JOIN IN THE FUN DURING...

CASEVILLE'S ANNUAL PERCH SPRING FLING!
APRIL 15 - 24, 1994

More (well) parade fun Saturday in Caseville!

The Caseville IGA’s “float” entry was a unique one...and it even performed!
This group of IGA workers and friends manned the “shopping cart brigade” as they marched along the soggy parade route...and even knew how to go into formations involving circles, spins and even wheelies!
It provided lots of fun, during the annual fishing and family week celebration, as sponsored by the Caseville Chamber of Commerce.

Tom’s Floor Covering
6974 Main St. (M-22) Caseville 856-2740
Autobody Insurnce
1415 N. Main Street
The Power Agency, Inc.
CASEVILLE LIBRARY CLUB
Linda Hogan, president of the Caseville Chamber of Commerce, was guest speaker at the April 12 meeting, which was presided over by President Sylvia Wisner.

Her topic was “Chamber’s Impact on Community Affairs,” relating facts about the Chamber’s steady growth and its purpose of working for everyone’s success through business improvements.

She says that Caseville’s unique location allows the chamber to concentrate on promoting year-round tourism, rather than just during the summer months.

The next meeting will be May 10 featuring guest speaker Rita Mary Johnston with a talk, “Behind the Podium.”

BAYPORT WOMEN’S CLUB
Ten members met Tuesday at the home of Carol Bain, with dessert and refreshments served by the hostess. President Betty Smith and secretary Ann Piccirilli led the pledge and the Club Oath. Donna Deming reported sending three get-well cards and two sympathy cards.

Roll call was “What Are Your Summer Plans?”

Donations will be made to the Pigeon District Library and the Bay Port Elementary School Library.

The same slate of officers as last year was elected: President Betty Smith, Vice President Donna Deming, Secretary Carolyn Wooster and Treasurer Nellie Dutcher.

Betty Smith discussed the Bay Port Historical Society’s upcoming “ Blessing of the Fleet” at the Bay Port Dock on May 22, followed by a whitefish boil dinner at the Bay Port Park.

The ladies will enjoy a luncheon at the Bay City Civic Center, for the May meeting.

RUSH LAKE FARM BUREAU Members met on Thursday, April 14, at the Pleasant Valley Lions Club to have lunch with Ann McBride.

Rush Lake Farm Bureau Creed was read in unison.

Opa Deely led the discussion topic, “Coastal Zone Management.” She then led the Fun Shot.

The next meeting will be with the William Biall’s.

WORTHY STUDY CLUB
Members gathered for a noon luncheon Wednesday at the Country House Restaurant. Frances Tinch welcomed members. Roll call response was “A Bible Verse.”

Alsy Deely read an article about “Tillers for Health Reform,” taken from the Secure the Future magazine. A household hint: Did you know that one tablespoon of apple cider vinegar in water does wonders for your health?

Christine Conkey will host the May meeting.

OWENDALE WOMEN’S CLUB
The club sponsored its annual bloodmobile on Monday, April 11, and 30 units were collected after 33 attempts.

Two members were first-time givers:

Erica Swain, Ryan Reachbrown

The third hour physical education classes at the Owen Dale Elementary School helped set up the bloodmobile and clean up.

Avery Vautier helped carry the equipment out.

The senior and junior classes also helped during the afternoon.

CASEVILLE RETIREMENT CLUB
Seventy-five members were present for the April 12 meeting. In the absence of President Ed Reynolds, Vice President Bill Vallen opened the meeting with the pledge and thanked Alma Stahle and Robert Heckman for the “enlightened” goodie box.

Secretary- Treasurer Betty Kietke gave their monthly reports.

New members Jim and Sally Ryan and Pat O’Brien were welcomed. A moment of silence was held for deceased member Louis Conklin and Evelyn Garant and Viand Tony Wintergreen were welcomed back.

Travel Chairman Jutta Muhm announced an excursion for the Mt. Pleasant trip is full and will leave the American Legion Hall on April 28 at 9:30 a.m.

A Tigers game trip is planned for July 28.

It was reported that Theresa and Ed White are much better.

Henry Deyer is still in the hospital, not improving. Celebrating birthdays this week are Lorrie McHale, Alma Stahle, Cassie Kopke, Marie Darby and Theresa Pravettoni.

Anniversaries are observed by Sid and Virginia Krieg, Bill and Sue Reynolds and Bob and Shirley Ritchie.

ELKTON SENIOR CITIZENS
President Mike Kanwell welcomed 33 members to the April 12 meeting. Bill and Eva Blacklock were welcomed back after a winter’s absence. A trip was planned to visit the tableppayer before the pitcher.

Ardis and Clayton Gemmell led music, including “Amor” and “The Troubadour Song” for Bill Blacklock, Willard Ulrich and Marilyn Rens. You, not only are new,” received from Florence Southworth and Phil and Kay Walker. Get-well cards were signed for Grattis Greg and Charles Willis.

USA High School had three athletes named as First-team All-Conference in the Thumb C League, while four others received honorable mention. Named to the first team were Jason Cleveland, Melissa Forrest and Nicole Weber and Joe Harder.

Also, Forest and Weber were named to the Second Team Tuscola County All-State.

The honors were for volleyball, but basketball.

Matthew Keever, a member of the Lakers FFA, was recognized for his success in the Outstanding Junior Agricultural Award at the 66th annual State FFA Convention held in March at Michigan State University.

The award is sponsored by the Michigan Association of FFA and the Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity.

Keever was among 59 selected out of 96 applicants for this honor, receiving a $100 scholarship to MSU. Winners are high school junior farmers who outstanding agricultural programs and who have demonstrated leadership in their local FFA chapters.

He is the son of Bart and Linda Keever of Pigeon.

PACP PRESENTS ‘REMEMBER MAMA’: The Port Austin Community Players are to present this comedy about how Mama (played by Patricia Reid) with the help of her husband Frank (Mike Frazho) and Uncle Chris (C.W. Pleitgen), bring up their children in the modest San Francisco home during the early years of the century.

Mama, a sweet and capable manager, sees her children through to adulthood. Members meet and see one of her daughters begin her career as a writer. Mama’s sisters (Penny Pearson, Laurene Frazho and Sonja Hagen) and Uncle Chris (C.W. Pleitgen) are her background for a lot of comedy and a little incidental tragedy, while the doings of the children keep everyone in a state of near consternation.

The show opens this Friday, April 22, Saturday, April 23 and Sunday, April 24 for two weekends. Details: 738-5217.

PROCEEDS as they practice: Are Ann Kelly, Rachel Knecht, Mike Frazho, Pat Reid, Penny Pearson, Steve Mauvelli, Laurene Frazho and David Knoblock.

The show opens this Friday, April 22, Saturday, April 23 and Sunday, April 24, and runs for two weekends. Details: 738-5217.

Lyle Reynolds, a fourth grader at Caseville Elementary, is a winner of a $50 Savings Bond, following a drawing sponsored by Bay County Bank on April 12. All Caseville students in grades three, four, five and with only a $50 E’s on their last report cards were eligible to win.

He is the son of Brian and Karen Reynolds of Caseville.
