Move it or lose it in Pigeon

If you're a Pigeon resident and you've got a junk car or debris in your yard, it's time to get it moved or cleaned up. That's the word from the Pigeon Village Council, which adopted a bright ordnance at last week's meeting.

The ordinance says that the village can enter the property to do the cleanup if the resident doesn't, and put the cost of the cleanup work on the property owner's taxes, according to Village Clerk Janet Heckman.

The village police department is authorized to enforce the ordinance, which goes into effect March 1.

Council also adopted a budget for the 1993-94 fiscal year, totaling $275,000 with revenues of $287,279 and expenditures of $305,444.

In other business, council:

■ Agreed to hire Huron Excavation, Inc, to clean up the burning ground area at a cost of $4,200. The final cost will be based on the number of cubic yards of material removed from the area.

■ Hired Carl Messerschmitt of the Huron County Economic Development Corp. at a cost of $2,000 to help seek grants for the village.
Huron native, DNR leader, speaks to Conservation Club

Last month, Huron County native John Hugel led the DNR’s Conservation Club meeting for Huron County conservation groups and educational institutions.

Swedish Heritage

The Swedish Heritage Society hosted the annual Swedish Heritage Festival on Saturday, July 30th. The festival featured traditional Swedish food, music, and dance, along with Crafts and clothing. Attendees also had the opportunity to learn about the history and culture of Sweden.

Solid TN fiscal ‘92

By AMY HEIDEN

The Michigan Department of Natural Resources announced that the state’s fiscal year ended with a $2.3 million surplus. This is the third consecutive year that the state has achieved a surplus, and it is the largest surplus in recent memory.

Caseville’s Shanty Days ‘hit the ice’ this weekend

By AMY HEIDEN

On Friday, the annual Caseville Shanty Days kicked off with a fishing derby at 4 p.m. The derby featured a cash prize for the biggest fish, with prize categories for all ages.

For spectators and families, there were various food and beverage vendors throughout the day. The event also featured live music from local bands and a fireworks display to end the night.

Saturday, the main event, saw the “Hit the Ice” competition take place. Contestants were divided into teams of three and were required to fish until 4 p.m. The team with the highest catch at the end of the day was declared the winner.

The Shanty Days event continues on Sunday with a community breakfast and a parade through the town. It is a must-see event for anyone interested in fishing or outdoor activities.

ICE SHANTIES are a common sight on Saginaw Bay in Caseville. These small huts, typically decorated with a red roof, are used by families to stay warm and enjoy the winter weather during the Shanty Days festivities. The tradition of ice fishing in Caseville has been passed down through generations and continues to be cherished by the local community.

Laker Theatre Team qualifies for state!

The Laker High School Theatre Team won the Regional Theatre Festival at Frankenmuth High School Saturday. Their One Act Play, "The Actor’s Nightmare," was the highest rated play of the six plays presented at the regional festival.

The Laker Team will now compete for state honors with a performance on Friday at 9:30 a.m. at the University of Michigan. Receiving certificates of excellence for the Laker at regional competition were Heidi Schwandt for acting and Jon Helmuth, Steve Corrigan, Pat McAndie and Kris Kranz for sets.

Receiving a superior certificate for performance was Greg Nimtz for acting and the ensemble for costumes. Other student actors were Jason Stahl, Stacey Krueger, Ben Lange and Danielle DeMoen, Jenny Wheeler was the stage manager at the regional performance.

Other high schools competing on Saturday were Bay City John Glenn, Essexville Garber, Waterford, Kettering and host Frankenmuth.

In 1990, the Laker One Act Play, "I Never Saw Another Butterfly," won the Class C-D honors at the state festival and several of the members of that team are seniors on this team.

Just what did the students have to say about their regional win?

Senior Ben Lange said, "I missed going my freshman year so I’m looking forward to it."

Heidi Schwandt said, "I went to State my freshman year and yet this is an awesome feeling to be able to go again my senior year!"

Kris Kranz added, "We won, what more is there to say?"

Laker teacher Mike Terrill is theatre and drama advisor.
