2236 at 7:30 p.m. is planned for post and auxiliary members in the area. The general public is also welcome. A flyer was read, stating that the auxiliary has space in the M.O.V. Any sister who would like to subscribe can do so for a small fee per year. A subscription form is available. Hospital Chairman Marie Darby reported that the district is having a lap robe contest for VA hospitals. Lap robes must be 40x40 in red, white and blue, made of washable material, either quilted or tied. They will be judged on unique patterns or designs.

Marie Darby and Eleanor Trost will attend a hospital workshop on Oct. 17. Monies were given to help fill the comfort cupboard at Saginaw VA Hospital. Membership Chairman Anita Gettel presented a flower stem she received at a district meeting for having only 30 1992 dues paid members reported to date. PAC Chairman Erma Rounds reported that PAC was formed to protect veterans' benefits. With all the cuts in the current federal budget, Congress needs to be reminded of what the veterans have done for this country and their benefits should not be written off, according to VFW spokesmen.

Motions to buy new roasters and pay bills were made and carried. Chaplain Trost read the closing prayer and the meeting adjourned, to re-op Oct. 8 at 7:30 p.m.

CASEVILLE AMER. LEGION AUXILIARY
The Caseville American Legion Auxiliary meeting for Sept. 4 opened at 7 p.m. by President Norma Farver with prayer by Chaplain Betty Marie Celmer. The Pledge to the Flag and Preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion Auxiliary were recited. Secretary Eileen Tait read the minutes of the last meeting. Treasurer Marion Parent gave the financial report. Hostesses for Sunny Acres Nursing Center Sept. 13 and 26 were to be Velma Meyers, Norma Farver and Marion Parent. It was noted the Holly Berry Fair will be Nov. 2. All members are asked to make, bake or donate. The next Bloodmobile will be Nov. 7 at the Caseville American Legion Hall. Feather Bingo is to be hosted by the auxiliary sometime in November. Details will be announced. The next Auxiliary meeting will be Oct. 2 at 7 p.m.

"Thanks a Million" By Percy Ross

Send your letters to: PERCY ROSS, c/o Progress-Advance, P.O. Box 35000, Minneapolis, MN 55435. Please include your telephone number.

Here's money for kids' clothes, but keep it away from Dad

(EDITOR'S NOTE—Percy Ross is away from his office this week aiding the homeless with food and shelter. In his absence, his editor Nancy Webber is filling in.)

DEAR MISS WEBBER:
I don't know if you have kids, but I'm hoping you'll feel kindly toward mine. I have six. None of them have decent school clothes, and it breaks this momma's heart. Last year, they were teased so bad, I was worried my oldest, 14, would drop out of school.

Their daddy is a real horse's behind. The lazy bum sits around all day drinking beer. He claims nobody will give him work. How in the Lord's name can you get a job when you don't look for one? I'm of a mind to leave him, but every time I say so, he threatens to do himself in. I work, and darn hard, too. We don't get welfare, but we do get food stamps. Maybe we're not as bad off as some folks, and I'm grateful. But being grateful doesn't put clothes on your kids—only cash and credit can do that and I don't have either of them. Could you have a word with Mr. Ross about helping us? I can bargain-shop and for $100 a kid get shoes, pants, shirts, underwear and maybe a jacket. These are good kids. Please don't make me regret having them.—MRS. R.L., Santa Rosa, Calif.

DEAR MRS. T.:
You've got the right columnist, but the wrong cause—the word is philanthropic! We've received over 2,600 responses from folks who are interested in starting local chapters of "Percy's Angels." Plans are still in the developmental state and the prototype should emerge by year's end. To everyone who responded, your letter is on

DEAR MRS. L.:
Your closing line is absurd. I can't possibly make you do anything. If I could, I'd get you to leave your alcoholic husband. I'm sending you a $600 Thanks a Million check to outfit your six children. That's a lot of money when you don't have it, but it's going to have to stretch pretty far to get all that your kids need. As for regrets—I could have one. If one dime of that money goes toward your husband's beer, then my judgment on how you'd handle the money was wrong. Don't make me out to be the fool.

DEAR MISS WEBBER:
Mr. Ross appears to be a warm-hearted man, willing to help people who need money. I have my doubts. Three weeks ago, I wrote him because all I want is a dog. I'm not old enough to work at a real job and my parents can't afford to pay for both a dog and vet costs, plus food. I spend most of my free time baby sitting and doing a paper route so I can pay for the upkeep. I don't have any extra time or energy to work more than I already do to get the money for the dog. Since I got neither a yes or no reply from him, I feel like maybe Mr. Ross doesn't care. Maybe he needs some more reassurance that this is what his money will buy—a dog. It's all I think about day and night. I'm afraid without his money I'm up a creek without a paddle. Is this convincing enough?—E.M., LaCrescent, Minn.

DEAR MRS. T.:
Who needs to convince Mr. Ross when I can consult two experts in the field of canine companionship—my wire fox terriers, Ripley and Burnie?

DEAR E.:
Who needs to convince Mr. Ross when I can consult two experts in the field of canine companionship—my wire fox terriers, Ripley and Burnie?

file and we'll contact you with a packet of information on how to get started.

They're all in favor of issuing you a Thanks a Million check, but then they're biased.

I'm not completely objective either, which means you're no longer "up a creek without a paddle." Our check is on the way, along with our expectations that you become a responsible dog owner.

By MILDRED BALLAGH
Following the 11 a.m. service on Sunday at the Elkton Missionary Church, a chicken dinner was served honoring the 80-year and up birthdays of members of the congregation. Honored were Alice Bedford, William Hazard, Edith Lackie, Flossie Lackie, Beulah and Irene Schlach, Irene Ginter and Newell Wightman. Marie Eby made and served the birthday cake. The program consisted of picture-taking and reminiscing. Spending a few days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Conkey, were Mark and Linda Shaw and children Malina, Hope, Erin, Robble and Hannah of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McBride of Flint spent several days with area relatives. Recent visitors of the Hal Conkeys were Mrs. Shammie and daughter of Farmington Hills. Mr. and Mrs. William Ballagh spent several days with Bill and Jan Ballagh of New Lothrop. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hyzer and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hyzer returned from a two-week sightseeing trip with Mr. and Mrs. Michael Crow in Chesham, England.

ACS Tourney draws local golfers

The American Cancer Society Golf Championship Final Tournament was held recently at Harbor Springs. The competition was among teams which had won in local ACS tournaments in various divisions. A record 138 teams played 36 holes on the Heather and Moor courses of Boyne Highlands over two days. The winners in the six divisions will play in the national tournament at Doral Golf Club of Miami, Fla. in late October. Local winners represented Huron County. Scenic Golf and Country Club members Edna Dutcher and Jeanette Rowe of Caseville teamed with Veronica Haines and Theresa Streeter of Vassar and played in the Womens' I Division of the tourney. Playing in Mens' II Division were Jon Biedenbender, Dan Reynolds, Chris Wurst and Kevin Wolfram, all of Pigeon and golfers at Scenic. Also attending the event was Mavis Pechette of Caseville, a member of the Michigan ACS Golf Committee. These tournaments are fund-raisers for ACS. In 1991, over $600,000 was generated by golfers in Michigan. This money is used by ACS for education, research and patient services in the battle against cancer.

Caseville Mayor's Report

would be $49.80. If you used 10,000 gal. of water, your sewer charge would be $49.80 plus 10 times 56 cents or $5.60, making a total of $55.40, plus tap-in charges if you chose to use the 30-year payment plan for the $1,000 tap-in fee.

This change was required by the Federal government, as whenever federal monies are used, the user can only pay for what sewage is generated.

Keep in mind the $49.80 is a fixed charge for debt retirement. Caseville received approximately $3 million in federal funds for this project.

Also changed, a residential property owner can use a four-inch pipe from their home to the main sewer line. These lines have to be inspected and a permit must be obtained from the village office before doing the work.

There has been no date set as yet for hookups. The general contractor is still waiting for the seven pumps to be shipped.

Otherwise, the work inside the village has been completed except for cleanup, seeding and minor adjustments.

I must add that the sewer ordinance prescribes that due to inclement or adverse weather conditions, said property owner may appeal in writing within 10 days of notice, to the village for additional time in which to connect his sewer without penalty.

Please call the village office if you have any questions regarding the above.

A public hearing was held at 7 p.m. regarding changes in the garbage and water rates for delinquent bills. After the hearing, council adopted the following: a charge of 1 1/2% per month will be charged on all delinquent bills.

In the past, a 5% penalty was charged only once and the bill could remain unpaid indefinitely.

Council adopted a new rate for sewer leads for vacant residential lots. The previous charge was $750, paid upfront. The new charge is $1200 paid upfront, plus the $1000 tap-in fee will have to be paid in full before a building permit is issued, with an additional $800 water tap-in fee.

For example, if you own a vacant residential lot and want to build, the charges are $1200 sewer lead, $1000 tap-in fee, $800 water tap-in fee, for a $3000 total, which has to be paid before a permit issued.

Council approved paving the end of Terrie Dr. on Blue Water Isle for a cost not to exceed $1800.

Hopefully, a capital improvement program will be implemented to pave all unpaved streets within the village.

Big trash pickup is set for Oct. 7 and 8. Items should be set at the curb by Monday morning. No box springs, tires or building material will be picked up.

DPW will flush fire hydrants on Sept. 25, 26 and 27 from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m.

A letter was received from Sheriff Mike Gage, thanking the village for adopting the House Number Ordinance, thereby helping in emergency situations.

This ordinance was passed last month and I would like to remind residents that all buildings must have numbers at least three inches high and written numbers are NOT acceptable.

If your neighbor has no numbers on his house, please encourage him to put them up. It could save a life!

Council authorized the controller to send out a newsletter with all the current changes in ordinances, etc. The mailing will be done along with the next water and garbage bill or tax notice.

DPW Superintendent was authorized to attend a wastewater treatment seminar Oct. 1-4 in Kalamazoo for a cost not to exceed $500. This is a requirement for the village, due to the sewer system.

We're asking YOU...

STACEY KRUEGER ASKS: "Do you think Clarence Thomas should be confirmed as the newest Supreme Court Justice? Why or Why Not?"

Yes, he did a good job as head of the E.E.O.C. and he has done well in the Senate hearing and is open minded.

JON BIEDENBENDER,
Pigeon

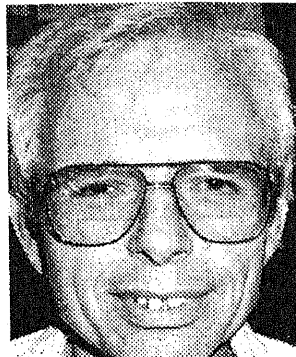

Yes, he has a fair chance like everyone else. He is college educated and worked his way up. We have a lot of black people in office and they always do a good job. They try harder.

WILLIAM RUSSELL,
Elkton

No, because I believe that he is Bush's choice. He doesn't have enough credentials.

JIM WISSNER,
Fairgrove

Yes, I think he should because he'd be a good man for the job.

ELMER ROPP,
Elkton

Absolutely, I like what he stands for and I like his background.

BRYAN NICHOLAS,
Elkton

Yes, because he seems to have all the qualifications.

JOANN ABBOTT,
Pigeon
