17th season for Bach Fest

The Village Bach Festival will return to Cass City and Caro on Nov. 21, 24, 25 and 26 for its 17th season, under the direction of founding Music Director Don Th. Jaeger.

Members of the Festival Orchestra and vocal and instrumental soloists, will gather for the annual Thanksgiving holiday to rehearse and perform the music of J.S. Bach and other baroque, as well as romantic and modern composers, in the First Presbyterian Churches of Cass City and Caro.

In celebration of the 17th season as a noted Michigan Festival, the Village Bach Festival will feature performers from 12 states who will assemble to share their talents in these four varied concerts, spanning a repertory of four centuries.

The Festival is made possible, in part, by a grant from the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs. For ticket information, call 517-872-2131, ext. 269 or mail to the Village Bach Festival, P.O. Box 27, Cass City, MI 48726.

MICHIGAN "by the numbers"

RELIGIOUS TIES: In the 1995 Michigan Legislature, 48 of our 148 lawmakers are Roman Catholic, according to a study by the Michigan Interfaith Council on Alcohol Problems. Other religions represented: 16 United Methodists, 13 Baptists, nine Presbyterians, eight Episcopalians and seven Lutherans. Overall, 142 lawmakers say they're Christians, five are Jewish and one (Lynne Martinez of Lansing) reports no religious affiliation.

Student numbers are up

Caseville Schools enrolled a record number of students for the 1995-96 school year.

The Fourth Friday count of 315 students surprised Board of Education members and Supt. James Stahl. The district's enrollment increased by 26 students at the last official count.

"We knew there would be some increase but we didn't think it would be that high," Stahl said. "We have had larger kindergarten classes and more people coming in."

More students means more money from the state. If the enrollment stays the same at the February 1996 count, the district could receive over $150,000 more in state funds.

Along with other local school districts, Caseville has had a bit of trouble hiring and keeping coaches, and the board at last week's meeting expressed some concern.

"We need coaches and we have advertised for coaches, just like a couple of other districts in the area," Stahl said. "It takes some time to build a program and many people don't want to coach because they don't want the abuse that some parents can give them."

Those who are interested in coaching should contact the Superintendent's office.

In other business, the Caseville School Board:

- Authorized the use of district facilities for non-school activities involving school-age children;
- Accepted a bid of $1,600 from Shoreline Plowing for snow removal, for 12 plows;
- Agreed to install a phone in the staff workroom to enable teachers to communicate with parents;
- Hired Cheryl Wascher as varsity volleyball coach.

Unionville's Rollie Gaeth honored at Sunday Open House

By DUANE GUENTHER
Last week, longtime Deisler Funeral Home Director Rollie Gaeth of Unionville stepped down after 22 years of service to the community.

His decision came shortly after the funeral home was sold to Doug Kalis of Utica. Although Gaeth is officially retired, he plans to continue helping out at the new Union-ville Funeral Chapel whenever Kalis needs him. Gaeth has been a fixture on the Unionville business scene for the past 43 years. After graduating from Unionville High School in 1945 he worked for a short time at the Unionville Elevator.

"I really disliked that job," he recalls, with a chuckle.

Gaeth didn't stay at the elevator very long and when Paul Cochran bought the Ford dealership from Wes Schember in 1952, Gaeth found the position as general accountant for the business to be right up his alley.

He stayed with the firm after Cochran sold out to Omer Schulz — and for an eight-year period he not only took care of the books for Schulz, but traveled to Sebewaing and was the accountant for the Ford Beer's Ford-Mercury dealership as well.

Gaeth stayed with the auto dealers for 21 years before switching his occupation. So when the opportunity arose for him to join the team at the Deisler Funeral Home in 1973, he didn't hesitate for a moment.

"I thought I enjoyed my accounting work with Paul, Omer and Ford while I was doing it," Gaeth says. "But, when I got into the funeral business, I really found my niche."

From the start, it was obvious he had indeed found his niche.

A soft-spoken, caring individual whose family roots are deeply embedded in the Unionville soil, Gaeth is a natural as the comforting person necessary to console a grieving family.

Through the years he became the small town's pillar of strength during times of family crisis.

"I really love working with people," he says.

In his arrangement with Deisler, Gaeth was in charge of the entire funeral home. "Deisler did the body work," he says, "and I took care of everything else."

Countless Unionville families can attest to Gaeth's last statement. During his 22-year tenure in the funeral business, he indeed took care of all of the details when it came time for funeral arrangements.

The secret to his success may have been the caring attitude he displayed in his business connections.

"I became a part of every family I was involved with," Gaeth confesses. "When they hurt, I hurt."

Gaeth does not have any immediate plans for his retirement years. "I'm not interested in another career," he says with a smile. "But, I will help out Doug (Kalis) whenever he needs arises." "I'm sure my friends in town will see my face in there (Unionville Funeral Chapel), now and then," he adds.

Gaeth lives with his dog next door to the former Ford dealership and not far from the Unionville Funeral Chapel where he spent so many of his working years. Ruth (nee Roller,) his wife of 43 years, passed away in 1993.

Both Ruth and Rollie were Unionville natives, with numerous relatives of the Roller and Gaeth clans still making their homes in the area.

In honor of his many years of service to the families of the community, friends and business associates are planning an Open House to wish him well on his retirement. It will take place this Sunday, Oct. 29 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Befittingly, it will be held in the lounge area of the Unionville Funeral Chapel.

Supervisor Gary Parsell, Sebewaing Village President Dave Wineman, MDOT Director Pat Nowak, State Rep. Mike Green, State Sen. Joel Gougeon, U.S. Rep. By WALT RUMMEL
The new expanded M-24 into the Upper Thumb is off and running — fully funded for $9.3 million and expected to be open to traffic in 1997 — following groundbreaking just north of Caro on Monday morning. The last M-24 project is for 8.4 miles, five miles of existing M-138 to be re-designated as M-24 from Akron Road north to M-25 in Unionville.

Said Eighth District Congressman Jim Barcia (D-Bay City) at the groundbreaking, "This is a partnership of local, state and federal governments, working toward the benefit of all."

State Department of Transportation (MDOT) Director Pat Nowak, who joined state and local officials for the starting ceremony, said, "This project underscores how state highways connect communities and make travel more direct, enjoyable and cost-effective."

He added that the safe, continuous, all-weather road is vital to the region's manufacturing, agricultural and tourism industries and "to everyone who depends on good roads for their mobility."

State Senator Joel Gougeon (R-Bay City) paid tribute to Sebewaing Village President Dave Wineman as "the one guy who kept pushing us at state level to keep this project going."

Gougeon added, "We salute you, Dave! The citizens of Sebewaing are proud of you!"

This final extension will start on Cleaver Road, north of M-81, proceed west along Biebel, then turn north on Unionville Road and connect with M-138 east of Akron. Transportation Department officials said it completes the much-needed all-season trunkline system in the Thumb.

MDOT District Engineer Larry Tibbitts said the first records of planning for the M-24 Extension show that it began in 1966 — 29 years ago.

according to State Rep. Mike Green and State Senator Joel Gougeon.

The funds were awarded to the Thumb Area Michigan Works! Employment and Training Consortium, and Huron County Extension for its program to protect the Saginaw Bay Watershed.

The Employment and Training Consortium received $25,950 in Displaced Homemaker funding to provide unemployed homemakers with vocational counseling and testing, skills training, job search and placement help, and referrals to community resources. The program is administered by the Michigan Jobs Commission.

A $44,300 grant was also presented to Huron County Extension for the Saginaw Bay Agricultural Pollution Prevention Program. Farmers participating in the project will learn alternative farming methods intended to maintain agricultural production while reducing watershed pollution from pesticide leaching, soil erosion and other types of runoff.

The Saginaw Bay National Watershed Initiative is administered by the Department of Environmental Quality and allows various agencies to work together at preserving the Saginaw Bay Watershed.

Newsweekly corrections

■ A Phone Forum message in last week's Newsweekly should have said the message is from "Beth Swartzendruber, Scheurer Ambulance Coordinator," instead of "Karen Swartzendruber." We regret the error.

■ A report on a traffic accident that resulted in the death of Edna Truemmer should have said that the truck involved was a commercial tractor-trailer rig carrying drainage tile. According to Fair Haven Township Police Chief Kurt Kelly, the driver of the truck said he stopped at the corner of Bay Port Road and Weale Road, then pulled out into the intersection, hitting the Truemmer vehicle. The truck driver also told Kelly he did not see the other vehicle.

Court proceedings

In 73rd District Court (Huron County,) Judge Karl Kraus recently heard the pleas of/or passed judgment on:

- David S. Dutcher, 30 of Sebewaing, pled guilty to impaired driving; $535 fines and costs, three months' probation and loses license for 90 days;
- Kevin A. Gettel, 19 of Pigeon, pled guilty to driving while license expired; $105 fines and costs;
- Clarence J. Jahr, 63 of Sebewaing, found guilty as charged to illegally taking fish; $70 fines and costs;

USPO plans special October '95 events

The last week of October—Oct. 22-28 — has been declared the "National Consumers Week," with the United States Postal Service joining in the recognition with the theme "Service: It's Your Right."

The Postal Service is working to raise awareness of the products and services they offer, improve understanding of Postal Service operations and educate consumers about issues related to the Postal Service, use of the mails and inspection service efforts intended to protect the public from fraudulent schemes and other postal crimes.

Many area post offices have special events planned, according to Bay Port Postmaster Laura Scharich. Customers satisfaction index cards will be distributed to households for this postal quarter, adds Scharich, to that consumers have a chance to rate their own local post office.

"These surveys help us to target particular areas of service unique to geographical locations and determine the needs of our own customers," says Scharich. "Question #1 is tabulated on a percentage basis to determine the score of your post office, with "very good" and "excellent" counting as a positive score. The remaining questions help us work on specific goals for improvement."

New comic strip stamps were issues as part of the celebration for October being "National Stamp Collecting Month." The theme is "Toon Into Stamps."

All The News That Fits We Print!

by Mark Rummel

ANSWER GUY: It's time again to hear from that knowledgeable man, the Thumb's Answer Guy.

Q: You're a newspaper guy, right? What's your view of the Detroit strike now?

Answer Guy: That Detroit News-Free Press staff strike is in its 16th week now, and it's amazing how modern technology allows a smaller staff to put out a million copies of a paper every day, even without many of the writers, printers and delivery people. As we've said in this spot before, we've only missed two copies in 16 weeks... and we live 100 miles from their nearest printing plant.

Unfortunately, neither of the Detroit papers seem as lively as they did, mostly because staffs are smaller. It's proof again of the homogenizing of America — there's plenty of wire service news to fill in whatever can't be written locally.

Too many papers use too much wire service news already, and it's doing to newspapers what fast-food chains do to hamburgers... making them all alike. And how sad when striking workers tear down the company they hope will again give them a paycheck, after the dust settles...

Q: So, you're against technology, right?

Answer Guy: Oh, no, far from it. In fact, thanks to the Internet, several of the stories in this issue came to be. Our own Amy Heiden contacted several experts nationwide about the Chronic Fatigue Syndrome test results, as printed in "To Your Good Health!" in this issue. You couldn't do that even five years ago. It should help good reporters do better work.

Q: What else is new in the paper business?

Answer Guy: These skyrocketing prices for paper (our bread-and-butter) are for real. In some cases, we're paying 35% more than we did a year ago. But experts say it will level off next year. That's assuming we get through this year adequately.

Q: Any last thoughts?

Answer Guy: Just one: recently, an area daily newspaper named a 22-year-old as its editor. I think that shows a great disregard by his superiors for professionalism and ability — assuming a 22-year-old can properly choose what stories people read here. Remember, folks, that's who is deciding what you read on their pages. It's an insult.

Q: You were a "young guy" when you came here, remember?

Answer Guy: I was 28 'way back in 1978 when I came "back" to the Thumb — and that was after graduating from college and working nearly seven years at daily papers in Saginaw and Port Huron. I think naming an inexperienced person to an editor's job is like putting a 10-year-old at the controls of a 767-jet. And, I'd rather not be on that plane while he "learns" how to fly...

As we see it

We love our ethnic food

Whether you call them quesadillas, sweet-and-sour, tacos, fettucine alfredo, baklava, sushi or gung chow, ethnic foods are hot in our American culture. And with good reason — they're tasty, too.

A recent study by the Michigan Restaurant Association shows Chinese, Italian and Mexican foods are the most-popular ethnic restaurant varieties, followed closely by German, Greek and Tex-Mex. And with good reason — the the most part, many of these are healthy alternatives to traditional, heavier, fatter U.S. fare.

Restaurants in our state serve more than 4 million meals daily, the group says, and Saturday is the most-popular day to eat out. Guys like chowing down outside the home more than gals — men dine out 4.3 times per week, versus 3.6 times for women.

Annually, each person in Michigan eats $652 of food away from home. Typically, children and adults in our state average 3.8 meals outside the home per week — for a growing total of 198 per year. Wouldn't our great-grandparents be shocked by those numbers, since they ate 99% of their meals at home, after the family cook spent a great deal of time in the kitchen preparing the feast?

The restaurant survey shows more chain restaurants are being chosen by diners — but there's always a spot at the restaurant table for a well-cooked meal, whatever the dining spot chosen.

Future studies show we'll likely be consuming even more meals outside the home... or bringing home catered foods even more regularly. And, as long as we watch our nutrition, calories and fat percentages, it's not all bad — as America's families today run faster, pursuing their elusive dreams...

Recollections Of By-Gone Days

by Georga Keim

Dear Editor,

In the last few months, I had to privilege to attend two weddings. One was my grandson and one was my niece. And I can remember quite a few other ones. But no two were alike. During the depression, people would go to the justice of the peace or just to the preacher's home and if you said anything to them, they'd get mad or tell you mind your own business. Now they announce the engagement a whole year ahead and have a big wedding.

Years ago they would throw rice at them when they came out of the house. Once I remember we didn't have rice because it was too expensive so we went to the neighbor's granary and got some wheat and threw it at them.

And it made them mad but we told them rice costs money and wheat was cheaper and that times were so hard that they were lucky that they got anything!

They used to chivaree the new couple and shoot off shotguns and make a lot of noise. Once some guys came and brought their women and the people said they didn't make enough noise.

Well, the men said they brought the loudest stuff they had and got by with it!

The last wedding I attended had five best men and bridesmaids and the pastor gave them some real good advice. He then asked God's blessing on them and told them what God joined together let not man put asunder.

The church was full of people and everybody was having a good time. Although it is 54 years since I was married to the best woman in the world, I still remember her and still love her. She has been gone over 20 years.

When we got married it was a nice day and I was a little nervous. When the preacher said "I now pronounce you husband and wife, go in peace," I misunderstood him and thought he said "go and eat!"

Well, we did have a good wedding and had lots to eat and got a lot of wedding presents and I still think that a good marriage is like heaven on earth.

It says in the Bible that he that finds a wife findeth a good thing and obtains favor in the sight of the Lord. And there is nothing as nice as having several children to look after you when you are getting old and unable to take care of yourself.

I have two sons and two daughters. Both of my sons are ministers and my daughters are nurses and they take good care of me. And I have two daughters-in-law who are as good to me as my own daughters.

So I say this; that if a man or woman has a good chance to get married, do it and find that favor of the Lord.

Sincerely yours,
Georga Keim

P.S. Once in a while people thank me for writing this article. And if you have time, send me a letter telling me you like it. My address is: Georga Keim, c/o Country Bay Village, Pigeon, MI 48755.

There's good news out there in the world — Beeman's gum is back. Long a personal favorite of mine, the gum is only sold once or twice a year these days... and it still tastes just as it did 40-plus years ago! It's always a familiar treat.

Here's what your friends/neighbors/enemies have on their minds, as we sample this week's "Phone Forum" calls:

C.G. of Sebewaing: My concern for the Phone Forum is why are school kids out soliciting for the sale of all their school benefit money on a Sunday? In my opinion, a Sunday is not a day people should be out doing this. Thank you.

Terry of Sebewaing: This is in regards to Gunther and Shirley about the magnificent elk: I think all animals are magnificent, and probably so are the beef and hogs on their dining room table tonight, unless they're vegetarians. We're proud of the game and I'm sorry they feel that way. I sure would like to get an elk myself, and so would many people. Maybe they should ask the two young sportswomen (shown with their deer, in a recent Newsweekly) what they think about this.

From Another Concerned Parent of Sebewaing: I think the Concerned Parent is obviously teaching their children the wrong way. They are not teaching their child right from wrong. The attitude of what goes around comes around is a bad attitude. As far as teaching your children right from wrong, if more people felt the right way, maybe our school system would be in better shape than it is now. Fair is what Mark should have gotten. People should care more about his property.

G. from Sebewaing: Thanks for the quick action by the Light and Water crews for their fast response to Friday's broken trees and branches. They're a good bunch of public servants.

L. of Cass City: The lack of comment on the O.J. verdict in the Phone Forum struck me as unusual. After my initial shock upon hearing of the acquittal, the name Barabus kept repeating itself in my mind. Then I did something I hadn't done in over 20 years. I picked up the Bible and found it in Matthew 27. Was not our modern day Barabus freed, and justice crucified? It seems as though man has not changed much in 2,000 years. Thank you. (Amen, L. I was a little surprised about how little we heard about the outcome, too. Maybe we're all too tired of it.)

Shelly of Sebewaing: I'd like to thank all the coaches who helped with the fifth and sixth grade PeeWee football. I think they did an excellent job. They were caring for the kids and they won every game. It's just great there are people out there who care that much about our kids. Thank you.

Patricia M. of Unionville: I have a sports complaint: You gave Jason Martens credit for a drive-over conversion that made the score 24-20 in the Ugly game. That belonged to Jason Michels, not Jason Martens.

And Jason Michels ran 59 runs in 15 carries, not Jason Martens. I'd like that corrected, please. (Consider it corrected, P.M., and thanks — there's been confusion between the two Jason M's before. We'll try not to let it happen again.)

A Concerned Parent: The letter from the three school officials sounds pretty convincing. Too bad we all know it's a snow job. You're just about as bad as they are. Everyone really knows the truth.

(Well, if YOU know the truth, "Concerned," why not write it down and sign your name... we'll print YOUR side, too. It's easy to take pot shots, especially after the "other" side has tried to explain their views. Quit complaining... start writing. Or better yet, run for the School Board next time. You can be in charge.)

J. of Elkton: To the person who stole the Rocket starter jacket from a Laker High School locker on Friday, Oct. 20 — please have the decency to return it, no questions asked. Thank you.

Mrs. D. of Unionville: More news from Unionville and Sebewaing, please.

Sebewaing Senior Citizen: I'm thankful for the service provided by our village, picking up piles of leaves throughout the week! Constant picking up really helps us, instead of all the hard work. Thank you, village leaders. (See, folks, not everyone is grumpy these days...)

Many Protestant churches will commemorate Reformation Sunday on Oct. 29, the 424th anniversary on which Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses to the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg... The 1929 stock market drop, which had been underway for several weeks, turned into a rout on Oct. 29, when billions of dollars were lost, suicides were common among losers, and a depression began which was to last for about 10 years...

On a lighter note: You probably don't know who Daniel Decatur Emmett is, but he created the words and music for the song "Dixie," which became the unofficial "national anthem" for the South. Daniel was born Oct. 29, 1815, in Ohio... Actor Richard Dreyfus is 48 today, actress Kate Jackson is 47 and political cartoonist Bill Mauldin, who won fame as WW2's greatest friend of the soldiers, is 74...

It's MONDAY, OCT. 30, the night before Halloween, which is known as Devil's Night. It used to be observed by playing harmless pranks, but in some cities it has now become the first of a two-night reign-of-terror, with massive fires and destruction...

The second U.S. President, John Adams, was born Oct. 30, 1735. He served as Vice President in President Washington's terms, and was chief executive from 1797 through March 3, 1801. President John Adams died at 89, on July 4, 1826, the same day Thomas Jefferson died, which was the 50th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence...

Wie sagt mann 'ulcers?'

In modern Zeiten haben wir so viele Arzte und so viele Spezialiste das Sie lernen viel mehr about unsere Bodies denn Sie je vorher wussten.

Wenn mann zum Doktor geht mit ein Ingrown Toenail, so sind die Chances gut das er wird uns zu ein Spezialist schicken fuer ein 2nd Opinion.

Wenn die Krankheit ist Indigestion — "Verdauung" — oder even mehrserious, wie Stomach Ulcers — "Magen Geschwuer" — dann kann mann von Old Age sterben vor Sie alle die Tests fertigbringen.

Ich kann remembren da Ich zu Saginaw Steering Gear arbeitete und hatte Magen Geschwuer. Das war 50 Jahre ago, so machten Sie viel fewer Tests denn heute. Die standard Treatment fuer Ulcers war "Ampho-Jel," eine weisse slippy, schleimige Medizin about dieselbe Consistency wie Axle Grease. Das konnte mann von Loeffel lecken und probieren zu swallowen in eine grosse Glob. Mann konnte es nicht mit Wasser oder Milch mixen, weil es war zu schmierig und firm.

So musste ich suffer. Ein Abend auf 2nd Shift kamm der schwarze Janitor und fragte ob Ich krank war. Ich hab explained so sagte er, "Ich hab fuer viele Jahre mit Magen Geschwuer ge-suffered, aber meine Frau machte eine Medizin die mir schnell ge-cured hat.

Das konnte Ich ja nicht glauben, aber er sagte das er wird am nexten Abend eine Treatment mitbringen.

Sure enough, da unser Shift am nachsten Nachmittag eingepunched war, kamm Herr Bradley, der Janitor, zu meine Desk und sagte, "Ich hab deine Ulcer Treatment hier."

Er machte eine Tasse Tee, so heiss das es ge-bubbled hat. Dann namm er ein wrinkled Papier Sack von seine Pocket, und hat about ein Essloeffel Material aus-ge-poured in meine Tasse.

Das Material war grau und grainy, und sah aus wie Gravel, mit fine und coarse Pieces die haben ge-floated auf das heisse Wasser. Er hat es thoroughly ge-stirred. "Jetzt, schnell!" sagte Herr Bradley, "Trink es weil es noch heiss ist!"

Es sahe aus wie das most unappetizing-Stoff das Ich je gesehen hatte.

Der Odor war terrible! All das Ich denken konnte war, "Was ist das Stoff das hier in die Tasse herum-floats?" Der Odor hat mir reminded von warm und sweaty Fuesse nachdem mann die Shoes erst abnimmt.

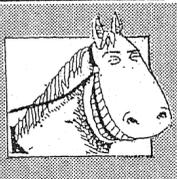

Herr Bradley hat insisted, "Trink! Schnell! Es ist eine sure Cure!"

Ich hebte die Tasse auf mit eine Hand, und hab meine Nase zugehalten mit die andere Hand und hab es herunter ge-gulped.

Nachste Woche bringen wir den exciting Conclusion about was Ich actually dort ge-swallowed hab.

Halloween

Ghosts and goblins do about this time of year. In fact, they might be pounding on your front door next week! These ghoulish little creatures roam the dark streets looking for — no, not human flesh nor eye of newt, but bite-size Snickers and big, juicy gumballs.

It is perhaps the sharpest sting of growing up not to be allowed to trick-or-treat anymore. Oh sure, finding out about Santa, no more recesses, giving up Barbie and the end of crayon creativity is all difficult to cope with. But bags of free candy, on a windy autumn evening, in exchange for making an appearance in an ill-fitting costume and performing like a trained monkey — well, that was a pretty good deal.

Of course, this is not to say adults are actually "not allowed" to dress in ridiculous costumes and go from door to door begging, but nowadays, with perverts at every other house and needles in the candy bars, it's just too dangerous. Yes, even for grownups.

And yet, year after year, hordes of naive, trusting little kids, guided by naive, nervous parents, make the trek from neighbor to neighbor in search of that once-a-year thrill which is like no other past time, recreation, holiday or occasion.

Sure, your kids may have been to Disneyland, but try telling them that's as good a going trick-or-treating. They may have been to Cedar Point this summer, but try convincing them that's a fair exchange for trick-or-treating.

Your kids may have a pony, Nintendo, a ten-speed bike, and a trust fund which will allow them to avoid working one day of their lives, but they will still tell you, NOTHING equals the wild abandon of trick-or-treating come Oct. 31.

That's why I implore everyone this Halloween season to strive ambitiously to keep our little ghosts and goblins safe and protected. Be sure the kids are well-chaperoned and that they are wearing something bright and reflective on the dark city streets. Have all their candy checked and double check it yourself. Don't let them eat anything that is not securely wrapped, or which appears to have been tampered with in any way.

Because it just doesn't seem fair to allow the perversions of this decade to rob little kids of one of life's richest, most magical and memorable experiences — all the free candy you can stand just for showing up in an ill-fitting costume and performing like a trained monkey!

When Detroit Tigers barnstormed the Thumb

By WALT RUMMEL

Remembering Rogell's Barnstormers: It was 60 years ago last week that a Detroit Tiger barnstorming team came to Sebewaing High School athletic field to play against a Huron-Tuscola All-Star squad. A Sebewaing Blade story of that game declared that a crowd of "well over 2,000" attended the game. Tiger Shortstop Bill Rogell headed the visitors who played here Oct. 15, 1935, and defeated the local squad, 11-4.

Rogell, a former Detroit Council member who now resides in Florida, smashed a home run in the opening inning, hitting one of Vic "Lefty" Neigenfind's fast balls over the left field fence into a corn field. He got two hits and scored two runs. "The game was brought back in memory by Dorothy (Stoeckle) Thoms, now of Port Hope, who has a number of players' autographs from the two teams.

She was then Dorothy Erbsich, a Sebewaing school girl, who attended the game as one of the 104-member band, directed by the late A.E. Scheiwe.

Her autographs include not only Rogell, but also his younger brother, Eddie, "Lefty" Neigenfind, Matt Ringle, John Weir and Sebewaing's own Joe Kling. Mrs. Thoms treasures the old paper for its memories, stating she keeps it under a heavy glass desk top. Among the Tiger All-Stars, in addition to the two Rogells, were Catcher Frank Reiber, infielder Johnny Kerr, Southpaw Joe Sullivan, Frank Millsbaugh of the Toledo Mud Hens, and Roy Moore, a pitcher.

Playing for the Huron-Tuscola squad were Joe Kling, Jack Adams, Walter "Zep" Koch, Larry Hutchinson of Elkton, Tony VanTine of Caro, "Steam" Demo, Paul Bach and Matt Ringle.

The locals were outscored, but collected 10 hits against the visitors' 11. Hutchinson got three out of five against big league

Doug Kalis has opened Unionville Funeral Chapel

NEW OWNERS: Deisler's Funeral Home in Unionville has been sold to Doug Kalis, formerly of Shelby Township. The transaction, which took place last week, ends 30 years of ownership by the Saginaw-based undertaking firm. Deisler had purchased the business from the Achenbachs around 1960.

Doug Kalis and his wife Ann are making Unionville their permanent home, moving into the living quarters at the rear of the business, which has been renamed the Unionville Funeral Chapel.

Kalis has been in the mortuary business for some time, working for Deisler for five years, and most recently, with a funeral home in Utica. Kalis will continue to offer a full range of funeral services and has plans for extensive remodeling of the existing buildings.

Laker girls win 2 in week

The Mayville Wildcats never had much of a chance against a superior Laker team in last Tuesday's matchup and the 78-25 score reflected it.

The squad got off to a fast start, leading 19-4 at the end of the first quarter and 43-12 at the half. The inside game, as well as good guard play, contributed to the commanding lead.

In the second half, all the Laker team members saw considerable playing time, evidenced by nine of the 10 players getting into the scoring book.

The Lakers were led by Betsy Drury with 16 points, all in the first half. Freshman Robin Rathje followed with 13, including three triples, and Angie Weidman scored 12. Marie Hurren had 11, Kristen Damm scored eight, Kate Damm had seven and Casey McLellan had six.

Thursday's matchup with Cass City promised to be a real thriller and that's exactly the way it turned out. The Lakers had defeated the Red Hawks in their previous meeting in double overtime. The Lakers didn't need overtime in last week's game to dispatch the Hawks 55-49. EPBP jumped out to a 15-8 lead by the end of the first quarter and had a wide 33-16 lead by halftime.

The Hawk defensive pressure was more effective in the second half, forcing numerous Laker turnovers. But turn-about is fair play and the Lakers' full court pressure on Cass City proved just as effective, disrupting Cass City's offensive production.

Unfortunately, the result of that kind of pressure causes official's whistles to work overtime, and both teams struggled in the second half with key players having to sit because of foul trouble.

The Red Hawks outscored the Lakers in the third and fourth periods, 15-7 and 18-15, but the 17-point halftime lead was enough for the Lakers to hang on for the victory.

Weidman led the Lakers with 18 points, followed by Kristen Damm with 12, Jody Herbert with 10 and Drury with eight.

The Lakers improved their record to 11-5 and are still tied with Marlette for second place in the Thumb C National Division.

This week, the Lakers will play host to Reese on Tuesday and Marlette on Thursday. Thursday's game is doubly important as it will determine who will be in the best position to make a run at division leader Bay City All Saints.

JUNIOR VARSITY: The JV team won a come-from-behind game against Mayville 50-37. After trailing 25-17 at the half, the team played a good third quarter, holding the Wildcats to two points. With no freshman game that evening, the five players from that squad were moved up to the JV team and contributed to the scoring.

Lady Pats fall to All Saints

The Lady Patriots traveled to Bay City last Tuesday to do battle with the Cougars of All Saints in a cross-league basketball tilt. All Saints flexed their muscles and sent the Patriots home with a 60-34 loss.

Playing behind senior Kim Biskup at center, All Saints team took the boards away from USA early in the game and ended up making the Pats pay for every mistake they made during the entire contest.

The Cougars started fast and broke into a 14-7 first quarter lead. They extended the margin to 35-15 by halftime and for all practical purposes the game was already over.

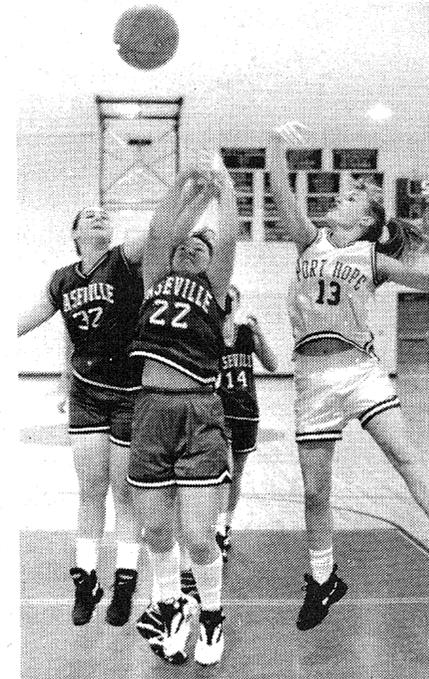

"Biskup is the best all-around center we have faced this year," says USA's assistant coach Todd Cramer. "She not only scored and rebounded, but blocked several shots and set some great picks."

All Saints continued the blitz in the second half outscoring the Patriots 20-10 in the third and 11-9 in the fourth.

Whitney Babcock led the Cougars with 15 points and four other players were in double figures.

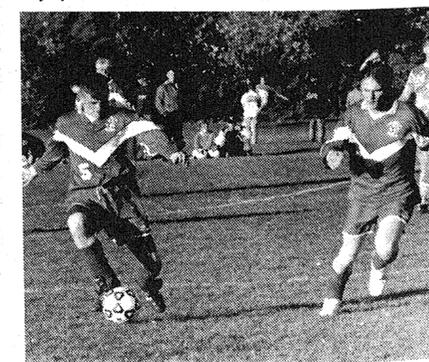

Leah Collon was high for USA with 13, followed by freshman, Shannon Schafer with 10.

The loss drops the Patriots to 2-12 for the season.

USA blasts VL to hit .500 mark

After a dismal start during the 1995 football season, USA has pulled up its socks and jumped to the .500 percentage with a win over Saginaw Valley Lutheran last Friday. Another win over Carrollton this week could give the Patriots a winning season.

It didn't take long for the Patriots to determine who was the better football team. Valley, in its first year of varsity football, could do little to stop a strong offensive effort by USA.

With 9:47 remaining in the first period, Aaron Vermeersch scored his first, of a two-touchdown night, when he bulldozed over 8-yards out. Nick Mowry added the conversion and USA led 8-0.

Four and one-half minutes later, Mike Koepf slipped in from the 5 yard line, and Danny Sweetman ran a keeper for 2 more points to make it 16-0.

Paul Mitchell started the second quarter with score and Koepf added the conversion for a 24-0 bulge. Then, 3 minutes later Nick Mowry confused the defense on a cross-back that went for 35 yards and a TD. Shaun Gainforth booted the extra point and the Pats were up 31-0.

Aaron Vermeersch scored his second touchdown at the 5:29 mark in the second, with Gainforth converting again. And, Mitchell added his second with 1:41 left in the half to make the score 44-0.

Coach Tim Travis substituted freely in the second half and the Patriots scored once more as Tom Betson scampered in from 30-yards out.

Paul Mitchell had 103 yards in 15 carries for the evening. The win put the Patriots at 4-4 for the season, and the loss dropped Valley Lutheran to 0-8.

Lakers share league crown after 42-0 rout

With an easy 42-0 win over Marlette Friday night, the Lakers wrapped up a Thumb C National Division co-championship. Bad Axe grabbed a share, too, with a win over Cass City. Both teams sport identical 4-1 records in the league.

The Lakers' win also helps their chances for postseason play, and a win over Class B opponent Frankenmuth this Friday will most definitely ensure a spot in the playoffs.

But they'll have their work cut out for them facing the undefeated Eagles, who are rated in the top four in Class B.

"We'll be playing down there and it'll be a tough one," Coach Bill McLellan said. "They're a tough team and they're very athletic."

But playing a tough opponent is what McLellan wants for his team at the end of the year.

"It's a good one to have at the end of the year, especially if we get into the playoffs and have to play up a notch," he said.

Marlette didn't present much of a challenge for the Lakers and the wind and light rain played a big factor for both teams, forcing punts and passes to go places they weren't intended to go.

The opening kickoff went into the wind and the Lakers' hands and they moved quickly to the end zone. With just over a minute ticked off the clock, Brian Gola ran in for the first Laker TD of the night.

Minutes later, Gola blocked a punt that put the Raiders' 27 yard line. Marlette picked off a Laker pass but was forced to punt. That punt only made it to their 31 yard line, setting up Gola's second TD, a five-yard run.

Tom Marks scored in the second quarter after Joel Maust blocked a punt at the Marlette 41-yard line to put the Lakers in prime field position. Matt Voss ran in the two-point conversion for the Lakers' 20-0 lead.

Voss added more points on a short run into the end zone, and Tim Russell added two more points on the PAT for the 28-0 margin.

Marks scored again halfway through the fourth period on a two-yard run, and Maust scored with 25 seconds left in the game on a 58-yard pass play from J.D. Wheeler. Jason Fritz grabbed another Wheeler pass for the two-point try.

"This was a big game for us," McLellan said. "We came up and played big, we played real well and real hard. We made some big plays, and it was a fun game for us because a lot of kids got involved in the action."

Gola led the rushing attack with 106 yards in 13 carries, while Voss had 57 yards in nine carries and Marks had 37 yards in 12 carries. Nate Gotts completed two of nine passes for 69 yards and Wheeler completed one pass, a touchdown pass, for 58 yards.

On defense, Marks and Eric Gurdy had 10 tackles each, and Scott Anderson had nine.

JUNIOR VARSITY: The Marlette JV team had much the same luck against the Lakers as their older counterparts, going down 47-0.

LAKERS' JOEL MAUST not only blocked the punt, but recovered the ball when it tumbled near the sideline, in the Lakers' 42-0 win over Marlette. AMY HEIDEN PHOTO

USA CROSS COUNTRY TEAMS IN THREE MEETS

The USA cross country teams took part in the Reese Invitational on Saturday October 14. While neither the boys or the girls fielded a team, USA made its presence known by capturing a first place, and an additional medal, in the Division II girls event.

Christie Achenbach was first to break the tape in the Division II race with a 20:25, and Alicia Scharich also medaled with a 23:01.

On Tuesday, the teams traveled to Harbor Beach for the Thumb C League Meet. The USA girls finished in 6th place and the boys did not field a team.

Christie Achenbach won the girls race with a 19:32 and was deemed an All-Conference member for her performance.

Other USA times were: Alicia Scharich - (23:03), Deana Strieter - (25:13), Stacy Turschak - (26:08), and Christina Ratkos - (26:14). On the boys side, Cory Packard ran a 20:30 and Bob Arnold ended with a 23:01.

Last Saturday, the Patriots were at the Caro Invitational to do battle with area cross country teams. Weather conditions were anything but pleasant with temperatures in the low 40's and gusty winds.

In the girls race, Christie Achenbach finished second to Kate Fall of Vassar. Achenbach had a time of 19:42 and won a medal. Alicia Scharich also won a medal with a time of 22:00.

Other USA girls were Stacy Turschak - (26:41), Deana Strieter - (27:20), and Christina Ratkos - (28:10). In the boys event best finisher for USA was Joel Haist - (19:34) and Cory Packard - (19:44).

In the Jr. High race, USA's Mike Sattler ran a 12:40 and Seth Colling came in with a 13:19. There was also an elementary event at this meet and Brian Packard of USA won a medal.

Great Grains for Energy

When it comes to grains, you probably won't get too much of a good thing! The Food Guide Pyramid — a guide for healthful eating — advises 6-11 servings of bread, cereal, rice and pasta daily. Specific amounts depend on energy needs.

Grain foods are the body's best energy source for learning, play and work. Whole-grain and enriched grain foods also supply B vitamins and iron; whole grains supply fiber.

As the foundation of your family's diet, these ideas add "great grains" to meals and snacks:

- Besides white bread (a kid's favorite), add variety and fiber to your family's bread box with whole-wheat, oatmeal, rye and pumpernickel breads.
- Make spaghetti or macaroni and cheese fun with festive pasta shapes: bow ties, wagon wheels or twists. Surprise kids with novelty pasta — hearts, bunnies and pumpkins! Try colored herb pastas.
- Use bagels, English muffins, tortillas and pita pockets as great sandwich wrappers.
- Cereal isn't just for breakfast. Toss cereal squares or flakes with dried fruit for a crunchy after-school or at-work snack.
- Bake bread together on weekends — it smells and tastes great! Use frozen dough if time is short.
- For a change, serve "breakfast for dinner" with pancakes, French toast or waffles.

Bridge goes up... then down

By DUANE GUENTHER

After waiting almost six years for the McAlpin Road bridge spanning the State Drain near Sebawaing to be renovated, residents using the road were forced to wait a couple of more days this past week.

Last Tuesday, 11 92-foot-long pre-stressed concrete box beams were delivered to the site by the Robinson Cartage Company of Grand Rapids.

The first delay occurred when the trucks had to back up for three miles from M-25 as there wasn't any turn-around large enough to accommodate them at the construction site, workers said.

According to Huron County Road Commission Secretary - Manager John Martin, matters worsened as crane operators were nursing the first of the 11 beams into place. The crane failed, causing that beam to twist.

The operator, attempting to avoid serious damage, dropped the beam which broke, landing part of it in the State Drain.

Cleanup of the broken beam took the entire day on Wednesday, with trucks hauling part of the debris away and the using the remainder as added bank rip-rap beneath the new bridge.

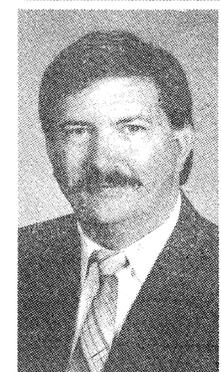

Work restarted on Thursday morning and at 1:30 p.m., the 10th and final concrete beam was put into place. Final construction phase of the bridge will depend on how quickly a replacement beam can be delivered to the site to replace the broken one, workers said.

Martin estimated it would take several weeks to construct and deliver such a beam as they are made specifically for jobs and there is no available inventory which can be put into use.

The 92-foot, pre-cast concrete beams are 42-inches square, and weigh about 40 tons each. Martin said the McAlpin Road bridge is the largest bridge of the box-type type in Huron County.

Project cost is $372,000, below the estimated $409,000.

USA Seniors enjoy color tour

Bright sunshine and warm temperatures met 20 Sebewaing seniors as they embarked on a color tour around the Thumb on Wednesday, Oct. 11.

This first annual event was sponsored by Sebewaing's Village Parks and Recreation Department, organized by its coordinator Tim Dutcher.

Thumb Area Transit supplied the event with an early 1900 replica of a San Francisco trolley, complete with a bell. The trolley, driven by Ken Hazard, began its trip in Sebewaing and then traveled north along M-25 through Caseville, Oak Beach and McGraw County Parks before continuing on to Port Austin and Pointe Aux Barques.

Several stops were made along the way, including the Port Austin Harbor, and a special highlight admittance to the normally private Pointe Aux Barques complex — where passengers viewed the beautiful rock formations including Turnip Rock, a famous landmark of the Thumb.

through Grindstone City and Huron City, allowing passengers a beautiful view of the Lake Huron shoreline. A stop at Lighthouse Park with lunch beneath the still functional lighthouse was an addition treat.

The final stop was at Waterworks Park in Harbor Beach before the trolley headed back home, to end the 113-mile round-trip.

Members appreciated driver Hazard's running commentary on local landmarks, and appreciated TAT's Clare Knoblock for providing the trolley.

USA Drama Club prepares for elementary musical

By BRIAN HAHN
It's a new year for USA Drama Club members and they have high expectations as they begin the school year in USA Elementary School.

There was a concern as to where they would perform, but the problem was solved when an invitation was issued to use the elementary school facilities.

Drama Club members consider the smaller auditorium to be advantageous and look forward to using the facility. We plan to make this year's performance the greatest ever! said an enthusiastic drama student.

"I think the Drama Club is going to be very fun this year and I really like the people who will be in the musical," says Tabitha Ainsworth, "I'm really excited!"

USA Community Band needs more members!

The USA Community is held in high regard in both Sebawaing and Unionville. The band, made up of adults who still love to "toot" their horn, is directed by former high school band director Art Eberlein.

The Community Band practices every Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. in the USA High School Band Room.

However, the numbers of musicians showing up for these weekly practices have been undergoing a steady decline, director Eberlein notes — and there is worry they will decrease until the band will not be able to perform.

A call is going out to old band members and also to any lovers of music who are interested in digging out their old horns.

Promises have been made they will not be subjected to any auditions or singled out in any way. This is a fun group who likes to get together and share their love of music.

Interested people can get more information by attending the next Thursday night practice. The band is presently preparing for the upcoming Community Christmas Concert.

O-G falls to CPS

Friday night wasn't the best night for watching or playing football and the weather had a significant part in Owen-Gage's 6-0 defeat by Carsonville-Port Sanilac.

The Bulldogs started off with the ball, but a fumble at the 15-yard line helped set up the only score of the night. CPS's Mike Vanetta scored on a four-play drive early in the quarter and that's the way the score stayed the rest of the evening.

In the rain, the Bulldogs completed only one of 10 passes for 15 yards and suffered two interceptions.

Wade Teti led the Bulldog offense with 91 yards and a fumble. The Bulldogs' defense held Owen-Gage to one point.

The game was played in the rain and the field was very muddy. The Bulldogs' defense was excellent and kept Owen-Gage from scoring.

WORDS CANNOT express our sincere gratitude to all our loving family, friends and business associates for their thoughts and prayers at a time of our great loss. We'd like to thank Father Surmon, ladies of Holy Family Parish for the luncheon, the organist and choir, the Unionville Funeral Chapel and all the friends who gave of their time in our time of need. We'd like to share the following poem which has given us great comfort.

SAFELY HOME. I am home in heaven, dear ones, Oh, so happy and so bright! There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in heaven at last. Did you wonder I so calmly Trod the valley of the shade? Oh! But Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade. And He came Himself to meet Me in that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve too sorely, for I love you dearly still, try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's will. There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand; Do not, while life remaineth -- You shall rest in Jesus' land..When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come! The Marilyn Balzer Family.

THANKS & MEMORIALS

THE FAMILY OF AUGUST METZGER wishes to thank you for prayers, flowers, cards & food. Special thanks to Pastor Andrus for his comforting words, also to the Ladies Aid for the dinner - to the Doctors and Scheurer Hospital Staff, and Meyersieck - Bussema Funeral Home. Your kindness will not be forgotten. God bless you.

OUR THANKS to all relatives and friends who attended our 50th wedding anniversary open house and for all the lovely cards. Your kindness will never be forgotten. Wilbert and Marion Jahr.

A SPECIAL PERSON went to be with the Lord. He was set free of pain & sorrow. He shall be missed by many family & friends, but his life long message shall live on. "Show your love, be kind and compassionate, do good deeds, smile, wave and say hello, do not speak harshly or criticize others. Accept the Lord and your life long journey will be complete." A special thanks to family & friends for your prayers, cards & support during our Dad's illness & passing. Also, to the Unionville Funeral Chapel, Holy Family Catholic Church for their special prayers, church service & luncheon served after the funeral. Your acts of kindness will never be forgotten. John & Joe Furst & families.
