YOU'RE LOOKING AT THE 1994 PIGEON FARMERS' FESTIVAL QUEEN! But, which one of these 11 young ladies is it? Only the judges know, but you can find out this Friday night, July 23 at the Pigeon Band Shell stage show at Pigeon Recreation Park. The '94 Queen will be crowned as part of the 7 p.m. festivities, preceding the Family Stage Show with "The Fabulous Fakes" as entertainment. Queen candidates shown are, front row from left, Lisa Voss, Klar Langley, Lisa Buchholz, Jill Collison and Julie Waruck. Back row, Marcie Gotts, Jenny Kretzschmer, Lora Picklo, Liesl Eichler, Kari Gardy and Jodi Forster.

Meet the 1994 Farmers' Festival Queen...and her court

BY ANGELA WISeman
Only the creamiest
Eleven young women from the Western New York area were interviewed and selected as finalists for the 1994 Farmers' Festival Queen. The pageant was held on Monday, July 11 at the Phoenix Golf and Country Club in Pigeon.

While the judges chose their top candidates and waited for the pageant to begin, the Sheriff's Office was called into the arena to a problem. While performing their duties, the sheriff's deputies were able to catch a fugitive who was wanted by the law. The suspect was taken into custody.

The pageant kicked off with a welcome address by the Festival Director, Bob Hickey. He introduced the pageant's sponsors, who included local businesses and organizations.

The evening started with the Miss Farmers' Festival Queen competition, which was open to all women of the area. The contestants were judged on their appearance, personality, and knowledge of agriculture. The winner was chosen by a panel of judges who were also members of the agricultural community.

The next event was the Miss Farmers' Festival Princess competition, which was open to girls ages 14 to 18. The contestants were judged on their appearance, personality, and knowledge of agriculture. The winner was chosen by a panel of judges who were also members of the agricultural community.

The final event of the evening was the Miss Farmers' Festival Junior Miss competition, which was open to girls ages 10 to 14. The contestants were judged on their appearance, personality, and knowledge of agriculture. The winner was chosen by a panel of judges who were also members of the agricultural community.

The winners of the pageant were announced and received their prizes. The Miss Farmers' Festival Queen was presented with a scholarship to a college of her choice, while the Miss Farmers' Festival Princess and Miss Farmers' Festival Junior Miss were presented with a scholarship to a local high school.

The pageant was a huge success, and the winners were chosen based on their knowledge of agriculture and their ability to represent the Farmers' Festival.

Aug. 20 - Canine benefits MD

Thomson Area Fire Fighters presented the third annual MD Canine Day at the Community Center in Thomson, Saturday, Aug. 20. The event featured a raffle, food, and live music.

The evening's events included a "Western Night" with a dance and a barbecue. The firemen also sold raffle tickets for a motorcycle, a toaster, and a television.

The event was a huge success, and the firemen were able to raise funds for the local MD Chapter.

Street hockey fever coming to Pigeon this week!

By ANGELA WEIDMAN

With temperatures in the 90s, area hockey fans are saying, "Wait till winter!" But don't tell that to Angela Weidman. For the 12-year-old, hockey is a way of life. Weidman, who has been playing hockey since she was 6, said she can't wait for the Pigeon Rec Fall Ball Hockey Tournament, which starts this weekend.

The tournament, which runs from Thursday, July 25, to Sunday, July 28, at Pigeon Rec Park, is open to boys and girls ages 6-18. Weidman, who plays for the Pigeon K-Palit #3, said she is looking forward to playing against other teams.

"I love playing hockey," Weidman said. "It's a great way to stay active and have fun with friends."

Tournament organizers said they are excited about the event, which is expected to draw hundreds of spectators.

"We're really looking forward to this year's tournament," said tournament director John O'Connor. "It's always a great time for families to come out and support the local hockey community."

The tournament will feature games every day of the week, with the finals scheduled for Sunday, July 28. For more information, please visit the Pigeon Rec website or call 555-5555.

Weidman, who hopes to play in the Olympics someday, said she is excited about the future of hockey in Pigeon.

"I think hockey is the best sport," Weidman said. "It's challenging and fun, and it gives you a chance to work with a team of great players."

The tournament is open to all players, and registration is still open. Visit the Pigeon Rec website to sign up or call 555-5555 for more information.

Gettel - Geiger

St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Lubbock was the site of the wedding and reception of Derek Gettel and Alexandra Geiger. The couple was married on Saturday, June 22, and the reception followed at a nearby restaurant.

The wedding ceremony was held in the church's sanctuary, which was decorated with flowers and candles. The couple exchanged vows in front of family and friends.

The reception was held in the church's fellowship hall, which was decorated with a mixture of flowers, candles, and streamers. The couple's cake was decorated with their initials and the wedding date.

The couple then hosted a reception party for their guests, which included music, dancing, and a delicious dinner.

The couple plans to spend their honeymoon in Hawaii, and they wish to thank all of their family and friends for their support during this special time in their lives.

The couple plans to reside in Pewaukee, and seek employment in the music industry.

The final curtain call with no encore

DEAR PENNY:

I don't know whether to ask you for advice on a recent event that has occurred in my life. I am going through a difficult time, and I need someone to talk to. I have been seeing a therapist for several months now, and I think that I may be ready to take the next step and get married. However, I am not sure if I am ready to take the financial responsibility that comes with marriage. I have a good job, but I don't want to put all of my money into my husband's name. I am concerned about what would happen if he were to get into financial trouble.

Penny, how do you suggest I proceed? I am not sure if I should wait until I have saved more money before getting married, or if I should just take the plunge and get married now. Please help me make the best decision for my future.

Sincerely,

[Name]

Thank You!

The 21st Annual

FARMERS' FESTIVAL

July 26 ~ 31

For more than 20 years Mid-Michigan families have traveled to the heart of the Thumb to enjoy one of the most entertaining weekends of the entire year, the Pigeon Farmers' Festival.

It's a hometown-style celebration saluting Michigan agriculture and our state's vitally important farm industry. During the past 150 years, Michigan's farm families have created a uniquely American lifestyle. In the process, they have also helped create the most abundant and efficient food production and distribution system in the entire world.

Highlights of this year's Festival include children's games, parades, stage show and entertainment, great food, classic car show, and tons of fun.

I want to extend a special invitation to you and your family to join us at the Pigeon Farmers' Festival July 26 - 31!

Haist Agency buys McIntyre Insurance

by SALLY RUMMEL
The name Donald Haist is one that farmers in our area have gotten used to hearing over the past 10 years. He has answered telephone calls, handled claims, and helped farmers for more than a quarter-century. He and his wife, Cale, own the agency in Atwood.

As a member of the Pigeon Farmers' Festival Planning Committee since 1986, Donald Haist has been instrumental in helping to plan and develop the Festival.

"The Festival is a great way for people to come together and enjoy each other's company," said Donald. "It's a time when everyone can relax and have fun."
