MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE PUBLISHED THURSDAYS

News of the Week
The President has nominated Andrew D. White, of New York, Minister to Germany, and Cornelius A. Logan, of Illinois, Minister to the Central American States.

George W. C. Johnston, a prominent and successful politician, and for two years Mayor of Cincinnati, died, a few days ago, a lingering illness of a complicated character.

Cheyenne succeeded in Little Wolf and three other developments of Cheyenne Indians has surrendered to Lieutenant Johnson, of the Second Cavalry, on Box Elder Creek, Montana, without resistance.

The State Treasurer Emile has occurred in the House of Representatives to compromise the State debt at fifty cents, with four per cent interest, to be submitted to the people for ratification, if the bondholders accept the proposition.

Ken Stephens Hanged.
Patrick Smith and James Christian, negro, convicted of the murder of John C. Lay, on the 17th of January last, were hanged by the gallows at the State Prison, south of the Indian Territory, but acknowledged that they may be and they were given money to buy those of their number who must die on route of Washington and the other States. Several days before the execution, Smith was known in Washington, and all help must come from there. His only friends were those who were already in jail.

Little Wolf and his band of Cheyenne Indians, numbering thirty-five, were taken to two hundred and fifty points, were captured by Lieutenant Clarke, of the second cavalry, with eighty men on Box Elder Creek, near Yellowstone River.

A Child Struck to Death.
The wife of John Bold, of Indianapolis, left their two year old son at home alone when she returned to work. The child, who was in the kitchen, was struck by a hot iron and died.

Captain Ed. O'Meara, of Chicago, who, it is remembered, was incarcerated in a prison for eleven years, for Emancipation, was released by the State of Illinois, but has been arrested on a charge of being a vagrant.

A brickman named Alfred Hanks fell into a hole in a brick wall, and was run over by a freight train and killed. The body was recovered and the brickman was buried.

Accident on the Grand Trunk.
The engine and the passenger car of the Grand Trunk Railway were derailed near the town of Waterloo, Ontario, Canada. The engine was wrecked and the passenger car was overturned. Several people were injured.
