MAT D. BLOSSER, Editor.

MANCHESTER, DEC. 17, 1874.

Village and Country.

We had a slight fall of rain yesterday. The stockholders of the People's Bank had a meeting on Tuesday last.

The crusade has continued again at Davaghin. The Michigan Argus comes to us with a patent outside.

We understood that O. Priest has bought Dr. Conklin's farm. Read the new time card of the D. H. & I. B. R. in another column.

The pork market is getting livelier and prices range from 7 to 8 cents.

We hear many complaints of wood thieves—Keep a sharp look out for them. Pay your taxes before the 1st of January and save additional percentage.

We are pained to learn of the sickness of our worthy postmaster C. W. Bridgwater. By fair the most complete assortment of toys we have seen, is at Conrad Lebus store.

Attend the evening exercises at the Union School building on Friday the 18th. The University boys are expected home tomorrow, Friday, to remain until after New Year.

The Sunday School concert at the M. E. church on Sunday evening last was a good success.

There are now 722 convicts in the State prison. The largest number ever there at one time.

The roads are in excellent condition and a few inches of good snow would make it slip shodding.

The German school has commenced and is now in fine running order. They occupy the Lutheran church.

The Washburn County pioneers will hold a meeting in the village of Dexter on Monday, Feb. 15th, 1874.

These parties who are in the habit of stealing wood, will perhaps be surprised to learn that they are being watched.

Arthur Case enjoyed a ride about town in the hack on Tuesday. He is feeling quite cheerful now and is gaining strength slowly.

The annual meeting of Manchester Grange will be held at their hall on Saturday evening Dec. 19th. Every member should be there.

The telephone announces the finding of Charlie Ross. Two burglars were shot or the 14th who were directly concerned with the abduction.

We learn that a lodge of Sons of Temperance is about to be started in this village. They have received their charter and are arranging for a room.

Mr. & Mrs. A. W. Case returned home from their visit to the state of New York on Friday last. They enjoyed their trip and visit very much.

The New England supper at Goodyear Hall last evening was a success. There were about 200 people in attendance and everything passed off pleasantly.

We devote a considerable amount of our space this week to the President's message. That our readers will find it highly interesting we have no doubt.

M. C. Cranston, one of Van Dusen & Calhoun's traveling agents, died very suddenly at his residence in Dixon, on Wednesday Dec. 23, 1874, of congestion of the brain.

Some of the boys called at the residence of a newly married woman, one night last week, and proceeded to make night hideouts. It was fun for the boys, but death to the neighbors.

The holidays are near at hand and on such occasions almost every body expects to get a present. Our stores are filled with goods suitable for presents and the merchants are very anxious to sell them.

The Flint & Pere Marquette B. R. is now complete to Ludington. S. Case, of our village, and employed in the postal service, says that it makes them scratch to sing the mail between Toledo and Ludington, 230 miles.

Those of our subscribers who reside out of the county must send in their subscription for 1875, for we have to pre-pay the postage on all such papers after the 1st of January. Don't delay, if you want the paper.

Slippery sidewalks, sleigh riding, and all kind of winter works is now in order. No merchant, farmer or private man should be without a Accident Insurance Policy. Call for one of the Travelers Insurance Co. of Hartford at Sam. Kirsh's, Mayor.

Seymour Hammon proprietor of the large cooper shops at East Manchester, has accepted a proposition made by some Ohio parties, to take charge of a shop at Akron, Ohio. The shop in East Manchester will be superintended by Geo. Hammon during the year of Seymour's absence. Mr. Hammon will continue work about the 1st of January. Success to him.

Thanks to Munson Goodyear, Esq., for a choice piece of Buffalo steak. This office will be a money order Post office in July 1875, and not before.

The roll of oil cloth advertised in the Enterprise as lost, was found and returned to this office by L. Kuhl, of Sharon. Many thanks from the owner.

Wood, one of the burglars received from Detroit, on Saturday was recognized as Anderson, who escaped over the wall with a ladder one Sunday morning a year ago.—[Patriot.]

The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, R. R. has just put on a fast stock express train, to compete with the Canada Southern, which makes the run from Chicago to Buffalo in 36 hours. It runs over the Air Line.

The worst toothache or neuralgia, coming from the teeth, may be speedily and delightfully ended by the application of a small bit of clean cotton saturated in a strong solution of ammonia to the defective tooth. Sometimes the late sufferer is prompted to momentary laughter by the application, but the pain has disappeared.

PERSONAL.—D. B. Sherwood, editor of the Saline Review, writes us that he has had another hard pull with the Ashm,.

PAY YOUR TAXES.—E. Case, Township Treasurer, will be at the Post office Friday Dec. 11th and every day thereafter to receive taxes.

HOLIDAY GIFTS!—The best Christmas or New Year presents to any family is a Life Insurance Policy on the low rate cash plan in the Travelers Insurance Co. of Hartford.

RELIGIOUS. Rev. Wm. J. Campbell, of Saline, will occupy the pulpit in the M. E. church in this village on Sunday next, morning and evening. Rev. Geo. W. Lowe will go to Saline.

THE INTERMEDIATE PRISON.—An appeal to the Legislature will probably be made by a large majority of prominent citizens of Grand Rapids, to set aside the Intermediate Prison at Luna.—[Patriot.]

GOVE.—Last week Manchester had two barbers, but on Tuesday night last, one of them, E. C. Fuller.

Leaving his landlord and others without the usual good bye, and the still more essential greenbacks which were their due. It is supposed that he went to Grand Lake but is not known. The old saying "Liberty no great loss without some small gain" will come in play here, but whether Manchester's loss will be Grass Lake's gain is a question.

REBUCKLES.—On Thursday night, last, some sounders took Baxter's indignation and throw it into the front window of the office occupied by Crafts & Higgins, attorneys at law. They also broke the glass in a side window and burst open the door in the rear of the building, opened over and broke the stove, etc. and raised Ned generally. Some of our citizens heard the noise but were too much frightened, or indifferent about it to get up and see what or who it was that made it. These midnight marauders should be captured and punished according to Western law.

AMUSEMENTS.—GOODYEAR HALL.—On this (Thursday) evening our citizens will have the pleasure of listening to and watching the movements of Prof. Martino, America's favorite Illusionist and Ventriloquist, and Miss Gertrude Florence, who will appear in her various specialties of Masks and Faces, which is a very original part of the entertainment. We hope the hall will be crowded.

Goodyear Hall will be the scenes of much merriment on the evening of Friday Dec. 25th, 1874, the occasion being the Christmas party of the Conklins. They are making every effort to receive and entertain the large company which they have invited and we have no doubt they will. Bassett Band will furnish the music. Bill $2.00.

Those who wish to commence the new year in a happy frame of mind will have an opportunity by attending the party at Goodyear Hall on Friday evening, Jan. 1st—1875, given by O. Lehn. Beck's full band of Jackson has been engaged. Supper will be furnished at the hall.—Bill $2.00.

The Young People's Literary and Temperance Union of Clinton, will give one of their pleasing and entertaining exhibitions at Goodyear Hall, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 23d, 1874. The evening program will open with an original comedy, Mrs. Lofy's Tea Party and conclude with the mirth provoking drama, Handy Andy. Music, both vocal and instrumental will be sandwiched between scenes, acts, etc., to make the time pass more pleasantly. Of this troupe of amateurs from one neighboring village of Clinton, we can say but little. They are equally as well versed in the business as our towns people it would be just to suppose, and we have almost always found our home entertainments to be of a better class than many traveling shows. We hope our people will give them a warm reception at least, and we think they will get the worth of their money. Tickets 25 cents.

GOODYEAR HOUSE.—Our readers will remember that the party at the Goodyear House on Friday evening Dec. 20th, 1874, purports to be a grand affair. Those who attended the last party at that house are loud in its praise and the proprietor intends to make this one still better. The Ypsilanti orchestra will furnish music. Bill $2.00.

NOVELL.—Of course our friend Haskell of the Norwell House will come in for his share of patronage on Thursday evening Dec. 24th, 1874, and he hopes it will be the "hoarsest." There being no party elsewhere on that night we presume he will have a full house. Church's full band will furnish music. Bill $2.00.

Business Locals.

WANTED.—A thorough and skillful farmer to take charge of a very fine farm, situated in a pleasant locality, near to business churches and schools. One middle aged with a wife and no children preferred. The best of recommendations and references required. A liberal arrangement will be offered. Also a suitable party wanted to rent or take on shares from one to two hundred acres of land, which is now under good cultivation and favorably and pleasantly situated, a house and barns to be furnished with the land, and some farm implements if required. Parties wishing to correspond in reference to the above, please address W. A., care of G. R. PALMER, Manchester.

If you want a good Dress Coat. If you want a good piece of Cloth, go to the Union Hall Clothing Store.

Any one looking for Holiday Gifts, will find them at the headquarters of old Santa Claus—the Banner Store.

Old and after January 1st, Stark will get nearer the true value of his pictures by advancing 50 per cent. up to his present break rates.
