New sewer system 'in the works at Bay Port

SPRING BREAKS haven't tempered the growth of the construction of Bay Port's new $5.2 million wastewater collection and treatment system. A new logo is being built out just north of town on all sides of all four streets.

Fair Haven Township officials have been pushing for the system for several years, since the township's population has also been on the rise. The township has also moved more watersheds to support employees of State Police Construction of Television Medical Center.

RENEA T. TAYLOR, M.D., due to last patient Thurs- day at the Scheurer Family Medicine Center, hopes to continue her practice in the Scheurer Family Medicine Center in Bay City. She will also continue her practice in the Scheurer Family Medicine Center in Bay City. The new practice will be located at the same location as the Scheurer Family Medical Center, 1101 S. Saginaw St., Bay City. The practice will be open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

As we see it

Verdict sadly brings back reality

The Los Angeles jury that last week acquitted the four police officers in the beating of motorist Rodney G. King, a Los Angeles native and former White Hangovers' drummer, will stand trial today on the murder of 28-year-old Darrell L. Dorsey, a Los Angeles native and former teacher. The jury, which spent five days deliberating, is expected to return a verdict by noon.

The verdict is not surprising. The case of Dorsey is being handled by the same judge who presided over the G. King trial and is expected to charge the jury with murder, attempted murder, and assault.

The trial will be held at the same time and place as the G. King trial. The jury will be chosen from the same pool of potential jurors. The case is expected to last for several weeks.

The case of Dorsey has received little media attention compared to the G. King trial. However, the case has generated significant interest in the black community, who view it as a test of the justice system's ability to hold police officers accountable for their actions.

The trial of Dorsey is expected to be a highly charged and emotional experience for all involved. The case has generated significant public interest and has been the subject of much speculation and debate. The outcome of the trial will be closely watched by many.

In conclusion, the verdict in the Dorsey case is expected to have a significant impact on the wider community. The case is a reminder of the need for a just and fair justice system that holds all individuals accountable for their actions.

- Michigan Bell Telephone Company will bring new calling options to customers in the Bay Port area in the next few weeks, with installation of advanced call processing equipment valued at more than $200,000. "The sophisticated processor means that approximately 600 residents and businesses in the 686 exchange will be able to order touch-tone and custom calling services," said Patricia Vance, Michigan Bell's local public relations director. "The new equipment also makes possible information age services we'll be introducing in the future."

- Michigan Bell also will bring customers in that exchange "Dial 1 Plus," which will allow them to use any available long distance service by simply dialing "1" plus the area code and the phone number.

- Right now, customers who use any long distance company other than AT&T must dial up to 22 digits, said Vance.

- Information describing the new services and billing will be mailed to customers as the services become available.

- Also, customers will receive a "receipt" listing the long distance minutes of service they purchased. "Dial 1 Plus" in their area. To select a long distance company, customers must only check the appropriate box on the ballot and mail it back to Michigan Bell in the postage-paid envelope provided.

- Customer calling features to be available to Bay Port exchange customers include:
  - Call Forwarding: automatically transfers an incoming call from one telephone to another.
  - Call Waiting/Cancel Call Waiting: lets a customer using the phoone know a second call is waiting to be answered and permits canceling.
