Farmers' Meeting.

The Agricultural Society of this county will hold its annual meeting on the 24th inst. in this town. The society is having a very successful season this year, and the members present a very creditable appearance. The officers of the society are all well known and respected farmers, and it is expected that the meeting will be a great success.

Farmers' Market.

The farmers' market is in full swing, and the produce is abundant. There is a large supply of grain, potatoes, and vegetables, and the prices are very reasonable. The market is well attended, and the farmers are doing a good business.
