

Manchester Enterprise
BY WAT D. BLOSSER.
PUBLISHED AT THE OFFICE OF THE MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE, 100 N. WASHINGTON ST., MANCHESTER, MICH., FRIDAY, JUNE 8, 1882.

THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1882.
The total number of prisoners in the state prison, May 31st, were 659.

And now a newspaper has started the report that a woman saw a flying saucer.

She was a blue-eyed, sweet-faced girl, and when she asked the country fair, "Why are the best of things made of wood?" she answered, "Because they are the only things that are not made of wood."

CLINTON.
Danforth Greig went to Detroit Tuesday to serve as a juror in the United States court.

Mr. & Mrs. Geo. Allen, at present in such cases, are enjoying over the advent of such an our trip.

Our dramatic club are soon to give an entertainment, entitled "The Turn of the Tide." Next week we can give date and more particulars.

The editor of the Tekonoma News offers to back his office "devil" against any other office in the state.

JACKSON COUNTY ITEMS.
A turtle weighing 27 pounds was caught in the lake at Waterloo recently.

A man in Jackson is bound to have his first wife buried.

Cornelius Soper, a wealthy and respected citizen of Grand Lake, died Tuesday, aged 75.

E. L. Lovjoy, car dealer in Jackson, has made an assignment. Liabilities, $6,500; assets, $2,400.

Chas. Burhans, a freeman on the Michigan Central railroad, had his foot crushed by the cars at Jackson, last Friday.

TECUMSEH COUNTY ITEMS.
Tecumseh contemplates celebrating the fourth.

Prof. Hammond of Tecumseh will be superintendent of Tecumseh school, next year.

There will be nine graduates from the Tecumseh high school this month—all young ladies.

John Corson of Tecumseh has lost three children by diphtheria within six days. The third was buried on Friday.

NORVELL FARMER'S CLUB.
The meeting of the club was to have been held at the residence of John M. Herring on Saturday, May 27th, but the inclement weather of that day prevented and the meeting was extended to our home and home on Monday, May 29th. The attendance was excellent and the entertainment would be any one who reads that the house was well filled, all the members except two being present, the presentation being a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

At the residence of G. A. Austin, May 24th, there was a meeting of pioneers, or a social gathering of old friends from Sharon, Napoleon, and Napoleon. We feel assured that it was an enjoyable time.

John Corson of Tecumseh has lost three children by diphtheria within six days. The third was buried on Friday.
