TWO DREAMS.
One night I went to fairyland,
By fays and elves attended,
With whimsy sprites on my hand—
Ah, no, the scene was splendid,
I was wry when I woke,
And found the dream was ended.
Another night I drove astray
Through fields that were not true,
With a being being in my train,
And I would dream that dream again.
For an amount of time I dream,
—Josephine Poland in Harper's Young People.

COL BENTHAM'S REVENGE
Col. Bentham had been perplexed. He had not felt quite sure whether he was in love or not. He had had a number of letters from her, but only obeying the motive which had made him adopt Eva Tibidi, educate her in Europe, give her that training of her voice which had equipped her (in case opportunity were given for success on the stage) and bring her finally to live in his home in New York. This motive was but only obeying the motive which had made him adopt Eva Tibidi, educate her in Europe, give her that training of her voice which had equipped her (in case opportunity were given for success on the stage) and bring her finally to live in his home in New York.

PROFESSOR VATECH'S Michigan university, claims to have discovered five poisons which are the causes of typhoid fever and cholera infection. The poisons are called typhoid fever lymph which he says ought to cure, if the Koch principle is correct. How far will this craze extend for injecting poisons to counteract other poisons?

HE WON HIS BET.
But it was a daring scheme. He had bet that he could visit a number of fashionable reception on a single afternoon and carry off 500 worth of goods. He had bet that he could visit a number of fashionable reception on a single afternoon and carry off 500 worth of goods.

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES.

Sunday will be easter. The singing school is a great success. Township election on Monday April 6th. Don't forget us when you want election printing. Easter dance on Monday evening at Arbeiter hall. The boys continue to pull some fine bass from the pond. Wm. Burtless is shipping nine car loads of wheat and oats this week. The Weather-Scully suit has been adjourned until the 9th of April. Easter services will be held at St. Mary's church on Sunday morning. Supt. Whitely's little car came down here on the Ypsil. branch on Tuesday. Special easter services will be held at the M. E. church on Sunday morning. The next meeting of the council will be held on Wednesday evening April 1st. Dr. Kapp sold two car loads of black walnut lumber to a Buffalo-man on Tuesday. Richard Green bought the piece of land sold by the Taby estate at auction on Monday for $390. The pay-master of the Lake Shore railway distributed dollars among the workmen on Saturday last. There will be a regular meeting of Adoniram council No. 24 R. & S. M. on Tuesday evening next. There will be a special meeting of Manchester lodge F. & A. M. on Monday evening next for work in the F. C. degree. The good templars have made arrangements to hold their meetings in Odd Fellows' hall, over Miss Pfister's millinery rooms. Sunday evening the Epworth league will hold special easter services at the M. E. church, consisting of songs, responsive reading and recitations. Master masons of this village were invited to attend a meeting of Tecumseh lodge F. & A. M. this evening, and a number accepted the invitation. A lady was in town yesterday representing the Redpath lyceum bureau and trying to make arrangements for another concert troupe to come here, but failed. It is rumored that the democratic ticket of this township will be headed by the familiar name of H. Burch, and the republican ticket by that of Wm. Burtless. The German workmen's benevolent society will give the annual easter ball at their hall in this village on Monday night the 30th. Good music, everybody invited and refreshments. They have not given a ball in some time and will probably have a good attendance. A machinist from Bay City was in town on Saturday last prospecting with a view of starting a shop here. John Koch, Mr. Holt and others gave him encouragement that if he would locate here they would assist him in starting and give him their work. F. F. Tucker, who has been working the Porter Brower farm, having concluded to move to Manchester, will sell his stock and farm tools at auction, on the place, one-half mile south of L. D. Watkins, on Saturday April 4th, at 10 o'clock a. m. A. C. Aylesworth auctioneer. We understand that two of our business men on their way home from Adrian a few nights since went into the baggage car to smoke and became so lost to worldly things that the train reached Napoleon before they were conscious of their whereabouts. The morning train brought them safely home. We call the attention of our lady readers to the change of advertisement of Miss Pfister, the milliner, who will have her opening of spring styles of millinery on Tuesday and Wednesday April 7th and 8th. Be sure to give her a call: you will find her in the brick store next door east of Lynch & Co's. On Wednesday April 1st a convention held under the auspices of the state Sunday school association will be held at the baptist church in this village beginning at 2 o'clock. M. H. Reynolds, the general secretary and superintendent of the work, will speak both afternoon and evening. All people interested in Sunday school work are earnestly requested to be present. The last of the series of socials held by the masonic fraternity of this village was held last Friday evening, and there were nearly 150 people in attendance. The literary part was of the usual high order, but the music-part far exceeded anything heretofore attempted. Mrs. K. C. Miller of Toledo and Miss Coward of Jackson sang so sweetly that they took the house by storm and were obliged to respond to numerous encores. The mud, oh the horrible mud; you stick your foot in it with a dull sickening thud. It's worse, a big sight, on our streets, docherknow, than nine or ten feet of the beautiful snow. But we're all in, and there's no getting clearer, less you invent a machine so awfully queer, that you'll sail through the air on the wings of the wind, to laugh at the dust you've left behind. And e'en then you are apt to slip a cog, and come down, slap dash, in the cold nasty bog.

PERSONAL. Howard Macomber was in town over Sunday. Mrs. J. Rentz of Blasfield visited Miss Pfister over Sunday. J. H. Hollis arrived home from Iowa on Monday morning. W. C. Kirchgessner is clerking in a drug store in Detroit. Mrs. N. W. Edgar visited in Jackson from Friday until Monday. Mrs. Armstrong entertained the baptist ladies' society this afternoon. B. W. Amsden will spend Sunday with his parents at Ypsilanti. Miss Bradner of Clinton is now here in charge of the new millinery store. Rev. Shier of Morenci passed through here on Monday on his way to Ypsilanti. Mrs. Dr. White of Clinton was in town on Monday having some dental work done. Mrs. R. C. Miller of Toledo visited her parents, Mr. & Mrs. S. H. Perkins, last week. Miss Jennie Eckler will go to Jackson on Saturday to visit with friends until Monday. Mr. & Mrs. N. W. Holt entertained Miss Coward of Jackson last Friday and Saturday. Mrs. J. M. Lazell went to Ypsilanti on Saturday, to visit a few days with her daughter. Rev. Renshaw went to Hillsdale this morning as delegate to a Sunday school convention. Addis Berger of Grass Lake was in town on Sunday, on his way to Tecumseh to visit friends. A. F. Freeman is at the county seat this week, having cases in the probate and circuit courts. Miss Anna Sheckel, cashier in King's bank at Brooklyn, visited at J. H. King's over Sunday. Miss Minnie Retan, a teacher in the Weston schools, is spending her vacation visiting at Rev. Cope's. B. F. Wade drove to Ann Arbor on Sunday to attend the funeral of his father-in-law, Edward Burns. Frank and John Spafard and T. J. Farrell went to Ann Arbor on Tuesday as witnesses in the Kern divorce case. Mrs. B. W. Amsden and Mrs. Dr. E. M. Conklin went to Brooklyn Saturday to attend easter services on Sunday at the episcopal church there. Fred H. Blosser of the ENTERPRISE went to Ann Arbor last Friday to visit the Manchester boys who attend the university, returning on Monday. George Kempf of Chelsea is in town this week and made arrangements to have the Harvard male quartette sing at Chelsea on Friday evening, April 3d. Lewis Freeman of Chelsea visited friends in town over Sunday. He is studying hard to pass an examination before the state board of pharmacists. Mrs. Lavina Baldwin, aunt of Mrs. E. Jaynes, is visiting her. She is 75 years of age and has just completed and presented to her a quilt containing 1669 pieces. The Tecumseh Herald says, "Rev. J. M. Getchell has accepted a call from the universalist church at Marshall and will move his family to that city the first of April." Miss Ella Smith, the music teacher, was taken sick here on Friday last and returned to Clinton, on the Saturday morning train. She was not able to come here this week. Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Rehffuss gave a reception at their residence on Sunday in honor of their son Willie, who was confirmed at Emanuel's church. There was a large company present. Prof. James N. Martin of the university came here last Saturday in consultation with Dr. E. M. Conklin in the case of Mrs. John Jackson, who is suffering from cancer. He sustained Dr. Conklin in his treatment of the case. The Kern divorce case was heard before Judge Kinne at Ann Arbor yesterday. A. J. Waters and E. B. Norris were attorneys for Mrs. Kern and A. F. Freeman for Mr. Kern. The divorce was granted with $600 alimony and the household goods. James Waters Esq. went to Jackson on Sunday afternoon in order to be ready at the opening of circuit court to try the Henne suit. We learn that after a sharp contest he won the case, and received a verdict for $150 and costs. James is getting to the front. We understand that the case of the treasurer of Grass Lake against the estate of Anna Osborn, deceased, has been decided against the treasurer. It seems that when deceased became incompetent and a guardian was appointed by the probate judge, she was a resident of this village and owned a home here. She was taken care of by her sons, W. B. Osborn of Sharon and George Osborn of Grass Lake, and while at Grass Lake the supervisor assessed her on $10,000, which sum she was supposed to be worth. The taxes were paid the first year but she died before the time of collecting the second year and the claim came before the commissioners who refused to allow it. A. F. Freeman was engaged by the estate and he succeeded in showing that her estate was not assessable in Jackson county.

Death of Charles Hollis. Grim visaged death has once more invaded our village and plucked from our midst one of our most promising young men, Charles W. Hollis, who departed from this life after a brief but painful illness from congestion of the brain, on Tuesday March 24th. Charley was a dutiful son and faithful companion, intellectually bright, he was a close student and trustworthy in every respect. Since leaving our union school through choice, he had taught school and clerked in drug stores to assist in paying his way through life. He entered the pharmacy department of the university and after two years graduated and received a diploma and certificate from the state board in 1890. His father who is a commercial traveler encouraged him in selecting the medical profession for his life's work and he entered that department of the university last October and had pursued his studies with diligence, striving to keep near the head of his class. He worked early and late, regarding not the advice of his classmates who begged him to be more careful of his health, until finally almost from sheer exhaustion of the vital forces he gave heed to the advice of his physician and came home on Friday the 13th. Dr. Iddings was called the day following, and finding his case a serious one from the first, gave much of his time to it. Last Saturday Dr. Martin of the university was called in consultation but could suggest nothing different from what Dr. Iddings was doing. He was given the best of care and attention, his mother and sister being at his bedside almost constantly and were assisted by kind neighbors and friends. Mr. Hollis arrived home from Iowa on Monday morning but Charley was unconscious and did not recognize his father and on Tuesday afternoon about 2 o'clock the fatal fever terminated his earthly existence, resting a gloom over the whole community, for Charley was beloved by all. Multitudes of friends offer consolation and words of sympathy to the almost heart-broken parents and sister. Relatives of the family are expected from abroad and the funeral will be held at the Methodist church on Saturday at 1 o'clock. Rev. Cope officiating. Students of the medical department and other friends and a quartette from the university will attend the services. School Items. Vacation from March 27 to April 6. Term examinations in all departments today and tomorrow. Visit the ward school! you can find much to interest you there. There will be an unusually large class in book-keeping next term. Several applications for entrance next term have been made by non-resident pupils. Miss Julia Conklin entertained the society of the grammar room at her home on Thursday evening last. Mrs. Dr. Hull of Clayton gave some recitations before the pupils last Tuesday. She is endeavoring to organize a class in elocution. The alpha sigma held the last social of the season at the presbyterian-church parlors on Monday evening and had a pleasant time. "Mothers' day" was celebrated in the school chapel by the first and second primary departments last Friday afternoon. The pupils interested invited their parents and friends and the room was well filled. Owing to the facts that the primaries have so recently presented a programme and that some of the other departments desire closing exercises in their own rooms, there will be no "badge day" exercises in the chapel. The badges will be distributed in each room separately. Granite Works. A prominent and growing industry of Clinton, which was first established in our village in 1873, is the Clinton steam granite and marble works, situated on Church street, west of railroad. It is fitted up with the latest improved machinery for the manufacture of granite and marble monuments, having all the modern appliances for the expeditious working of granite from the rough block, and is today one of the largest and most completely equipped plants of the kind in southern Michigan. The works including show room, steam polishing mill and granite cutting sheds, occupy a floor space of over 1,900 square feet. The class of work sent out from this establishment has been such as to place it in the front rank of fine monumental work in Michigan. S. F. Marsteller, proprietor of the above works, came to us equipped with large experience in the cities of the south and east in this particular line of trade. A visitor, while in the city, will be amply repaid by a call at the works and an examination of the display of finished work, consisting of over 150 monuments and tablets of every style and pattern. Clinton Local. The substantial and elegant slabs and shafts of marble and granite which mark the silent resting place of departed friends in Oak Grove cemetery attest the truth of the above and Mr. Marsteller is a gentleman on whose word implicit confidence can be placed. Dr. D. Hyndman and George Swezey of Norvell came here last evening to attend a meeting of Meridian chapter R. A. M.

SHARON. On Friday evening April 10th there will be a literary social at the M. E. church. A shadow social will be held at the residence of E. Rhodes in north Sharon on Friday evening April 3rd. Each lady will prepare a box lunch for two. BRIDGEWATER. A young daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Philip Blum is quite sick. Mrs. Will Buichner and Mrs. J. Kaiser of Adrian are guests of Mr. & Mrs. X. Baur. Buel Johnson accompanied by a cousin from Ft. Wayne, visited in Ridgeway last week. Mrs. Thos. Russell came here from Napoleon Saturday to see her sister, Mrs. H. Brown, who is quite sick. FREEDOM. Democratic caucus will be held April 24. Mr. & Mrs. George Nordman and little daughter Hazel spent Sunday here. Henry Vogel, a student at the tri-state college at Toledo, is visiting his mother this week. Miss Anna Armstrong of Manchester was here a few days last week visiting her sister, Mrs. L. Reno. Miss Anna Guinan has returned from the Brooklyn school and will attend a teachers' examination at Ypsilanti on Friday. BRIDGEWATER STATION. Mrs. C. Witmeier is reported quite sick. Theodore Schmid is home visiting his parents for a week. Rev. F. Schlesinger of Saline township is on a visit with friends in Indiana. St. Jacob's church of Saline township will dedicate a new organ easter Monday. Mrs. Reyer and daughter Julia of Ann Arbor visited over Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Rheinfrank. Confirmation was held at the different protestant churches in this vicinity last Sunday. 28 children were confirmed at Bethel's church, Freedom. IRON CREEK. J. E. Holmes has been on the sick list for some time. The farmers' club meets at J. P. Lapham's on Friday, April 3d. Porter Brower is expecting to move back on his farm this spring. Revival meetings are being held at the F. B. church this week. Miss Kate Chadwick of Montcalm county is a visitor at W. E. Pease's. Eugene Furguson will work the Hall farm, on section 23, this season. Henry Matteson from Ohio will assist his cousin, B. F. Matteson, with his farm work this summer. A portion of the Raby estate was sold at administrator's sale last Monday, Richard Green being the highest bidder at $390. WATKINS' STATION. Julian Matison is drawing lumber to repair his house. Mrs. Thomas Coulson has moved her family to Norvell. Miss Louisa King of Adrian is at Mrs. James Fay's this spring. Henry Horning has gone to Jackson to help his brother build a barn. Mr. & Mrs. John Horning entertained a large number of friends on Wednesday last. Miss Nellie Liman closed a successful term of school on Friday last in district No. 6. Miss Kate Chadwick of Ionia county visited Mrs. Edmund Dorr a few days last week. Miss Alice Ladd of Brooklyn visited her grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. James Fay, the past week. Miss Bessie Melenkamp of Sharon was the guest of Miss Jennie Phillips, at John Horning's, the past week. Miss Della Green returned home from Hillsdale college on Friday last, sick with scarlet fever, but at this writing is on the gain. WAMPLER'S LAKE. The ice is again all out of the lakes. John Roberts moved to Reading last Friday. Miss Blanche Moore visited relatives in Onsted over Sunday. Chas. Kreitner of Manchester was in this vicinity on Monday. Having sold my stock of Millinery to Miss Mamie Bradner, I wish to extend my thanks to the ladies of Manchester and vicinity for their patronage. I will remain with Miss Bradner this spring where I will be pleased to see all my old customers and any others in need of Spring and Summer millinery. Respectfully, MRS. GEO. KAY. Having purchased Mrs. Kay's old and established Millinery Stand and also a fine line of Spring and Summer Millinery, I will be pleased to have the Ladies of Manchester and vicinity call and examine my stock and get prices before purchasing elsewhere. Very Respectfully, MAMIE BRADNER. Obituary. Sarah C. Conklin was born in Orange Co., N. Y., April 15th 1822; was married to Chas. Thorne of Monroe, Orange Co., N. Y., and after residing there for nine years upon a farm they sold their worldly possessions and moved to Manchester, Michigan, and located upon the farm where they have both passed to the unseen world. The husband died in 1869, leaving a family of nine children, the youngest only four months old. Being in humble circumstances her task was a difficult one and how well she succeeded is well known to all. The eldest daughter died in March 1874 and the youngest in March 1890. Three sons and one daughter reside in Bay City, one daughter is a teacher in the Manistee union school, and one daughter resides at the old home. Thomas is a railway postal clerk, but manages the farm as usual and has done his part to keep the family together and give them an education. Mrs. Thorne had a very cheerful disposition and always looked upon the bright side of everything, even in the hour of distress. She was never known to complain. In the fall of 1889 she made a visit to the home of her childhood. Returning home in the winter she was stricken down with nervous prostration and after a lingering illness of more than a year she passed quietly and peacefully away. She was a member of the universalist church and lived a pure and blameless life. She was ever ready and willing to lend a helping hand in sickness. She was a great lover of flowers, which always make a home look bright and cheerful. Her children will have pleasant recollections of one who was always good, kind and true. The services were held at her late home, Rev. W. L. Gibbs officiating. Died. MILLER.—In Freedom, Saturday March 22d, 1891, of rheumatism, John Miller, aged 43 years. The Eiffel tower was one of the greatest attractions at the Paris exposition. Chicago, of course, is not to be outdone by any foreign capital and no one familiar with the spirit of its people will be surprised to hear that our tower is to be a good deal higher than the Frenchman's.

PERHAPS HE WAS PREJUDICED, HOWEVER.

A Very Disagreeable Story as Told by a Romanticist to an Impassioned Newspaper Writer—A Bad Cowboy.

Perhaps I am naturally prejudiced against Indians, but it is my opinion that it is mighty hard to make a white man out of an Indian.

A party of fifteen went over the prairie at a hard gallop the next day. Winchester across their saddles and carefully loaded colts in their belts.

Well, when they got back to the ranch he got a collar and fastened it on her neck and tied her so she could not escape.

His heart softened in the end, and one day he took off the collar and told her to go.

It was less than six months after this that the devil came down on us again. He was in the cabin with her, sitting before the fire.

It became the solemn duty of a Texas judge to pass sentence on an aged man named George Bliss for stealing a hog.

When a horse stops and proposes to turn around, says a trainer, "don't give the turn, but give him a quiet, horizontal turn so as to turn him further around than he intended to go."

will upset his calculations, and he will go quietly on without much ado. If six turns will not do him twenty, in fact, if he will keep on turning to your rein, you are sure to conquer.

CONCERNING THE DIET.

What You Eat Matters Little if You Eat Certain Results.

The human system requires a certain quantity of carbon and of nitrogen to keep up an equilibrium of health.

One thousand grains of meat contain about 100 grains of carbon and 300 of nitrogen.

Beef and mutton usually contain 15 per cent of carbonaceous and 20 per cent of nitrogenous material.

ABOUT AMERICAN HARES.

BETTER KNOWN AS RABBITS WHEN THEY ARE WILD.

The Varieties and Their History—The Most Persecuted of Animals—Rabbit Dogs—For Food in Hairs—Cannot Run Long.

The word rabbit is like the word buffalo, it is a misnomer. Properly speaking, there are no rabbits in this country.

But to return to our American species of the "Lepus." The one we are familiar with is the so-called gray rabbit, wood rabbit, cottontail, or, properly speaking, the wood hare.

A rabbit can not run long, although as a rule they can outrun any dog in a straight race.

When feeding the rabbit hops, but when thoroughly frightened, it can leap a distance of fifteen feet.

Much of the injury to fruit trees charged by farmers to rabbits is the work of field mice.

According to the views of a well known local dog fancier there are four species of dogs whose instinct teaches them to hunt rabbits or hares.
