THE AVENUE COW.

Great developments in New England since the last century, in which the population and extent of the community were combined with the growth of the state. The state's population is now over 1,000,000, and the area is nearly 200,000 square miles. The state has been rapidly developing, and is now one of the most important states in the union.

BUSINESS ROMANCE.

When Miss Magnolia, commonly called "Miss Magnolia," and Mr. George, commonly called "Mr. George," got engaged to be married, little did they think what a problem they were about to face. They lived in a small town, and had never before been involved in any kind of a business venture. They were both very young, and had never had any experience in business.

WANT COLUMN.

Dear Miss Magnolia,

I am writing this letter to express my admiration for your courage in entering into business. It is a great step for a young woman, and I am very much impressed with your determination.

Yours very truly,

Mr. George

BLOOD OR BUSINESS.

Gore or Greenbacks

Thus Qua! Qua! Qua!

The great political battle of the century is on, and the issue is whether the country shall have Blood or Business. The advocates of Blood are for the preservation of the human race, while the advocates of Business are for the advancement of society. The latter are the true friends of the country, and will make it strong and prosperous.
