

MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE, BY MAT D. BLOSSER.

Whether complaints from all parts of the county and from adjoining towns, but we had no time to write.

Every communication must contain name and address of the writer, and be addressed to the publisher.

THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1877.

The older makers of this State have a reputation at Jackson on the 14th, 15th and 16th inst.

If a law could be made making it unlawful to hunt game with dogs, we think the interest of the State would be better subserved.

Lanning Republican: The balance of cash in the state treasury, Feb. 17, was $868,782.07; receipts during the week ending Feb. 24, were $17,067.18; payments during the same time were $8,923.23; balance in treasury, Feb. 24, 1877, $897,836.96; increase for the week, $8,044.48.

George Griggs, of Onondaga, N. Y., is one of the best farmers in the country, giving a good prescription for the California or Texas fever. It is as follows: "Michigan is a good State to stay in, and a good State to own a farm in. I know of no more promising country, especially for a determined young man of moderate capital. The man who secures and cultivates his farm, will, as a class, make the best showing of the results of their labor long before this generation passes away."

A BIT OF EXPERIENCE.

The Red Ribbon temperance movement carries the mind back to the days of the old Washingtonians, and it is to be hoped that "popularity" will not be boded this later movement for a hobby, and finally cash in its good results by being unscrupulously grasping by men, not reformed drunkards, but who, having the gift of gab well developed, elbow aside the poor reformed drunkard, with his homely but impressive recital of what he has passed through, as was the case with the old Washingtonian movement. People who come to listen to the interesting and impressive "experiences" of those who had passed through the valley of the shadow of death, as it were, found themselves loved by a better reason than by some prosy preacher, who would preach any church empty in two weeks, or some big-headed disciple of Fourierism, or some "ology" who would drill resolutions by the yard.

Between the two, and their college discussions over impossible plans of "legal sessions," the people had interest, thousands of reformed drunkards relate, and the great Washingtonian movement was well established. Monarchs in the house of the friends.

AN UNEXPECTED EVENT.

2,000 persons in New York city alone are known to be slaves to a perverted appetite for opium and morphine.

One of our most eminent physicians who can tell the number in this nation, in every village of the size of Manchester, is ten who are suffering the misery of "hell upon earth," as it is termed by one of its most gifted writers, pronounced by opium? Never referred to as a habit, but fallen into this position, the doctor thought this too small compensation for appetite for artificial stimulants, and he was fastened upon themselves the club of a train down to the one from which they have just escaped.

Our readers would be interested if they knew the number of equalities in our country. Many persons who are slaves to a morbid appetite for alcoholic liquors, opium and tobacco, will sign a pledge to abstain from the first, but still retain the other.

In fact often increase their use in consequence of feeding the law of the former, a mistake, seemingly of no account, but the result will be one of no less a nature, as the word of caution dropped in season by the friends of temperance, may save many from untold misery.
