Thumb central dispatch concept on hold

By MARY DRIER
Upgrading of Michigan State Police radio communications to 800-MHz system has halted local efforts to expand Tuscola County's emergency communications system. The new MSP system is designed to accommodate all state government agencies as well as local and county law enforcement, emergency services, officials say, plus local governments may also choose to use the system. Tuscola leaders hope to dovetail efforts to upgrade their system with the MSP program and take advantage of advanced communication services to become available with the state's service.

"We are not on the fast track that we were before," Chief of Police Don Smith said.

Projects may cost up to $500,000 would be spent to upgrade Tuscola's emergency radio communications. A large portion of the cost includes erecting towers, but that is included in the State Police system.

Motorola Corporation will provide the MSP system for $187 million statewide, in four phases through 1996.

_first phase is planned cost of 382 radio towers across the state. Work in the Thumb

"Anythings Goes at Sugar Fest"

By Bob Wrzesinski

There's a new type of event coming to the 1994 Michigan Sugar Festival in Sebewaing — the "Anything Goes Olympics." This event will take place Sunday afternoon, June 26, and organizers plan an adult and a junior age (10-14) division, says Terry Gruehn.

Some of the events will be egg-breaking or egg throwing contests, wheelbarrow races, hula throwing contests and more. "Just come on down for a darn good time!" Gruehn and other organizers invite.

Deadline is June 5 to sign up, and the number of contestants is limited.

The adult division is seeking two adults, preferably a husband and wife, for all types of games, to be announced at game time. Comfortable clothes should be worn. For the junior division, six-member teams of boys and girls will be sought. As in the adult group, no one will know exactly what games are to be played until the games begin.

Persons interested in signing up should send their names, addresses, phone numbers and team members' names to Michigan Sugar Festival, 440 W. Main St., Sebewaing, MI 48759.

Or, call Gruehn at 863-2456 for details. Other towns have staged similar games which have drawn several dozen teams and hundreds of spectators.

In those towns, some games have involved blindfolded wheelbarrow drivers, guided by wheelbarrow riders, women-riding men and similar events.

"We wanted to present something new at the Sugar Festival, and hope the public participates, for the fun of it," Gruehn says.

USA Millionaire Party coming July 10

By MARY DREZ

A much-needed organization has a "deal" for an entire nation's diet. The new American School of Dietetics. "The American Academy will come to the rescue of all the athletic complexes in the high school." A recent bond issue will return to the schools a bond for $8 million. The money will go to improve athletic facilities, including a $1 million pool, a $1 million gymnasium, and a $1 million track and field complex.

Games of chance include bridges, blackjack, and roulette. Cash and prizes are included, so don't forget to bring your best friends.

Tickets are available from Sally Schome at 670-2046, Joyce Schwarzky 683-2021, or Ginger 630-0611 or Ruby 630-0606.
