THE CITY OF DAMASCUS

B 138904

The story of the capital of Syria is an ancient one, its history stretching back to the earliest times of recorded human civilization. It was first mentioned in the annals of the ancient Near East as a city of great importance, with a long and illustrious past. The city has been the site of numerous battles and sieges, each leaving its mark on the city's rich cultural heritage.

Located on the Euphrates River, Damascus has been a strategic point for trade and transportation, connecting the East and West throughout history. It has been ruled by many different empires, including the Romans, Byzantine, Arab, Mameluke, Ottoman, and Syrian Arab Republic.

Damascus is known for its beautiful old town with narrow streets and traditional architecture, including mosques, madrasas, and old mansions. The city is rich in history, art, and culture, with many museums and historical sites attracting tourists from all over the world.

KEMPFF DRY GOODS CO.

MANCHESTER, MICH.

GENTLEMEN-

We are going out of the Dry Goods business and on January 1, 1891, our firm will be dissolved. We offer for sale our entire stock of Dry Goods, Underwear, Blankets, etc.

We invite you to come in and secure some of the bargains we shall offer to the large trade.

Yours truly,

ALLEN, SHELDON & CO.

The above firm put on the market last week their entire stock of Dry Goods and, being a cash buyer and always looking for bargains, we were there and bought very largely of Dry Goods, Underwear, Hosiery, Blankets, etc., and will give the public the benefit of our purchases during the month of December, 1890.

DON'T MISS THIS SALE!

To the Rev. Mr. A. B. Davis,

Dear Sir:

I was very much interested in your letter of the 3rd and am glad to know that you are as well informed as I am. The subject of our conversation is of great importance and one that has been the subject of much discussion in recent years.

Yours truly,

Three Weeks For 10 cents

Send Ten Cents for a trial subscription, and we will send you three numbers, including our CHRISTMAS NUMBER, with an article cover, the Post Calendar Announcement for 1897, with a painting by J. G. Ferris.

These three numbers cover the following:

(1) Mrs. A. B. Davis's new serial, "The Beard of Turner." - Mrs. Davis is the author of that most successful novel, "The Cylinder," and her Mrs. Barr will write exclusively for The Ladies.

(2) "How George Bencrofts" section of "The Battle of Lake Erie," illustrated.

(3) "Margaret Delany's" last story, "To What End?"

(4) James Russell Lowell's poem, "My Book," written expressly for The Ledger, beautifully illustrated by W. H. Dobbins, and issued as a PAGE SOUVENIR SUPPLEMENT.

(5) "Mrs. A. B. Davis Smith" starts a series of articles giving very valuable information to young teachers.

(7) "Alfred Hammil's" "Harriet Bannister's Wife," by Thompson and "George Bencrofts" "Great Senators."”

(8) James Parton's "M. W. Hazeltine" and Oliver Dyer (author of "Great Senators") contribute articles of interest.
