Candiates sought, to replace Sugar Queen Kristy

FOR A PERSON WORKING TOWARDS college in Detroit, promoting the sugar industry, a 1983 Michigan Sugar Queen has a touch of irony. That is one of the many reasons people smile when they meet Queen Kristy Adams, who has enjoyed every bit of her sugar reign—but didn’t exactly promotion the sugar image in fair.

In fact, it has been her pleasure, she says, as she travels all over the state spreading Michigan Sugar Company’s image.

How’s there’s a chance for other women to try for the title of 1983 Michigan Sugar Queen, on the way, deadline draws near. Applications must be in by this Thursday, May 27.

Interviews will take place in May, and finalists will be chosen from the contest. More information can be obtained by calling 365-5145.

As we see it

While Proposal A isn’t perfect, it’s the best we’ve got

Michigan voters go to the polls next Wednesday, Jan. 2, to decide whether to accept Proposal A, which we all seem to have heard about for two weeks. This is a compromise proposal that is not perfect, but it is the best we have got.

Proposal A is a reforming proposal for the state's finances, aimed at reducing the state's debt and improving its fiscal stability. The proposal includes a number of measures, such as a limit on state spending, a requirement for a balanced budget, and a cap on pension costs.

Balancing the good and bad of Proposal A finds us in a position similar to that of a woman going through labor. We can see the light at the end of the tunnel, but we are still inside the process.

There are some people who believe that Proposal A is not enough, but we believe that it is a step in the right direction. We need to work together to make sure that Proposal A is implemented effectively.

The key to success is the cooperation of all levels of government. We need to work together to ensure that the proposed reforms are implemented.

Thank you for your attention.

FRIENDS OF LIBRARY GATHER FOR 75TH PARTY

GUESTS of the Friends group for the Pigeon District Library gathered Wednesday night to celebrate the library's 75th birthday. The event was held at the Sebewaing Community Center. The Friends group was formed in 1946 and has been instrumental in raising funds to support the library's operations. The organization now has over 100 members and continues to be an active force in the community. The Friends group has raised over $100,000 in funds since its inception. The event was attended by library staff, local dignitaries, and members of the community. The evening included a reception, refreshments, and entertainment provided by local talent. The Friends group is planning several events and fundraisers for the year, including a book sale, a bake sale, and a chili supper. The group is always looking for new members and volunteers to help with their activities. Those interested in joining the Friends group can contact the Pigeon District Library at 883-3100.
