THE ENTERPRISE... A Western editor thus dums his subscribers: We have on our books the names of many good men, many worthy men, many honest men, who are lamentably behind in their payments.

Unhappily the fraternities to which we belong, is not generally regarded as the cleanest race. No miracle prevents our odds.

Our trousers give way in the most unexpected and inconvenient localities. Our toes poke their noses out to ascertain the state of the weather.

The Lion (Ill) Pioneer, of the 12th ult., says that a grey eagle made a descent upon a colored child three or four years old, near that place a few days since, and came very near capturing him.

U. S. Musical Review... This excellent Magazine for March, containing a choice selection of songs...

THE NEW BRIDGE AT NIAGARA FALLS... The new suspension bridge at the Falls, the first bridge, instead of being a formidable rival...

George W. Bungey will lecture before the Literary Society at Goodyear's Hall, Friday Evening March 31st. Subject, Work and Play.

Mr. Bungey's Lecture is postponed till Tuesday next, at which time our friends may expect a rich treat from this celebrated poet and lecturer...

Mr. James Parson, in the Atlantic for February, has a racy article on smoking. He says he was a smoker for thirty years. His prescription for curing the habit is a stiff glass of whisky and water whenever the inclination to smoke comes on...

The Rocky Mountain Herald advertises for single women. A thousand Yankee girls, it says, could get husbands and homes in Colorado before spring...
