Doors open for expanded "Thumb C" athletic conference

by Mary Orlin

Participants in the Thumb C Athletic Conference will have the chance to dine and drive between games of the season.

The Thumb C, which consists of four schools in the Blue Water Conference, and two others in the Michigan Secondary School Athletic Association, will begin its 1981-82 season this week.

The Thumb C Board of Directors met recently to approve the expanded schedule.

The conference includes: Algonac, Marysville, Port Huron, and Port Huron Northern. In addition, the Thumb C will combine with the Michigan Secondary School Athletic Association to offer an expanded schedule.

The expanded conference will include eight games for each school, with each team playing one home game and one away game against each of the other three schools in the Thumb C.

The home games will be played on Tuesday nights, with the away games scheduled for Thursday nights.

The Thumb C Board of Directors has approved the new schedule, which will be in effect for the 1981-82 season.

The conference will continue to offer a variety of sports and activities for students, including football, basketball, baseball, and soccer.

Holidays can be stress-free by thinking ahead.

While this holiday season is one of the happiest and most exciting times of the year, it is also a time of great frustration for others. Whether there are too many parties, too much food, or too many presents, people are bound to be stressed.

An Iowa State University Extension Home Economist says that the holiday season is the worst time of the year for many people. The problem is that the stress comes from doing the bad parts of Christmas, leaving too much to enjoy the holiday. She said that there is a reason for the season.

Too many expectations - which often can’t be completed with the same amount of time, and some holidays had stress and more enjoyable activity.

ELEKTON RESIDENT Chris Danielson, 57, is originally from the town of chairman of the Elsberry Historical Society. She is planning to make a formal presentation to the Elsberry Heritage Days Committee about the history of the town, with a focus on the town's early years and how it came to be known as "Elsberry."

When Geraldine Ehlers, director of the Elsberry Heritage Days Committee, visited the town recently, she was impressed with the historical significance of the town's name and its rich past. She plans to include the story of Elsberry's early days in her presentation to the committee.

The town of Elsberry was founded in 1868 by a group of settlers who came to the area from the Midwest. The town was named Elsberry after the family of the first settlers, who had come to the area from Elsberry, Alabama.

The town was originally called Elsberry, but the name was changed to Elsberry in 1877. The town has grown steadily over the years, and today it is home to a variety of businesses, including a hardware store, a bank, and a small supermarket.

The Elsberry Heritage Days Committee is planning a variety of events for the town's centennial celebration, which will take place in 2022. The committee is currently working on plans for a weekend of events, including a parade, a fireworks display, and a street fair.

The committee is also planning to erect a historical marker in the town square to commemorate the town's history. The marker will feature information about the town's early days and its significance in the history of the region.

The Elsberry Heritage Days Committee is looking for volunteers to help with the planning and execution of the event. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact the committee at 501-555-5555.

A long winter
Winter comes to our dear hunting woodlands the other night and began to test our patience and our skills. It was a prelude to the coming snowfall, the first snowfall of the season. The woodcock is the first to respond to the chill, followed by the ruffed grouse. But the most obvious sign of winter is the absence of birds. The winter transformation is complete, the woods are silent. The air is crisp, the sky is clear, the sun is shining. It is a beautiful winter day.
