Eric Majeski is ordained

By WALT RUMEL

It's the Rev. Eric Walter Majeski now, following his ordination to the ministry in the Catholic Church in Michigan last Sunday in St. Louis.

The service took place in the Roman Catholic Church in St. Louis, where the pastor is Rev. Martin Wagner.

The new pastor and his wife, the former Patricia A. Woglum, will reside in the former family home of the Majeski family in the former home of the Woglum family.

The Majeski family is one of the oldest families in the church, and the Woglum family is one of the newest.

The newly ordained priest, who is the son of Edward and Pauline Majeski, was born in St. Louis in 1967, and was raised in Sarnia, Ont.

In June 1988, he married the former Patricia Woglum of St. Louis, and the couple have three children.

He graduated from Sarnia Catholic High School in 1985, and graduated from the University of Windsor with a degree in Religious Studies in 1989.

He served as a priest in the Diocese of London, Ont., for two years before being ordained a priest in the Diocese of Windsor, Ont., in 1991.
