It's Laker High's Homecoming Week

$204,000 cocaine bust
Cocaine worth an estimated $204,000 was intercepted before entering the Bad Axe - Cass City area by the Thumb Narcotics Unit last Wednesday, police say. This was the largest amount of cocaine ever seized in the Thumb, they said.

Arrested was Raymond A. Bly, Sr., 36 of Austin Township, charged with one count of possession with intent to deliver 225 grams or more, but less than 400 grams of cocaine. Police raided the Backwoods Saloon in Austin Township. Sanilac County. Bly is the saloon's owner.
He was arrested Thursday in Huron County District Court and remains lodged at the Huron County jail on a $500,000 bond. His preliminary exam is scheduled Thursday. Further investigation is being conducted by TNIU, Bad Axe Police and the Huron County Sheriff's Department.

Laker vote this Wednesday
Elkton - Pigeon - Bay Port "Laker" School District residents vote Wednesday to decide whether to override the Headline Amendment limitations, to levy the full 28.94 operational mills previously approved for the 1993-94 school year. The money generated from the override totals $312,914 and would be used to offset the district's two-year deficit of $478,860, according to Sup't. Robert Dury.
The voted millage would be equal to the 1992 millage rate and lower than any rate since 1998, according to School Board President Yvonne Buskey. Polls are open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the Laker High School cafeteria.

"Amerigas has agreed to fund the project," he said. "They're interested in aesthetics and want to see the neighborhood look better."

The project is still in the early stages, but plans call for the installation of new streetlights on several blocks. "We're looking at a total cost of $250,000," he said. "We're hoping to get some grant money to help offset the cost."

The project is expected to be completed within the next year and will include the installation of new streetlights along the main streets and some minor streets. "We're looking at a total of 200 new lights," he said. "We're also looking at some other enhancements, such as new sidewalks."

Is a new kind of ‘better sugar’ the way to go?

Late September is the time of year when Michigan folks expect the first crop of apples to come in, and with it, cider and apple sauce. But as we see it, there’s a new kind of ‘better sugar’ on the horizon, and it’s time to give it a whirl.

According to a recent article in Waking Magazine, one of the latest trends in the world of natural sweeteners is the growing popularity of ‘better sugar’. This is a range of alternative sweeteners that are relatively low in calories, have a low glycemic index, and are generally considered to be healthier than traditional sugars.

One of them is Swerve, a sugar substitute made from a mixture of erythritol and oligosaccharides. It’s extracted from a variety of plants, including the sugar beets, and has a sweet flavor similar to that of table sugar.

Another is Stevia, a natural sweetener that comes from the leaves of the Stevia rebaudiana plant. Stevia is zero-calorie and has a very low glycemic index, making it a popular choice for those looking to reduce their sugar intake.

While these new sugars offer some benefits, it’s important to note that they are not a replacement for traditional sugars. They should be used in moderation and as part of a balanced diet.

As we see it, the key to enjoying a healthy lifestyle is finding a balance between indulgence and moderation. So, the next time you’re tempted to reach for that candy bar or soda, consider trying a ‘better sugar’ alternative to see if it’s right for you.

Yarns From the Ranch

In the days of yore, the simple act of giving a gift of yarn to a friend was considered a thoughtful gesture. As we see it, the practice of knitting and crocheting has remained popular throughout the ages, offering a sense of connection and community.

Knitting and crocheting are not only a joyous pastime, but also a means of self-expression and personal growth. Whether you’re a seasoned crafter or just getting started, there’s something to be gained from the process.

As we see it, the benefits of knitting and crocheting are numerous. It’s a great way to relieve stress and anxiety, and a wonderful way to express creativity. It’s also an excellent way to keep your hands busy and occupied, especially during those long winters.

As we see it, the tradition of giving yarn as a gift has endured for generations, and it continues to inspire and bring joy to those who engage in this timeless craft.

Recollections of Bygone Days

by George Kim

Dear Editor,

I am writing to express my concern about the current state of our town. As we see it, there is a sense of neglect and neglectful service that is affecting the quality of life for many residents.

I have noticed that the streets are often poorly maintained, with potholes and cracks that can be hazardous for drivers and pedestrians. The trash pickup schedule is inconsistent, with some areas being serviced regularly while others are left to accumulate for weeks.

Furthermore, the local park is in dire need of renovation. The playground equipment is outdated and unsafe, and the lighting is insufficient, making it difficult to enjoy the park at night.

As we see it, it is important that our community come together to address these issues. We need to hold our elected officials accountable and demand better service from our local government.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Deer Blinds...

With the beginning of this year’s hunting season just around the corner, deer are once again on the minds of many outdoor enthusiasts. As you plan your hunting adventures, it’s important to consider ethical hunting practices and the impact on the local deer population.

Hunters and non-hunters alike can benefit from understanding the role of deer in the ecosystem and how hunting can affect their numbers. By doing so, we can work together to maintain a healthy and sustainable deer population.

Research shows that a balanced approach to hunting can help maintain population levels and ensure the long-term health of the deer population. However, it’s crucial to consider the ethical implications of hunting, especially in areas where deer densities are already low due to habitat loss or other factors.

Hunters are encouraged to consult with local conservation authorities and follow guidelines set by state wildlife agencies to ensure the sustainability of the deer population. This includes practicing good hunting ethics, respecting private property, and avoiding illegal or unethical hunting practices.

By taking these steps, we can help protect the deer population and ensure that future generations have the opportunity to enjoy the benefits that deer offer. So, let’s do our part to ensure a healthy and sustainable deer population for years to come.

Eileen’s and Mr. Coots closing next week in Sebewaing

BY WALT RUMMER

At their daughter’s request, the owners of Eileen’s in Sebewaing, puzzles and Mr. Coots in hometown Sebewaing, will be closing both eating establishments on Monday, Oct. 31st.

“After 40 years, the time has come,” owner and operator Edith Sur-Hall said in a short statement. “I want to thank everyone who has supported us over the years.”

Mr. Coots is well known for its homemade chili, while Eileen’s is known for its breakfasts and lunches.

Tales of the Mummy, 3:00 p.m. at the Sebewaing Library.

Libraries in the region are celebrating the 10,000th anniversary of the first library in the United States, which was established in the 1800s. As a part of the celebration, libraries across the region are offering special events and activities for children.

The Sebewaing Public Library is hosting a special event for children on October 7th, with a screening of the classic horror film “The Mummy.” The film will be shown at 3:00 p.m., and all children are encouraged to attend.

To celebrate this milestone, many libraries will also be featuring special exhibits, workshops, and storytimes. The Sebewaing Library is no exception, offering a variety of programs for children throughout the month.

These events are not only fun and educational but also highlight the importance of literacy and the benefits of reading. Libraries play a critical role in providing access to information, resources, and support for individuals of all ages.

In conclusion, libraries continue to be a vital resource in our communities, offering a wealth of knowledge and opportunities for growth.

Caseville Shanty Days will be biggest area winter event

By SALLY RUMMEL

When a 15-year-old Caseville High School student was more physically present for events he helped organize than any of the Caseville Chamber of Commerce members, Caseville Shanty Days was born. The event is celebrating its 10th anniversary this weekend.

The late 1990s brought Caseville Shanty Days to life, with the help of Caseville High School student, along with the Caseville Chamber.

"I love Caseville. It’s my home. I wanted the town to stay busy," said SADY Rushing, Caseville Shanty Days organizer.

The event island will be Saturday and Sunday, with a full schedule of activities. Winter activities for kids are scheduled for Saturday, while Sunday activities will focus on adults.

Children can enjoy outdoor events like the Caseville Winter Pet Parade, where dogs will run around the school, or the Caseville Polar Bear Plunge, where people can take the plunge in the icy waters.

Adults can join in on the fun with activities such as the Caseville Winter Barbecue or the Caseville Winter Beer Fest, which features live music and a variety of local beers.

Caseville Shanty Days is a great opportunity for everyone to come together and celebrate the winter season, Rushing said.

The event also features a variety of food vendors, including a Caseville Winter Festival with hot dogs, popcorn, and other classic fair foods.

Caseville Shanty Days is free to attend, and there are no registration fees. For more information, visit www.casevillechamber.org, or contact SADY Rushing at 989-559-4555.
