

MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE. Published Tuesday by M. E. BLOSSER, MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN. THURSDAY, JAN. 4, 1877. CLUBBING RATES. Extraordinary Inducements. The time is arriving at which the people of the county will arrange for their reading matter for the coming year. At the request of many of our readers and to satisfy a desire for the latest literature, we have arranged for doubling the Enterprise at the rates given, with the following first-class publications. The prices given are for both publications. The Enterprise will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Single copies, 5c. Per month, $1.50. Per quarter, $4.50. Per six months, $12.00. Per year, $24.00. Arrangements are being made for a new supply of postage stamps. The Mexican War Vets' meet at the city of Grand Rapids on the 10th inst. John Spaulding and wife, of Marion, Leake county, have been married over 68 years. An exchange says Southwick is scarce and we can't have any pan-cakes. What will we do? Yes, how is to account for that rancid now. In another column will be found the prospectus of the Detroit Tribune. Read carefully and subscribe for it and the Enterprise, at the clubbing price of 83. The Legislature convened yesterday. The incoming Governor's message will doubtless be delivered to-day. Owing to the death of his brother, Gov. Bagley was absent, and his message was therefore read by proxy. Lansing Republicans. The balance of cash in the State Treasury, Dec. 23 was $896,100.21; receipts during the week ending Dec. 30 were $165,321.11; payments during the same time were $1,592.85; balance in treasury Dec. 30, 1876, $788,820.58; decrease for the week $20,779.64. A storm rattled across—On Friday night last, on the Pacific express bound westward and drawn by two engines, was about crossing the river just before reaching Axtabula, Ohio, on the Lake Shore road, the rear engine ran off the track, the bridge gave way, and the locomotive and eleven cars were precipitated a distance of sixty feet, into the abyss. The cars caught fire, and more than one hundred human beings, crushed and mangled amid the debris, perished in the flames. The front engine becoming detached from the train, was carried by its momentum up the incline formed by the falling bridge, and landed on the other side, and reached the far side in safety. A broken rail is supposed to have thrown the rear engine from the track, upon the bridge, a iron structure, which gave way beneath it. BROOKLYN. From Our Own Correspondent. I wonder if your Clinton correspondent writes the readers of the Enterprise to believe that Clinton correspondent does not care a good sherd of Bridge-water, Manchester, Franklin and most of old Tecumseh, and without doubt they would have obtained a slice of Freedom, if it had not been captured by the Dutch beforehand. Geo. W. Greene lost one of his fine horses by bleeding from the lungs one night last week. The horse had a large stack of the epidemic about two weeks since, but was supposed to be nearly well. At the apartment of the D. H. & S. W. Ry. was to live, he had better change the time of the main train. News gets stale when 24 hours old. We don't get our dailies unless about 9 p. m. Dr. Palmer wishes us to say that he will give twenty dollars for the first and conviction of the thief or thieves who shall steal the dollars of F. J. Williams from his farm in Sharon. This is the first week in the new year, and now is a good time to swear of drinking, using tobacco, etc., and then subscribe for the Manchester Enterprise.

CLINTON. According to programme, the Masonic Hall was dedicated on Wednesday evening, the 27th ult., by appropriate ceremony, and addressed by the Hon. Hugh McCurdy, of Covington. Best Grand Master, after which came the supper, which was gotten up and doctored by the ladies. Now do not think we are gossiped about Clinton ladies, but the table was a splendid affair, we never saw it excelled, indeed the public seemed to appreciate it, for $243 were taken in for feeding the crowd. While the stringing strains of Cub Berdan's orchestra. Young Geo. No. 1 had from his ears, and they were very sore, young ears are apt to be. Young Geo. No. 2 came in and took No. 1 by the ear who howled indignantly, begged No. 2 to let go, whereupon he took No. 1 by both ears and raised him out of his chair. Upon No. 2 reaching his feet, he gave No. 2 a bumper on the nose, and his underpinning gave way; when he recovered his feet, No. 1 gave him another lifter over the eye, that killed him the second time, and here the melle ended—it was voted a draw game. Mr. Editor, wouldn't you laugh to see two fat men run a foot race, the one to fall and the other to stumble over him, and both to make a deep furrow in the hard snow, where their protruding stomachs acted the part of a sled runner? Well, some people who have their visibles excited not long since, down this way. Two of those young men that were arrested went to jail for want of bail, and the other was scolded by his father. Your correspondent had designed to give the advancement of this trio, but, perhaps, it will be well to wait for further developments; but this he can say, their previous history is bad, bad, bad. Friday evening there was a picnic in the basement of the M. E. Church, for the Congregational Sunday school. Short and speechy were made by the Revs. W. Wash, Hudson, Husted, and a Theologicalist of Adrian. The juveniles had a glorious, noisy time. Frank Couch, our ticket agent and telegraphic operator, has left us. He has gone to some station south of Chicago, where there is a crossing; he operates for two roads, and gets $20 per month advance in wages. Our Centennial babies are only 29, and it seems the happiest time played off for the next to the last kicked the beam at 24 pounds. Can Brooklyn best that? It is understood here that two of the Oshawa's poultry dealers of Franklin, were absent, and his message was therefore read by proxy. On Monday (New Year Day), the Sabbath school of the M. E. Society had a sleigh ride, and a supper in the basement of that church in the evening. NORWELL. From Our Own Correspondent. On Tuesday the 28th ult. the 74th and last witness in the Smith Ray case was J. D. Cooley, who testified that Mr. Ray was mentally competent. On the following Friday, Judge McFarland rendered his decision to the effect that Mr. Ray was competent and that the will should stand. The decision threw on the contestants all the costs made by the case. The boys said in the event of the case going against them they should appeal to the Circuit Court. The following officers were elected by the Norwell Grange, at its meeting on Dec. 28th, 1876, for the ensuing year: Master—C. A. Brown. Treasurer—J. C. Post. Lecturer—M. J. Post. Secretary—C. H. Fisher. Assistant Secretary—W. B. Bassett. Chaplain—J. P. Merrill. Trowers—E. C. Thayer. Secretary—George R. Brad. Gate-keeper—M. H. Hart. Care-Min. P. C. Cole. Pomona—M. J. Post. From Our Own Correspondent. Norvell can turn out more basters than any village of its size in the State. Some of them are quite expert and do some remarkable stitching in the field and barn, but the close of the season is now in and their occupation is gone for a long time. Miss Mary Harbitt, who lost her gold watch about a year ago, and advertised it in the Enterprise, had it returned to her unimpaired recently by Mr. Hoyt, who found it near Rock Oshawa, in Sharon. A series of meetings is being held nightly in the Baptist Church. The attendance is usually small—the good people in its vicinity seem to be very careless about their spiritual welfare. Great Hay has started a new steam mill here on the Canada side of the river, where he grinds out corn, shingles, etc., and does good work. FROM THE CHIEF. The three Chicago specimens, the practical Priests, Circular, and the vicarious Typo, all come to us laden with a variety of 'good things and desirable. There are 888 convicts in the Prison at Leavenworth.
