THE ENTERPRISE

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 23 1880

With brighter prospects for the future than ever before, the ENTERPRISE brings a new volume this number being the first of the year.

We will not make any promise of the future; our record in the past is sufficient evidence that the ENTERPRISE will be kept in the front rank of local family newspapers, and that improvements will be made when an opportunity offers.

Our list of subscribers has increased during the past year by an amount that we have no means of ascertaining, and the next three months will bring large additions to our list. We welcome all who stand ready to back up the assertion that we will give the best country newspaper in this section. We give more "local news" by half than any other paper, and have a larger number of correspondents.

We thank our friends for their patronage in the past and hope to receive their favors in the future. For terms see article in another column.

Governor Osceola and his making a six weeks' sojourn in California.

A sharp perceptible decline that would be economical for those intending to purchase ammoniacs, to wit, a decline, as they are liable to be down.

A Detroit capitalist has proposed that the "wastings" used by the city be donated to the city, about 60 acres of land bought, and a permanent exposition established.

The New York Daily Graphic, of the 20th, has illustrations of many of the fine buildings. There is probably no other in the west that has more attractive looking buildings, etc., than that of the strain.

Peter Dow has been re-nominated by acclamation for state senator from Orleans county. No man has done more for the progress of the state than Mr. Dow.

The barometry of barbed wire fences has been illustrated by the loss of one horse, and the second injury of another, in the township of York.

The October Scribner, the closing number of the twentieth volume, opens with a special feature, a series of "American Sports," on "Porpoise shooting," by Charles C. Ward, accompanied by some striking illustrations by Burns, Share and Gibson.

Ex-governor J. J. Bagley has ordered to be sent to the university the portraits of all the presidents of the United States, from Washington down to the present time, which he has ordered to be placed in the museum or library as thought best.

The balance of cash in the state treasury September 11, was $1,245,251.25; receipts for the week ending September 18, were $12,315.23; payments for the same time $8,509.47; leaving a balance September 18, 1880, of $1,259,057.08; increase for the week, $6,605.82.
