BUT I SAID TO MY HEART.

"Bessie, dear child," my father said, "Fred has just a thousand years; and you're to buy him diamonds to make the how will you dress my dear?"

SENTENCED TO SIBERIA.

A Nihilist's Experience Between His Arrest in Kiev, and His Escape to Irkutsk.

On the night on February 11, 1879, in the city of Kiev, Mrs. Kossarovsky's house, then occupied by the Nihilist brothers Ivchevich, was regularly besieged and captured by the gendarmes at the point of bayonets.

On the same night in another house I was arrested and brought to the same police building. My comrades there, N. Posen and H. Nihil-Hamensky were standing with their arms tightly bound behind their backs and held by gendarmes.

On the next day we were transferred to the fortress where scores of our friends had been pining for years, waiting for the "quick and just trial" which has been solemnly promised by the Czar Alexander.

however, we dressed alike. We had caftans of a coarse, gray cloth, with two diamond-shaped yellow patches on our backs to signify that we were sentenced to hard labor.

From Kiev we went by railroad in a special prison car, accompanied by gendarmes. Then we passed Orel, Moscow, and reached Nijni-Norgorod.

Then we were placed in a barge, which was towed by a steamer. Then again we were taken to the famous Siberian road. It is a common post route, with three telegraph wires stretched on one side.

We made two hundred miles and reached Tiumen. From that town up Tomsk we were taken along with hundreds of common criminals in a barge.

We ran up the Ob. The prisoners, called our barge a poultry house, because it was covered with chickens.

On the second day we were put into the same barge with two other prisoners. The barge was divided into four unequal parts, to-wit: a large hall for male prisoners, a family room, a room for noblemen, and the guards room.

Besides the officer and the soldiers two men play an important role in the prisoner's life. Each group of prisoners elects from among themselves the elder, who serves as the common interest, representing the others before the authorities.

On the route we often met with runaways. The guards did not bother with them. Sometimes conversations were held between the runaways and the prisoners.

"Hullo, Ivan, you are again in the regulars!" a runaway would remark. "Hullo, Senor, are you not satisfied with free board?" a prisoner would retort.

The condition of the political prisoners was far better than that of the capital criminals. The political prisoners got fifteen copecks per day, while the capital criminals had a separate room for themselves.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 21, 1884.

The nationals renominated Begole for governor, and the democrats indorse it.

The republicans of this district nominated Capt. E. P. Allen for congressman, at Adrian to-day.

Mr. Brezee, editor in chief of the Detroit Evening Journal, bounced out C. M. Hubbard, of the editorial staff, a few days ago, and it is hoped the purity of the Journal will be re-established.

The Ann Arbor Register commenting on the probable democratic candidates for office in this county, says: There is not much dispute over county clerk. John J. Robison, of Sharon, has made such an excellent official, and is moreover so clearly entitled to renomination by precedent, that there will be little or no opposition to him among his democratic brethren. Among those who are willing to be county treasurer are Fred. H. Belsor, of Ann Arbor, the present efficient deputy treasurer, and Jacob Blum, of Bridgewater. Hudson T. Morton, of Ann Arbor, is also mentioned. For prosecuting attorney there are two candidates, E. B. Norris, of Manchester, and Frank E. Jones, of Saline. Norris is said to have the deadwood on the nomination. He is a smart lawyer and as good as any democrat. For judge of probate there are but two prominent candidates among the democrats, Judge W. D. Harriman, of this city, the present incumbent, and George W. Turnbull, of Chelsea. Among the nine named for sheriff are Timothy McKone, of Chelsea, James Kelly, of Manchester, and John Gillen, of Saline.

We glean the following from the Michigan crop report of August 1st: "The weather during harvest time was exceptionally fine. Light frosts were observed on the mornings of the 8th and 9th. It is now extremely dry, making it difficult to plow for fall seeding. Warmer weather and rain are greatly needed. Wheat and hay have been secured in excellent condition and are of superior quality. Wheat seems to be yielding better than was anticipated, and it is probable that the aggregate product will exceed the estimate of one month ago. Corn promises, in the southern four tiers of counties, 80 per cent., and in the counties north of the southern four tiers 99 per cent., the comparison being with growth and vitality of average years. Oats are estimated to yield about 33 bushels and barley 24 1/2 bushels per acre. The yield of hay per acre was about 16 per cent less in quantity, but much better in quality than in 1883. Meadows and pastures and clover sown this year have been badly injured by the drouth. Apples seem to promise about two-thirds and peaches one-fifth of an average crop. The amount of wheat marketed in July was, Lenawee, 5,166, Jackson 12,323 and Washtenaw 11,312 bushels.

The Man with the Fog Horn.

Capt. E. P. Allen, "the noblest Roman of them all," is generally mentioned in connection with that euphonious Greek name, Ypsilanti, though he belongs to the whole county of Washtenaw. He is built on a large scale all over. He is tall. There is a good big distance between his shoulders; his head is large, and so are his brains and his ideas. He is now 45 years old. He looks younger. His hair is light brown and his moustache of the same color, while the rest of his face is always smoothly shaven. His countenance at first appears severe, but any impression of this sort vanishes as soon as acquaintance discloses the open hearted and sincere nature of the man. Mr. Allen enlisted in the 29th Michigan Infantry, and was commissioned first lieutenant, subsequently made adjutant and was finally made captain of Co. H. He was mustered out of the service in September of 1865. He was elected to the house of representatives in 1870 and again in 1878 and did duty on important committees both sessions, and at the latter one was speaker pro tem. Captain Allen is a stalwart republican and a strong speaker. He frequently talks during campaigns and seldom escapes a call for a speech at local republican gatherings. Capt. Allen is at present interested in a meeting to be held at Adrian on August 21st. At that time the republicans will name the next congressman from the second district, and the captain hopes to be the man. Every republican in Washtenaw county and many in Hillsdale and Lenawee share in this hope, and will be immensely gratified to see it realized. -Detroit Post, Aug. 14.

CLINTON.

Rev. J. W. Payne gives his last sermon here next Sunday. The M. E. Sunday-school had a picnic at Wampler's lake last Saturday. Grace Alvord, daughter of Dr. A. W. Alvord, was in town on Friday of last week. Mrs. O. Heath and daughter have gone to Sheboygan Falls, Wis., to join the husband and father. Rev. Miller has been afflicted with erysipelas of the face, so that he was compelled to vacate his pulpit for the past two Sundays. On Tuesday the baptists had a picnic at Wampler's lake, and on Wednesday the episcopals and congregationalists each had a picnic, the former at Sand lake, the latter at Wampler's.

NORVELL.

Frank Lewis, of Jackson, was in town on Tuesday. Mrs. Julia Kay visited friends in Tecumseh over Sunday. A number of village people had a picnic at Wolf lake on Wednesday. George Post, of Akron, N. Y., has been visiting friends in this vicinity. The Bancroft family, 21 in all, have been camping out at Wolf lake for a week. E. C. Thayer attended the state national convention, held in Detroit on the 19th. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wertz, of Toledo, were guests of Samuel Hurlbut on Sunday. Rev. E. B. Sutton, of Adrian, delivered a temperance lecture in the church last Sunday evening.

BROOKLYN.

Percy T. Cook, of Grand Rapids, is visiting Brooklyn friends this week. A. P. Cook goes to Grand Rapids as a delegate to the democratic state convention. A. H. Palmer and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with Bridgewater friends. Mrs. Hattie and Miss Rosie Woodward start for St. Ignace on Friday for a pleasure trip. The opinion seems to be gaining ground that the boy drowned here in June last was pushed in, instead of its being an accident. The members of the presbyterian church of this village are putting into the same a new carpet and also resating. The work is expected to be complete this week, in which case dedicatory services will be held on Sunday next.

WAMPLER'S LAKE.

Not long ago some canines killed four sheep for Peter Cash. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Aylsworth visited in Morenci over Sunday. The painters were at W. Aylsworth's last week and put on the first coat. Mrs. A. Shults, of Dansville, has been visiting her son Frank and sister, Mrs. B. Pay, the past two weeks. There has only been one slight shower since harvest commenced and the pastures and corn fields are all drying up. Miss Maud Lapham, of Clinton, formerly of this place, has been visiting friends here for the past two weeks. She was the guest of Miss Minnie Main last Sunday. The highway commissioner of Norvell has expended the $100 voted by the town, on the county line hill. Now the people ought to make a bee some day and make it passable. The Iron Creek people will hold their annual picnic at Akin's grove next Saturday, and have kindly invited the lake people to unite with them. The invitation will be accepted and a glorious time is anticipated.

SHARON.

The farmers' festival will be an enjoyable affair. Bert Rowe will have a peanut stand at the picnic. Bert Osborn is visiting Elmer Cushman, at Delhi Mills. Mrs. E. P. Allen, of Ypsilanti, is visiting at her father's, Samuel Cushman's. Mr. Dubois is having a foundation built under his house at the Hollow. The fire seen in Sharon last Friday was a burning straw stack on Wait Peck's farm. James Robison has gone to Ann Arbor to see his ma. He will remain there about a week. We learn that Mr. and Mrs. George Cook, of Battle Hill, Kan., formerly of this township, have lost their son Clyde. Cor. Chelsea Herald. Mrs. Victoria Annabi, a former resident of Sharon, but for several years past a resident of California, has returned to spend the summer with relatives and friends. The little home of widow Cook, just north of Harry Blackman's, was burned to the ground on Tuesday. The fire originated in the chimney and the loss is estimated at about $300, with no insurance. The church folks had a meeting on Tuesday to decide as to whether or not they were in favor of uniting with Manchester, and have both churches under one charge. They were opposed to the scheme by a large majority. The Enterprise is offered to New Subscribers from now until January 1st for only 50 cents. Call or send in your name, with the money, and we will forward the paper promptly.

FREEDOM.

Miss Sophia Kroebe has been quite sick, but is better now. The carpenters have begun work on C. Wooster's new house. Miss Nellie Clancy, of St. Johns, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Phillip Kross. The people of Freedom and vicinity will hold a picnic in Henry Reno's grove, just north of Herman Berkey's house, on Saturday, August 30th. The exercises will consist of singing, speaking, reading poems and history of town, games of amusement, etc. A band will be in attendance. Every one invited to come with lunch baskets, and have a good time. Lenawee County Items.

Lenawee County Items.

The residence of Milligan Brown, of Adrian, was broken into last Friday night and robbed of $915 in greenbacks. The Lenawee county soldiers' association and the 17th Michigan hold their reunion at Devil's lake, August 26-28. As village sexton, John McConnell, of Tecumseh, is an old timer, but he has been laid on the shelf by the common council. What's the trouble? D. Woodward, of Clinton, reports fruit growing a success, and is more sanguine than the Irishman making maple sugar, who, if he liked the business would follow it the year round.—Adrian Press.

Jackson County Items.

Barnum's show will be in Jackson on the 28th. The News says the Grass Lake band contemplate getting new instruments. Squire Pelton, of Grass Lake, is trying the Ypsilanti water cure for biliousness. Michael Crosby, of Jackson, aged 56, died suddenly on Friday evening from an overdose of morphine, taken to relieve pain. Matthew Duffy, of Jackson, who has done night work on the M. C. R'y for 12 years, was brought home from Chicago last Friday evening, a raving maniac, and locked up because of violence. His insanity was caused by overwork.

Beal Estate Transfers.

Marcus D. Case to Charles Unterkircher Manchester lot, $200. Catherine E. Howe to M. D. Case, Manchester lot, $175. Geo. G. Matthews to George M. and Ann Sutton, Manchester, 29 1/2 acres, $1,050. If you are in need of a few pretty cards to complete your album call at the ENTERPRISE office and see our stock. The state prison inspectors estimate the appropriation to be asked for next winter at $14,000. Counterfeit silver dollars, dated 1884, are said to be in circulation.

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES.

School days draw nigh. What about that Lansing excursion? The new wheat makes splendid flour. School meeting Monday evening, Sept. 1st. Hay fever patients are getting numerous. We have had some very hot weather the past week. This hot weather is very uncomfortable for sick people. They have begun laying the foundation for the Watkins block. The Washington street sewer will be built as soon as possible. Pack your dinner in a basket and go to the Bridgewater picnic on Saturday. Freeman & Burtless have bought about 165,000 pounds of wool this season. What about those reservoirs the council were going to build this summer? Sandford's creamery is a god send to lovers of buttermilk, this hot weather. Kingsley has made several of the Purinton steamers for the agent, Mr. Mead. Engine Company No. 1 was out last Thursday night practicing, and filled the reservoir. The boys are ready to bet their buttons on a skating race between Will Bailey and John Kremer. A party of villagers went huckleberrying last Monday in Rhead & Palmer's marsh, near Norvell. An exchange speaks of the Tecumseh Herald as a republican paper. If Scove sees that, how he will kick. The water is very low in the river, and the stench from the decaying weeds is disagreeable, besides being unhealthy. The roller skaters of this village talk of going to Tecumseh on the evening of the opening of the skating rink there. Wm. Brighton has a flowing well on his place. He will save the cost of a pump and the labor of drawing water. Home grown watermelons are in market in neighboring towns, and lovers of the fruit are wishing for a good load to arrive here. The Purinton steam heater is in great favor with those who have greasy clothes to wash, as it takes it all out and leaves the fabric clean. The Sunday-school excursion and picnic to Watkins will be on Wednesday of next week, as they were unable to get coaches on Tuesday. The Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday-schools will hold a union picnic at "Fairview," near Watkins Station, next Wednesday. They go by rail. We are in receipt of a card of admission to the sixth annual fair of the western Michigan agricultural and industrial society, at Grand Rapids, Sept. 22d to 26th inclusive. The September issue of Outing concludes the fourth volume of this popular and rapidly growing out door magazine. It is a number of substantial excellence, both in literary matter and illustration. Messrs. Green & Green are receiving their fall stock of clothing. We stepped into their store yesterday and found it crammed full of new goods of the latest styles. Look for their new advertisement next week. Arrangements have been made for a one-half mile race between L. J. Wood, of Jackson, the best fast eater in the state, and Frank Leach, of Chelsea, running at the rink on Tuesday evening, August 28th. We are in receipt of a pamphlet pertaining to the St. Louis, Mo., fair and zoological gardens. The fair, which has always been a big show, is expected to beat all former efforts this year. The date is October 6th to 11th.

PERSONAL.

James Yerdon has been quite sick. Dave Woodward, of Clinton, was in town to-day. Miss Minnie Lehn is visiting in Tecumseh this week. Frank Merriman, of Grass Lake, spent a few days in town last week. Miss Mill, of Detroit, a relative of A. T. Bruegel, is visiting in town. Miss May Munger is rusticated on her father's farm near Grass Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brower, of Grass Lake, were in town on Sunday. Rev. Munger is visiting at his son's at Chippewa Lake, Mecosta county. Miss Myra Smith, of Greenville, is visiting at Frank Spafard's this week. Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Cooklin, of Tecumseh, came here to remain over Sunday. Miss Fannie Haynes, of Grass Lake, is expected here this week to visit friends. Miss Keck, of Ann Arbor, visited her sister, Mrs. Wm. Dieterle, a few days last week. Mrs. E. S. Cushman, of Delhi Mills, has been visiting relatives in this vicinity this week. Will Bessac, of Milan, a son of Dr. H. B. Bessac, is spending the week with relatives in this village. Mr and Mrs. A. V. Robison, of Ann Arbor, spent a few days in town last week visiting friends. Sam. Brayman left here on Monday morning for Cadillac. He has had a gay visit with friends here. Valentine Heim, of Bridgewater, left here yesterday for a four weeks' sojourn in Caro, Tuscola county. George Miles, the genial editor of the Vanderbilt Review, writes that it is hot enough to melt a man up there. We learn that James Hood, of Sharon, had another stroke of paralysis on Saturday, and is in a critical condition. Mrs. C. B. Sheffer, of Chicago, and her sister, Miss Jennie Weber, of Bucyrus, Ohio, are visiting at Dr. Taylor's. R. T. Van Valkenburg has recovered from his injuries and sickness, so that he was able to ride to town last week. Ann Arbor Democrat. N. Schmid, of Manchester, visited his mother, Mrs. C. Schmid, of South Main street, Sunday. Ara Palmer, agent for the L. S. & M. S. Ry., at Brooklyn, went to Bridgewater on Saturday afternoon to visit his parents. Mrs. A. G. Amsden and children, of Chicago, arrived here on Saturday to spend the week visiting relatives and friends. We learn with sadness that the friends of C. W. Clough, of Brooklyn, have fear that he will not live long. He is now in Kansas. Miss Josie Sherwood, who has been the guest of A. H. Green for several weeks, returned home to Charlotte last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hewett of Detroit, came here last week, and we learn that they intend to make this place their future home. We learn that Henry Townsend, of Klinger's Lake, who is a postal clerk on the fast mail, has been obliged to take a lay off for needed rest. D. G. Rose, of Sharon, who has been seeing what he could discover in the northwest and the Rocky Mountains, started for home yesterday. R. W. Comstock, of Sharon, went to Jackson last Thursday, and we learn that it was his first trip north by rail, though he has lived there 22 years. Miss Ella Brown and brother George, of Jackson, came down on Friday to visit a few days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baxter. Miss Louise Thayer, of Norvell, is keeping house for Esquire Perkins, during Minnie's absence at the teachers' institute in Dexter this week. J. S. Dewey and family, of Chicago, who have been enjoying the country air while guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mat D. Blosser, returned home last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Case, of this village, attended the farmers' picnic held at Clark's lake, Jackson county, last Thursday, and report having had a gay time. Democrat. E. B. Norris, of Manchester, is the only candidate for the office of prosecuting attorney on the democratic ticket. No one else in the party wants the office—at least that is the talk. Among those who attended the teachers' institute at Dexter this week were: Misses Alice Richmond, Minnie Perkins, May Hunt, Stella Saxton, Sophia and Julia Conklin, May Bodine and Hattie Merriman. Charles M. Norton, of Leslie, formerly of this village, arrived in town on Monday afternoon and began shaking hands with his old friends. He went to Toledo from here to spend a few days before returning home. Miss Laura Erwin, of the Toledo telephone exchange, has gone to York state to visit relatives and take a rest from the arduous duties she has to perform. Her friends here will join the ENTERPRISE in wishing her a pleasant vacation. Wm. Baxter, the oldest merchant on Exchange Place, who has served customers for over 40 years and is to-day one of the liveliest men in town, although 72 years of age, has a pair of roller skates, and is making a success at skating, too.

Washtenaw County Items.

The Ann Arbor knights will not camp at Belle Isle. Nearly 300,000 pounds of wool have been marketed in Ann Arbor this season. Geo. W. Burnham has sold the Milan Journal to O. E. Hawkins, of Deerfield. A Mr. Kidder, of Saline, was kicked by a horse on Monday, and died almost instantly. The democratic county convention to nominate candidates for county officers, will be held about the middle of Sept. A man was run over by the cars three miles west of Chelsea, last Friday night, and was mangled beyond recognition. A Poland living in Ann Arbor was attacked by cholera morbus last Sunday morning, and died about 9 o'clock in the evening. The fair of the Washtenaw county agricultural and horticultural society will be held in Ann Arbor, September 30th, and October 1, 2 and 3. Christian Goessel was prostrated by the heat while threshing for Jacob Graf, in Bridgewater, on Monday. Dr. Taylor was summoned to administer relief. The youth of Saline are no longer to be deprived of a place for amusement and healthful exercise. They are to have a skating rink, in size 50x80 or 100 feet. A half bushel of green corn was left at the office of the Milan Leader, and after eating it the editor said the sample was good, and long for a square meal of the same. The freckles on the Milan girls faces are so large that the boys cannot get courage enough to ask to escort them home from church until they get away from the light of the new street lamps. John Gooding, of York, was accidentally shot last Friday morning by a friend who was visiting him. They were examining a revolver, supposing the cartridges were extracted, when the weapon was discharged, dangerously injuring him. We received news by telephone Tuesday that a brother of Mrs. Prof. Steere, of Ann Arbor, was drowned while bathing in Base lake that morning. He was a university student and his name was Buzzard. Grappling hooks were used to recover the body. Mr. Dunlap, of Detroit, was in the city on Tuesday making arrangements for an attack of the salvation army on this stronghold. If they come they will be a detachment from the body already in Detroit. A hallelujah barracks will be established and knee drill with the other quaint forms of the organization will be a common thing among us.—Ypsilantian. If they know when they are well off they will keep away from there, for if the Ypsi-ites ever get them into the bath tub that mineral water will wash all the goodness out of them.

THE COMMON COUNCIL.

MANCHESTER, Mich., August 19, 1884. Common council met in regular session. Called to order by the president. Roll called and all members answered by their names except trustees Kapp and Niste. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Committee on ways and means submitted their report, with a map of the assessing district and a detailed estimate of the cost of the proposed sewer on Washington street, which was upon motion accepted and committee discharged from further consideration of the subject. The street commissioner presented his report, which was upon motion referred to the committee on claims and accounts. Trustee Case moved the adoption of a resolution to file the map and estimates of the cost of the proposed sewer on Washington street with the clerk, as submitted by the committees on ways and means, which was upon motion accepted and adopted. A motion to adjourn prevailed. ED. E. ROOT, Village Clerk. It Does the Work. The Purinton Steamer, noticed in last week's issue, still attracts great attention. The farmers are all enthusiastic in praising its good qualities. It seems to be the opinion of everyone that it stands at the head of everything intended for cooking feed or for washing clothes. Read what one of the ladies of our town says of it: MANCHESTER, Mich., Aug. 18, '84. Having used one of Purinton's STEAMERS in my washing, I will say it was done with less labor than I ever saw done by any process before, and in less than one half the usual time. Washing and bleaching the clothes perfectly white and clean without any rubbing. I have never seen such perfect work done by any process with so little labor and in so short a time. POLLEY NISLE. The September Century contains important summer reading, as well as articles of unusual importance. The frontispiece has a refined interpretation of "Pancho," the heroine of a romantic story of Monterey. "A New England Winter" is concluded, and a novelette, "A Problematic Character," is continued. "From Coventry to Chester on wheels" recounts the experiences of the artist, Mr. Joseph Ponnell, during a trip on a tricycle in England. Prof. S. P. Langley, the well-known astronomer of the Alleghany Observatory, begins in this number a series of popular illustrated papers on the new astronomy. In the topics of the time will be found editorials on the political education of the people. An interesting feature of Open Letters is General R. E. Colston's account of his experiences in the Sudan, when as a member of the general staff of the Egyptian army he was the leader of the exploring caravans. Among the other open letters will be found "the clergy and political reform" by Rev. Dr. Taylor. We have also several contributions in "trick-a-brac."

Miscellaneous.

Ice Cream kept constantly on hand at the Bakery. One thousand cedar posts for sale cheap for cash, at C. W. Case's lumber yard. Teachers blank contracts and Assessors' order books, for sale at the ENTERPRISE office. Underhill & Rommel will sell Flour at $4.80 per barrel or 60 cents for a 25-lb sack. TO OUR CUSTOMERS: Ladies, we need every cent due us now to pay our debts and buy new goods. Will you please call and settle? and oblige Mary Foster & Co. Go to Baxter and buy your goods; he sells good healthy goods; leaves a poor sight for doctors. He sells good goods and sells them cheap; is getting on some nobby styles and don't take a back seat for anyone. He is a quarter-off all the time. Everybody go and see him, next door to the bank. Give him 10 per cent. above cost and take the goods. Those who have annually enjoyed attending the Sharon farmers' festival should not forget that the 29th inst. is the day set apart for holding the festival this year. The Manchester glee club and Grass Lake band will furnish the music, with C. M. Fellows, Hon. John Patchin and others will do the talking from the platform. Everybody will be allowed and expected to talk to whoever they wish, in order to make the occasion as enjoyable as possible. The Sharon people always set a good table, and it is expected that they will cut a watermelon this year. Take your lunch baskets and go, and have a good time. Having purchased a large stock of paper and material while in Chicago, which it will be necessary for us to pay for very soon, we have been compelled to send statements of account to many of our patrons, kindly asking them to assist us in raising the money. The amount due from each is small, but in the aggregate they make a snug sum, sufficient to meet the present demand, and we hope that all who can will try and call or forward the money to us at once. Of course we do not expect any of our friends to greatly inconvenience themselves, but if they can pay now it will be a great accommodation to us. BORN.
