Sebewaing won't recycle until '99, Council decides

A letter from the Sebewaing Village attorney has sealed the fate of recycling in the village until at least 1999.

The problem was initiated in November of 1993, when the village let out bids for trash pickup within the village limits. At the time, bids were sought which included curbside recycling along with the regular trash pickup.

Bids were received from three companies; BFI, Waste Management and Cove Sanitation. Cove turned out to be the low bidder, but since Council members felt all of the bids were too high, they refused all three.

The companies were asked to resubmit — and this time, curbside recycling was not included. Waste Management came in as the low bidder and on Dec. 20, 1993, the Sebewaing Council accepted the bid.

Later, when the village decided to accept a separate bid for curbside recycling, they were immediately contacted by Cove Sanitation who threatened legal action since they claimed they had been low bidder on the original curbside bid, and hence automatically should receive the contract.

After numerous meetings, and consultation with village attorneys, an official letter from the attorney's office received by Sebewaing Council Aug. 21 concurred with Cove's claim — and recommended the village do nothing with curbside recycling until the current trash contract expires in on Dec. 31, 1998.

Council recently discussed the matter at length in two meetings and concluded they would follow their attorney's advice and suspend any further study of curbside recycling until the current contract with Waste Management expires. —

Appointed to Bean group

Bruce Wymer of Riverdale has been appointed to the Michigan Bean Commission by Gov. John Engler.

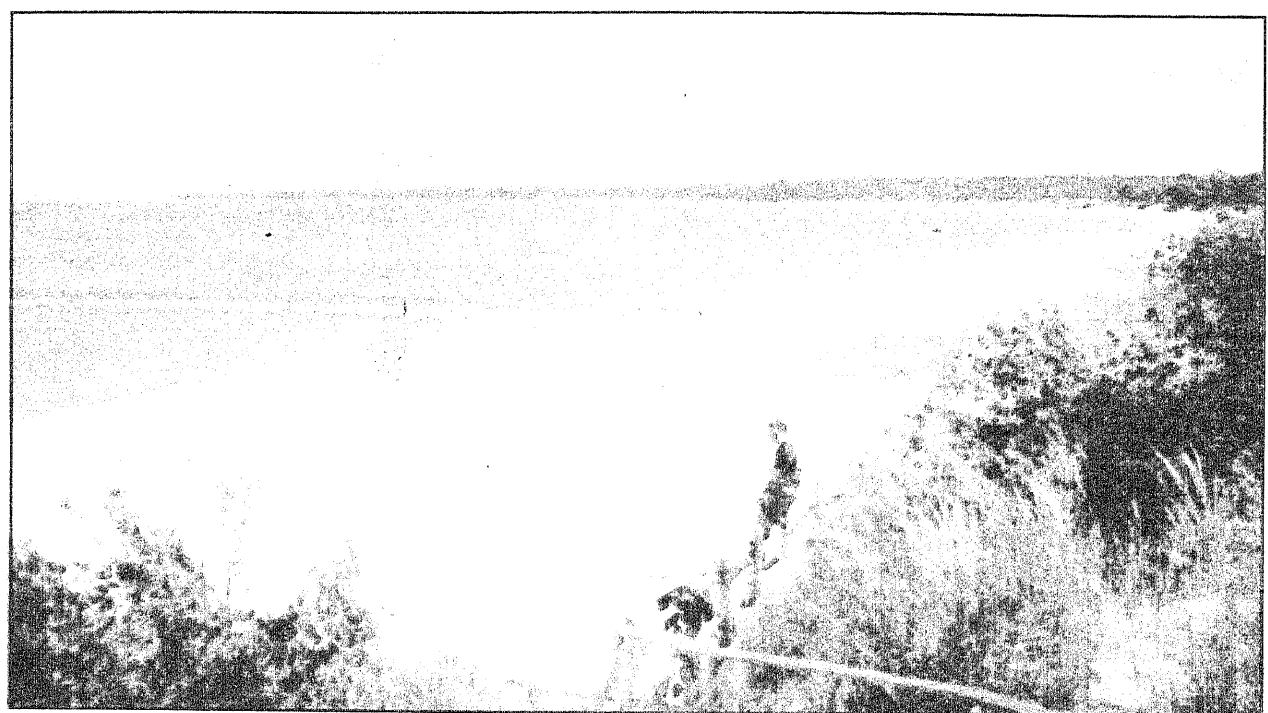

Wymer is employed by B&W Co-op Inc. in St. Johns and has been involved in merchandising and processing edible beans for several years. He is licensed as a professional broker with the Chicago Board of Trade.

The Bean Commission promotes market and economic development opportunities for the state's bean industry. The 11 members of the commission are appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Wymer was appointed to replace Ted Leipprandt of Pigeon, who resigned, and to represent the Michigan Bean Shippers Association for a term expiring Dec. 31, 1995.

Jack Chambers, dog trainer

By DUANE GUENTHER

Jack Chambers' roots can be traced to the rolling hill country of southern Indiana.

That part of American is noted for two important aspects of a young man's life — basketball and quail hunting, not necessarily in that order.

Chambers, who lives on M-25 near Unionville, has close ties to them both.

When Chambers was seven years old, his Dad gave him a dog and instructed him to make a hunter.

"That pup taught me how little I knew about hunting," Chambers says, with a smile.

But it did get him involved in a love affair which has continued for almost 60 years.

Chambers credits his uncle Murl for most of his dog training secrets.

"He was a premier dog trainer," he says, "with many shoot and retrieve championships to his credit."

"And," he continues with obvious pride, "he was the best high school basketball player Indiana ever produced."

Jack Chambers has been training bird dogs as a hobby for the past 50 years. During that time he recalls owning somewhere between 150 and 200 dogs.

Chambers does not raise and sell dogs, which is unusual for someone with such close attachments to these hunting companions. Rather, he buys pups, raising and training them for his own use.

On occasions he will take in dogs and give them that fine tuning only a true dog man could appreciate.

But, most of his time is spent getting his dogs ready for the Indiana quail season.

Chambers maintains there are no magical secrets to training a dog, just lots and lots of hard work.

"The difference between a good dog and a great dog is the amount of time you are willing to spend," he says.

"When you buy a pup," he adds, "all you get is a nose. The rest must be taught by repetition, repetition, repetition."

Although Chambers admits dogs can be forced-trained with beatings and shock collars, he maintains dogs subjected to this method never enjoy what they are doing or even know why they are doing it.

Chambers believes you should begin training a pup when he is about 12 weeks old.

He first teaches the pup to heel and whoa, or stop on command. Once this is accomplished —

Bike-A-Thon coming Oct. 14 to U-ville

Dan Butterfield has agreed to be Coordinator of the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital's Bike-A-Thon in Unionville Saturday, Oct. 14. This annual fund-raiser is important to children with cancer, organizers say. This year's Bike-A-Thon is dedicated to 10-year-old Jason Ferguson, who represents one of more than 13,500 patients who have been treated at St. Jude's Hospital. He was diagnosed with melanoma, an aggressive form of skin cancer in February 1994. After he was referred to St. Jude Hospital by his doctor, he underwent surgery and then a series of chemotherapy treatments that ended in January. Although his cancer was well advanced by the time he was diagnosed, his recent checkups reveal he is now cancer free. Your participation is very much needed and appreciated. Contact Butterfield for Pledge/Sponsor sheets at 674-2486 or Ann Garske 674-8631.

Singer performs Wednesday

New Salem Lutheran Church of Sebawaing will host Christian songwriter/vocalist Susan Ann Lueneburg in concert this Wednesday, Oct. 4 at 7 p.m. Lueneburg's mellow voice is suited to the songs on her first CD, "THE LIFE COLLECTION," released in 1994. She wrote and produced the 10 original songs which focus on the purpose and sanctity of God's gift of life. The album music ranges from poignant lullaby to upbeat country rhythm, and recognizes the many heartaches involved in the issue of life versus abortion. She has performed several of her songs at WELS Lutherans for Life conventions and is currently completing work on two new songs for the 1995 WELS Lutherans for Life convention in Saginaw. Lueneburg and her husband Kurt, a pastor with Wisconsin Lutheran Synod, have two daughters. New Salem is located at the corner of Fifth and Grove Streets. For more information call 883-2062.

Clothe-A-Child concert is Oct. 19

The Annual Clothe-A-Child Concert is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 19 at 7 p.m. at Elkton United Methodist Church. This fundraising event will begin the group's Christmas buying session, and an interesting program is planned. Please come and enjoy the concert singers and performers, organizers invite. About $10,000 is needed again this year to achieve the organization's set goal, according to spokesman June Bowerbank of Bad Axe. As the number of children grows each year more volunteers are needed also. Monday, Oct. 9, 9 a.m. has been selected for a cutting out session of dress materials for sewing. The group will meet at Assembly of God Church Hall, 3 miles west of Bad Axe on M-53. Sewers are very much needed for this project. Dec. 5-6, at 9 a.m. wrapping and delivering clothing is planned at Free Methodist Church on M-142. For details, call June Bowerbank 269-6352 or Pauline Maurer at 269-8140.

Dog trainer

Completed, he begins to work the dog over birds leading them to the birdy places and stopping them when they scent the quarry. Presently, Chambers has a kennel full of dogs. Three English Setters for the bird work, and a couple of beagles to run rabbits. His three Setters consist of Daisy, and eight year old female who Chambers maintains is the best bird dog in the U.S. Sunny is a four year old female, and Ching, a two year old female. He is not necessarily partial to females, they are just what he happens to have at this time. "Ching has a full-choke nose," Chambers says with a chuckle. "She will find 40% of the birds when the three work together." Chambers hunts the three dogs on a rotating basis, working two and resting the third. Daisy gets a little more rest than the others, not only because of her age but over the years her hunting prowess has earned her the honor. Chambers offers some advice for those in the market for a hunting companion. "First you look for a nose," he says, "then the background of the breed, and after that it's a crapshoot." One look at Jack Chambers setters tells you he certainly knows how to throw his share of "sevens..."

USA CROP drive this Wednesday

The USA-FFA will be participating in its annual CROP DRIVE this Wednesday, Oct. 4. Unlike past years, FFA members will be collecting funds after school. Members will be carrying red canisters, and receipts will be available for donors who would like tax deductions. CROP canisters can also be found in local businesses between Oct. 4-6. Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) is a charity organization that furnishes to the many needs of disaster stricken Americans and third world countries. Fifty percent of the contributions remain in the U.S., going to hurricane, bombing and other victims. The other half of the proceeds go overseas in the efforts to feed and educate needy people, organizers say. Persons who are not contacted by an FFA member can send donations to CROP DRIVE, c/o USA-FFA, 2203 Wildner Rd., Sebawaing, MI 48759. All contributions are greatly appreciated, says USA-FFA Chapter Reporter Sarah Zagata.

The U.S. Defense Department grant was announced this week by U.S. Congressman Jim Barcia (D-Bay City). "This grant means more jobs, more economic development and more government contracts going to the Thumb," Barcia said. The Thumb Area Consortium/Community Alliance is a non-profit organization in Marlette designed to promote new investment and create jobs in the Thumb. This $30,000 grant is part of the DOD Procurement Technical Assistant Cooperative Agreement Program and is designed to help organizations procure government-related contracts for local business.

■ Also, a report on the Pigeon VFW Auxiliary should have said that the next meeting is Monday, Oct. 16.

Fat-fighting drug has bulging interest

How much would you pay for a drug that melted fat off your body, without lots of exercising, special foods or other exertion? Plenty, apparently, as our government is finding out.

A California pharmaceutical company is the subject of a huge amount of interest, after three studies were published in the journal "Science" about one of its possible drugs. The company injected a protein called leptin into some extra fat mice — which lost up to 30% of their weight within weeks. Plus, the rodents also ate less and exercised more, the company told reporters.

When the company said its product would be tested on humans, thousands of people quickly volunteered — even though the federal government is making the company slow down its human testing plans.

Isn't that just like Americans? We spend $30 billion a year to sweat, strain and starve as we endlessly pursue lean bodies. Whole industries are built around our desires, and for the most part, most weight-loss efforts fail.

Still, the profits from a "fat pill" could be astounding, if no serious side effects are found. Scientists quickly point out some side effects are BOUND to occur, yet we bet people would willingly risk much... to lose much.

"People have been looking for a magic bullet for obesity," says University of Michigan eating disorder professor Adam Drownowski. "The sky is the limit."

Plus, the professor notes, you can be sure any fat pill will be very, very expensive.

Still, it's interesting to consider eating anything you like today, taking a fat-reduction pill tonight... and losing up to 30% of your body weight by, say, tomorrow.

Studies are very preliminary at this time, but you know the possibilities of gulping a fat pill today to forgive yesterday's sins will become extremely popular in our U.S. of A....

How about some more 'respect for the band'?

By "A Band AND Sports Supporter"
Sebawaing
(Name withheld)

It is really sad that one department (sports) feels the need to degrade another department (band), while at the same time they expect to receive the support of this same dept. at sporting events. No one can do their best under this type of stress.

Everyone should remember that these are high school kids - when sports and band AND all nonacademic activities are supposed to be FUN. You might also note that while we have a USA Community Band, made up of musicians of ALL ages we do not have a USA Community Football/Basketball team.

Obviously, music is something that can be actively enjoyed by people in their 60s and beyond.

It should also be noted that while buses are provided for road trips for ALL sports, band members have always been required to provide their own transportation to all competitions.

So please, let's give the band and its director the respect and support they DESERVE. This sums up what we mean:

REPRINTED FROM
"USA Uncovered"

Issue 3 - Dec. 12, 1994
"So, how did you do at your game?" a faculty member asked the USA band director. A perfectly normal question, if they had actually gone to a game. However, the band had just returned from the Michigan State Band and Orchestra Festival. (Where, by the way, they received straight 1's.)

This incident displays the typical ignorance shown by not only students, but faculty members as well. This has become a very large problem in our community and needs to be recognized and corrected.

Details about '96 Reunion

By Alvin DeGroot
Eaton Rapids

Last week's edition of the Newsweekly had a call from "A." in the Phone Forum stating that another "All Pigeon High School Reunion" was being planned. It is planned for the Saturday night of the Farmers Festival which would be July 27, 1996 according to my calendar.

I was sorry to hear that there is some grumbling about it taking place on the Saturday night of the Festival and that it would not be held in Pigeon. I would like to point out a couple of things to those people.

There is no facility in or near Pigeon that can hold 800-1,000 people. (Last time 1,000 attended.) Securing a facility that large and setting it up on the grounds of the school was discussed, but the logistics of securing tables and chairs and porta-potties and kitchen

The attitude towards band seems to have gotten worse over the years. A few years back, the band decided to raise money to replace old, worn uniforms. The school agreed to pay a set amount. However, once the band reached their goal, the school refused to honor theirs.

As a result, the uniforms could not be ordered until the band finished paying off the bill by themselves. Even after the uniforms arrived, the band had to ask the small group of band boosters to pay to get them cleaned.

Recently, when plans for the new school were being drawn up, the band director requested that an auditorium be built. He believed that our community could use a place for concerts and plays to be held.

The idea was promptly pushed aside, supposedly because of a lack of funds. Instead, school officials concentrated on what type of expensive flooring the new gym should have. The band director pointed out that the auditorium would eventually pay for itself, but was once again ignored.

Other problems that the band has faced include the poor attendance at concerts and other events. Perhaps the students are not informed of the concert well enough in advance. (Is it not enough to have it announced in the paper two weeks in advance?) Maybe they just don't want to come.

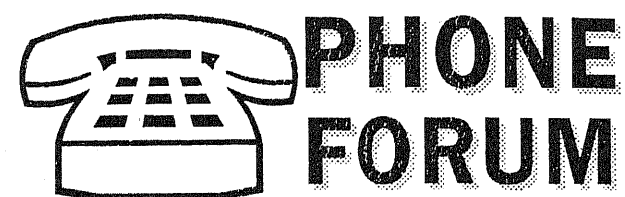

Well, how would they feel if the band suddenly decided that they didn't want to come to all the football and basketball games? They can certainly complain when we don't come, but how about some thanks when we do?

Solutions to these problems are not as difficult as they seem. Students AND faculty need to stop taking the band for granted. They need to realize that the band plays not only for their school's sports teams, but for themselves.

If the band still does not receive the respect it deserves, then they should refuse to play at sports events until athletes start to attend concerts. Finally, the entire community should learn to accept and appreciate the wonderful band at the high school.

Like athletes, we tend to play hard and feel better about ourselves when we have a cheering (or just listening) support group.

Do you know what bugs me? It seems we hear defense attorneys say "my client was beaten by police, so that's why he confessed" — and the police get blamed once again. Oh, after "experts" testify for a few weeks, the truth usually comes out... and no, it almost always wasn't a beating, just an effort to shine publicity away from the truth.

So, our police get another bad image (that they didn't deserve) — just so a lawyer can earn his/her money. Maybe they should spend a few days "in the cooler" for lying... or stretching the truth. ANYWAY, here's what local folks are thinking about this week:

W. of Kilmanagh: How come none of the weed have been cut down by any of the railroad tracks in Huron County?? You can't see down the tracks, to see if the train is coming.

Richard Aymen, General Manager of WLEW - Thumb Broadcasting: To B.L. from Elkton: We at WLEW sincerely apologize for the condom ad that ran on our station. It came down our CNN Newslink during our 12 noon news direct from CNN without our prior knowledge of it being aired.

Our management along with many Thumb Area residents and people throughout the country listening to other CNN affiliates called CNN to complain. CNN pulled the ad off the air immediately and said it would never run again on their network.

John of Bay Port: I think the idea of term limits is bad. We have the best deal now, because we can vote people out of office if we don't think they are doing their job. Do term limits by voting. We don't need another law when we have the power. (It makes sense John, except we almost NEVER vote out incumbents. We always think it's the OTHER guy who should be replaced...)

H. of Sebawaing: I was just listening to a talk show about parenting, and they say you should not spank kids. But I still think that is the answer in extreme cases. We want our kids to be happy all the time and it isn't that way. Sometimes things are bad for adults and kids, too. (As long as the spanking doesn't come too often and too hard.)

Parent has had enough from Unionville: About running for the school board, that's been tried by a few honest people but the clique that's on the board will not even keep them informed of the issues — they're as much in the dark as the public. (Oh, come on now — the people on the USA Board were elected by ALL the people who voted. There's no clique — and if you're in the dark, it's because you're not paying enough attention. Go to more meetings — and don't be so paranoid.)

J. from Sebawaing: As I leave for work along M-25, I see many road signs missing due to vandalism. If you travel at all, you know how important road signs can be. Just wanted people to realize our tax dollars are used to replace them. Maybe this should be looked into more closely. (You're right, J. It's also dangerous... and theft.)

B.P. of Pigeon: What's with Council action, setting a precedent by putting in new sidewalks on the west end of town and allowing sidewalks to be removed on Charles Street? Next they will want to remove curbing and roads or disconnecting from the water system and drilling their own wells. Where does it stop — speed limits next?

J. of Pigeon: I heard a deputy was chasing a car at speeds up to 115 mph. Is this truly using common sense? Thankfully, no one was hurt.

Becky of Pigeon: About cars with flashers on top. I don't like them either. Especially when real dangerous vehicles like trains don't have any warning lights, but some speeding fireman does. (Doesn't quite make sense, does it, Becky?)

Mike of Caseville: Why is the cable TV giving us a channel we don't want, and now we have to pay for it? I just want the basic service, not Disney. They are raising our rates and this is too expensive. I am going to drop my cable.

J.E. of Sebawaing: The praise for Sparky Anderson is fine. He did a good job for many years. But not this year. He messed up badly last spring. He was the MANAGER and yet he was too chicken to act like a MANAGER. He went on strike, along with the overpaid players. He didn't have the guts to act like a manager. Good riddance.

After both the North and South experimented with "submersible craft" during the Civil War, the South brought about the first successful submarine attack, hitting "New Ironsides" with a spar torpedo on OCT. 5, 1863. The craft was not sunk. Results were disappointing for both sides as more submarine crewmen were killed in their own crafts than were killed on the opposing sides... Chester A. Arthur, the 21st President, was born in Vermont on OCT. 5, 1830. He became President after James A. Garfield was assassinated. His badly-split party was defeated in 1884 by Grover Cleveland, for which Arthur was blamed because he was "too honest"... The Nottingham (England) Goose Fair will be celebrated OCT. 5-7. It has run since 1284 except during the Great Plague in 1665 and the 2 World Wars... The Shawnee Indian chief and orator, Tecumseh, was killed in the Battle of the Thames, OH, on OCT. 5, 1813... Comedian Bill Dana is 71 today and Vaclav Havel, European dramatist who was elected President of Czechoslovakia following collapse of Communist regimes, is 59...

Anwar Sadat, Egyptian president and winner of the Nobel Peace Prize, was assassinated in Cairo on OCT. 6, 1981, at the age of 62 while reviewing a military parade following the Egyptian-Israeli War... Jenny Lind, the "Swedish Nightingale," was born 175 years ago today, on OCT. 6, 1820, in Stockholm... Celebration of German-American Day is observed FRIDAY, OCT. 6, to commend the heritage and contributions of German-Americans in building this nation... Like pickled peppers? You are invited to join in National Pickled Pepper Week, which recognizes the zest added to American menus by bell, banana, cherry, chili and many other hot, mild and sweet members of various pepper species...

The first October weekend brings many festivals: Apple Butter Festival in Burton, OH, Chowderfest in Mystic CT, Chocolate Harvest in Mattoon, IL, Feast of the Hunters' Moon in Lafayette, IN, Sippin' Cider Days in Leavenworth, KS, Grape Stomp Festival in Prairie du Sac, WI, and many more... Actress June Allyson is 78 today...

SUNDAY, OCT. 8 starts off Fire Prevention Week, which commemorates the Great Chicago Fire in 1871. That fire, which, according to tradition, was caused when Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over the lantern in her barn, destroyed 17,450 buildings, killed 250 and left 90,000 homeless... On that same day, a fire destroyed the entire town of Peshtigo, WI, 220 miles to the north and killed 600... There'll be a Full Moon tonight, called the Hunter's Moon because the moonlight supposedly extends the day's length for hunters... Actor Chevy Chase is 52 today, actress Sigourney Weaver is 46 and civil rights leader Jesse Jackson is 54...

Our Canadian neighbors celebrate their Thanksgiving Day MONDAY, OCT. 9, which is always observed on the 2nd Monday of October... Today is also Leif Erikson Day in honor of the Norse navigator credited with discovering Greenland, and thereby the first European to reach North America, in 999 or 1000. Preceding Columbus by nearly 500 years, Leif planted colonies in the far north islands which lasted several centuries...

Some birds generally always appear in flocks, some usually do, but some apparently are always singles or in pairs. In that class I'd put the Flicker, the big handsome gold-breasted, brown-backed woodpecker with black spots. No fewer than 18 or 20 Flickers dropped into our back yard Tuesday afternoon, some settling on tree trunks, some on the ground (as is their custom) and others flitted back and forth. They hammered and feasted on trees while others dug up ant hills and other insects for nearly an hour. Then they packed up and moved off. Flickers have a black "mustache," at each side of their bill, a black bow tie around their throat, and males have a red patch at the nape of their neck. They're also called Yellow Hammers...

Seventy-five years

What was happening 75 years ago? Well, it was the dawn of the 1920s and America was undergoing radical changes unlike anything she had experienced in the near-150 years since the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

A bitter world war had been raging and a new world order was emerging. Ladies' fashions went from puffy-sleeved, tight-corseted Victorian gowns to loose-fitting mid-calf "flapper" dresses. Women were granted the right to vote and men were denied the right to drink. Gangsters were running most major cities and horses were still the primary means of transportation in all rural areas.

A 75 year old person today would have been a mere child during the Depression of the 30's — a terrible, terrible time to be a child. A time when many children were valued simply as additional farm help or cheap industrial labor.

A 75 year old person today would have seen the world ravaged by yet another world war in the 1940's, this time causing casualties from the South Pacific to Eastern Europe. This person may even have fought in that long, bloody war and come home to take part in one of history's most talked about phenomena — the baby boom.

A 75-year old person today would have just been starting a family in the Rockwellian charm of the 1950's, when women stayed home to cook and clean, dads were known exclusively as the breadwinners and children were sent to oak-floored schools clad in red plaid coats and blue denim jeans.

Someone who would be 75 years old today would more than likely have experienced a whole new turmoil come the psychedelic 60's. With teenagers in tie-dye and hair down to their knees, this person, who labored in the fields as a child, defended his country as a young man and raised his children in Christianity, would now find himself labeled among the "war-mongering establishment," and be seen and targeted as an enemy to this strange new generation.

Someone born 75 years ago today would have been quite indifferent to the disco movement of the 70's, and would have just begun to enjoy his retirement when the new-wave, punk rock 80's were ushered in. Yes, someone born 75 years ago today would have lived through the most tumultuous period in American history, perhaps in the history of the world.

They would have experienced the dawn of miraculous new vaccines in the 50's, only to see thousands of Americans felled by the spread of AIDS in the 80's. They would have enjoyed bacon and eggs for breakfast every morning and "lard sandwiches" in their lunch pail every noon hour, only to now be beaten over the head by the family doctor — every six months — with the reality of a rising cholesterol count.

Someone born 75 years ago today might have found it easy to be consumed by despair in the face of overwhelming technological advancements and the devaluing of a God and country he so eagerly volunteered to die for. Someone born 75 years ago today might have thought twice about bringing a large family into this world if he'd had any idea that the drug culture of the 60's, the energy crunch of the 70's, the recession of the 80's, or the hopelessness of the 90's would be lying in wait for them all.

My father was born 75 years ago today, and I am grateful that he did not think twice about the challenges which faced a growing family so many years ago, or the nearly insurmountable hurdles life would cast before him. For he is of a generation, perhaps the last generation, to value selflessness, hard work, commitment, discipline and loyalty. Values I and my siblings believe ourselves most fortunate to have been raised with.

My dad was born 75 years ago today, and I would just like to say "Happy Birthday, Dad, we love you!" IT'S BEEN A HELL OF A 75 YEARS, HASN'T IT?!

Welche speise und wenn?

Nowadays kriegten wir so viel Advice von Diet Specialists about was wir essen sollen, und das wir muessen alles fettes, salziges, suesses und guter taste avoiden.

Sonst, sagen die Experts, werden unsere Arteries mit allerhand Krap auf-fillen und wir werden Tot umfallen vor wir alt genug sind zu voten in die nexte Elections.

Hoeffentlich wissen die Diet Experts mehr about Cholesterol denn ein Hanswurst, aber wir muessen dieses in rechter Perspektive halten.

Ich hatte eine Experience da wir einst in Ireland auf Reise waren. Unsere Bus hat am 10 Uhr ein Morgen ge-stopped bei ein altes, verbautes, old-fashioned Haus das converted war zu ein Tavern.

Es wartyppically Irisch, und unser Travel Agent wollt uns ein typical Irisch Morgen Snack serven.

Hier ist was wir enjoyed haben:
* Ein slice ZUCKER PIE, etwas wie Custard aber mehr solid, und so suess und rich das es beimah von Teller siden wollt. Und Taste? Grad straight von Irischen Himmel!

und
* Eine TASS IRISCH KAFFEE, so heiss und so stark und schwarz das mann den Lefel beimah nicht hinein schieben konnte, und dann haben Sie ein double-schuss IRISCH WHISKY noch hinein gepouerd!

Well, solch eine Combination konnte mann nicht refusen, so haben wir bravely unser Duty getan, und bald waren wir so happy wie die alte Irische Kerle die dort an Ihr Tische sassen. Sie haben gesungen (und es war nur 10 am im Morgen), einer hatte eine Trommel, etliche sassen den Guitars, einer hat eine Trompete geblasen. Am Ende sass der aller-aelteste, der hat die traditional Irisch Harp gespielt.

Alle haben Ihr Pie gegessen, und meiste haben 2 Irish Kaffee getrunken, und andere haben sogar 3 ab-ge-drainet. Der Proprietor sagte das die kleine Show wurde jeden Morgen presented, immer mit dieselbe Musikanten. Welche kamen auch Nachmittags fuer eine Matinee Performance.

Die Musik kamm endlich zu Ende, so fragte Ich den Trommel-Spieler, "Wie alt bist du?" Er konnte kaum hoeren aber er antwortete "Neun-und-achtzig."

Der Kerl mit die Trommel war fuenf-und-neunzig und die Andere waren alle ueber fuenf-und-achtzig.

Wir Amerikanische sagten, "Guckt einmal wie diese Irische essen und trinken, und sehe wie alt und munter das Sie sind!"

Wir haben alle agreed das die Irische hatten ein gutes Leben und das Sie munter und happy waren. Dann haben meiste Amerikanische eine zweite Tass Irisch Kaffee ge-orderet, mit ein double-schuss Irisch Whisky, und wir waren happy fuer den ganzen Tag.

Volunteers provide 'VIM' for new Bay Shore Family Center

Bay Shore Camp volunteers showed a lot of vim and vigor last week as they erected the "rough-in" portion of their new Family Center. While the "vigor" was supplied by all those working on the project, the "vim" was added by the Volunteers In Missions (VIM) from the Detroit Conference of the United Methodist Church. Early last week, 25 former teachers, farmers, housewives, secretaries and folks from other various fields of employment descended on Bay Shore Camp with the express purpose of assisting in the erection of the new VIM VOLUNTEERS at work at Sebewaing's Bay Shore.

Family Center. This was VIM's annual work week, when the volunteers select one camp in Michigan for the donation of a week's work. Other projects of the organization include at least three trips out of the country on mission work. "VIM was in Russia a year ago, and plans on returning again next year," says Virginia Bell, project coordinator for the Detroit Conference, noting the group has been in Haiti, Cuba, Belize, Puerto Rico, Alaska and Africa. By week's end, VIM, along with a work crew from the Huron County Jail, had erected the Family Center and saved Bay Shore Camp a tremendous amount of time and money. And, when Friday rolled around, the van and trailers, their home while they worked on the Family Center, rolled out of the Bay Shore Campground and carried the VIM workers towards another of God's projects.

Hand Patriots 29-8 loss Mayville spoils homecoming

If there was a vote on who was responsible for spoiling the USA Homecoming last Friday night, Dan Cheney of Mayville would receive the majority of the ballots. Cheney, the Wildcats' 180 lb. senior halfback, scored three touchdowns, kicked a field goal and ended up with 166 yards in 17 carries. Tack on the 88-yard interception in the closing minutes and he accounted for almost half of the 440-yard total offense the Mayville football team racked up. Things looked pretty good for the Patriots in the first half. Although Mayville scored first, a 50-yard romp with 11:33 to go in the second quarter, USA came back to scored just before the half ended. Tom Betson fired a 5-yard TD pass to Shaun Gainforth, and Paul Mitchell added the two point conversion so the Patriots could go to the locker room with an 8-6 lead. Mayville scored again in the third quarter and tacked on a field goal to enter the final period with a 17-8 lead. USA threatened early in the fourth period but lost the ball on downs when Mayville held them at the 3 yard line. Cheney blasted Mayville out of their hole with a nifty 25 yard run, and then added a 63 yard scamper for another touchdown. Trevor Bitzer, Troy Hawley, Charles Wiltse and Chuck Arnold each chipped in with a touchdown. Justin Martens, Eric Hines, and Curtis Vargo led the team in tackles.

Lady Pats struggle

The USA Patriot basketball team continued to struggle on the hardwood and the loss of yet another started has not made Coach Larry VanSteenhouse's job any easier. "Basically, we've lost three starters this season," VanSteenhouse said before his Thursday night encounter with the Bearcats of Ubyly. "It's been real difficult holding a starting five together." VanSteenhouse's latest casualty is high scoring guard Linda Davila who will be sidelined with a knee injury for at least four weeks. Even with the help of Davila on Tuesday night, the Patriots had trouble staying with a tough Harbor Beach team. Both teams started slow and it looked like the Pats may be in the contest with a good transition game which beat the Pirates down the floor time and time again. Harbor Beach managed to keep their poise and slipped into a 13-11 first quarter lead and hung on to extend it to 29-23 at halftime.

The Pirates got on track in the third quarter and rattled off 10 straight points to take control of the game, and then put it away with a run of 12 points at the start of the fourth quarter, finally sealing the victory 62-40. Leah Collon was high for USA with 11 points and Linda Davila added 9. Leah Booms had 18 for Harbor Beach. On Thursday night, USA ran into similar problems with the Ubyly Pirates. A slow starting offense and some good "D" by Ubyly combined to hold the Pats scoreless for the first six minutes of the first quarter. A. trey by Leah Collon and another steal for a lay-up, plus a three-pointer by Nicole Wiltse managed to pull the Pats within 3 at the quarter's end. The Bearcats extended their 11-8 first quarter lead to a 22-14 halftime bulge, and never looked back in their 45-37 win.

The Patriots pulled within seven with 2:30 left in the game causing the crowd to come to their feet, but in the end Ubyly's inside game prevailed and they held the Pats off for the win. Leah Collon led the way again with 14 points, while Angie Davila chipped in 11.

Lady Lakers fall, 52-40

The Lady Lakers played one of their toughest games of the season Thursday night, but in the end, the Bay City All Saints took home a 52-40 win. The Lakers held close to the All Saints through the first half, and trailed 31-27 at the half. But in the second half, All Saints got into some foul trouble with their front line and replaced those players with shorter, scrappier players. This move proved to be the Lakers' undoing, as they committed numerous turnovers, and at one stretch failed to get a shot off on four successive trips down the floor. Besty Drury led the scoring with 17 points, equalling her season average. She also connected on 11 of 12 from the free throw line. Angie Weidman followed with 11 points, and Casey McLellan had seven. The loss gives the Lakers a 5-5 overall record and a 2-2 record in the Thumb C-National, good for third place. All Saints remains at the top of the standings. The Lakers will travel to Ubyly on Tuesday night and to Bad Axe on Thursday. JUNIOR VARSITY: The JV team lost a close contest to Bay City 37-35. Trailing 17-11 at the half, the Lakers mounted a comeback and outscored All Saints 16-8 in the final quarter. Kristie Gebrs led the scoring with 12 points, with Tracy Drury, Shannon Pionk and Rebecca Kolar each chipping in with seven.

Bad Axe slips past Lakers

By AMY HEIDEN

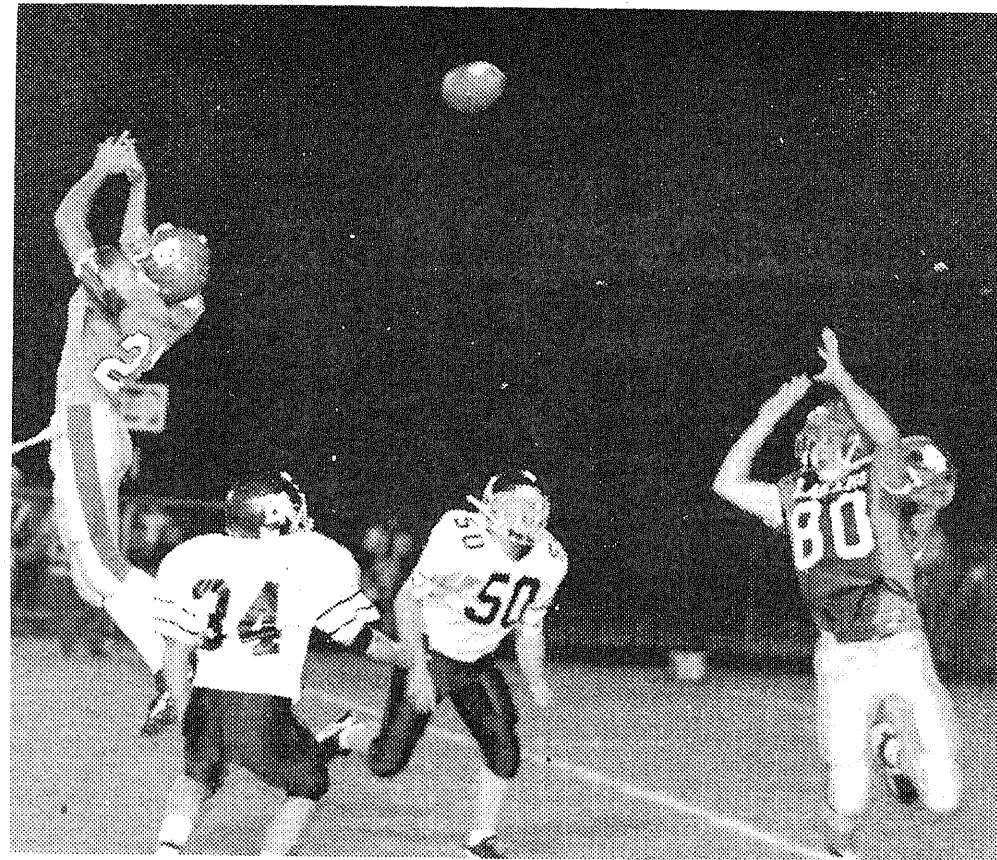

It's been long, long time since the Bad Axe Hatchets have had the good fortune to beat a Laker football team. Not that they haven't tried year in and year out. And that trying has made a Laker-Hatchet game a wonderful rivalry. That changed Friday night when the Hatchets took advantage of their size to wear down the Lakers and eke out a 15-14 win in a punishing game. The loss was the first for the Lakers this season. The Hatchets feature an offensive line and running backs with good size and they mounted an offense designed to wear down their opponents.

"They have some good big backs and a big offensive line and that's what they do good, they pound the ball at you," Laker Coach Bill McLellan said. "It's going to wear on you sooner or later."

Zac King set up the Lakers' first touchdown with a 54-yard punt return down to the Hatchet 25. Then after a couple of misfires and on fourth-and-14, quarterback Nate Gotts hit receiver Seth Maust for a first down at the 15 yard line. Moments later, Brian Gola ran in for the score and Matt Voss added the two-point conversion for the 8-0 Laker lead.

In the second period, Gola returned the favor with a 38-yard punt return that set up the Lakers for Maust's TD at the other end of the field. The two-point try failed, but the Lakers had a 14-0 lead. But the Hatchets had a few tricks up their sleeves and they used a long drive and a Laker interference penalty late in the second period to score. Jai Rosenthal scored with three seconds left in the first half, and the extra point kick was good to make the score 14-7.

The Hatchet defense held the Lakers scoreless in the second half, while their offensive line kept the ball moving downfield. With less than three minutes left in the game, the Hatchets were within close striking range of the Lakers' end zone.

A Laker penalty moved the ball to the one-yard line before Rosenthal went up for the Hatchets' second score of the night. He added the two-point conversion to put the Hatchets up 15-14.

The Lakers were in the midst of a drive back down the field when a Gotts pass was picked off by Hatchet Chris Reinke. And when the Hatchets got the ball back, they used the clock to good advantage to keep it out of the Lakers' hands.

"They had a couple of real long drives in the second half and we didn't have the ball much," McLellan said. "We needed to put points on the board in the second half and we didn't."

Gola led the Lakers in rushing with 47 yards in four carries, and Joel Tate had 46 yards in eight carries. Gotts completed five of 12 passes for 45 yards. For the Hatchets, Rosenthal had 88 yards in 24 carries, and Mike Error had 41 yards in seven carries. On defense, Scott Anderson had four solo and 11 assisted tackles, and Maust had four solos and five assists. Tom Torres had one solo and eight assists.

The Lakers host Bay City All Saints on Friday night at the Homecoming game at 7:30 p.m. JUNIOR VARSITY: The Laker JV team defeated Bad Axe 34-6 on Thursday night. Jamie Wiechert scored two touchdowns, while Josh Russell and Ben Watkins each scored. Watkins and Jason Young also added extra points.

On defense, Wiechert had two solo tackles and eight assists. Jeff Haley had two solos and seven assists, and Nick Haag had two blocked punts.

LAKERS HAVE GOOD 'TIMES'

At Saturday's Harbor Beach Invitational, the Laker cross-country team members turned in some good times. Nathan Gulash was the first Laker across the finish line, finishing 46th overall in 18:34. Travis Funk was second for the Lakers, finishing 51st in 18:42. Brian Koehler was 55th in 18:54, Brent McIlhargie was 107th in 21:36, and Mike Klosowski was 108th in 21:41. On the girls side, Tiffany Burk was 39th in 23:44. In the junior high meet, Steve Hurren was 19th in 12:53, John Trost was 25th in 13:17, Reid Kilgus was 58th in 14:58, Jason Stein was 59th in 15:07, and Jason Diebel was 80th in 15:59. For the girls, Danielle Briesmeister finished in 18:41 and Teresa Osen finished in 18:56.

The Newsweekly's Sports Highlights

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM RUNS AT H-BEACH

The USA Girls Cross Country team ran into some competition last Saturday when they competed with 22 other schools in the Harbor Beach Invitational. Christie Achenbach won the girls race with a 19:28, but the team as a whole finished 11th in the event. Other scores for the gal's team were Alicia Scharich (25:06), Stacy Turschak (26:57), Deana Strieter (27:54), and Christina Ratkos (28:26). On the boys' side, Joel Haist placed 57th (19:12) to pace the Patriots. Other times were Corey Packard (20:27), Bob Arnold (20:39), and Kevin Gaeth (22:13). Seth Colling led the Patriot Jr. High boys with a (13:59), and Brian Soule had a (16:56). The Jr. High event is 2 miles compared to 5 kilometers for the high school runners.

BULLDOGS POST FIRST FOOTBALL WIN

The Owen-Gage Bulldogs racked up their first football win of the season Friday, defeating Carsonville-Port Sanilac 20-0. Mark Damm, making the move from offensive tackle into the backfield, scored first for the Bulldogs, driving 64 yards for the TD in the first quarter. In the fourth, Aaron Baker ran in from 10 yards out for the second TD, then Wade Tetli made a four yard run for the third score. Chad Jahr kicked both extra points in the final two touchdowns.

Moving Damm from the line to the backfield paid dividends, Coach Arnie Besonen said. "It really opened things up for us because everyone had been keying on Tetli," he said. "And our line did a fine job of beating CPS off the ball and containing them." Besonen singled out 311-lb. junior lineman Brad Koch who was having a lot to say about what CPS did, or rather did not do, with the ball. Altogether, the Bulldogs posted 208 yards, compared to CPS' 111 yards. Damm carried the ball nine times for 85 yards, while Tetli carried 17 times for 84 yards and Baker had 38 yards in 11 carries. On defense, Tetli had 12 solo and one assisted tackle, Baker had eight solos and 3 assists, and Austin Brinkman had seven solos and two assists.

LADY BULLDOGS LOSE SINGLE GAME

The Owen-Gage Lady Bulldogs played a single game last week, losing to Port Hope 54-52. The 'Dogs trailed the Blue Stars by only a single point at the end of the first half 14-13, but by halftime, had taken a 31-30 lead. Both teams scored 13 in the third, but the Blue Stars outscored the Dogs by three in the final stanza. Owen-Gage had a chance to tie the game with 14 seconds left in the game, but a pair of free throws fell short. Susie Roemer led Owen-Gage with 17 points and Kate Powers scored 13. The Bulldogs are now 3-5 overall and 1-3 in the NCTL.

CASEVILLE GOLFERS DEFEAT WARRIORS, PH

Last Monday, the Caseville Golf team defeated North Huron 175-188 at Scenic Golf and Country Club. Low medalists for Caseville were Brandon Herzog and Nick Bednerek, both with a 41. On Wednesday at Scenic, the team beat Port Hope 183-212. Low medalist for Caseville was Jason Maust with a 44.

LADY EAGLES FALL TO WESLEYAN

The Caseville Lady Eagles lost to North Branch Wesleyan on Tuesday, then lost a close game to North Huron 52-46. Karla Pittenger was the leading scorer for Caseville with 11 points in Thursday's game. Kristen Roth and Michell Mohr each had 10 points.

EAGLES FALL TO OTHER EAGLES, THEN WIN

The Caseville Eagles were defeated by Frankenmuth in a squeaker 4-3 last Monday. Two goals were scored by Chris Samborsky, and the third was scored by Aaron Britt. Saturday's Homecoming game was bit better, as they tied Valley Christian 2-2. Britt and Jason Gettel each scored in the first half. Goalie Brian Champagne had nine saves.

LAKER SOCCER TEAM FALLS TO BAD AXE

The Laker soccer team lost to Bad Axe last Wednesday 2-0. Goalie Brian Kingsbury had 14 saves during the game. The play of Pete Beachy and Josha Talaski was a highlight for the Lakers, according to Coach Mark Weidman. The team then was defeated by Frankenmuth 2-1, with Chad Craig scoring for the Lakers. The Lakers had 10 shots on goal in the game, and Kingsbury had 13 saves, including a penalty kick save. "That game was probably his finest game of the year," Weidman said. Trevor Carrievau and David Love both played well, Weidman said. Their record is now 2-7-1.

RALPH J. LACKIE 1938-1995

Ralph J. Lackie, 56 of Elkton, died Tuesday, Sept. 26 at his home following a short illness.
 He was born Oct. 3, 1938 on the home farm in Meade Township near Bad Axe, son of the late Fred E. and Edith M. (McCracken) Lackie.
 He married Beverly J. Randall on Oct. 24, 1958 at First Presbyterian Church of Bad Axe by the late Rev. Joseph D. Ryan.
 The couple lived in Bad Axe for seven years and in Elkton for the last 30 years. He was a 1956 graduate of Bad Axe High School, played football and was later a fastball pitcher for the Huron County softball league.
 Mr. Lackie was a member of the Elkton United Methodist Church and served as chairman of the Board of Trustees. He is a past master of the former Frank W. Hubbard Masonic Lodge #476 Free and Accepted Masons in Elkton and was a member of the Hubbard-Winsor Masonic Lodge #420 Free and Accepted Masons, and the Elkton Chapter #431 Order of Eastern Star.
 He was past president of the Elkton Lions Club and was currently serving as treasurer. He had perfect attendance for 15 years. He served as Region Chairman 11-12 and recently was presented the Melvin Jones Award for Leadership in Lionism.
 He worked at Active Industries for 36 years. He was employed as a tool and die apprentice, entered trade school as part of his training and was promoted to plant tool and die supervisor on May 7, 1973. Many people enjoyed his sense of humor. He enjoyed visiting with family and friends, camping, hunting, fishing and coaching Elkton Little League.
 Surviving are his wife Beverly; two daughters, Laura J. Vogel and her husband, Jeremy, of Caseville and Lisa M. of Oxford; a son, James, and his wife Alanna, of Pigeon; five grandchildren; a brother, William A. and his wife Barbara, of Filion; and three nephews.
 Funeral services were held Friday, Sept. 29 at the Elkton United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Sang Yoon Chun officiating. Burial was in Riverside Cemetery, Elkton. McAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe handled funeral arrangements.
 Memorials may be made to the Elevator Fund for the Elkton United Methodist Church or Friends for Life Hospice.

ELLA B. HELYER 1898 - 1995

Ella B. Helyer, 96, a Bad Axe resident for the past 35 years and well-known rural country school educator, passed away Saturday, Sept. 30 at Huron Memorial Hospital, following a short illness.
 Mrs. Helyer was born Nov. 15, 1898 in Delaware Township near Forestville. She was the daughter of the late Gustav and Clara (Sieger) Schmidt. Miss Ella B. Schmidt and George R. Helyer were married May 27, 1925 in Detroit.
 Mr. Helyer preceded his wife in death June 28, 1942.
 At the age of six, she moved with her parents to the farming community east of Filion and graduated from Port Huron Business School. She then continued her education at Ferris State College.
 Mrs. Helyer taught at various rural country schools, including the Ridge and Schweizer Schools. She was also employed at the Kinde Lumber Co. as a bookkeeper. She enjoyed reading, cooking, genealogy and corresponding with family and friends.

RALPH "BOONER" RICHMOND 1929 - 1995

Ralph "Booner" Richmond, 66 of Marlette, formerly of Pigeon, passed away Sunday, Oct. 1 at his home following an apparent heart attack.
 He was born March 24, 1929 in McKinley Township, son of the late Ralph and Amelia (Schubach) Richmond. He had been married to Frances (Himmel) Richmond from 1947 to 1982.
 Mr. Richmond farmed in the Pigeon Area in his early years. He had been employed at Delta Star in Caro for a number of years and was currently with The Gilbert Company of Clarkston for the past nine years as an electrical warehouseman.
 He was a member of the Pigeon Conservation Club and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. Booner also loved to golf and was an avid high school and pro sports fan.
 Surviving are two sons, Randy (Sue) of Mt. Pleasant and Ron of Pigeon; two daughters, Jacquelyn (Steve) McIlhargie of Filion and Debbie Richmond of Plymouth; six grandchildren; one great-grandson and two brothers, John (Evelyn) Richmond and Bruce Richmond of Pigeon; special friend Aldine Odefer and her family, Bob and Shari Frosinski of Kingston, Ron and Ginny Dye of Marlette, Ed and Shawn Oudester of Snover and Denise Czechowski of Grand Rapids.
 He was preceded in death by a son, Ralph; two grandsons, Todd and Adam McIlhargie; a brother, Fred Richmond and sister-in-law, Mary Richmond.
 Friends may continue visitation at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton, from 4 to 9 p.m. Tuesday and 2 to 9 p.m. Wednesday. The Marsh Funeral Home, Marlette, handled earlier visitation hours.
 Funeral services will be conducted on Thursday, Oct. 5 at 11 a.m. at the Champagne Funeral Home, Elkton, with burial in the Grandlawn Cemetery, Pigeon.

PIGEON HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Pigeon Historical Society met at the Pigeon Village Hall on Sept. 25 for the bi-monthly meeting. There were 22 members and one guest present.

President Marie Leipprandt opened the meeting with the Pledge to the Flag. A review of the summer of 1995 showed that 1,902 guests signed the register book, and 21 states were represented as well as five foreign countries.

Two artifacts were donated to the Society, a permanent wave machine from Ollie Smith, and Dr. Fritz's first dentist chair from Al De-Grow. They will be on display in 1996.

The Society will display an old time decorated Christmas tree and toys in a store window for the Christmas season. The Huron County Historical will meet at Bay Port Inn on Oct. 12. Slides will be shown of the fishing industry.

The county Christmas dinner will be at the Pigeon Library on Dec. 2. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Pigeon Historical throws were reported on. We have only 21 left to sell. None will be reordered. They are available at the Pigeon Mercantile or call 453-3715.

Art Woelke showed his picture collectoin of homes in Pigeon. He then donated them to the Society. They will be place at the Pigeon Library for public viewing until May.

The next meeting will be Nov. 27 at Art Woelke's home.

BAD AXE BPW

Bad Axe Business and Professional Women met for their regular monthly meeting at First United Methodist Church of Bad Axe, Monday, Sept. 11. Hostesses were Judy Reiman and Grace Hearsch who also did table decorations.

Following 6 p.m. dinner, guest speaker Amy Courter, State BPW First Vice-President was introduced. She presented happenings from both the state and national conventions and what the state's goals are for the coming year.

President Joan Blome called the regular business meeting to order. Committee reports and old and new business were brought before the body for discussion and action to be taken.

Esther Motz was nominated for Woman of the Year, where she will be honored at the fall state board meeting and fall district meeting. It was also announced that Ruben Kubacki was the recipient of the 1995 scholarship for continuing education.

The next meeting will be held Monday, Oct. 9 at First United Methodist Church in Bad Axe. Program plans are incomplete.

Anyone wishing to attend may call Judy or Grace at First of America Bank, 269-6471.

CASEVILLE RETIREMENT CLUB

The Caseville Retirement club met Sept. 26 for their monthly potluck luncheon with 85 members present.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Bill Vallance. Thanked Susan Reynolds, Sally Ryan, Theresa White, Marge Heckman and Helen Gayari for the early-bird goodies, as well as Dan and Esther Calabrese who brought in some fresh produce. Sara Loining was welcomed back.

Celebrating birthdays this week are Esther Calabrese, Pat Georges, Gertrude Beyer, Charlotte Holzworth, Jim Denisuik, Harold Dunning and Frank Janes.

On the ailing list are Leo Kolowich, Helene Thiel, Dominic Mazzara, Dorothy Kavalor and Tom Beadle.

Betsy Kirtek, returning from an operation, thanked everyone for their cards, calls, prayers and kind thoughts.

ST. PETER ALTAR GUILD, Bach

Thanksgiving and Christmas plans were already on the agenda for the Sept. 26 meeting of St. Peter Lutheran Altar Guild, Bach. The meeting was held at the church with Marilyn Weidner serving as hostess and Wilma Sattelmeyer conducted the meeting.

Duties for the committee of the month were reviewed and listed for each month of the year. It was decided to again offer poinsettias for sale before Christmas and a Christmas tree will be erected in time for Advent.

Grace Esch was elected president for the coming year and Nancy Nast vice president. Marilyn Weidner will serve as secretary-treasurer for a second term.

Rev. Nathan Bickel led in the continuing study of the Altar Guild Manual, the chapter entitled "About the Parameters."

A social hour followed with refreshments served by the hostess. The next meeting will be November 28.

Achievements

Rebecca Thiel of Pigeon, was Lakers' Homecoming Queen in 1989.

Senior Airman Timothy Davis of Sebawaing recently attained the rank of Staff Sergeant at Andrews AFB, Maryland.

Previous to serving at Andrews, he was stationed at Misawa AFB, Japan for three years and in Osan, Korea for one year. Davis, who joined the Air Force in November, 1988, is a 1983 USA High School graduate, attended Delta College, and is a graduate of Northwestern Technical College, Lima Ohio.

He is the son of Don and Fran Davis of Sebawaing.

Three local residents were among those students who received degrees in August from Saginaw Valley State University.

Lynn Francomb of Sebawaing received a degree in Reading Education, and Gwen Schafer, also of Sebawaing, earned a Bachelor's degree in Occupational Therapy, Magna Cum Laude.

Martha Butcher of Unionville earned a degree in Classroom Teaching-Elementary.

Chris Alexander, son of Peter and Rebecca Alexander of Midland, was named Homecoming King at Midland Dow High School's Homecoming on Sept. 22. His mother, the former

What's for Dinner?

Looking for a quick and easy meal for a cool autumn day? Did your garden (or neighbors) leave you with some extra zucchinis that you're trying to use up?

If you can answer yes to one or both of these questions, then we've got a solution for you!

Muffin Tin Meatloaves
Total prep and cooking time: 30 minutes

1-1/2 pounds lean ground beef
1 cup shredded zucchini
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1 Spartan egg, slightly beaten
1 tsp. dried Italian seasoning
1/2 tsp. Spartan salt
1/4 cup Spartan ketchup

1. Heat oven to 400°F. In large bowl, combine all ingredients except ketchup, mixing lightly but thoroughly. Place approx. 1/3 cup beef mixture into each of 12 medium muffin cups, pressing lightly; spread ketchup over tops.
2. Bake 20 minutes or until centers are no longer pink.
3. Remove meatloaves from pan; serve with mashed potatoes, green beans and fresh fruit, if desired.

Thanks A Million!

Did the honeymoon ever really begin?

DEAR PERCY:
I'm at my wits end and am suffering from depression. The doctor gave me medication but it doesn't help. I think it's my everyday life that's the problem. You see, I've been married to a retarded man for 15 years and it's taking its toll on me. He can't read, write, cook, drive or pay bills, plus he suffers from gout. He works part-time and makes $4.50 an hour. I've been taking good care of him and I've done my good, Girl Scout deed, but lately I've been losing my temper with him and running out of patience. I haven't had a vacation and time away from him for 15 years because the bills are always more important. If I could only get away for a couple weeks vacation, it would mean a world of difference. Would you be willing to help with this? I really don't mean to come on as a saint, but I'm only human, too. — Mrs. K.K., Hayward, W

DEAR MRS. K.:
I'm a little confused. Your retarded husband can hold a part-time job, but he can't take care of himself. Why did you marry him? For love or pity? And if I were to grant you a two-week vacation, where would you go? Who would look after your husband in your absence? There are too many pieces of the puzzle missing, but even if I did have all the facts, I probably still wouldn't understand. That's my lead-in to telling you I'm sending $200. Try to spend it in a manner that will be good for both you and your husband. $$$$$$

DEAR MR. ROSS:
I first learned about you in Bible school while we were talking about people being kind to others, which got me thinking. $$$$$$

I have a boyfriend who wants to become a farmer and he is just now getting started. He is on his own and can't afford repairs on machinery. I would like to help him, but I'm incapable of doing so. He usually doesn't accept money even if he worked for it. He recently loaned a piece of machinery to a friend and his friend broke some parts in it. He denied breaking it and my boyfriend has to pay for the repairs somehow. He probably would feel ashamed asking for money from a stranger. I thought I would help him out by writing you myself. The repairs are estimated at $250. Hopefully you will take this letter into consideration. — D.B., McConnellsburg, Pa.

DEAR MISS B.:
It sounds as though your boyfriend has a lot of pride, which can be a good thing as long as it's not false pride. Agriculture is a noble profession and there are fewer and fewer people going into it. I'm giving your young man the "leg up" he needs by sending $250 for machinery repair. And if he feels uncomfortable accepting it, tell him he can pass the favor along when he's a better position to do so. $$$$$$

DEAR MR. ROSS:
I'm an only child with no pets. I have always wanted a dog, but now, with all the dangers going on at home and school, I need a companion much more than before. I can afford the food with my allowance, but at the pet store puppies cost $75. I would go to the Humane Society, but it would cost even more since you have to pay for animal hosts and to spray or neuter them. Any help from you would be great and if not, thanks for your time. — Miss J.M., Cocoa, Fla.

DEAR MISS M.:
I'm sending you $125, with the specification that you buy your puppy at the Humane Society. In the long run it's cheaper. See, if you buy a dog at a pet store, you'll have to take it to a veterinarian for shots and eventually to be spayed or neutered. The dog you get from the Humane Society will already be given its shots, etc. Dogs make wonderful companions and the Humane Society is definitely the best route to go. Write Percy Ross, P.O. Box 39000-B, Minneapolis, MN 55439. Include your phone number and the name of this publication. All letters are read. Only a few are answered in this column; others may be acknowledged privately.

Online with geese

Sweetwife made a big pot of stew the other day. It was the perfect complement for the nasty day we had experienced.

A cold, north wind was spitting rain when I came home from work for lunch, but instead of my body being fortified with the fragrant substance in the pot, all I got was a dirty look and a stern warning to stay out of the steaming kettle.

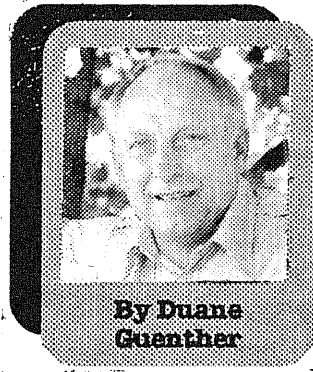

"That's for supper," she reported, guarding the cast iron kettle with a mean looking dish towel, and a meaner looking wooden spoon.

"But, there's enough to feed the masses," I offered helplessly, "you won't even miss a little bowl."

"Stay out of the pot," was her final retort. "I'm taking some over to Harriet."

She was referring to the neighbor lady who had just returned home from the hospital where the doctors fixed her up with a new knee.

I cut out of work a little early in the afternoon and was busy winding up a few pre-hunting, chores in the garage when I spotted Sweetwife and her mom carrying a basket of goodies to the neighbors house.

Now's the chance, I thought. Heading into the kitchen I ladled a spoonful of the thick, juicy stew into a tiny bowl, making sure to get lots of the delectable broth, and set about making it disappear.

It went down so easily I helped myself to another, and then running the hot water and squirting on a little Dawn, washed my dishes and returned them to the cupboard.

I had just finished when the cook and her helper entered the backdoor.

"You were in the stew," she announced in her matter-of-fact, sergeant-of-arms, manner. I was bad, but she could never regain her losses for it was now, swimming inside my stomach.

Later, at the table, with a bigger plate of stew in front of me and a thick slab of sheepherder's bread lying alongside, I offered a compliment to get myself out of the doghouse.

"Honestly," I said in my most humbled, and subservient voice, "this is the best beef stew I have ever eaten."

"It's not beef, it's goose breast stew," she answered, a smile creasing her lips.

"Tis not," I replied.

"I am amazed at how quickly the word spreads among the flocks that this field restaurant is now ready and open for business.

We humans, think we have a lock on communications with our fancy "online computers," but I often wonder about the "online" communications of our feathered friends.

How on earth do all the ducks and geese resting on the Bay, find exactly when the next cornfield is going to be picked? Do they hear the farmers starting up their tractors?

Hardly, but their method of communication is so intense they don't miss a beat. Or, should I say a cob.

can of tomato soup, a little water and a splash of spiced wine.

When the stew was almost done, a dash of Worcestershire spiced it up a bit.

I was still babbling about the fowl taste (pun intended) a day later, when a duck hunting buddy and I discussed cornfed ducks and geese.

Around this time of the year, a favorite pastime of mine is to park my truck alongside a freshly picked cornfield and watch the geese pour in. It is a nightly ritual, and one I never grow tired of.

I am amazed at how quickly the word spreads among the flocks that this field restaurant is now ready and open for business.

Hardly, but their method of communication is so intense they don't miss a beat. Or, should I say a cob.

Last night, watching the Canada's pour into the corn got my blood racing. Just a few more days until the season opens and I plan to provide a few more breasts for the stew.

The recipe came from our daughter-in-law Catherine. She calls it Simply Stew. After Sweetwife doctored it up, she called it Simply Goose Stew.

They can call it anything they want, but must keep one thing in mind. When they make it, just don't call me late for dinner...

Tomato-worm eating Duke missed by Katzingers

By WALT RUMMEL
Some folks like chocolate, some prefer vanilla. Some go for Coke, some for Pepsi.

But Duke, the Brittany Spaniel in the Frank and Nancy Katzinger Family of Unionville, always preferred the big, fat, green tomato worm. Duke was the photo subject of a group of pictures and story in the Aug. 18, 1987 edition of The Blade-Crescent. It showed the Katzingers with Duke as the friendly Brittany hunting down those unwelcome worms and turning them into instant doggiesnacks. The Katzingers bought Duke from the late Darl Fluegge and Christopher Fluegge when he was a small pup. Duke's registration papers show that he was born April 10, 1981, which made him 14 1/2 years old. Converted into dog-numbers of each year representing 7 human years, Duke was slightly more than 100 years of age.

Old age, illness and loss of hearing caught up with Duke in recent months and on Monday, Sept. 18, the Katzingers granted him his merciful sleep.

Actually, Duke was a "re-trained" dog because at the beginning he was Frank's A-1 pheasant hunting companion. As pheasant numbers dropped off, Duke applied himself to other skills. Instead of finding bright, gaudy cock pheasants for Frank, Duke took up ridding the Katzinger garden of those big, ugly, green tomato worms.

Duke streaked toward the garden, trotted up and down the rows and thrust his head into the tomato plant, determining instantly whether there was a worm at work.

With a quick motion he stripped off the crawly worm and carried it to a shady spot on the lawn, where he devoured the beast as a morning or afternoon snack.

The Katzingers often grimaced as they watched Duke relish the treat, rolling it over on his tongue and chewing delicately as the green juice dripped from his jaws.

But that's all over now, and hopefully, Duke is in his own big year-round garden, where tomato worms are on the menu 365 days every year.

And, he was buried—guess where?—in the Katzinger's garden, where he'd eaten so many tomato worms...

Incidentally, Jake, an English Setter, is now the Katzingers' newest family member. Jake hasn't decided yet whether he's going to stick with pheasants or branch out into tomato worms.

All Around The Western Thumb...

HOCKEY TOURNAMENT A SMASH: The tennis courts at the Sebewaing Village Park took on a new look recently as the Sebewaing Lions held their 1st Annual Street Hockey Tournament. The tourney was held Aug. 26 & 27 in conjunction with the Rotary-Lions Softball Tournament.

"The turn-out was fantastic," said Tournament Chairman Neil Gaeth. "We had 69 participants ranging in age from 10 to 42 years-of-age."

The tournament structure divided 15 teams into three age divisions. Winners were determined as the teams moved through their respective brackets. Competition was excellent as five of the games went into overtime.

The Knights from Bloomfield Hills took first place in the 11 & 12 year-old division, with Team Nike from Cass City ending up in second place.

In the 13-15 year-old division, it was Umptoo's of Alma capturing first place and Flojo's from Sandusky getting the second place spot.

In the 16 and over division, the Puck Hogs from Plymouth took home the first place medals, and Kunding & Kroll of Sebewaing ending up in second place.

"We had an excellent tournament for the first year," Gaeth said, "and we are really looking forward to next year's tournament."

First and second place teams received medals for their accomplishments.

ELKTON SENIOR CITIZENS

President Mike Renn welcomed 37 members to the Sept. 26 meeting of the Elkton Senior Citizens. Harry Renn was welcomed back after a long absence.

Maida Fuller gave the table prayer before the potluck meal.

Verdun and Dorothy Newkirk were in charge of music. "America" was sung to open the afternoon session followed by the Pledge to the Flag. The birthday song was sung for the birthday of Rev. Newkirk.

Minutes of the Sept. 19 meeting were read, also a thank you from the Ross family for the memorial.

President Renn announced that flu shots will be given at the Elkton Civic Center on Tuesday, Oct. 3 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Gerald Fuller had charge of the program and conducted a "Know Your Neighbor Day" with several members taking part.

Set up committee for October will be Mildred Dietzel and Mildred Renn. Clean up will be Eva Day, Frances Stroud, Eldora Harrison, Mildred Tilt and Gladys Hayes.

VFW AUXILIARY POST #4115

The Tenth District President Viola Ward was guest at the regular meeting of the Ladies VFW Auxiliary to Post #4115 of Sebewaing, accompanied by District Senior Vice Wendy Campankowski and District Junior Vice Marie Eskelson for annual inspection visit.

Hospital Chairman Doris Bates reported on hospital party co-sponsored by the Post at the Aleada Lutz Medical Center in Saginaw; 41 patients and three guests were entertained.

Delegate Ella Glann gave report on District meeting held in Lexington.

Annual quotas were sent plus doubling of the Cancer quota.

The next District School of Instruction for VFW Auxiliary members will be held Oct. 16 at the Human Development Commission building in Bad Axe with Shirley Feirer as instructor commencing at 7 p.m.

LWML THUMB ZONE RALLY

Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) Thumb Zone will hold its Fall Rally at St. Matthews, Lexington, Tuesday, Oct. 17 beginning at 9 a.m.

Theme for this year's rally is "Live By God's Design." Guest speaker is April Schmidt of Caro on "Pregnancy Alternatives."

Everyone is invited and asked to bring a Bible and baby shower items. Register by Oct. 18.

TOURNEY WINNERS: St. John's Lutheran School in Berne wrapped up a successful softball season last week by winning the annual Thumb Area Lutheran League tournament.

During the regular season, the team defeated Cross Lutheran three times while losing to that team only once. In the tournament, St. John's defeated Port Hope 10-9, dumped New Salem 23-13, and beat Kilmanagh 15-9.

THOSE TOUGH TEEN YEARS...

Here are seven tips to help your teen with negative peer pressure and to handle strong feelings associated with abuse, divorce or loneliness.

1. BOTH PARENTS AND YOUNG ADULTS BENEFIT WHEN PARENTS GET INVOLVED AT SCHOOL. The overall grades of students tend to be higher when parents are involved in their child's education.

2. GET INVOLVED IN YOUR CHILD'S EDUCATION. Understand the rules and regulations regarding attendance, work, behavior and discipline.

3. GET TO KNOW THE SCHOOL STAFF. Be sure to attend open houses and parent-teacher conferences.

4. SUPPORT LEARNING AT HOME. Help your child set up a study area and a consistent study time.

5. SET CLEAR RULES AT HOME. Children need rules and structure in order to feel safe. Make firm, but fair rules about curfews, chores, TV time, phone use and completion of homework.

6. TALK OPENLY AND HONESTLY ABOUT ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS. Discuss the dangers of using drugs with your child, such as addiction, damage to the heart, liver and other organs, arrest and jail, auto accidents and death.

7. BE A PARENT FIRST AND A FRIEND SECOND. If you act as more of a friend than a parent, your child may lose respect for you. You should always have the last word on important issues.

And don't forget the Pigeon District Library is here to help with any information possible. We can provide you with the latest books, videos and pamphlets.

4-H... More than You Ever Imagined

National 4-H Week October 1 ~ 8, 1995

WHAT IS 4-H?

4-H is an educational organization for boys and girls, age five to 19, open to all regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, handicap, religion or place of residence.

WHO LEADS 4-H?

4-H is sponsored in Michigan by the MSU Extension Service. Nationally, it is a part of the Extension Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. At the county level, those in charge are located in the county office of the MSU Extension Service supported, in part, by local county commissioners.

WHAT DO THE "H's" STAND FOR?

Head, Heart, Hands, Health.

WHAT DO BOYS AND GIRLS DO IN 4-H?

They have fun with their friends at meetings, social activities, tours, camps, fairs. They learn to do interesting things, like taking care of animals and plants, redecorating their rooms, fixing bikes, taking pictures, learning to cook - even designing their own products.

Immanuel kids are having busy sports fall this season

Athletes at Sebewaing's Immanuel Lutheran School have been busy this fall participating in both girls basketball and boys soccer.

The 7th grade girls basketball team has a record of 1-1, losing their first game to Ubyly 40-17 and then beating North Huron 36-18.

Staci Gaeth was high point girl in the both games with 10 in the first and 12 in the second.

The eighth grade girls basketball team is sporting a nifty 3-0 record with wins against Ubyly (30-19), North Huron (32-22) and Owen-Gage (27-20).

Erin Ahrens had 12 against Ubyly, Sara Houthoofd canned 17 against North Huron and eight against Owen-Gage.

In soccer, the boys lost to St. Michaels, Richville, 4-0, and beat Faith, Bay City 6-1. Derrich Holland had two goals in the win, while Courtney Kemp, Jonathan Gaeth, Jeremy Tietz, and Jeremy Lupp all added one goal each.

For the second straight year, the Immanuel Lutheran School's soccer team has walked away with the Auburn Invitational Soccer Tournament trophy.

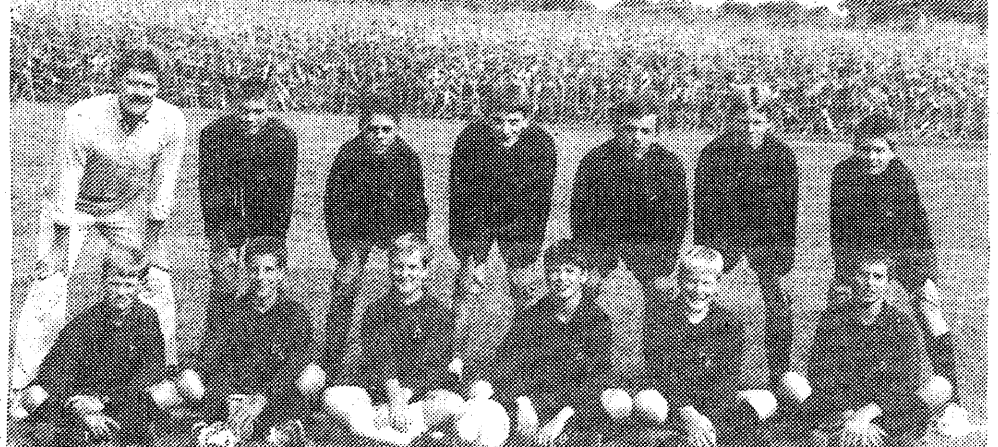

The two-day event kicked off on Saturday, Sept. 23 and pitted Immanuel against Saginaw Holy Cross. Immanuel's Jonathan Gaeth took control of the game by scoring once in the first half, and again in the second to lead the Indians to a 2-0 victory and propelling them into the second round of play later that afternoon.

Immanuel made short work of St. John's Amelith with a 6-0 thrashing. Jonathan Gaeth and Courtney Kemp each scored two goals in the win, while Chris Pommerenke and William Harder added one apiece.

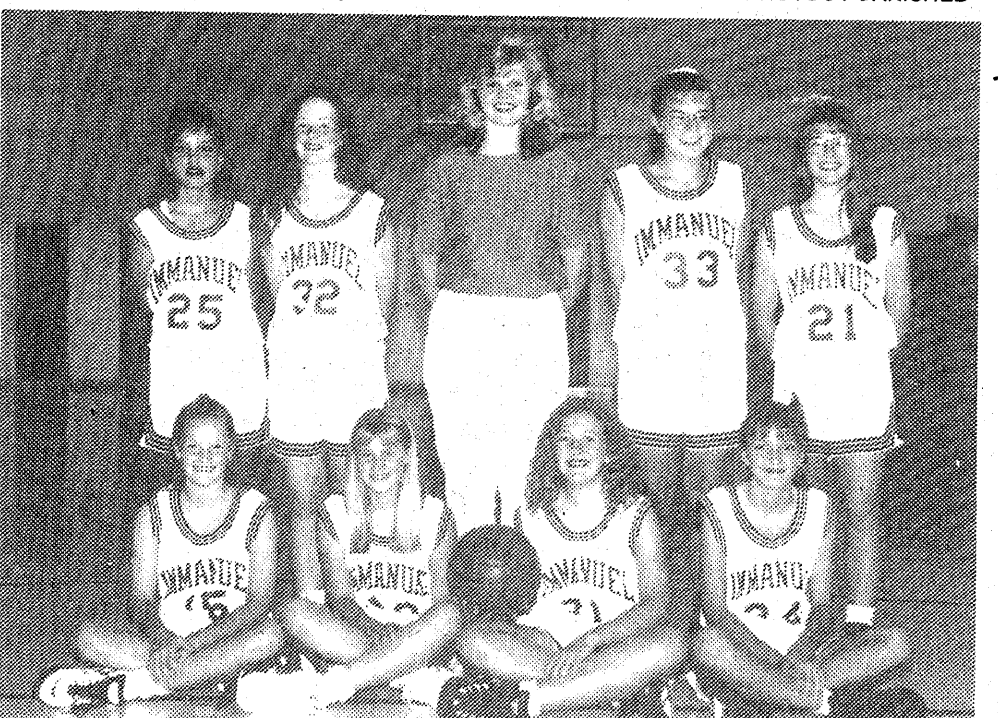

On Sunday, the Indians were matched with host team Zion Lutheran of Auburn. Zion drew first blood with a penalty shot which came after an tripping call in Immanuel's own penalty area.

Jonathan Gaeth tied the score late in the first half, and then Courtney Kemp kicked in the game winner with 17:30 left in the contest.

William Harder protected the net for Immanuel and commenced to shut Zion down during the second half and preserve the win. Harder turned away 12 shots in his effort.

More school memories

DEAR EDITOR:

In my last article, I wrote how my teacher slapped me because I mixed the wrong color in and painted a picture wrong.

Well, it wasn't the same teacher who said I lied about eating peanuts in school or claimed I went home without her permission.

She was a poet and an artist and she was very strict. If you chewed gum or whispered, she made you stay in or stand in the corner.

Back in those days, they taught the Palmer Method of writing. We had to write with full arm movement and do those push pulls and such.

She was very strict about it and she'd count to 10 and if you didn't hold your pencil a certain way, she'd tap you on the fingers with a ruler and I always thought she hit me a little harder than some other boys.

One thing was, she didn't favor anybody because she knew my mother and I learned to read pretty well while she was my teacher. When I was younger, I could run faster than most of the boys and my legs kept my head from getting hurt. I met an old friend of mine from Florida and he asked me if the people teased me like they used to.

Well, once a big boy got after me and another boy and chased us into John Diebel's store, but John wouldn't let him in, so he stayed out on the porch and shook his fist at us.

Well, we wanted to go home so Diebel let us to go out the back door. When we got to Sy's Garage, we looked back and saw that guy still waiting for us to come out.

So we yelled at him and he started to chase us. We were way ahead of him and he couldn't catch us!

Once in awhile, the teacher locked us into the closet.

Well, I wasn't afraid in the dark, but she locked one boy in there and he got what they call claustrophobic and he hollered and kicked and knocked all the books on the floor. He also knocked the teacher's coat down and hollered 'til she let him out. She didn't lock her him ie again.

Well, once when I was going to country school, some of the boys ran down the road and didn't come back, so she got her rubber hose out and used it on them.

Well, a girl said to the teacher, "George was one of them." So I had to stay in that recess and of course, the teacher didn't use her rubber hose on me.

On the way home that night, I asked her why she told me. Well, she said "You always were into everything, so I thought you were one of them."

I never was the teacher's pet, but I had some very good teachers and school wasn't too hard for me. I always got good marks and passed the eighth grade with an 84 average.

The Bible says that much study is a weakness of the flesh. Well, I still remember a lot that I learned in school. Once in awhile I meet some of my schoolmates and we always talk about our days in the good 'ole country school.

Sincerely yours,
GEORGE KEIM

Grammar class

Pity the poor waitress serving lunch to a group of retired school personnel. When she asked, "Are youse guys okay?" you could just about see the whole group flinch in unison.

That episode brought out lots of stories of how the non-word youse is being used so much. Some thought that the term is a local colloquialism as they had moved here from other areas where it was not heard as much. That could be. When my travels take me South, I hear ya'll a lot more than youse. My favorite eyebrow-raiser about youse includes another shocker for teachers—"Do youse want a menu or are youse gonna eat off the buffet?" And buffet wasn't pronounced bu-fay.

From the use you you, the discussion went to the use of other pronouns. Nobody says "me went" but how many times we hear "her and me went." Or if something is for a couple it is said to be "for my wife and I." The same idea is "between you and I."

Someone mentioned that a colleague's pet peeve was the misuse of apostrophes. My response was that if you don't know how to use one, the way to go must be don't. Most the summer a local business sign read, "Huron Counties best selection of parts." How many Huron counties are there anyway?

The summer seemed to be a spell of bad spelling. I noted a couple signs that indicated cans in plastic bags would not be accepted (and some not EXCEPTED) DO to health reasons. It sounds okay but sure doesn't look right. Another phonic spelling was in the same location—Molson cans go down the SHOOT.

Another case of phonic spelling appeared in a sports section of a newspaper. When I read "the prospect is a BONEFIED major leaguer" I wondered if he was very stiff, had ossified, or just what the writer was trying to say. Then, aha, it came to me. He means BONA FIDE. Maybe that's a case of knowing more than you really know.

That happens sometimes. I know that Pat Yoder is a member of Word of Praise Quartet. During the summer I wrote Pat Maust instead. I apologized for that and do so again. Thinking back on it, Yoders, Mausts, and Gaschos are all Pigeon names and I bet they are all related, just as the Taits, Busheys and Pechettes of Chandler Township are all related and those names sometimes get mixed up, too.

Guess that just shows to go, we can't all be perfect all the time. Except, of course, you and me, and sometimes I wonder about you...

St. Peter Mission Fest this Sunday

In observance of Lutheran Women's Missionary League Sunday and Mission Festival a special worship service will be next Sunday, Oct. 8 at St. Peter Lutheran Church, Bach at 10 a.m.

Rev. Randall Duncan, who serves as missionary to the Muslims in the Wayne-Detroit Area, will speak of his experiences and work with POBLO (People of the Book, Lutheran Outreach).

This program, which is sponsored by the Michigan District, Lutheran Church-

Missouri Synod, aims at reaching and befriending this unique ethnic group that has come in large numbers to Michigan in recent years. Guests are welcome.

Pastor Duncan will address the 9 a.m. Bible Class and also give a short visual presentation after the noon potluck dinner.

THANKS & MEMORIALS

THE FAMILY OF GEORGE ONDRAJKA wishes to thank family, friends and neighbors for their support, prayers, memorials, flowers, food and gifts of money during the illness and loss of our Husband, Dad and Papa. Special thank-you to the Ladies Aid for the wonderful luncheon, to Pastor Bickel and Rev. Combs for their prayers and visits while in the hospital and comforting words at the time of his death. We also wish to thank Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home for all their kindness and Dr. Hall and the nursing staff at Hills and Dales General Hospital. A very special thanks to Carl Seibel and George Schnell Jr. for planting our wheat during this difficult time. Your kindness will never be forgotten. God bless you all.

GOD CALLED A BELOVED HUSBAND, father, grandfather and son to rest in His peace. We, the family of Thomas Wniecki, express our sincere appreciation for the tremendous show of love, sympathy, masses, memorials and all the food. Our heartfelt "Thank You" to all.

Baptism

Mark Cole Henry II, son of Mark and Teri Henry of Williamston, was baptized at Hope United Methodist Church on Sept. 17 by Rev. Dr. Harold Slater of Hope.

For his special day, Cole wore his grandfather Henry's christening gown and late great-grandfather Bond's baby pins.

His sponsors are Mr. and Mrs. John Lavin and Mike Danko, all of New Jersey.

Present for his baptism were all of his grandparents, great-grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins, and other family and friends.

Cole is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Damm of Pigeon.
