IN THE WOODS.

AN ENGAGEMENT FROM A PLEASANT EXPERIENCE.

A letter from a young man about to start on the Edwardian adventure of a lifetime.

The young man is determined to explore the wilds of the North Woods, Michigan, and enjoys the thrill of the unknown. He plans to travel by train to his destination and then embrace the environment fully.

THE WEEK'S NEWS.

AN EASTERN MAN ABANDONS "OLD HOMESTEAD." One of Chicago's most distinguished real estate manufacturers has instructed his broker to sell his farm in Michigan, and the proceeds will be used to invest in business ventures in the city. The man has grown frustrated with the isolation of rural life and hopes to make his fortune elsewhere.

THE MURDERER.

The trial of a woman accused of murder has taken a surprising turn. The prosecution charges that the woman killed her husband in a fit of rage, while the defense argues that she was forced to act out of self-defense.

STATE NEWS CORRESPONDENTS:

First reports of the Quaker Peninsula fire have been received, and it is feared that the situation may become critical. The fire has spread rapidly, and efforts are being made to contain it before it reaches the nearby towns.

THE CATTLE.

Reports of the cattle rustling case continue to evolve. The main suspect, a known criminal, has been arrested, but his associates remain at large. The authorities are working tirelessly to bring the rustlers to justice.
