

TECHUMSEH. Johnnie Orr is reported on the sick list. Rev. Leman Barnes and wife visited in Detroit the first of the week. J. T. English has opened a paint shop under the Sparks music house in Tecumseh. The A. R. has social last Tuesday evening was a success as well as amusing to those attending. Regular communication of Tecumseh lodge, No. 69, F. A. M. on Friday evening, May 14th. Work in the M. M. degree all visiting brothers are desired to attend. It is noted that Mr. P. Brown last Wednesday night on his way to stop at Lake Shore crossing but M. P. Brown last Wednesday and by accident he was being carried by and understood to land on terra firma, but instead pitched headlong, dislocating his right shoulder and was treated otherwise.

WAMPLERS LAKE. The carpenter has John Green's house nearly enclosed. Adrian parties have put some $50,000 fish in the lake this spring. Frank Brooks, of Oustad was visiting friends here last Saturday. The Hyndman's have built a very fine boat house near Moore's hotel. There is a little black bug destroying the buds on the grape vines in this section. We understand that there was a steam boat on the lake last Friday and Saturday from Adrian. Mrs. B. Dyer's farm there is a worm nearly like a corn maggot, that feeds on grass and wheat. We have not seen it anywhere else. Here others see it?

Washburn County Items. The Dutch measles has struck Tecumseh. Chelsea has an organized base ball club. The Saline high school will graduate three scholars this year. The Chelsea firemen will be closed about five weeks for repairs. A snapping turtle was caught in Michigan a few days ago which weighed 25 pounds. County clerk Robinson was presented with a fine merchandise pipe a few days ago that was made in Germany. Among the relics just received at the county pioneer rooms is a piece of marble from the Washington monument at Baltimore and a section of the first Atlantic cable.

Supervisor Breining, of Freedom, was the first to make his report of births and deaths to the county clerk. He reports 31 births, 8 deaths and 200 men subject to military duty. Two of Saline's ambitious young men are planning to start a business in Tecumseh. They have set out an onion patch of three and a half acres. There's richness. Saline Observer. The superintendent of the poor says that the number of inmates in the almshouse gradually diminishing there being 80 inmates there now, which is considerable less than last year at this time. It costs Ann Arbor city $700 to take care of its poor.

The Detroit Museum of Art holds its annual exhibition of pictures at Merrill hall, Detroit, beginning May 20 and continuing two weeks. For a first exhibition this promises to be one of rare distinction. Among the prominent exhibits will be Rembrandt's Peale's great picture, 'The Court of David,' painted some 50 years ago, and in its day, exhibited in most of the leading cities of the world. It alone will be worth a visit to the exhibition. But this is only one of many rare attractions. There will be a number of pictures there worth from $5,000 to $10,000 each.

The 19th annual meeting of Michigan Press Association will be held at Coldwater, June 1st and 2nd, and it is expected that there will be a large attendance. The citizens have generally consented to entertain the Michigan editors and their wives at their homes and we know that means having been a guest in the beautiful hotel city years ago. The business meeting of the association gives promise of being very interesting as one of the best writers are present. Petroleum W. Naylor, of the Toledo Blade, will read a paper on 'Journalism in Michigan.' Wednesday afternoon, the 2nd will be devoted to sight seeing, and we believe that the lovers of art will be amply repaid for the trip to Coldwater by viewing the famous Lewis collection of paintings and statuary. At 10:30 p. m. of Wednesday evening take the Lake Shore train for Niagara Falls where they will arrive at about 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon where they will remain two days, leaving morning when they will return home by way of the Michigan Central, through Canada.

David Woodward, the Clinton horticulturist, has 2,000 peach trees literally covered with blossoms, and he is looking for a splendid crop of the fruit. Adrian Times.

SOUTHERN WASHTEAW FARMERS CLUB. Secretary's Report. The May meeting of the club was held at the residence of John G. English, May 7th. It was a beautiful day which seems to have been appreciated by the members as the attendance was large. The meeting was called to order by the president and minutes read and approved.

As this was the time for the annual election of officers, the same was discussed and the excellent of the papers read, fully made up the deficiency. First was a paper by Mrs. F. Spafard in answer to a question asked at a former meeting, 'Is a wife responsible for her husband's failures?' To do this proper justice in a condensed report is simply impossible and we would like to see it printed in full. This was followed by a club history in verse by Bert English, which served the triple purpose of showing the ingenuity and perseverance of the writer and of amusing the audience.

On Sunday, May 30th, at 2:30 P. M. Rev. J. M. Getchell will preach a memorial sermon at the universalist church. The A. R. boys and the other ex-soldiers are expected to be present. The boys ran out the fire engine on Friday night, which was used for the purpose of showing the ingenuity and perseverance of the writer and of amusing the audience.

Our stock dealers and farmer readers should remember that A. Rejley has an auctioneer in Hillsdale called on the fair grounds in Jackson next Thursday afternoon, May 20th, as shown by the advertisement in another column. A number of members of Manchester Lodge, F. & A. M., intend to visit Tecumseh on Monday night. Work in the 3rd degree will be the attraction and as the Tecumseh boys always 'set 'em up' nicely no doubt they will have a pleasant time.

ROCKING-CHAIRS.

A Singular Deduction.—The Rocking-Chair Habit a Precursor of Divorce.

The Philadelphia Press is responsible for the following libel on a household necessity.

I believe that the alarming increase of divorce in this country during the past two or three years is due in a great measure to the rocking-chair habit.

Men may well rise up in alarm and look about them for means to stifle the terrible evil for the rocking-chair habit has insidiously fastened its fangs upon the women of our country.

A few years ago they were content with one plain, unpretentious rocking chair, but now, alas, the indulgent husband looks aglow upon his first annual expenditure for rocking-chairs, and then goes and makes an assignment.

I knew a lovely bride who was endowed with many graces of mind and person and all the charms of tender, confiding womanhood; she was the idol of a fond husband, the pride of tender parents, and the charm of a wide circle of tried and true friends.

She began with just one rocking-chair. Even the second caused no alarm. Perhaps the fond and indulgent husband may have encouraged her habit thus far, and thus unconsciously helped the one dearest to him on earth to that course which could have but one ending.

From the second rocking-chair the way is easy to the third, the fourth, the fifth, and even to the sixth. And yet when this woman possessed six rocking-chairs her friends did not seem to realize her danger. They may have been blinded by affection.

When this fair young wife had a dozen rocking-chairs, and still craved for more, her husband began gently to remonstrate with her, but he was too late. The habit had become too firmly fixed.

After one or two feeble efforts to reform she gave up in despair and rushed on in her mad career of buying rocking-chairs. All day long she hung about the furniture stores. She bought little and big rocking-chairs, new-fashioned and old-fashioned rocking-chairs, upholstered and hard-bottomed rocking-chairs, camp and wicker rocking-chairs.

She went on until the furniture store she visited was obliged to close. Her husband one day made a collection of rocking-chairs of every size, style, and condition.

A sorrow-stricken but patient comrade came from the lodge at midnight to meet a large rocking-chair which would not fit at his door and knock him and fall over upon him.

Each one as he would meet it would knock a fresh piece of bark from one of her shins or break a toe that was tramped earlier in the battle, and then throw him violently to the ground.

Poor, deluded woman! With his shins barked in thirteen places and some twenty other wounds and contusions on various parts of his person, the husband would be too much for the rocking chair.

Such scenes could lead to but one ending. Love could not continue to abide amid such occurrences. At first there were mere utterances, then came more emphatic language, and finally separation and divorce.

There is nothing that will disrupt a home so quickly as a tall, able-bodied rocking chair, standing fair in a man's way when he is hunting for his bed or something in the dark and the tall, able-bodied rocking chair never stands elsewhere than in a man's way when he is hunting for anything in the dark.

MISSING LINKS. Massachusetts has spent $18,000,000 in soldiers' aid since 1861. A state agricultural society, composed entirely of colored men, has been formed in Arkansas.

Immoral Martinique. The island of Martinique is forty-three miles in length, thirteen miles in width, and contains about 24,000 acres, in all, of which a little over 800,000 acres are under cultivation.

A Dangerous Insect. A gentleman who has long lived in India writes: "There has been considerable talk in a quiet way in fashionable circles in Boston over the failure of a lady member to keep faith in half a hundred little things which pertain and annoy those most concerned."

Line cartridges are coming into use for blasting purposes. A hole is bored, the line cartridge inserted and water is poured over it.

In a railway car, packed full, M. Z., who has got into a seat facing the engine, asks his opposite neighbor to change with him.

Want Column. Advertisement in this column under this heading will be inserted for one cent a word for each insertion.

The evolution of the tomato is going on in a remarkable way. Not many years ago the fruit was mostly skin and seeds, but the newer varieties are all most solid pulp, with very few seeds.

One Good Word for the Rat. There are some who say "Kill the rat. Why then, if it is so bad, why do you not kill it?"

A Romance, and Both are Dead. "I can not give you the names of the parties," said a gentleman to the Washington correspondent of the New York Telegram.

SELL THE GOODS. Guitars, Violins, Banjos, Accordions, Etc. at reduced prices.
