

Manchester Enterprise

BY MAT D. BLOSSER

Entered at the Post-Office at Manchester as Second-Class Matter.

We solicit correspondence and news items from all the surrounding towns.

Any one desiring to become a regular contributor should send a letter to the editor.

Every communication must contain the name and address of the writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

We are not held responsible for sentiments expressed by writers.

When advertising in this paper, please make the order clearly and legible, and do not allow the printer to make any alterations.

All articles for publication should be addressed MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE, Manchester, N. H.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1888

A hillside lady has a cynamon plant which has 215 blossoms.

The regents estimate that it will cost $223,971.49 to run the university the present year.

Of the eight prisoners who recently escaped from the state prison at Concord five have been recaptured.

We learn that a new telegraph company has been organized in this city.

L. H. Bailey of Van Buren county, one of the largest apple growers in the state, says he can raise more money out of apples at 25 cents per bushel than wheat at 81.

Citizen: On and after Monday, Nov. 19th the Ft. Wayne branch of the L. & M. & St. H. will run twice a week, having completed the new track from Hilldale to the old Ft. Wayne road.

The press of the county are making a general outcry against the sale of fish literature to young boys. It is generally conceded that this unwholesome literature does more harm to children than almost any other one cause.

The Michigan Central, though the last to succumb, has finally decided to adopt the new standard which will also effect on this line Sunday.

General passenger agent W. P. Johnson left Chicago Tuesday morning on a special train with his baggage and traveling agents to view the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railroad, its cutting, the new tracks, and to visit every point on the entire route.

The Michigan merino sheep breeders' association of which C. M. Fellows of Sharon, is president, has its annual meeting at Lansing, December 18th to 20th inclusive, round trip tickets, good from December 18th to 21st inclusive, good for one day and a third fare on all rail roads connecting with the city of Lansing, Michigan.

A committee from the board of supervisors of Lenawee county were in the city last Thursday and examined the sewerage building—Ann Arbor Register. We hope the board will profit from the mistakes made in our court house, and build an edifice which will not only be convenient for business purposes, but also a credit to the county.

An exchange talk about a man who gets rid of woodchucks by filling a small paper bag with blasting powder and after inserting a piece of fuse three feet in length pushes the whole affair into the hole leaving a few inches of fuse sticking out. After filling the mouth of the hole with dirt the fuse is lighted, and when the explosion takes place a sufficient amount of carbon and sulphur gases are created to kill the woodchuck.

From the Michigan crop report for October we find that there were marketed during that month 1,286,718 bushels of wheat of which Lenawee county marketed 118,807 bushels, Jackson 150,220 bushels, and Washtenaw 95,988 bushels. In the southern part of the wheat crop of 1888 weighs 74 per cent of full weight, or less than an even half-bushel would weigh.

The Clifton Herald man recommends a Chicago paper to his patrons and says it reaches them four hours earlier than either of the Detroit papers. That he is mighty reckless in what he says need not get worried. If he had said four hours later he would have counted pretty dead it. Don't say Detroit paper for one of Chicago.

News was received by telephone today of a terrible and maddening murder near Horton, this week. The victim was a young boy named Joseph, four years old, who was killed by a bullet from a gun.

News was received by telephone today of a terrible and maddening murder near Horton, this week. The victim was a young boy named Joseph, four years old, who was killed by a bullet from a gun.

News was received by telephone today of a terrible and maddening murder near Horton, this week. The victim was a young boy named Joseph, four years old, who was killed by a bullet from a gun.

News was received by telephone today of a terrible and maddening murder near Horton, this week. The victim was a young boy named Joseph, four years old, who was killed by a bullet from a gun.

News was received by telephone today of a terrible and maddening murder near Horton, this week. The victim was a young boy named Joseph, four years old, who was killed by a bullet from a gun.

News was received by telephone today of a terrible and maddening murder near Horton, this week. The victim was a young boy named Joseph, four years old, who was killed by a bullet from a gun.

Clinton

Prof. W. Wendell of the Hudson high school was in town over Sunday.

Rev. F. J. Bronson of Napoleon, and Rev. J. W. Payne of this place exchanged pulpits last Sunday.

Solomon Brown has moved his feed store to the street into one of the rooms which he purchased lately.

Prof. R. L. Cromack gave eloquent exercises at the town hall Friday evening of last week. Mr. C. is a fine speaker, rarely equaled.

CHELENA

There are two new cases of scarlet fever in town.

Anna Lippencott of Almont, is visiting Mrs. John R. Gates.

Mrs. G. P. Glazier spent last week with her father in Parma.

Mrs. Dr. Palmer spent the latter part of last week with her parents in Hartford.

They are getting a hop to some of the on Thanksgiving evening at the town hall.

Mrs. Kate Harrison is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. W. R. Reynolds, in Jackson.

Mrs. F. H. Sweetland has returned from Ann Arbor where she has been visiting Mrs. C. W. Wagon.

NORVELL

John A. Miller of Albion, was in town on business Monday and Tuesday.

Frank Austin has gone to Clark to visit friends and dispose of a work team.

If reports are true orange blossoms will be in good demand in Norvell this winter.

Mrs. A. J. Williams of Mason, has been visiting friends in this vicinity, and returned home on Tuesday.

E. P. Burgess has gone quail hunting near Monroe, and expects to take a trip into Ohio over the next week.

The V. J. E. company will give an entertainment at the hotel Friday evening, W. C. Sharp of Brooklyn manager.

Wilson Chaffee has been visiting a few weeks with his daughter, Mrs. Harris, at Tompkins, and returned home on Tuesday accompanied by her.

There was a surprise party at Alvina Hunt's on Wednesday the 14th inst, it being his 70th birthday. Among those present were his brother, sister, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

The Catholics of Ann Arbor have organized a branch of the national Father Mathew total abstinence society to be called the Father Van Erp branch.

Jerry Horgan, station agent, spent Saturday in Manchester.

Mrs. A. J. Scott of Detroit, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Burns.

School district No. 1 opened last Monday with Miss Edie Hood as teacher.

One of our school keepers got into a row last week, the result was a black eye.

Jack Flavian is building a blacksmith shop intending to do his own blacksmithing.

Miss Libbie Nisley of Saline, has been visiting her relatives and friends the past week.

Mrs. Thee Fitzsimons of Jackson, has been visiting her parents the past week, returning home on Saturday.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Leaue County Items.

The Adrian College have officially adopted the standard time.

A new $5000 bridge will be built over the Raisin at Adrian, on the road leading to the reform school.

Hiram Adams, one of the early promoters of Tecumseh, died Sunday night. He had been ill for several months.

The Mayor of Adrian, is authorized to employ a private detective and make an effort to catch some of the scoundrels who infest that city.

Adrian Times: There was a very pleasant surprise party at Mr. Charles Poucher's home, at Adrian Center, last evening. It was Mr. P.'s 48th birthday, and his wife and daughter arranged for a surprise for him, inviting in some forty of his neighbors and friends. These guests showed their appreciation of Mr. Poucher by presenting him with a very handsome and substantial chair.

Washenaw County Items.

Devil children have the diptheria.

The Observer signs for an opera house at Saline.—Register. What size.

The Chelsea schools are closed for lack of the prevalence of scarlet fever.

About 4,000 persons have signed the temperance pledge in Ann Arbor recently and wear the blue ribbon.

The new school house in Keeler's district in Chelsea is completed and now they are hunting for a teacher to conduct the school.

The Ann Arbor telephone exchange has 39 subscribers, and during the month of October the office handled 1,100 twenty cent messages.

Ann Arbor schoolmen are considering some entertainment with which to raise means in order to give a bicycle tournament in that city next spring.

A university correspondent to the Ypsilanti says that "McMahon ran for president of the freshman class and was defeated by a small majority."

A conductor on the Toledo railroad was arrested and fined an Ann Arbor last week for obstructing a street crossing over 20 minutes with his train.

We learn that Ira Glover of Sylvan, who had his jaw broken in three places some weeks since by a runaway team near Chelsea, is now able to be out.

The Catholics of Ann Arbor have organized a branch of the national Father Mathew total abstinence society to be called the Father Van Erp branch.

Jerry Horgan, station agent, spent Saturday in Manchester.

Mrs. A. J. Scott of Detroit, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Burns.

School district No. 1 opened last Monday with Miss Edie Hood as teacher.

One of our school keepers got into a row last week, the result was a black eye.

Jack Flavian is building a blacksmith shop intending to do his own blacksmithing.

Miss Libbie Nisley of Saline, has been visiting her relatives and friends the past week.

Mrs. Thee Fitzsimons of Jackson, has been visiting her parents the past week, returning home on Saturday.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

The carpenter has nearly finished their work on H. Gardner's residence, which is one of the finest in town.

Members of St. John's German church, are building a hall for their teams; some of them that has been wanted.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the Bridgewater postoffice: Mrs. Emma Allen, Christina Kessler, Frank W. Satterly, Mrs. Christina Green.

Jackson County Items.

The Raisin Valley seminary is now on the telephone line, and we had a very pleasant chat with superintendent Ely Tuesday morning.

Mr. Ed. Halliday of Napoleon, had 50 fat spring chickens stolen one night recently, and is thoroughly disgusted with the depravity of mankind—chicken thieves in particular.

A number of Adrian people had some rather exciting experience with footpads and burglars last Saturday and Sunday evenings, but in every instance the miscreants were frightened away before any very serious damage was done.

Real Estate Transfers.

JACKSON COUNTY.

John Close to Wm. Heller, 154 2/3 Acres, on sections 28, 29 and 30, in Grass Lake, $5,800.

Phillip Gardner to Andrew Wilcox and Honor Wilcox, 3 Acres on section 20, in Napoleon, $1,000.

Charles F. Culler to John Martin Rowley, 10 1/2 in Block 11 in Taylor's addition to the village of Grass Lake, $500.

John W. Knight to Charles Theodore Boehlisch and Fred John Ischellbach, 320 acres on section 7 in Grass Lake, $10,000, WASHTENAW COUNTY.

Alfred C. Tury to Wm. Kent, lot in Manchester, $100.

Joseph McMahon to Thomas J. Farrell, lot in Manchester, $5,250.

Thomas J. Farrell to Joseph McMahon, lot in Manchester, $1,500.

The friends of Albion College propose changing the name to Albany university in honor of Bishop Ashby and to raise half a million dollars as a permanent endowment.

Miscellaneous.

LUKES' LONDON CARDS.

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEARS.

CHRISTMAS CARDS.

ELEGANT FRINGED CARDS.

LONDON PHOTOGRAPHS.

Birthday Cards.

NOVEMBER SQUARES.

FOR BIRTHDAY PRESENTS.

FOR SALE.

MY FARM.

200 ACRES UNDER PLOW.

60 Acres of Wheat.

A LARGE FRAME HOUSE.

CAN MAKE THEIR OWN TERMS.

JOHN W. KNIGHT.

