The demand for labor today has created a situation where the choice between work and leisure is more difficult than ever. The rise in wages and the availability of goods have increased the standard of living for many, but also increased the pressure to work longer hours.

LEISURE IN CULTIVATION OF OATS

To ensure a good crop of oats, it is important to plant them in the fall when the weather is cool and the soil is moist. The oats should be planted at a depth of 1 to 2 inches, and spaced 3 to 4 inches apart. The ideal time for planting is when the soil temperature is between 55 and 60 degrees Fahrenheit.
