A COWBOY COACHMAN.

Mr. Vayvache, the president of the Board of Trade, II., was one of the large delegations that went out to see the cowboys, and when he asked them what they did with the kind of the horse that he had seen in his time, they said: "We can't afford to have our horses too fine. The cattle are all the same, and the horses, too. The difference is that the cattle are the best for the time being, and the horses are the worst for the time being." Mr. Vayvache said: "That's the way it is. I remember when I was a boy, my father used to say: 'You can't have too much of a good thing.'" "That's the way it is. I remember when I was a boy, my father used to say: 'You can't have too much of a good thing.'"

INTRODUCED AND GOSPEL.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, May 18, 1891.

The President of the United States, Mr. Washington, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, and was received with great enthusiasm by the people. The President is in excellent health, and is expected to return to Washington on the 22d of this month.

The President's speech was delivered in the Senate Chamber, and was received with applause. He said: "I have been in the United States for some time, and I am delighted to find that the people are as enthusiastic as ever. I am sure that the country is going to do well, and that we shall be able to carry out the work that is before us." He then proceeded to discuss the various questions that had come before him, and concluded with the hope that the people would continue to support him in his work.

The President's speech was listened to with great attention, and was received with applause. He then took his seat in the Senate Chamber, and was received with great enthusiasm by the people. The President is in excellent health, and is expected to return to Washington on the 22d of this month.

HE WAS REASONABLE

A few weeks before Christmas, when milk was 25 cents a gallon and eggs 25 cents a dozen, the time may have been short enough to have been in the habit of looking to the fact that all the things we eat and drink are not expensive, but now I am afraid that the time may not have been enough to have done it.
